DOWN GANANOQUE WAY

ANOTHER OF ITS GIRLS BECOMES A BRIDE.

Meeting of the Poultry Association—Police Court Cases—Rain Postponed the Rifle Club's Meet.

Gananoque, Oct. 14.—A pretty wedding took place at St. John's church, at eight o'clock, yesterday morning, when Miss Margaret (Dolly) Ghyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Chapman, Wellington street, was united in marriage to William Ahern, a prosperous young farmer of South Lake. Rev. Fr. Kehoe administered the marriage sacrament. Arrived at the home of the bride's parents, where a bounteous repast was served. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Ahern will spend their honeymoon in the west and their return will reside at South Lake.

The Citizens' band held another well attended assembly in Turner's Hall last evening.

In the police court on Wednesday John Clark, on the charge of stealing a quantity of preserves from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garney, caretaker of Beck Island, the summer home of Ira Kipp, of New York, was remanded until Thursday. Robert Lucey pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly, and was fined $2 and costs.

The heavy rainstorm, Wednesday, and wet condition at the range of the Gananoque Rifle association, compelled the postponement of their annual fall matches.

Work is to be started at once on the clearing up of debris at the Boyd Block, corner of King and the streets, burned January 2d last, whether for rebuilding or to put the place in saleable condition, has not as yet been made public.

Clayton Lodge, I.O.O.F., will pay a fraternal visit to Gananoque, Friday, Oct. 14, on Thanksgiving Day, 25th inst.

WOMAN CHOSE WHIPPING.

Husband Administered It and Case Aired in Court.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—A somewhat remarkable case has just been tried before Justice Winchester, and a jury. William Rhyndress, a farmer of Georgian township, was the defendant. Some time ago some of the man's neighbors called at his home and told him that his wife had been acting improperly with a man of the neighborhood. Rhyndress refused to believe the stories, and put the informants out of his house. Then his wife confessed that the neighbors had told the truth. Rhyndress thereupon told her that one of two things must happen; he would leave her or whip her, just as she chose. The woman elected for the whipping. She removed her clothing, and it was inflicted with a whip having a lash eighteen inches long. Some of the blows broke the skin and drew blood. On the next day the woman appears to have told some of the neighbors what had occurred, and the result was that a complaint was made before a magistrate, and Rhyndress was arrested, charged with aggravated assault. The warrant was secured on an affidavit made by the wife, in which she accused her husband of ill-treating her and then rubbing salt into the wounds. When the woman was placed on the stand at the trial before Judge Winchester, she admitted that she had exaggerated in her testimony before the magistrate, confessed that she had been guilty of improper conduct, and had consented to being whipped by her husband in preference to having him leave her. She had left his house for a few days after the occurrence, but had then returned to him, and had been living happily with him ever since. The jury found Rhyndress not guilty of the charge of aggravated assault, but on the direction of the judge found that he had committed simple assault. The judge suspended sentence.

TRUE CHRISTIANS KIND.

Less Scripture and More Practical Goodness.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 13.—John D. Rockefeller advocated less scripture and more practical Christianity in a talk to the children of the Euclid Avenue Baptist Sunday school. He admonished his hearers that Christianity was of little value unless it was illustrated by kindness and charity, and in illustration told of an incident of his own boyhood days.

"When I was a lad of ten," said Mr. Rockefeller, "we had two neighbors, both good men, but their methods of practicing Christianity were far apart. One man would quote scripture all day long, but he was a hard man to agree with. If he had preached less scripture and given his men more nursing he would have done more good."

"The other man was quite a contrast. He tried to live according to the Bible, but outside of the church was never heard to quote a line. His words were much kinder than his words. He was the kindest man to his employees and always willing to allow us boys to eat his apples and ride on his pony."

Mr. Rockefeller spoke of the folly of trying to do all good things at one time and advised the children to practice little deeds of kindness each day in the week.

THE GREAT HERBAL HEALER.

Scientific inquiry eventually centered round the peculiar properties of certain vegetable saps and juices. These extracts from rare herbs had, it was found, a curious power that enabled them when applied to the broken skin, to knit the edges of tissues together—in short, the power of healing injuries in a marvellously natural way, and of annihilating any germs of disease harboured by wound or pore.

