W. A. Mitchell's Hardware Kingston.

A Fireman Resigned.
Driver H. Shales, of the fire department, placed his resignation in the hands of Chief Armstrong, on Thursday, to take effect to-day, and as the man did not return to work his resignation was accepted. Shales has been in the brigade over a year, during which time he drove the hook and ladder truck.

Have your baby carriages re-tired with Dunlop rubber tires. H. Milne, 272 Bagot street.

WHOLESALE ROBBED.

Fenwick, Hendry & Co's Grocery Robbed.
Thieves are still busy in the city. Some time during Thursday night, some person or persons secured entrance to the wholesale grocery of Fenwick, Hendry & Co., on Ontario street, and got away with two caddies of tobacco and a few dollars, which had been left in the office. The case was reported to the police this morning.
It is believed that entrance was secured by way of one of the windows at the rear of the store. One of the iron bars, which guard the window was broken off, and it is thought that the window was forced open. An investigation was made to-day, but nothing else but the tobacco and the money were found missing.
The theft was noticed when the wholesale was opened for business this morning.
This makes three burglaries this week, the first at the second-hand store of Aaron Circle, the one at Carson's wholesale, and this one now referred to. This would go to show that the light-fingered gentry are working overtime in the city at the present time. The arrest of two men on Thursday morning for theft, evidently was not the means of breaking up the gang at work.

Constructors have commenced work on the construction of a home for E. A. Dunlop, ex-M.L.A., Penbroke. The architect's estimate of the cost was placed at $15,000, but the actual expenditure will much exceed that figure.
The machine crank is easier to turn than the human kind.
Try Carnovsky's mixed nuts. Best variety in the city at 20c. per pound.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY.

Albert E. Elmer, Barber, Expired in His Shop.
Death came very suddenly about 12:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon, to one of Kingston's best known citizens, in the person of Albert Edward Elmer, Division street. Mr. Elmer, who has been in ill-health for about two years, had been in the house for over a week, and Friday morning left well enough to venture down to his barber shop on Princess street. His friends were pleased to see him around again, and many dropped in to have a word with him. He seemed to feel fairly well and was sitting near the window of his shop, when he suddenly fell to the floor, and when raised up by those who he was talking to life had fled. Dr. Ross was walking by at the time and was called in, but could do nothing. Deceased's brothers were notified at once and the body was removed in Corbett's ambulance to his residence, Division street.
The late Albert E. Elmer was the second youngest son of the late John D. Elmer, and was born in the city about fifty years ago. When quite young he entered the barber business with his brothers, and about thirty years ago opened up for himself, and has been in business ever since. About twenty-five years ago he married Miss L. Percy, daughter of the late John Percy, besides his wife, two daughters, Miss Lena and Miss Florence Elmer, and one son, Albert, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. His mother, four brothers, Edward, Syracuse; John, assistant chief of the fire department; Joseph and Richard, barbers, and one sister, Mrs. E. Donnelly, Toronto, also survive.
The news of his death came as a great shock to his many friends, and "Garry," as he was familiarly known, had a great number of friends in the city. He was a member of the Kingston lodge of Oddfellows, Independent Order of Foresters, and a member of the "Prentice Boys." He was a Presbyterian in religion, being a member of St. Andrew's church. The late Mr. Elmer was a keen follower of sport, and liked nothing better than to watch a good game of hockey, baseball or football, or see a good foot race. He was a great favorite with all the athletes in the city, and his advice on such subjects was often sought.
The funeral will be held on Monday morning, at nine o'clock, the services being conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. Mackie.

Died At Boston.

The death occurred in Boston, on Thursday, of Miss Annie Matilda Sutherland, second daughter of the late Dr. R. D. Sutherland. Deceased had been sick for some little time, and left Kingston about five weeks ago, for Boston, on a trip for the benefit of her health. Miss Sutherland was a well-known music teacher, and news of her death will be heard with sincere regret by her many friends. The remains will arrive in Kingston tomorrow. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Fields, of Reno, Nevada; Mrs. S. McLeod, Toronto; Mrs. A. P. Booth, Boston, and one brother, Malcolm S. Sutherland, of Kingston.

Death of Old-Timer.

One of the interesting and much-liked landmarks of Frontenac passed away in the death of Rosa Quintell, maiden daughter of the late James Quintell, aged seventy-eight years, after a two weeks illness. She was born on Amberst Island, and there fore spent three quarters of a century near Kingston. Her late residence has been with Charles Trudell, on the Portland Road.

Chinamen Must Pay.

The police will notify the Chinese laundry proprietors, that they must pay their half year's license fee next week, or be again summoned before the police magistrate. None of them have paid, since the city council refused to lower the license fee.

Nine boys were lined up in the juvenile court, this morning, charged with disorderly conduct on Colborne street. They were warned not to give any trouble in the future. Some of the parents of the lads appeared in court with them.
A light heart makes a thin pair of trousers soon warmer.

THE CAPITAL RAISED FOR THE FRONTENAC LEAD MINING COMPANY.

The Money Has Been Paid Into the Crown Bank—United States Experts Offer to Buy Out the Whole Interest.

