THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S MEETING OF THE ALMA MATER SOCIETY.

The Students to Make the Convocation Lively—The Campus Question—Financial Report of Journal and Y.M.C.A. Handbook.

By Our Queen's Correspondent:

The first meeting of the Alma Mater Society for this season was held Saturday evening, in convocation hall. A large number of students were present, with Vice-President J. B. Sterling, B.A., in the chair. In the absence of the secretary, Philip MacDonald was appointed to act as secretary pro tem, and D. C. Ramsay, M.A., as critic.

A communication from Dean Lavelle, asking the co-operation of the society in the matter of making the fall convocation a success, was received. It was decided that a committee from each faculty be appointed to act in the matter, together with the vice-president and members of the executive of the Alma Mater. At this juncture it was reported that science had already chosen its committee, composed of the following: Messrs. Drury, Malloch, Carmichael, Uglow and Cameron.

B. C. Ramsay, M.A., introduced a notice of motion to the effect that at the next meeting of the society the secretary of the athletic association should supply as much information as possible with regard to the attitude of that body concerning the recently curtailed campus. This notice evoked much enthusiasm, and there promises to be a large turnout next Saturday evening to hear the report.

Sliiter are making rapid headway.

Wolves Beat Cubs.

The third game in the juvenile city rugby league was played Saturday morning before a very large crowd. The Wolves and the Cubs were the opposing teams and good football was the order of the day. The Wolves played the better game, passing more and kicking to advantage. The Cubs were without the services of their star man, O'Neil, who was injured in their last game with the Tigers. This weakened the Cubs to a large extent. The Wolves won by a score of 17 to 0.

BORDEN'S VISITS

Will Be to Halifax, Montreal and Quebec.

Special to the Whig.—R. J. Borden, towards the end of the week, will visit Halifax, Montreal and Quebec. He may also visit Toronto before long.

While on the way to Europe, George Taylor, M.P., the veteran whip of the conservative party, was taken seriously ill on the steamer and has been under treatment in England. Mr. Borden has got a cable saying he is improving rapidly.

Pictures Taken; Death Came.

Amesbury, Mass., Oct. 4.—A week ago Miss Bella Bailey took a boy friend's picture with her camera; the next day he died. Yesterday the girl started for Lake Gardiner to take pictures of Joseph and Alfred Mangham. As she left home she told her mother she hoped the Mangham boys would not die after she had taken their pictures. The brothers paddled out on the lake and Miss Bailey snapped their pictures; a minute later their canoe upset and both boys sank 100 feet from shore.

A husband was at the police court, this morning, to see the magistrate about his wife, who was going around with other women. He complained about the offence before, but it had had no effect on his better half, who still pleases herself. The man wants his children placed in an institution where they will be properly looked after.

LAD SHOT IN THE FOOT.

The Bullet Was Removed With Aid of X-Ray.

On Saturday afternoon Raymond Bennett, a young lad living on University avenue, met with an accident at Barrieffield, while out with several companions. The lads had a twenty-two calibre rifle, and in fooling with it the gun went off and a bullet landed in young Bennett's foot. The injured lad was brought to the general hospital and an X-ray's examination made of the injured member. On Sunday the bullet was removed.

WHEEL RAN OVER HER.

A seven-year-old girl named Pearl Vanness, daughter of Z. Vanness, 277 Earl street, narrowly escaped very serious injury this morning. She was trying to jump on one of the shed-don rigs going up Brock street, and when near Mrs. Mitchell's store she fell off, the rear wheel passing over her right leg. The youngster was picked up and carried into Mrs. Mitchell's and Dr. Hanley was summoned to attend her. Upon examination it was found that the leg, although not broken, was seriously injured, the muscles of the thigh being pulled away. The little girl was removed to her home in a cab after Dr. Hanley had dressed the wounds. She will be laid up for some days.

AT ST. JOHN'S, PORTSMOUTH.

Harvest Services on Sunday—Collection For Hospital.

Harvest services in connection with St. John's church, Portsmouth, were held on Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated with fruits, vegetables and grain, presented by the parishioners. Rev. J. J. Crisp was the preacher in the morning and Rev. R. S. Ferner in the evening. The sermons were appropriate to the occasion. There was a large attendance at both services and the collection, which was for the general hospital, was over $40.

The music was bright and well rendered by the choir. Mr. Marshall, the new organist, presided. The morning service was by Jones, with Stainer's anthem, "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land." The evening service was by Bennett. Mrs. Birkett sang a solo during the offertory at both services, very effectively. The other soloists were Miss Bates, J. B. Walkem and James Halliday. The fruit and vegetables will be presented to the general hospital.

Service of Praise.

The service in Syncham Street Methodist church on Sunday evening, took the form of a service of praise, and in addition to the hymns, joined in by the congregation, there was a musical programme, contributed by the choir, under Prof. James Small, the organist. The programme was a most enjoyable one, and included these numbers: Organ prelude, "Meditation" in A; anthem, "Sun of My Soul" (Turner); offertory, "Auriantino" (Chauvet); solo, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" (Rathbun); Mrs. James Small; solo and chorus, "Even Me" (Harry Agnew); solo, "Child of Nazareth"; William Eva; anthem, "I Am Alpha and Omega" (Strainer); "Priests" (Mendelssohn).

Nearly $10,000 Subscribed.

So far, Frederick Welch, governor of the general hospital, has succeeded in securing subscriptions totalling $8,600 for the Sir Oliver Mowat Memorial Tuberculosis Hospital. This is exclusive of the $1,000 promised by the Daughters of the Empire. The fund is not yet all canvassed, and Mr. Welch expects to secure a good many more subscriptions.

Boys Cause Trouble.

A number of boys gathered near Chalmers church on Sunday evening and disturbed the service. The police were notified to-day and next Sunday the boys had better keep away from the church unless they go in to the services, as a police constable will be on hand to look after the guilty parties. Last Friday night there was similar trouble in front of Bethel church and the police had to be called.

St. Mary's Cathedral Collections.

In St. Mary's Cathedral, on Sunday, a second collection was taken for the improvement fund, and over $1,000 was realized, making a total of about $2,000 for the two Sundays. There are still a large number who have to contribute their day's wage, and a third collection will be taken next Sunday.

The new organist, Paul Denys, began duty on Sunday, and made a favorable impression.

Rich Red Blood.

The blood is the source of all mental, muscular and nervous power. If the blood is weak—you are weak. Have rich red blood and you will not be able to resist disease. As near as can be ascertained the general hospital tag day collections on Saturday totalled $1,150. The money is with the Northern Crown Bank and has only been roughly counted as yet. The official statement will not be issued by Manager Murray for a couple of days.

Last year tag day realized $1,450, but there was better organization more older people being engaged in the collection. However, the ladies auxiliary of the hospital did exceedingly well to raise as much as was collected on Saturday.

The Bijou's Great Programme.

Two especially powerful dramas are billed at the Bijou for to-day and Tuesday. One is "A Broken Locket," or "The Curse of Drink," by the Biograph company, showing how the passion for strong drink often obtains an overmastering influence upon young men, causing their ruin and the destruction of those they love. The hero in this play is a fine, promising young man, who is just about to reach the pinnacle of ambition and love, when his splendid prospects are blasted by the demon of drunkenness. The second is "Magda," or "The Proud Duke," a fifteenth century drama of extraordinary beauty and heart interest. One of the features is the leap of the heroine from the castle window to avoid a distasteful marriage. The scenery and costumes are wonderfully beautiful. J. Douglas Bankier sings.

Lacrosse on Saturday—Shamrocks 7, Montreal 5. Final game next Saturday.
