If Sick
Don't risk even one single penny!
And I will tell you why I say this.
It is because every package of Dr. Shoop's medicine is absolutely free if it fails.
No one need risk even one single penny. Just think what this means to the suffering sick!
No risk, no expense, nothing whatever unless health first returns. For 30 full days, and without the risk of a single penny, you can use my two marvelous medicines—Dr. Shoop's Restorative or Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy.
Then why take any chance whatever?
Why purchase any medicine whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?
And besides, I am not a doctor.
My "No penny back" plan has made Dr. Shoop's Restorative and Rheumatic Remedy famous in the land. The "No penny back" plan. We take no chance whatever.
For twenty years Dr. Shoop's medicines have become thoroughly standardized all over America.
And I have a hundred homes and responsible druggists in every city and village everywhere to see to it that you get the genuine. These selected druggists are not to be deceived. They will give you the genuine medicine with the sick—and the entire risk is mine alone.
But write me first for an order.
I have an agent in almost every community—but all druggists are not authorized to grant the 30 day test.
So drop me a line, please—and thus save all disappointments and delays.
Besides, you are free to consult me by letter as you would your home physician. Do so freely and fully—if you desire. My advice and the book below are yours—without cost. Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan.
Besides, the books will open up new and helpful ideas to you. They tell of my 20 years experience at the bedside in homes and in hospitals. All phases of medicine and relief are told of here. They tell of my "No penny back" plan. No larger than a child's book, but gives to the heart its impulse. How the Stomach and Kidney each have their inside or power nerve. How these organs surely suffer when these controlling or master nerves begin to fail. How the shoop Restorative goes straight to these falling nerves, and rebuilds and restores the lost tone and power. A call to your nerves—if it is within the power of medicine to do so. My best effort is surely worth trying at no risk to you now, while it is fresh to mind, for tomorrow never comes. Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

BOUND TO DIFFER.
So there is to be strenuous opposition to the government's naval proposition. Of course, what else could be expected? The government's plan is to build ten or twelve cruisers of the river type at a cost of $20,000,000. The Telegram and the Citizen, of Toronto and Ottawa, speaking for the conservative party, insist that it would be better to present a couple of Dreadnoughts to the British navy. If the government had proposed this the probability is that the cruisers would have been advocated by the opposing party. It does not matter what the government does. In any event, and as a matter of course, the opposition must contend for something different. It is moved by a spirit of "cussedness."

CARE FOR THE BABIES.
The recent finding of three babies who had been strangled, and the arrest and indictment of two women who had been suspected of crime, has called attention to the degeneracy as well as needs of the age. A coroner, after receiving a verdict which incriminated a woman, the foster mother of an unfortunate babe, commented upon the want of a central foundling, at which distressed mothers could leave the offspring they could not care for. There is an objection to it; it is founded on the assumption that the hospital would not stop some of the horrors of the times. Perhaps not, but it would avoid some of them. Child desertions and worse would not be reported, and many an erring one would be comforted if relieved of her burden and given a fighting chance for life. The coroner's idea is a good one, and the more it is dwelt upon, the more impressive it becomes.

ISSUE BEFORE THE PEOPLE.
The lords are comforting themselves with the reflection that the people should pass upon the budget and that, therefore, they should not amend but hold it over. It wants a mandate from the people for every important change in constitutional procedure. Which means that there might be an election every six months. The lords have rejected half a dozen measures which the commons passed, and on any one of them the upper house might have given as a reason that the people should be consulted. The lords is not simply a carpeting machine. It will let any one thing go which is proposed by the conservative party. It passed the Irish Land Purchase Act because a conservative government endorsed it. It refuses to amend that act because a liberal government desires it. The issue before the people should be, and in effect will be, "Shall the budget be approved? but, shall the lords be amended or ended?"

LOW RAILWAY FARES.
Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, fought a three-cent street railway fare in vain. He carried the campaign to a certain extent, even to the establishing of opposition to an existing railway, but he had conflict all along the way, the hostility of the railway corporation, the embarrassment of strikes, the eventual abandonment by the people, and the sale of the municipal plant to the company.
It looked as if his defeat had not been compassed. He was down, but not out. He continued his fight, under disadvantages, and he has practically triumphed since a compromise has been reached of which he may even approve. The company gets a twenty-five year franchise but it is stipulated that the earning power must not be greater than 6 per cent., that the city has the right of purchase at the end of eight years, and that the local judge will fix the fares as circumstances suggest from time to time. For the present there is a four cent fare, or seven tickets for a quarter.
Johnson has not laboured in vain. But for him the people would not be enjoying the privileges they have at present. He may have satisfaction in the situation, though he has been shown enough public ingratitude to drive him out of public life.

