

BUSY SESSION

Is Likely to Be Seen in Ottawa.

PARLIAMENT OPENS

LIKELY LAST EARL GREY WILL ATTEND.

Several Measures That Promise to Create Much Discussion—Canada's Relationship to the United States—Will We Have a Navy?

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—The governor-general opened parliament, to-day, the usual elaborate ceremonies being in evidence and the demand for seats from the "400" of the capital and the dominion generally being greater than ever before. It is probably the last time Earl Grey will preside at such a Canadian function as his term of office as the king's representative in Canada ends this year.

The much-discussed Payne bill and its probable effects on Canada, and Canada's proposed navy will be two of the issues to loom largest during the session, and will, in all probability, be the ones that will affect the United States most. Of course, it is asserted that Canada does discriminate against the United States, and that the new tariff law, as at Washington, drawn in a way to hand out punishment for it, but it appears the responsibility is to be left with President Taft, and it is considered improbable that he will take any course that would mean Canada's retaliating. The chances are that Uncle Sam will have no formal tariff war with Canada.

The big issue will be the new navy. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has plainly intimated that Canada is to go ahead with the building of a new navy, but there are those who say it will cause complications more or less with Americans, that it would be better to make a straight annual contribution of from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 to the imperial navy, and others disapprove of any expenditure at all.

DIED OF HER OWN ACT.

Reporters Find Head of Fall River Victim.

Taunton, Mass., Nov. 11.—While the attorney for "Prof." Frank L. Hill, the Fall River herb doctor, who pleaded guilty in the Bristol county superior court to an indictment of manslaughter in connection with the Fiverson suit mystery, was making a statement in the nature of a confession, reporters in the neighboring city of Fall River found in a spot indicated in the confession the head of the victim, which completed the dismembered body of the young woman.

Hill's attorney, in his statement to the court, said that the victim, Amelia St. Jean, of Woonsocket, R.I., had died in Hill's office as a result of her own act, after the herb doctor had refused to give her surgical relief which she sought.

Pending the examination of the head, and in view of the statement of four doctors that they could not accept Hill's alleged confession, Judge Stevens postponed sentence in the case, and Hill was remanded to jail.

TO AID HUMANITY.

Gift of $700,000 For Tuberculosis Preventorium.

New York, Nov. 11.—Separate gifts for fighting disease of nearly a million dollars are announced in New York. Of this sum $700,000 is to be used for the establishment of a tuberculosis preventorium for children, while $150,000 was given by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sloane for a seven-story addition to the hospital of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia university.

In connection with the tuberculosis preventorium, a movement has been organized which purposes to take from New York tenements children who have been affected with tuberculosis and restore them to normal health before it is too late. The plan was formally organized at a meeting last evening in the Fifth avenue residence of Henry Phipps.

A contribution to the work by Nathan Straus includes a $500,000 cottage and estate at Lakewood, N.J., occupied by the late Grover Cleveland just before his death. There the new institution will have its home. Miss Dorothy Whitney contributed a $500,000 endowment fund.

PRESIDENT FAGED OUT.

Will Take No More Trips Until Next Summer.

Wilmington, N.S., Nov. 11.—His 13,000 mile journey through thirty-three states and territories all but concluded, President Taft is speeding towards Washington to spend the night at home at the White House. The president has had a wonderfully good time on his long trip, but is pretty well fagged out.

Mr. Taft has given up all idea of visiting the Isthmus of Panama this winter and will take no more long trips of any sort until next summer, when he hopes to visit Alaska. He will spend the Christmas holidays in the White House with his family. The president is especially glad in getting home to know that Mrs. Taft is so much better. The great improvement which began at Beverly during the summer has continued steadily and complete recovery from the nervous breakdown of last spring is certain in the near future.

GAVE LIFE FOR RABBIT.

Man Climbed Down Well to Rescue Sides Gave Way.

Phoenixville, Penn., Nov. 11.—His pity for a rabbit that had fallen into a well cost Frank Roebaugh, thirty years old, an engineer, his life. Roebaugh and a friend frightened a rabbit, which, in its efforts to escape, plunged into a deep well, where the two men could hear it splashing about in the water.

Kaiser To Stay On Last.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Emperor William condescended to Count Zeppelin recently by his fear that he would never experience the sensation of flying in the air. He said he had promised the empress that he would never make an ascent either in a dirigible balloon or an aeroplane. His majesty added that the empress regarded all air craft as most perilous.

Suit Dismissed.

Justice Treadwell dismissed the action of the Bay of Quinte railroad against the C.P.R., in which the plaintiffs claimed $2,914 damages for an accident at Tweed Junction. The judge, in dismissing the suit, said that great negligence had been shown by both parties.

NO DEFENCE PUT IN

WIFE GIVEN A DIVORCE IN WATERTOWN COURT.

