

TRIPPED ON STAIRS AND LAMP EXPLODED AND FIRE RESULTED.

Director of St. Mark's, Deseronto. Inducted—Death of James Whitton. One of Deseronto's Oldest Oddfellows.

Deseronto, Nov. 5.—On Thursday evening fire broke out in the residence of Mrs. Andrew Bone, on Main street. Mrs. Bone was coming down stairs when she tripped and the lamp in her hand fell and exploded. Not much damage was done.

On Tuesday evening the Royal Scots Concert company gave a grand entertainment in Taylor's Opera House, when a large crowd was present. One of the songs sung by Mr. Neil was "Come To Glenora With Me Darling," written by A. D. MacIntyre, of the car works office, here, and it was well received.

On Monday evening Bishop Mills conducted service in St. Mark's church, when Rev. Rufus Wagner, of Shannonville, was made rector of St. Mark's. The bishop gave an inspiring address. The visiting clergy were: Rev. Rural Dean Bibb, Napanee, Rev. Mr. Lewin, of Kingston; Rev. Dr. Parry, Selby; Rev. A. H. Oreggan, Tyendinaga; Rev. T. J. O'Connor, Peaton, Welland.

The Churchwomen's Aid of St. Mark's held an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Thomas Naylor, Main street, on Wednesday afternoon. A large sum of money was added to the treasury. Mrs. H. Bolton Webster, accompanied by her sister, Miss Kathleen Prickett, left on Friday for Sault Ste. Marie, where Mr. Webster has taken charge of the Standard Chemical company works. Mrs. Samuel Johnson and daughter, Miss Ruby, left on Friday for Tibsburg. They will spend some time in Lindsay with her daughter, Mrs. Cook Arthur Johnson, who left for Tibsburg on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. S. Yeomans and Miss Yeomans spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. James Sevensmith. Joseph Heggarty left last week for Trenton. After an illness of five weeks from a paralytic stroke, three passed away at his home on Main street, one of Deseronto's highly respected gentlemen, in the person of James Whitton, aged seventy years. He is survived by his widow and seven daughters. He was a member of the Church of the Redeemer, and in politics a conservative. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon. The flag on the Oddfellows hall is hanging at half-mast, by being one of the oldest members of that order here deceased was also a Mason.

The Tip Must Go.

Brantford Expositor. W. D. Howells, the novelist, on his return recently from a visit to Great Britain, spoke enthusiastically regarding the working of the "tipless hotel" which was recently established in London. A single daily charge for room, attendance and breakfast is the policy of the hotel. Likewise the charges for other meals are specifically prescribed, and tipping for any service is absolutely barred or prohibited. The waiter, maid, or servant who should accept a gratuity would be dismissed at once. If, he says, the hotel should demonstrate the possibility of doing away with tips it "would abolish the whole accursed thing, because the other hotels would not be able to stand out against such opposition." Of course, one hotel could not accommodate all the strangers in London, but what Mr. Howells means is that gradually other hotels would be led by self-interest to adopt the no-tip policy. This is true, and the London experiment will be watched with much anxiety and hope.

A GANANOQUE CASE. Decided By Judge Reynolds at Brockville.

Gananoque, Nov. 5.—The case of De Witt vs. George Moore, proprietor of Hay Island, house, for the past two seasons, has been decided before Judge Reynolds at Brockville. The action was one for rent, amounting in all to $465 against which Moore put up a counter claim amounting to $225, of which plaintiffs were willing to allow $75. Moore also made the charge against plaintiffs of misrepresentation and fraud, which was disproved by the contracts signed by both parties. His honor gave judgment for the plaintiff for the amount of rent, with costs. J. A. Jackson for plaintiff; W. B. Carroll, K.C., for defendant.

Gananoque Canoe and Motor Boat Association held an assembly in the assembly hall of their new clubhouse, last evening. The Salvation Army corps tendered a farewell tea at the barracks, last evening, to Mrs. Ida La Londe, King street, who is leaving early next week for Toronto to reside. Mrs. La Londe has been a member of the local corps almost since its organization, having served faithfully for twenty-one years and filled the office of secretary for the past nine years.