The choice of the right herbal juices and their refinement comprised the next step, after which came the more difficult problem of finding out just the exact proportion of the different ingredients which would give the best healing results. Early disappointment and costly experiments are often the forerunner of famous discoveries, but at length, when success arrived, the investigators found themselves in the possession of a substance of fine consistency, of slight yet agreeable odour, and unique for its marvellous healing, soothing and antiseptic power. The original medicinal power of the respective ingredients was found to have been multiplied many times by reason of the scientific and novel manner of their combination as they exert in Denbigh, Oct. 11.—Messrs. Gustav Harry and William John, Jr., Fred Stein, Joseph Marquardt, and Adolph Rahm, left last week for Sault Ste. Marie, to engage for the winter in one of the lumber camps of the Algoma Commission company, in which a former Denbigh boy, P. Stein, Jr., is foreman. Robert and Ferdinand Stein, Charles Petzold, and Archie Blackly, intend to follow them tomorrow. Most of these young men were busied in the same camp last winter. David Youmans, Jr., who was home on a good visit with his parents, has returned to Gow Ganda, and Richard Glaeser left again for Toronto, where he intends to resume the barber trade. Rudolph Stein, who caught the typhoid fever in New Ontario, and was for quite a while a patient in the Renfrew General hospital, has recovered sufficiently to be able to return home, with good prospects of a complete recovery. Mr. and Mrs. H. Glaeser have received the sad news that their son, William, has also been a victim of typhoid fever in Cobalt, and has already, for some time, been taken care of by one of his brothers, who resides there. Ferdinand Weiland, of Reglan, favored some of his friends here with a visit last Sunday. Mrs. F. Petzold is enjoying a couple of weeks visiting friends and relatives at Hardwood Lake. William Sallans, collector of rates for Denbigh, Abinger and Ashby, for this year, has commenced to make his— in most cases not over-awe-inspiring visits to the ratepayers. Threshing in this neighborhood is all done, and good yields are reported from everywhere. Potato digging is also almost completed, and the largest returns ever raised in this part of the country are reported this fall. Most of the farmers are now engaged in fall plowing.

ABERNETHY'S.

Great Discovery after 2000 years.

Careful tests established the exceptional value of the new balm, its constant reliability, and its unvarying success even in certain obstinate cases of eczema and ulceration.

From the first Zam-Buk has been out in practice what its discoverers expected of it from a practical standpoint. In four continents it has now become the favourite household balm. Cheap substitutes made up to look like Zam-Buk and sold at so-called "cheap" rates, are constantly being produced, but the careful housewife, the mother, bearing the responsibility and the welfare of her ailing children, or the bread-winner, who once wastes money on them never repeats the experiment. There is no "cheapness" in nature. If one wants her treasure her price must be paid, and now people don't waste money on "cheap" imitations.

Zam-Buk, so pure yet so powerful, is good for young and old. The delicate skin of babes benefit from its application and it is widely used by nursing mothers for the rashes and chaffs of their children. Men of experience and of great attainments in varied walks of life have tested it, and speak of it in the highest terms.

Dr. Andrew Wilson, whose name as a scientist is familiar all the world over, in one of his recent medical works ("Homey Talks on First Aid") says: "Wherever a box of Zam-Buk is handy the preparation may be relied upon as an antiseptic dressing which requires no preparation and has the particular advantage of possessing unique healing properties."

Mr. Frank Scudamore, the great war correspondent says: "Zam-Buk cured severe ulcers. It is a splendid healer, and I hope its merits will become even more widely known."

Mr. R. F. Perry, Justice of the Peace, of Goldfields, B.C., says: "Zam-Buk cured me of a skin rash of five years' duration, which no doctor had been able to relieve."

For skin eruptions, scalp sores, ulcers, abscesses, poisoning, cold sores, chapped places, frost bite, blistering, chafing, ringworm, etc., Zam-Buk is without equal. For piles it is the best remedy yet discovered. It relieves the burning, stinging, throbbing pains, and gives ease. Almost all druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at fifty cents per box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.