Sequel of His Island Life—Appleton is the Man Who Was Recently Fined in Watertown For Assaulting a Steamboat Man.

Watertown, N.Y., Nov. 11.—Harry Appleton, well known at the Thousand Islands, in this city and in Syracuse, especially following the big steamboat scrap at Alexandria Bay last summer, in which he punched Walter Visger, Jr., in the eye with such force that Visger caused his arrest, which later resulted in Appleton being held for the grand jury, indicted and fined $50, was again in the limelight here when in supreme court he became the defendant in a divorce action brought by his wife, Clara, who told her story of her husband's alleged misdoings in a way that caused everyone to become interested. When the evidence was all in a verdict was ordered for the wife. Appleton failed to put in an appearance, Attorney McKinley, Clayton, appearing for Mrs. Appleton.

It appears that Appleton enjoyed himself at the islands last summer in a way that caused his wife to become suspicious of the pleasure to be found at a big summer resort. A talk with an Alexandria Bay boarding-house keeper strengthened Mrs. Appleton's suspicions and the action for divorce was commenced.

Broke His Jawbone.

Cornwall, Nov. 11.—Gower Fleming, a well-to-do farmer of Cornwall township, met with a peculiar accident the other day. He drove into the village of Mille Roches, and as he alighted from his buggy another horse passed and kicked Fleming in the face, breaking his jawbone. He will be laid up for some time.

COMPEL DRILL

The New Zealand Budget Proposals.

TO FULFIL OFFER

EXPENDITURE OF MUCH MONEY PROPOSED

For Internal Defence—The Present System is to Be Reorganized to Meet With Views of Imperial Defence Committee—To Have Local Option.

Wellington, N.Z., Nov. 11.—The New Zealand budget proposals include the raising of a loan, not exceeding £2,000,000, at three and one-half per cent, for the fulfillment of the Dreadnought offer. The naval proposals involve a total expenditure of £25,000,000 annually, £150,000 towards the cost of the Dreadnought, and £100,000 as a contribution to the admiralty to cover the difference between the imperial and local rates of pay.

Regarding internal defence, it is proposed to reorganize the present system on lines approved by the imperial defence conference as applied to local conditions. All boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen will undergo elementary progressive training in the cadet division. All young men between eighteen and twenty-one will undergo two years' compulsory training on stated evenings, half days and whole days, and also fourteen days annually in camp. A volunteer force of 20,000 will be maintained and rifle clubs will be encouraged. The cost of the scheme is estimated at £100,000. A further sum of £150,000 will be expended, in a period of three years, on additional armament and field equipment.

In the course of the budget speech, Premier Ward announced that an arrangement had been reached between hotelkeepers and prohibitionists for legislation permitting national and local option on the basis of "No license, no liquor."

TO SHUN POLITICS.

"Stay at Home and Mind the Baby."

London, Nov. 11.—Miss Marie Correll, writing on "The Problem of The Suffragette," in the current issue of the London Magazine, says: "My sympathies are with all women who work, chiefly perhaps with the brave and patient heroines among the poorer classes who bring up their children in the midst of harrowing difficulties, and who love and cherish their husbands faithfully through all trial and temptation. These I look upon as the weavers of the threads on the loom which makes the fabric of the nation. They are too divinely laborious to look about for 'rights' other than their possessors."

"Next, I truly sympathize with women in the arts and professions; that is, if they really are in earnest about their work and are not mere dabblers. To follow art or literature adequately means for either man or woman a taste of martyrdom, and I admire all those irrespective of sex who clasp the cross to gain the crown."

"But I have no sympathy whatever with woman in politics. There she is utterly out of her sphere, and I am wholly with the 'brute' man who, seeing her rushing into such a tumultuous vortex, cries: 'Stay at home and mind the baby.' For politics are no longer dignified; they have become vulgar. And it is better to stay at home and rear one life to possible good issues than mix in a fray, for the lives of millions, especially as those millions generally take their own way in the end."

CANADIAN GIRL BARONESS.

Miss Steverman Weds After Four Days Courtship.

Hallfax, N.S., Nov. 11.—After a courtship lasting four days, Miss Ada Steverman, a young Lunenburg girl, has become Baroness Von David, having secretly wedded the youthful holder of that German title in Boston some time ago. A few of Miss Steverman's former classmates have received brief notes from her, informing them that she had wedded Marion Pritchard Von David, a medical student of Boston, some time ago.

It was at a recital she first met Von David. The young German was so much taken by her beauty and musical talent that he secured an introduction. After an ardent tentative courtship of four days, Miss Steverman consented to share Von David's title and they were quietly married in Providence.

As soon as Von David has completed his medical studies he will return to Germany. Miss Steverman is a niece of the late C. E. Kaulbach, M.P.

REMARKABLE YOUTH.