NOT LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.
The local governments of Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba are said to have petitioned the federal government for the control of the school lands. It is probable the request will be complied with. The question of handing over all the crown lands to the new provinces was considered when the new provinces were organized, but a liberal subsidy was better for the time being, as the new governments were not in a position at once to administer them and the money was needed for the purposes of government.

"For a long time," says an alleged independent paper, "and one of the most partisan, that is published, 'this reasonable demand (the control of the school lands) has remained obdurate.' The federal government has been administering the school lands and giving the provinces the proceeds from them. Manitoba has not suffered from this proceeding since the report of the provincial treasurer a couple of years ago showed that the thousand odd acres of land which had been sold yielded a price which averaged over $12 per acre.
The premises of the newer provinces are liberals who will not provoke a quarrel with the federal government, as the premier of Manitoba has sought to do. They are discreet in all their actions, and the premier of Manitoba will improve if he is long enough in their company.

CURIOSITIES OF POLITICS.
There is no accounting for some political combinations. Take the New York tickets for instance. For a time it was inconceivable why Tammany Hall should express an admiration for Judge Gaynor. He was a democrat, it is true, but he had no use for the rings within the party, and had done his best to defeat them.
He was not content to hand out legal decisions with the decorum which is characteristic of some judges, but, according to the New York Post, he "denounced the financial methods of the Manhattan Traction company, the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, the railroad rebating, the accumulation of wealth through questionable means, the 'police despotism,' the procedure of the courts, and criticized bench, bar, and jury."
In other words he was a sort of judicial boss who had no regard for anything he did not like or any one with whom he could not agree. He must have collided with Jerome, and seeing that candid criticism was the order of the day, he pronounced Gaynor a demagogue and fanatic with a disposition to protect as well as punish the law-breakers.
Well then, what commended him to the grace and affection of Tammany Hall? His discovery of a boy, Duffy by name, who had been wrongfully arrested in Brooklyn, and maltreated by the police. The judge demanded the removal of his picture from the roque's gallery, and Gen. Bingham refused to recognize him. He appealed to the mayor, Mr. McClelland, and the police commissioner was dismissed.
Tammany Hall rejoiced so much over Bingham's fall, as he had shown it no consideration, that it was willing to forgive Gaynor all his offences, and the Herald's cartoonist presents the tiger in the act of swallowing him. Hearst demanded that he should repudiate the Hall! Repudiate the party that had nominated him, and to whom he looked for election? Oh no. The judge knew better than that. He did not go into history. He was not asking for support on the strength of what he was, but what he did. He contented himself with accepting Tammany's nomination.

Miss Mylott At Ottawa.
Ottawa Free Press, Oct. 9. Before an audience highly delighted and spontaneous, Miss Eva Mylott scored an undoubted triumph at St. Patrick's hall last evening. Of magnificent physique and winning presence, Miss Mylott at once enlisted a sympathetic reception. When she had rendered her opening number, her hearers were at once captivated, and remained so until the final encore. Her voice is a deep, rich, and mellow contralto of singular purity and unusual volume; her interpretation is artistic, and her diction, in a wide range of selections in German, English, Italian, and French, is perfect.

Early Tuesday morning, at St. Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville, Edward B. Gillfillan, the young Bell Telephone company's lineman, injured by falling from a pole two miles west of Gananoque four weeks ago last Friday, passed away. Besides his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gillfillan, of Lyndhurst, who were with him when he died, he leaves six sisters and one brother. He was twenty-one years of age.

"Infants' foods" that are perfectly fresh are sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store, Phone 230. It pays to buy infants' foods at this store.
On Tuesday, at Prescott, Walter J. Baxter, a young G. T. R. brakeman, of Brockville, was united in marriage to Miss Elsie Louise Cosburn.
If you only knew what comfort "Catspaw" rubber heels will bring, you would put them on at once. Ask shoe dealers or repairers.

PRODIGY AT HARVARD
BOY ELEVEN YEARS OLD ADMITTED TO UNIVERSITY

Will Graduate With the Class of 1913—Has Been Known Throughout New England As a Wonder—Mathematics Will Be His Specialty.
New York, Oct. 13.—A despatch to the Sun from Cambridge, Mass., says: A boy named Sidis, eleven years old, was admitted to Harvard University to-day as a special student. Sidis comes to Harvard after spending one year at Tufts, and was therefore admitted without the usual entrance examinations.
For many years Sidis has been known not only in Boston, his native city, but also throughout all New England as a prodigy in mathematics, and it is in this department that he will study at Harvard. Not in the story of the institution has a boy of such years been allowed to register as a member of the university, although a few cases are on record of students coming to Cambridge still wearing their boyhood kilts.
Sidis will take his degree with the class of '13.

