A FERRY LEASE ROW At Port Erie—Steamer Pierrepont Sought For.

There's a ferry lease row at Port Erie, and a mass meeting was held the other night. H. Radford, a former Kingstonian, a resident of Port Erie, is fighting the International Ferry company, and declares it his intention to have the Canadian government, at Port Erie, Mr. Tompkins has given assurance that no lease would be granted for at least ten days, or time enough to enable the people of Port Erie to show they are, as they claim, being discriminated against in the matter of ferry service.

Mr. Radford read a telegram he had received from the owners of the Pierrepont, a Kingston, Ont., ferryboat, stating she could be put in service at Port Erie in forty-eight hours, and he defied the ferry company to carry out its threat. According to Mr. Radford, the Pierrepont is a steel boat, side-wheel, and capable of making her way through twenty-four inches of ice.

"For I've had her do that when I sailed her myself," explained Mr. Radford, while the crowd applauded. A resolution was adopted, asking the village council to request the Canadian minister to withhold his signature from the lease until the companies have had a chance to file applications.

MORE BUILDINGS GOING UP Additional Permits For Houses Taken Out.

Mr. Allen intends constructing seven or eight more houses on his land up there, which he has laid out in lots. The locality is just about two blocks from the Union street section of the street railway line, and, hence, has good connection with downtown.

"PECK'S BAD BOY." Lad Creates Trouble at Local Grocery Store.

"Peck's Bad Boy" would be an appropriate name for the story. The lad, probably about fourteen years of age, has been causing a heap of trouble around a grocery store on Brock street, for several days. The boy is full "of the mischief," as the saying goes, and his little game was to mix up things in front of the store. For instance, he would take fish out of a barrel and place them into a bag of potatoes. Anything for mischief, and this, of course, made the proprietor very mad. Yesterday the storekeeper watched for the youngster and when he noticed him pick up a cabbage and instead of him pick up a cabbage and instead he would take fish out of a barrel and place them into a bag of potatoes. Anything for mischief, and this, of course, made the proprietor very mad. A Merchant's Complaint.

All sorts of complaints are made to the police. This afternoon, a Princess street merchant complained that a merchant in the same line of business as himself, had sent a lad over to his store, with a note, which he characterized as very insulting. A policeman was sent to the scene, and the merchant making the complaint was given to understand that if he wanted to take action in the case, he must take out a summons. It was not known this afternoon whether or not action would be taken, but it looks like trouble, all right.

NEW POLITICAL ARGUMENT. Thinks it is Time For a New Party.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 9.—George Turner, former United States senator for Eastern Washington, and one time a judge on the supreme bench in this state, declares that while he is out of politics he is in sympathy with William Jennings Bryan, Theodore Roosevelt, Senators La Follette and Cummings, Congressman Miles-Poindexter and others of the advanced wings of the democratic and republican parties. He says among other things in an authorized statement:

"In my judgment, there is but little difference in the principles and purpose of the two parties and absolutely no difference, except a few exploded fallacies of anti-bellum democracy between the reactionary elements of the old parties. There ought to be a new political alignment to meet these conditions. I hope to be found with Bryan, Roosevelt, La Follette and those who believe with them. Until then I shall remain with Bryan and the advanced democracy he represents."