Blind in Daytime, Sees Like Owl at Night.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 11.—Medical experts are interested in the case of nineteen-year-old Audrey Wilson, of Nottoway county, who is totally blind in the day, but can see like a cat in the dark. The young man can speed a bicycle when the night is so dark that ordinary people have to walk with caution, but in the day he gropes about able only vaguely to distinguish objects and with no discrimination as to colors. Because of his peculiar infirmity, the young man is noted as a "possum hunter. He can distinguish the animals in the trees in the dark as readily as a dog can follow the scent. All his life Wilson has suffered from the legal experts, it grows out of too much light entering the eye. It is called the "albino eye," he says.

IS PUZZLING EXPERTS

To Know What to Charge Against An Hypnotist.

Somerville, N.J., Nov. 10.—An interesting legal question is a sequel, to-day, of the autopsy performed last night, on the body of Robert Simpson, the hypnotist subject whom Arthur Everton, a hypnotist, failed to restore after placing him in a trance. The autopsy disclosed that Simpson's death was due to a rupture of the aorta. To just what measure of responsibility, if any, Everton will finally be held, by the law, is a question which is puzzling the legal experts. The prosecutor of the district, is credited with the intention of holding Everton on a technical charge of manslaughter until his case can be passed upon by the grand jury, next month.

CAUGHT BY BELT.

James B. Denning of Strathroy Has a Remarkable Escape.

Strathroy, Ont., Nov. 11.—James B. Denning, an employee of the Cameron & Dunn company, here, had a miraculous escape from death. Denning had climbed up to turn down a pulley, but did not take the usual precaution to slacken the speed of the belt, and by some means he was thrown to the cement floor, seventeen feet below, head first. In falling, however, he came in contact with the belt, which turned his body, thus saving his life. Strange to say, no bones were broken, although he is suffering great pain. He will recover.

GRAVE ROBBED.

Valuable Pieces of Jewellery Stolen From Body.

Glen Falls, N.Y., Nov. 11.—Grave-robbers have been at work in this vicinity and the police of this city and neighboring towns are on the lookout for further depredations. The superintendent of the Union cemetery reported that the grave of J. Edward Howland, a Sandhill millionaire, who died a few months ago, had been opened during the night and several valuable pieces of jewelry.

NEW U.S. FIVE-CENT PIECES.

Proposed Coin Will Bear Head of Washington.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Dies for a proposed five-cent piece bearing the head of George Washington, to take the place of the coin now in circulation, have been prepared by the engravers of the United States mint in this city. If the government adopts this coin it will be the first in authorized circulation to bear the head of the first president of the republic.

TO PRACTICE LAW

CAPTAIN SEALBY TAKES UP ANOTHER PROFESSION.

Ambitious to Be a Lawyer—Sinking of His Steamship Leads Him to Devote Himself to Legal Studies.

New York, Nov. 11.—Capt. Inman Sealby, White Star Line Republic, which went down off Nantucket Island last winter after passengers and crew had been rescued through the "C. Q. D." messages of "Jack" Binns, wireless operator, has been enrolled as a freshman in the law department of the University of Michigan.

Years ago, long before he snuffed the salt sea breeze, the master of the Republic had ambitions to take a course in admiralty law. Promotions came, the lure of the ocean was strong, and Capt. Sealby would probably have gone down to the sea in ships all his days had not the Italian steamship ramméd a hole in the Republic.

Then came the drama of the high seas that held the attention of whole nations for days. Six persons were killed, but the rest of the human cargo of both crippled boats, 1,650 lives in all, were transferred to the steamer Baltic without mishap. Next day the Republic went down, Capt. Sealby refusing to abandon his boat until the last vestige was under the waves.

GREAT RECEPTION.

Society Turns Out to Meet English Suffragette.

Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 11.—A reception to Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst, the famous English suffragette, was held, yesterday afternoon, at Rosemary Hall, one of the most fashionable girls' boarding schools in the east where head, Miss Rootzies, is vice-president of the Greenwich Equal Franchise League. The largest gathering of Greenwich and New York society people the town has ever witnessed was present. The reception took place in the parlors of the school which were prettily decorated with palms, autumn leaves, etc., for the occasion. The halls of Mrs. Pankhurst's lectures in the evening were crowded.

SHOT AND KILLED.

Man Was Mistaken For a Deer By a Chore Boy.

Renfrew, Ont., Nov. 11.—A sad fatality has to be numbered to the list of too many cases of want of due precaution in shooting during deer hunting season. James Price, a young expert marksman, a shantymen and employee of Messrs. Alexander Barnett & Company, lumbermen, Renfrew, was shot near the firm's shanty at Brulo Lake, on Saturday, by a chore boy named Robert Huggett, just recently engaged. Price had left the shanty by a short time, when Huggett, going out, noticed a movement in the nearby bush. Hastily concluding it was a deer, he took deadly aim, and Price was fatally shot through the neck, and died on Monday night. The body was brought to Renfrew by train and accompanied to the P. E. station by Mr. Barnett, and his two sons, Thomas and Harold, for transfer to the home of deceased, in Pakenham.

