LOCAL NOTES AND THINGS IN GENERAL

Occurrences in The City and Vicinity—Other Brief Items of Interest Easily Read and Re-remembered.
Popular music, 10c. See coupon on page 5.
William Swaine, piano tuner. Orders received at McAuley's, Phone 774.
R. H. Nelson, Kingston, was elected secretary of the provincial Y.M.C.A. Association.
"It's knee bow talcum powder," flesh color. Buy it at Gibson's Red Cross Drug store.
Mrs. S. Birch and Miss Beatrice Birch, Bagot street, are home after a month's visit in Ottawa.
H. Cunningham, piano tuner for Chubb's, leave orders at McAuley's Book Store.
"Flesh color talcum powder," sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
It was bright and cold on Sunday, but on Monday, oh, my! This was a real November day, dreary and rainy. Beef, Iron and Wine, an ideal tonic, in pint bottles, 50c., at Prouse's Drug Store (up-town post office branch).
Alexander Sullivan, a son of Michael Sullivan, Rideau street, is seriously ill, at his home, with heart trouble.
"Buy drug store wants by telephone," 220 Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Prompt delivery service.
Miss Hattie Wartman, Bath, is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. (Dr.) Nash, 183 Princess street.
The School of Mining governors meet on Wednesday afternoon to open the tenders for the erection of the new science building.
"Pape's Biuret Compound" Tablets for kidney and bladder troubles are sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
Gananogue now gets a four-pound loaf of bread for twelve cents. No doubt Kingston will be next to receive happy news.
Remember "At Home," Nurses' Residence, Wednesday, November 10th, 4 to 6. Home-made and candy tables, 10c.
George Arliss, in "Septimus," comes to the Grand on Thursday, November 11th. He and his company have a real live story to tell.
Dr. Nash, Princess street, spent last week at Pleasant hunting deer. He returned home Saturday night, bringing a fine specimen with him.
"The genuine" Morse Indian Root Pills are sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
The register at the British-American hotel, on Saturday and Sunday, showed a fine list of guests. They like to spend Sunday in this good burg.
In Louis Abramson's store, Saturday night, a candle set fire to a packing case containing rubbers. A pair of water was all that was needed to put out the blaze.
"Shop by telephone," 220 is Gibson's Red Cross drug store. The most prompt delivery in the city.
Donald Craig, a young man from the township of Kingston, has been appointed to the fire department, as driver at the lower station. He began his duties on Saturday night.