THE SPORT REVIEW.
Interesting News From the Various Sporting Fields.
It was McGill's back line that won them the game against Ottawa College last Saturday.
Varsity will make a couple of changes in their line for next Saturday's inter-collegiate football struggle with McGill.
If suitable dates can be secured with New Westminster through the Minto cup trustees, the Montreal lacrosse team, champions of the N.L.U., will probably go after the silverware this fall.
Toronto Mail-Enterprise: As McGill defeated Ottawa College and Varsity beat Queen's, next Saturday's game between the Montreal and Toronto teams ought almost to decide the inter-collegiate championship.
At the fall games of the Irish-American Athletic club in New York on Sunday Emilio Lunghi made a new record of 2:35 3/5 for two-thirds of a mile. The old record was made by George in 1882, Time, 2:48 1/5.
The marriage took place, at Hamilton, on Tuesday afternoon, of Miss Ethel May Bain, 91 King street east, to David G. Tope, the ex-full-back of the Hamilton Tigers. This is the "Davie" Tope whom the girls hugged and kissed after the Ottawa-Hamilton championship match in Kingston last November. One Hamilton girl made a flying leap at the full-back, and landed on him with her arms around his neck.
Peter Conway, the fast middle wing of the Ottawa University football team, was badly injured in the College-McGill match, at Montreal, on Saturday last. Conway was kicked in the head while in the thick of a scrum. He was unconscious for several hours. He was brought to Ottawa Sunday evening, and is still in a painful state. It is feared that he has concussion of the brain. Conway comes from Watertown, N.Y., and has played on the College team for several seasons.

KENTUCKY FEUD REVIVED.
Leaves State to Prevent Assassination.
Minneapolis, Oct. 13.—James H. Hatfield, of Cynthia, Ky., the last survivor of the notorious Hatfield-McCoy feud, of the mountain district of Eastern Kentucky, fleeing from the bullets that have begun to whiz about the factions again passed through Minneapolis, yesterday, on his way to a far off land, thousands of miles from the hated McCoy's Hatfield, who is old and grey, with a long beard and make-up typical of the citizenry of the mountain districts of Kentucky, indulged in a tirade against what he considered exorbitant hotel rates, passenger train fares and other luxuries with which he had for the first time in his life come face to face.
"I sold out the little grocery store in Cynthia, left enough money with the old woman and children to keep them, and I am going far away from Kentucky to British Columbia—to begin life all over again," he said wistfully.
"The reason I am leaving my native state, never to return, is that the feud which I thought all over years ago, when most of the Hatfields and most of the McCoy's had been killed by each other, is that 'Jim' McCoy has just shot to death another Hatfield, a distant relative of mine. My woman could not sleep nor eat for fear that I would be the next to be killed, or that I would kill McCoy, who tried to kill me, so at sixty-seven years of age I am on my way to make a new home for the family."

Tale Of A Snake's Tail.
Watertown, N.Y., Standard.
One of the prominent citizens of Watertown, who owns a summer residence on the St. Lawrence, came back from his cottage and brought with him a marvelous tale. He says that on a rock in the river just off his boat dock a water snake about five feet in length has been sunning itself every day all summer. The other day a strange man came along and cast a stone at the serpent, with the result that it crawled into the water, leaving about six inches of its tail on the rock. The tail with its twenty-one fives continued to squirm till on the following day, when our citizen, who by the way, is not a drinking man and has an excellent reputation for veracity, says he saw the snake return and hitch the tail in its proper place and quickly disappear.

Horses' Leg Swelled.
Animal Was Too Sore And Lame to Work—Quickly Cured By Nerviline.
"I have had a long experience in treating horses, and I can safely say that I know of no liniment for strains, sprains, and swelling that is so useful around the stable as Nerviline." Thus writes Joshua E. Murchison, from his home, Crofts Hill P.O. I had a fine young mare that was wrenched her right fore leg, and from the shoulder down she was stiff, sore and swollen. I applied Nerviline and it worked like a charm; in fact, that mare was in shape to work a day after I used Nerviline.
"We have used Nerviline on our farm for twenty-five years and never found it wanting. For man or beast it is a wonderful liniment."
We have received nearly five thousand letters recommending Nerviline as a general household liniment, as an all-round cure for aches and pains. One million bottles used each year. Try it yourself. Large 25c. bottles of Nerviline, five for $1. All dealers.
