OPENS VEINS

To Save the Life of His Patient.

DR. BILL, BRIDGEPORT

ALLOWS TRANSFUSION OF BLOOD TO W. B. WHEELER.

Refuses an Anaesthetic—Although Weakened by Operation, He Soon Recovers—Man He Aided is Much Improved.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 28.—William B. Wheeler, son of the late Nathaniel Wheeler, of the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing company, owes his life to the sacrifice of Dr. Philip W. Bill, who opened his own arteries and allowed the transfusion of a quart of blood into Mr. Wheeler's veins while the latter was in a serious condition from affliction of the stomach. The operation was performed on October 19th, but the fact was so safely guarded for fear of publicity that it has just become known.

The operation was performed under the direction of Dr. Charles H. Peck, of the Roosevelt hospital, of New York, who was summoned here for the purpose. Mr. Wheeler four weeks ago had a severe hemorrhage of the stomach, caused by the development of an ulcer, and lost a considerable amount of blood. Dr. Henry Blodgett, the attending physician, saw the necessity of transfusion and Dr. Bill immediately offered to allow the fluid to be taken from him.

The operation was performed at the home of Mr. Wheeler. An incision was made in Dr. Bill's wrist, another in the upper arm of Mr. Wheeler. The two incisions were connected by a tube and about a quart of blood allowed to flow. Dr. Bill refused to take an anaesthetic. Although considerably weakened by the operation he has now entirely recovered.

Mr. Wheeler is much improved. He is well-known as a golf player, being a member of the Brooklawn Country Club.

Sued For Divorce.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 28.—Description, failure to provide, and cruelty, are the charges made in a bill of divorce filed here by Mrs. Jennie G. DuMoulin, wife of Rev. Walter G. DuMoulin, formerly pastor of St. James' Episcopal church here. The defendant is a son of Bishop DuMoulin, Hamilton.

Mrs. DuMoulin alleges that her husband was much more attentive to women parishioners than his ministerial duties entailed, and that on one occasion, when he was left at home with their baby, he tied the child to a table and went out with a woman friend.

Fortier Re-elected.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—The federal election in the county of Louthier resulted in the return of the former member, Edmond Fortier, recently unseated on bribery charges by a majority of 306 votes over Theodore Dube. Both are liberals.

GOMPERS SCORES ELIOT.

Behind the Times—Nothing to Do But Talk.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Former President Eliot, of Harvard, now has nothing to occupy him but to talk; he lives in an age he does not understand, said Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a statement issued in reply to a criticism of trades unions by Dr. Eliot at Kenyon College, Ohio.

"Since the time Dr. Eliot was mentally capable of appreciating industrial and commercial conditions, development has gone on," continued Mr. Gompers. "The concentration of industry, in which combinations and trusts have developed, have all escaped him in so far as concerns their influence on the individuality of the workers. The division, sub-division and specialization of labor has rendered the workers absolutely helpless individually, and it is only by association in trade unions and federations, that the toilers can obtain some of the rights which, as individuals, they are totally unable to maintain.

"The organizations of labor of today are the best defenders of the rights of the workers and the promoters of real democracy. The labor organizations will carry on their mission despite the misunderstanding and consequent hostility of Dr. Eliot. They will live long after he and I are gone."

CHICAGO MAN ADJUDGED THE MODEL "HUBBY."

Samuel W. Van Nostran a Model For Other Husbands to Pattern After—What His Wife Declared.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Samuel W. Van Nostran, who was adjudged the "model husband" at the second annual "hubby show," held at the home of Mrs. James Sidney McCullough, received from his wife, yesterday, credit for being the possessor of all the virtues necessary to make an ideal mate. "Other than possessing the almost super-human quality of being good natured before breakfast," said Mrs. Van Nostran, "my husband allows me to carry the family pocket book and declares, just as if he meant it, that my cooking is so far above another's efforts in the culinary line that there can be no comparison. If that is not glory enough for one woman, I will gladly know what it is."

The complete list of desirable qualities attributed to her husband by Mrs. Van Nostran are:

Prompt at meals.
Good entertainer.
An adept with the shaving dish.
Good judge of feminine beauty.
Generous and kind-hearted.
Enjoys home more than the club.
Happiest when among friends.

MEET DEATH

Children Were Burned in the Home.

COOK WAS HEROINE

FIVE LITTLE GIRLS COULD NOT ESCAPE.

Discovered Fire in Shelton Cottage Presbyterian Orphanage at Lynchburg, Va., and Rescued Twenty-four Children—Burned and Injured Making the Rescue.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 28.—Five children, all inmates of the nursery, were burned to death in a fire which totally destroyed Shelton cottage, the home of the girls, at the Virginia Synod Presbyterian Orphan Home.

