Told in Twilight

Two of the autumn brides held court, yesterday, and they found themselves just as popular as matrons as ever they were as maids—which is saying a good deal.

The St. Michael and All Angels' day bride, Mrs. Halloway Waddell, fresh from the home of her husband's people, Bonnie Scotland, received with her aunt, Miss Mary Hora, King street. She never looked lovelier than yesterday, as in her wedding gown of white satin, with its engravations of pearls, she welcomed with all the charm which is hers, her old friends. Miss Madelon Carter, wearing her bride-maid's frock of blue satin, was assisting, and Miss Marjorie Pense took the place of the two bride-maid cousins, Miss Elsie Pense and Miss Nora Gordon.

The slightly later bride, an October matron, Mrs. W. H. Craig, also held her reception in her pretty home, on William street. The visitor was reminded of the picture of "Isabel Carnaby's" drawing-room, which was in tones of green, the only possible color for a perfect drawing-room, as it was seen what a soft and attractive background it made for the lovely little bride and her maids. The warm light from a real fire and the soft glow from candles touched the heavy silver fringe and embroidery on the bride's ivory satin wedding gown, and the gold which trimmed the maize satin gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Bessie Smyth and Miss Kate Craig, and pictures indeed they all looked. The sweetest and most cordial little welcome came from the bride, and everyone felt freshly glad that marriage had not taken her from Kingston. Tea, coffee and ice were dispensed in the dining-room by Mrs. James Craig, Mrs. W. G. Craig and Mrs. Robert Sutherland, the girls assisting being Miss Jean Craig and Miss Grace Martin. The tea table was very pretty with its soft tulle centre, with sprays of green, and its vase of perfect white chrysanthemums. Today Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Frances Sullivan and Miss Marion Redden will assist the principals.

Mr. John Bowman, representative of Mr. Andrew Carnegie's College Foundation, who is visiting Kingston, was entertained at luncheon, yesterday, by Dean Cappen, Barr, street. At night, Dr. W. L. Goodwin, Alice street, gave a large dinner in his honor, when the members of the mining staff and several others were invited to meet him.

The Lord Bishop of Ontario and Mrs. Lennox Mills were receiving at "Bishopscourt," yesterday, and, as usual, the drawing-room was filled with visitors. Mrs. R. C. Carter did the honors of the tea table.

Mrs. W. N. Robertson, Wellington street, will receive the first and second Thursdays of the month. Her sister, Mrs. Shaw, will receive with her on Thursday.

Mrs. A. W. Winnett will receive on Friday afternoon and evening at her home, corner Bagot and West streets.

Mrs. Robert Halloway Waddell will receive, to-morrow, Thursday, with Miss Hora, King street.

Mr. P. C. Campbell, Stuart street, was host of a very small tea, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. P. Shine asked a few people to play a game of bridge, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hooper, Albert street, left, to-day, to visit friends in Montreal.

Miss Constance Low is coming up from Ottawa shortly.

Miss A. Neilson, of Conway, Ont., is a visitor in the city, accompanied by her friend, Miss Darby, of Elmira, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. R. McCann, Johnson street, were in Toronto for a few days visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Austin Gillies.

Mrs. Philip Gilbert and her family have left Montreal to spend the winter in Toronto with Judge Britton.

Miss Jean Duff, Princess street, was a visitor with her aunt, Mrs. J. Noble, Toronto, for the weekend.

Miss Margaret Fekrie with Miss Jean Fraser in Roxborough street west, and Miss Phyllis Knight and Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, with Mrs. Andrew Drummond, Wellesley street, Colonel and Mrs. J. H. V. Crowe, of the Royal Military College, and Miss Crowe, have gone to Ottawa for the drawing-room.

Miss Bessie Gordon has gone down from Ottawa to Montreal to look up quarters.

Miss Agnes and Miss Jean Campbell are in town from Keene and will spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. Halloway Waddell, who were not expected back till to-day, came home on Monday and were warmly welcomed by Mrs. W. G. Craig, in expecting Mrs. Neilson up from Quebec at the end of the week.

Miss Minnie Murray, of Niagara-on-the-Lake, is spending a few days in town.

Lady Cartwright is entertaining at a supper party after the drawing-room at Ottawa on Saturday evening.

Col. and Mrs. Gordon and the Misses Gordon are leaving Ottawa early next week for Montreal, where they will reside.

Miss Margaret Mulholland, who was visiting Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes, King street, has returned to Cornwall.

Mrs. Bernard Hepburn, Mrs. W. H. Turner and Miss Tottie Hepburn, of Picton, are in town and are at the Frontenac hotel.

Miss May Buckley is expected home on Friday, from Toronto, where she sang in Knox Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mrs. John Mowat and Miss Ethelwyn Mowat have left for Toronto where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young, and Miss Edith Young, University avenue, have gone to Ottawa, where, to-mor-

STOLE PEARL NECKLACE.

Actress Robbed at Lord Mayor's Procession.

London, Nov. 10.—Vesta Victoria, the actress, has reported to the police that she was robbed of a pearl necklace while watching the lord mayor's procession. According to her story, the necklace originally cost $50,000.

It belonged to the wife of one of New York's four hundred, who was interested in a bank. The actress bought it cheaply during a bank panic in America.

It is with intense satisfaction that I am able to relate how I was snatched by Dr. Hamilton's Pills from my bed of sickness," writes H. H. Sargent, a well-known hardware traveller residing at Charleston. "So many changes of diet brought on a fit of indigestion and liver complaint, but being very busy I didn't give the matter much attention. Headaches, awful dizzy spells, and constant tiredness soon made it impossible for me to attend properly to business. My appetite faded away. I became thin and looked yellow and jaundiced. I used three different prescriptions which physicians said would tone up my liver and regulate my bowels—but I got no relief at all till I started to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills. After taking them for a few days I was surprised at the energy and force I obtained; the old feeling of tiredness and lack of desire to work disappeared, and instead came vigor, energy, ambition, good color and sound digestion. I take Dr. Hamilton's Pills three times a week and ever since have enjoyed the best of health."

What's the use of feeling so languid, so stupid and dull when Dr. Hamilton's Pills will give you such robust, joyous health. For all disorders of the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels, no medicine compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1, at all dealers or the Carterholme company, Kingston, Ont.