DIED AFTER SHORT ILLNESS.

The Ladies of Church Gave a Fine Spread.

Napanee, Nov. 11.—The ladies of the Western Methodist church held their annual King Edward supper on Tuesday evening, November 9th. The ladies spared no pains to make the church attractive with flags and bunting, and the supper was all that the most fastidious could wish. Fully 600 partook of it.

After the supper a splendid programme was rendered by local talent and patriotic addresses given by Rev. Mr. De Mille, D. L. Hill and Rev. W. H. Emley. The musical part of the programme deserves special mention. The vocal duet by the Misses Paul and and solos by Miss Myrtle Bell and Miss Lila Thompson and recitation by Miss Chrysler completed an evening of much enjoyment.

Miss Minnie Miller is spending a holiday under the parental roof. She has spent the past six months in Paris, France, in the English hospital in that city, and returned to New York with a patient. She returns to her work in Paris after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Miller, John street.

Very sad indeed was the death of Joseph McGee, "The Pines," on Tuesday morning, after but a few days' illness. Deceased took ill on Saturday night and when a doctor was summoned pronounced the trouble hemorrhage of the brain. He was forty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and three small children. About ten months ago the eldest son was drowned. Deceased was one of a family of six brothers, all residents of Fredericksburg. The funeral took place this afternoon.

Frederick Thompson left, yesterday, for Pasco, Wash., to spend the winter with his brother, Everett Thompson, in the hope that the milder climate will prove beneficial to his health.

LOSS OF NICKEL.

Leads to a Suit to Recover $200—Was Put Off Car.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Nov. 11.—A. A. Pray, of this city, wants $200 from the Ogdensburg street railway company, for humiliation and other annoyances, following the loss of a nickel which he claims he tried to insert in the slot of the fare box used by the conductor.

The spring of the slot tossed the nickel back and it rolled on the floor. Pray and the conductor diligently searched for the coin, but were unable to find it. Pray refused to hand over another fare, and he claims he was put off the car several blocks away from his destination.

The Affair Is Off.

Rome, Nov. 11.—"There is no longer any association between Miss Katherine Elkins and myself." This statement, attributed to the Duke of the Abruzzi and said to have been made in the presence of official personages, is believed to close for good the reported match between the duke and the American heiress. It was reported by those who know the inside gossip of the Italian royalty that the duke is soon to wed a Russian grand duchess.

Does Not Plan Expedition.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Commander Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, who has taken up his residence with his family in Washington for the winter, is not contemplating an expedition to the South Pole. While the commander stands ready to furnish expert knowledge and advice to any explorer about to embark on a trip to the far south, as he has previously stated, he is not preparing to make such trip himself.

TEST OF DISPOSITION

SHE BLAMES CROQUET FOR ILL-HUMOR.

Rector's Wife, Suing For Separation Says Husband Quarrelled While Playing and Sulked.

London, Nov. 11.—"I do not think there is any game which is so liable to put one out of humor as croquet," remarked Justice Bargrave Deane in the divorce court.

The case in which the judge laid down this decision was the suit for judicial separation which Mrs. Alice Mary Fearnley-Whittingstall brought against her husband, Rev. Herbert Oakes Fearnley-Whittingstall, of Chalfont St. Giles, on the ground of cruelty. It was alleged that the rector frequently lost his temper, and his wife had stated that one occasion when they were playing croquet he was so annoyed because she raised a question as to whether his ball had quite gone through a hoop that he did not speak to her for days.

Miss Gwendoline Lewis, a violin teacher, went into the witness box and stated that the rector had objected to her stopping at the rectory on the ground that she supported his wife against him. She admitted that in another case she had been accused of causing the wife to bring a separation suit against her husband. The hearing was adjourned.

TURGEON'S LAND DEAL.

Quebec Government Submits Matter to the Courts.

Montreal, Nov. 11.—Sir Lower Gouin made his first appearance in his old constituency of St. James, in the contest between Ald. Robillard and Mr. Lafamme for the seat in the provincial legislature. Replying to the attacks made by Armand Lavergne upon Hon. Adelard Turgeon, that the latter, while minister of lands and forests, had sold sixty-seven arpents of land, which was the property of the Quebec harbor commission, and later secured it for himself, Sir Lower stated that this had been done by Mr. Turgeon, but without the knowledge of the other members of the cabinet. As soon as the facts became known, the premier stated, the government had submitted the matter to the courts, to decide whether Hon. Mr. Turgeon's course was legal, or whether the lands should still belong to the province.