The new hotel proposition is not the only new start in Kingston. The Frontenac Lead Mining Company, in which only a few Kingstonsians could be induced to take an interest, and of whom only about two remain in the paid-up stock list—Messrs. Murray and Pense—has blossomed out into favorable prospects. The cash required before beginning operations, $40,000, has been subscribed in Canada and the United States, and paid into the Northern Crown bank. It was contemplated to begin operations at once at the mines on the Perth Road, but negotiations have been opened by New York state men for the purchase of the whole interest. It seems strange, but it is a fact, that two United States experts and one of the present negotiators have declared that it is one of the finest shows for lead on the continent, and that in the dump alone there is material enough for smelting to more than repay for the paid-up stock. Buildings are on the ground and the pumping out of the shafts will be the chief expense item. The resumption of mining may mean a smelter in Kingston, a new industry, if the city council and citizens will encourage it, but unless encouragement is given by way of municipal site and exemption, it is within reason that the smelter will be put up at the mines.

AT THE POLICE COURT.

There Was But a Brief Session To-day.
Magistrate Farrell was on the bench at the police court, this morning, but a few minutes. There were only three cases, and they were soon disposed of. The charge of assault preferred against a local hotel-keeper, was adjourned until Monday, at the request of the complainant.
There were two drunks. One who made his second appearance within a month was fined $3 and costs, or twenty days, and another was remanded a day, as he was still drunk.

NEW POLICEMAN APPOINTED.

Daniel McCarey Gets the Appointment.
Daniel McCarey was, on Friday morning, sworn in as a police constable for the city by Magistrate Farrell. The vacancies on the force have now been filled. Mr. McCarey will don his uniform of blue and go on duty to-night. Mr. McCarey's home is in Pittsburg township, but for the past five years has been working on one of the government dredges.

Incompetency Charged.

A special meeting of the Inter-collegiate Rugby Union executive has been called for Montreal next Monday night to deal with the Queen's protest against Ottawa College and that of McGill II. against the R. M. C., of Kingston. In both cases incompetency on the part of the officials is alleged.

Queen's I. vs. McGill I.

Queen's will have the same team against McGill Saturday afternoon as played in Montreal a week ago. Brydon Jack will take Kennedy's place on the McGill half line. The rest of the McGill team will be the same. Dr. Etherington and George Richardson will officiate.

Brooks Ill With Typhoid.

W. H. Brooks, the Frontenac wrestler, has had to postpone the match with a South African man as he has been taken down with typhoid fever in Cobalt. Brooks will be unable to meet his man for at least two months, but the bout will be looked forward to. Brooks is still game and says he will meet the South African as agreed on. He is backed by Manager W. H. Foley, Latchford, Ont.

Two Men In Fight.

People passing along Bagot, late last night, heard cries of "police" and "help." Investigation found that two men were having a fistie battle in an alleyway. Several windows in the vicinity were open, and heads were popped out, to see what was the matter, and when the neighbors saw the two men at it, they called for the police. Two young men ventured into the lane, and as they arrived upon the scene, the two engaged in the fight made a hasty retreat, believing, no doubt, that the police were on their tracks.

Looking For The Man.

The appealed case of Lewis Martin, proprietor of the Revere house, against a fine of $100, imposed upon him by Magistrate Farrell, for selling liquor on Sunday, was to have been tried before Judge Price at the court house, this morning, but was adjourned. D. A. Givens, for Mr. Martin, was ready to go on with his side, but J. L. Whiting, was not ready for trial, as the man, McMenary, who told in police court that he secured the liquor at Martin's hotel, could not be found. The adjournment was granted until such time as the man can be found.

"Hiawatha"

This most popular and interesting of Longfellow's poems, will be reproduced in motion pictures at the King Edward to-night and Saturday. As this poem is on the public school literature, this is a rare opportunity for young people to get a lasting impression of its beauty and importance as a classic. The story appeals to all. There will also be shown two exceptionally comic films, viz.: "A Buried Secret" and "A Visit to Uncle by His City Nephews." Seldom has such a really excellent programme throughout been secured by a Kingston theatre. Full orchestra.

To Organize French Club.

An open meeting is to be held at the Frontenac Business College on Tuesday evening, November 2nd, at eight o'clock, with a view of re-organizing and enlarging the Kingston branch of "Alliance Francaise." Delegate, Prof. J. M. Lanos, of the Royal Military College, will be present. All persons interested in the work of the association and particularly French-Canadian citizens, are cordially invited to lend their support. Classes in French may be conducted later for those desirous of improving their knowledge of the language, under the auspices of the projected club.

Women At The Bijou.

Women are winners at the Bijou to-day and to-morrow. Men get it "in the neck." There is a particularly powerful drama, in which a brutal burglar creeps into a lady's boudoir just as she has returned from a ball and is taking off her rich jewels. The way that smart woman pulls the wool over the eyes of that poor burglar and finally hands him over to the police, seems like a sin and a shame. She is an extremely pretty woman, but although the burglar was a burly, terrible-looking fellow, he hadn't a chance with that sweet young thing for a single minute. There is another splendidly acted drama, entitled, "Man's Weakness and Woman's Love," in which once more a poor weak man is led astray, and causes many sad happenings by his foolish, thoughtless ways. It is a splendid drama, though. J. D. Bankier sings.

Are Recovering Nicely.

James Stewart, postmaster, and Arthur E. Ellis, architect, injured by a falling vault door in the post office on Thursday afternoon are recovering nicely, though still confined to their homes.
"For cuts and bruises," liquid corn plaster. Buy it at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
