"IT SEEMED LIKE THROWING MONEY AWAY Until I Tried Gin Pills."

Mr. P. Fitzgerald was completely disheartened. He had suffered so long with his Kidney, and spent so much money on doctors without relief, that he had made up his mind he could not be cured.

Then, he chanced to read about the wonderful cures by Gin Pills, the great Kidney Remedy, and sent for a sample. The pills did him so much good that he immediately bought two full size boxes.

But let Mr. Fitzgerald tell his own story of a really remarkable cure. Provincial Asylum, Orillia June 18th.

I have much pleasure in stating that the sample, which you sent me, led me to buy two boxes of Gin Pills from a local drug-gist. They are the best remedy for Uric Acid Trouble that I have ever tried.

After reading such a letter as this, you simply can't doubt the value of Gin Pills in cases of Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

After you are a sufferer, write the National Drug & Chemical Co., Dept. B, Toronto, for a free sample of Gin Pills and try them at our expense.

I still keep a box of Gin Pills on hand and take one occasionally. I am pleased to recommend them and bear testimony to their efficacy.

P. FITZGERALD.

New Terrors.

Washington Star. Grandma seems uncommon nervous. As she looks the family over: Now and then says, "Saints preserve us! I wasn't like this in days of yore. Now and then some one, by rocking boats, let monstrous tales be told; Or a man whose fate was shocking Swam not wisely, but too well."

Unseemly Fight. New York Tribune. O shade of Franklin and of Kane, Of Hudson and of Baffin, If you can now look down on us, You must be grieved or "laughin' To see the odious fight between A Cook and Captain Peary. An odorous row, a pomegranate fight, The makes us all quite sick and weary 'Tis sure that Wrangle Land they've found.

Suppose. Chicago News. Suppose to you a fortune came Your troubles bringing to an end; How would you juggle with the same If it should suddenly descend. And with your present holdings blend, As I much hope something may? How would you use the money, friend, Had you a million for a day?

My Lady Moon. Cecil Cavendish in St. Nicholas. So slowly down the western sky You sail, my Lady Moon, The fleecy clouds that after fly Will surely hide you soon. I'd like to sail the sky with you, And race the clouds along the blue, Please take me in your gold canoe— My pretty Lady Moon!

The Proper Age To Marry. London Truth. (From various points of view.) No. 1. "What's the proper age to marry?" Easy question that, I wenee. Girls should wed, nor longer tarry, Soon as they've achieved eighteen; Spring is Nature's time for mating— Write so plain, who reads may run. Come, then, lads, don't keep me waiting— Phyllis (born in '91).

The Organ Master. By William D. Gould. Within the guild pipes sweet notes un-numbered In silence slept. Was the organ master, with caressing hands— Gentle as love's commands— And forth they came: softly at first, Then, bolder grown, A mighty throng, They filled the sacred place With wordless song, And all the vast dim space That lies between the arches overhead And the worn pave where sleep the holy dead.

A Friend To Man. There are hermit souls that live with- The keyboard slept, waking each sleep- ing tone, And forth they came: softly at first, Then, bolder grown, A mighty throng, They filled the sacred place With wordless song, And all the vast dim space That lies between the arches overhead And the worn pave where sleep the holy dead.

A Hard Worked Boy. By Carolyn Wells. Once there was a little boy, whose name Was Robert Rees; And every Friday afternoon he had to speak a piece, So many poems thus he learned that soon he had a store Of recitations in his head, and still kept learning more.

STUNNING WINTER COAT.

Of green velvet in a soft and pleasing shade is this smart top coat, by one of the most authoritative of Parisian tailors. The coat has the long lapels and fastens almost at the waist line. Huge slanting pockets are set at the sides over the hips. Dark skunk fur trims the coat. The buttons are of green and black wood and add further smartness and character. The muff is a new model of pointed fox.

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong. Wise, foolish; so am I. They would shroud I sit in the scorners' seat. Or hurl the cynic's ban? Let me live in a house by the side of the road And be a friend of man.

Garments For Gentlemen

FIT-REFORM garments—in style, fit, quality, workmanship, are absolutely the best, regardless of price.

There is no merchant tailor in Canada today, who is able to reproduce Fit-Reform values at Fit-Reform prices—nor equal Fit-Reform styles and tailoring at any price.

Nowadays, when a tailor wants to praise his own work, he says it is "just as good" as Fit-Reform. The illustration shows two new creations in novelty styles for fall—in superb Worsteds and Cheviots—$22.