Court, No. 1, A.D.H., held another largely attended euchre party at their rooms last evening.

Water Works Superintendent N. R. Gardner has asked a raise in salary of $170 per annum, from the town council. The service is at present in excellent condition.

Mr. and Mrs. George Galway, Pittsburg, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lydia Jane Galway, to Robert G. Gates, the marriage to take place, Wednesday, November 17th.

Mrs. B. O. Britton, King street, provincial treasurer, W.C.T.U., is representing the local order at the dominion convention, in session at St. John, N.B., this week.

Miss Hazel Lloyd, teacher in Stone street school, is confined to her home, seriously ill. This makes two forms without teachers in Stone street school this week. Mrs. John Gibson, Stone street, has returned from a visit in Athens.

There seems no chance of having the first game for the dominion rugby championship played before November 27th.

An offer of $75,000 for the Jeffries-Johnson fight from the town of Hilliard, Washington, is not taken seriously.

The death of Cadet Byrne will have no influence on Cornell football plans, and, as far as Cornell is concerned, will not change the present rules.

Roche, the noted California referee, and a partner of Coffroth, looks for the Jeff-Johnson fight in May, with the former weighing 225 and the negro 220.

Toronto World: Varsity, if they defeat Queen's, here Saturday, will likely send a patched-up team to McGill a week from Saturday, as they will not want to take any chances on having any of their players injured for the dominion championships.

The Canadian Olympic committee issued its complete and final report by Honorary Treasurer P. D. Boss, of the receipts and expenditures made in sending its team to London in 1908: The total receipts were $20,797.51, and expenditures, $20,757, leaving $40.70 to pay for the printing and distribution of the report.

Sullivan, middle wing man of the Ottawa University rugby team, is out of the game with blood poisoning in his right leg. He was kicked several weeks ago, but paid little attention to the wound, with the result that the color of his stocking ran into it and developed poison. "Chump" O'Neil is again ill, so the college team is hopelessly crippled. "Mike" Smith and "Quilly" have been moved to the hall line.

Varsity will not have their full strength on against Queen's on Saturday, as scrimmager Jones has developed water on the knee and will be out of the game this week. His place will be taken by Lajoie, who has been holding down Hume's position so well. There is also a chance that Gall will not be able to play, by hurting his leg at Ottawa last Saturday, and in the event of Gall not playing, Laing may be used at full-back.

FLOWERS MADE TO EAT.

New Decoration Useful As Well As Ornamental.

London, Nov. 5.—Floral table decorations, which may be eaten for dessert, form a pretty table novelty at the Grosvenor's Exhibit, held in Agricultural Hall.

Crystallized rose petals and violets have long been highly popular confectionery delicacies, but the manufacturers have carried their studies in floriculture further, and the up-to-date confectionery bouquet includes tiger lilies, anemones, laburnums, carnations, lilacs, iris, mimosa, crimson ranunculus and white violets.

In each case the real flower, freshly cut and fragrant, is dipped into the boiling syrup and crystallized. The flowers, being preserved whole, they can be made into bouquets and sprays and make charming table decorations. Clusters of crystallized roses, arranged in silver flower holders, with sweetmeat rose petals scattered over the damask cloth, make a novel and delectable scheme of decoration.

We Cannot Improve It

Taylor's Infants' Delight represents over forty-three years of constant effort along one line—the effort to make a perfect soap.

A liberal reward is waiting for any one who can tell us how to improve it in the slightest. We ourselves believe it to be perfect and can conceive of no way of improving it. The choicest oils from the Orient enter into its composition—olive oil from the first pressing of selected fruits—coconut oil, the best the market affords, and that refined with extra care—and with all this just sufficient otto of roses—that choicest perfume from the Sultan's Domain—to impart a delicate, wholesome fragrance to the skin. In we have produced a soap so mild and soothing—so wonderfully cleansing and healing, that it is universally used in homes of wealth and refinement where the best is considered none too good for the toilet.

We ask you to try at least one bar and know that we have not exaggerated its goodness.
