Cooks on top of the stove, bakes in oven at same time

You can cook over every pot-hole and bake in Pandora oven at same time—and get perfect results. That's because cooking draft is also baking draft. Flues are so constructed that heat passes directly under every pot-hole and around oven twice before passing up chimney. No wasted heat—instead fuel does double duty, saving Pandora owners both time and money.

Would you not like to be a Pandora owner?

SHE IS SEEKING HEAVY DAMAGES.

New York, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Marshall Clark, wife of a "psychic" who calls himself "Prof. Niblo," came to New York in order to keep in close touch with the suit she has brought against Miss Antonette Gazzam, the wealthy daughter of Joseph H. Gazzam, a former state senator, from whom Mrs. Clark asks $150,000 for the alienation of her husband's affections.

Weeping, Mrs. Clark said that Miss Gazzam had ruined her happiness, and described graphically the scene which occurred when she sought the heiress and entreated her to give Clark up, and told many other details of the events which have led up to suits and cross suits in New York and Chicago. Her story was supplemented by her Chicago attorney, Frank Comerford, who told of an extraordinary interview which he had with Miss Gazzam at her home, at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, in which Miss Gazzam is said to have declared:

"Marriage, from the standpoint of law, is but a contract, and all contracts are tainted with a sense of commercialism. From the standpoint of religion it is but a ceremony, and we all know that ceremonies are of little value. The real marriage is the union that comes from the hearts and souls, and in that sense Mr. Clark and I are married and Mrs. Clark and he are not married."

In an interview Mrs. Clark said "Miss Gazzam came to Los Angeles on March 24th last, and registered at Lankersham hotel as Elizabeth Mazzag. My husband met her and she consulted him in psychic matters, in which she was much interested. I didn't know he had met her, but I at once noticed a difference in his manner toward me. He told me something new had come into his life, but he did not tell me what it was. It was hard for me to understand.

"I called at his office on the evening of April 29th, to go to dinner with him. I found him in a private room with a young woman, whom I afterward found was Miss Gazzam. What I saw made me scream. The woman ran from the room. I was hysterical, and Mr. Clark took a revolver from a drawer and said if I didn't quit that nonsense he would kill me. Dr. William F. Ireland, a Baptist clergyman, was in the reception room and he ran in and interfered."

The third new play to be brought out by the Shubert Stock Company, at the Bijou Theatre, Brooklyn, was "The Ranchman," a four-act drama of the plains, by Edith Ellis Furniss. Mrs. Furniss staged and rehearsed the play.

The Broadway which the Schuberts have made an independent producers, can be gauged by their pay-sheet. The salaries to the players in their various companies are now upwards of $100,000 a week.

College lads almost caused a riot in an Ana Arbor theatre, when Charmon the trapeze artist, tossed her garters into the audience. Benches were broken and clothes torn while the students wrestled for the tasty trophies.

The late star of "Mrs. Wiggs of The Cabbage Patch," Mudge Carr Cook, has achieved distinct success in her new starring vehicle, "If I Had Money," but the play seems to be faulty in construction and rather wearisome.

"The Earth," with Edmund Breese as the star, will be produced by Henry B. Harris at the Olympic Theatre, Chicago, on Nov. 7th. James Bernard Fagan, the author of the play, has sailed from Liverpool to attend the rehearsals.

Frank Daniels, in "The Belle of Brittany," began his season under the Shubert management at the Belasco Theatre, Washington, Monday, Oct. 11th. Mr. Daniels has practically rewritten the English musical comedy to his own liking.