The dead: Ruby Moorefield, Lynchburg, Va.; Lucile Moorefield, Lynchburg, Va.; Mamie Reynolds, Bath county, Va.; Marie Hickman, Campbell county, Va.; Mary Poole, McDowell county, W. Va.

The children were cut off from escape in the second floor of the wing of the building. Ruby Moorefield alone was taken out, but when she ascertained that her younger sister was still inside she ran back and lost her life.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Priest, the cook, who was aroused by the roar of the flames. She rushed to the third story and brought fifteen children down to the second floor, leading them to the veranda roof, where they were taken down a ladder, several of them dropping into the outstretched arms of the older boys in the institution.

When these children were all safe Mrs. Priest had to jump for her life. She was badly burned.

While all of the escapes were miraculous, only one of the rescued girls was injured. She sprained an ankle in jumping.

Mr. H. H. Fleming, the superintendent, was away at the time of the fire, and the nearest men were some distance away in the farmhouses, when they reached the burning structure it was too late to save the youngsters.

ONTARIO CONSOLIDATED MINE

New Cobalt Mine That Promises Good Return.

Merson & Co., 16 King street west, Toronto, have undertaken the flotation of The Ontario Consolidated Mines, Limited, the particulars of which will be found on another page. The Ontario Consolidated Mines has the low capitalization of $350,000, and shares are now offered to the public at 15 cent.

The property owned by this company consists of 40 acres in the townships of Bucke, about one and a half miles from Cobalt, and about a mile from the celebrated mines of Timiskaming, Hudson Bay, Trethewey, La Rose, Nipissing and Chambers-Ferland. On the property itself six distinct calcite veins measuring from one half to three inches wide on the surface have been found, and the stripping of these has been made from 160 to 700 feet in length. One shaft has already been sunk to a depth of 90 feet, and on the 50 foot level silver values were found at the vein level.

The shares are being offered at 15 cents. The development work already done on the property, the showings which have already been uncovered, and the conservative capitalization of the company, offer a good opportunity for investment. Merson & Co. have stood behind several Cobalt propositions, and their success in the past will stand as a guarantee of the ultimate outcome of this one.

Merson & Co. received on Monday a report from their representative in Cobalt, stating that on the property adjoining theirs a vein had been struck which shows a value of 1000 ounces to the ton. This vein runs through the property of The Ontario Consolidated Mines, and the engineer in charge says that the main vein on this property is a continuation of the big vein on the adjoining property which has shown a value of 1000 ounces to the ton.

HEIRS TO ENGLISH FORTUNE.

Residents of Ottawa Count Themselves Lucky.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—As the result of a romantic elopement nearly one hundred years ago in England several residents of Ottawa and vicinity expect to share in the "Talbot millions." They are J. Bleeks and Mrs. J. Andrews, of Ottawa; Mrs. Gideon Taylor, Avlymer, W. H. Bleeks, Carp; Tolbert Bleeks, Chicago; W. W. Mann, Stittsville, and several others, who expect to receive about $65,000 each.

About 1820 Lady Anne Talbot, the daughter of a wealthy nobleman in England, fell in love with George Healey. Her father was strenuously opposed, but she eloped and married the son and one daughter being born. While comparatively young she died, and Healey came to Canada, an settler near Ottawa.

Healey, who for many years a resident of Goulbourn, and the daughter became Mrs. William Mann. They were the grandparents of the present claimants to the fortune, excepting Mrs. Gideon Taylor, a daughter of the late William Healey.

Upon the death of Lady Anne Talbot, as father, the estate passed into the hands of a son, who died intestate, and the property reverted to the children of Lady Anne, but at that time they could not be located.

FOR THIRTY-EIGHT HOURS

Sailors Were Lashed in Rigging of Vessel.

Eastport, Maine, Oct. 28.—The men rescued from the wrecked Hestia were able, yesterday, to give more definite information regarding what actually took place after the steamer struck. Third Mate Stewart said the Hestia impaled herself on the rocks, Monday morning, instead of Tuesday morning, as previously supposed, and that he and his five companions who had been unable to find places in the small boats, remained lashed to the rigging for thirty-eight hours, without food or water, before being taken off by the life-savers. One of the rescued, Seaman Keen, is in a serious condition. So far as can be ascertained, those on board the Hestia comprised Capt. Newman, crew of thirty-five, three cattle men and two boys.

AFTER THE LINE

IS CENTRAL ONTARIO IN HANDS OF M. AND M.?

Canadian Northern Said to Have Acquired Trenton-Coe Hill Road.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—Have Mackenzie & Mann purchased the Central Ontario railway?

Is the C.N.R. planning a system of steam railways in Ontario outside of the trunk line now under construction?

If reports current on the street, yesterday, have any foundation in fact, the Central Ontario line has already been acquired by the Canadian Northern, or is being negotiated for. When seen, W. H. Moore, secretary of the Canadian Northern, said he knew nothing about the reported purchase.

The Central Ontario line has during the last three or four years been practically controlled by C. E. Ritchie, of Akron, Ohio, who is president of the company. George Collins, of Warren, is general manager, and J. J. Warren, of Toronto, vice-president. The line extends from Trenton to Coe Hill, a distance of about 100 miles.

A. URE IS WRATHY

OVER THE OUTRAGEOUS LANGUAGE OF BALFOUR.

He Said Balfour Had Dishonored His Profession and His Position in the Country—What Ure Really Did.

London, Oct. 28.—Alexander Ure, lord advocate for Scotland, in a speech at Rochdale, yesterday, replied to the attack made upon him by the Premier Arthur Balfour, in connection with his statement of old age pensioners that he feared that in the event of the conservatives regaining power their pensions would be stopped. Mr. Ure declared Mr. Balfour had violated all the necessities of public discussion. His attack was outrageous, abominable and full of vile and degrading epithets. If there was any truth in Mr. Balfour's charges he (Ure) must necessarily withdraw from public life, and be deemed to perpetual dishonor, but there was not a vestige of truth in them, and he, therefore, applied his own language to Mr. Balfour. Mr. Balfour dishonored his profession and his position in the country. He was sorry Mr. Balfour was a Scotchman. Mr. Ure gave a version of his statements on the pension matter that differed materially from the reports in the newspapers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Laundry Tax.

Queen's University, Kingston, Oct. 27.—(To the Editor): Now that the by-law to reduce the laundry tax has been defeated, honest men in Kingston must try, for the sake of the city's reputation, to express their disgust at a grave miscarriage of British justice. I have hesitated as a citizen of very recent standing, before writing to your columns; but the violation of ordinary political decency in this case has been too flagrant. Prudence may always be touted on to safeguard domestic virtues; but we are recklessly careless of fair play and public justice. It goes, of course, without saying that none of the gentlemen involved in the decision is in any way an interested party. Jobbery of that kind would have made even Chinese violations of the moral law assume a shade of virtue by contrast. But without imputing other motives, I accuse the majority of instigating the very spirit of imperial fair play. Exclude your aliens at the coast if they are undesirable; punish your moral offenders through the means provided by law; but the citizens of Kingston have seen the imposition of an unjust tax, definitely calculated to oppress a small section of the community, without any spirit of imperial fair play. This is criminal injustice, and even if the culprits are protected against any immediate consequences of their ill-conduct, I should like to see Kingston disown their action, publicly, immediately, and unanimously. Tolerance is good, but Kingston, in defence of her civic good name, cannot afford to suffer aldermen who have misrepresented her, to go unchallenged.—I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. L. MORISON.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—The Lord's Day Alliance has lost a test case brought against A. B. Charron of Aylmer, Que., for keeping a moving picture show open on Sunday. An appeal will be taken by the Lord's Day Alliance.

SHE TURNED IN BED

AND HEART WAS PARALYZED AS RESULT.

Sudden Death of Sister Mary Immaculate, a Nurse at St. Joachim's Hospital in Water- town, Where She Was Recovering From Typhoid Fever.

Watertown, N.Y., Oct. 28.—Seized with paralysis of the heart, as she raised herself in bed where she was recovering from an illness of typhoid fever, Sister Mary Immaculate, a nurse at St. Joachim's hospital, died, suddenly, Tuesday evening, as she was preparing to sit up. Before assuming the veil five years ago, Sister Mary Immaculate was Miss Mary Kearney, a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Kearney, of No. 154 Arsenal street. Until eighteen months ago she had been acting as a nurse in Gabriels' Sanitarium in the Adirondacks.

Three weeks ago Sister Mary Immaculate was stricken with typhoid. The fever was broken, however, and the woman was upon the road to recovery when overtaken by death so suddenly that the nurses, accustomed as they are to illness and death, were stunned by the blow that had fallen in their midst.

An odd feature lies in the fact that every member of the Kearney family have at some time suffered from typhoid fever. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Kearney, of Saratoga Springs, who has been nursing Sister Mary during her illness, was with her when her she suddenly sank back and died.
