CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR CHEMISTRY BUILDING AT QUEEN'S.

Michael Sullivan Gets the Masonry and Carpentry Contract—The Tenders Were Close But Within the Architects' Estimate.

The governors of the School of Mining met, on Thursday afternoon, to award the contracts for the erection of the new chemistry building. It was found that the lowest tenders were well within the estimate of the architects, Power & Son, the latter having figured quite close on such a good-sized work. Eighteen tenders were received from contractors of Kingston, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton and London, and all were quite close. The following was the award:

Michael Sullivan, masonry and carpentry, $59,634.

McKelvey & Birch, plumbing, heating, ventilation, metal work and slating, $7,672.

T. McMahon & Co., painting and glazing, $1,940.

Newman Electric company, electrical work, $1,195.

Contractor Sullivan will begin work on the foundation immediately, the excavation having been made some time ago.

The governors have $92,000 for the building. The contracts awarded total $70,411, so that there is $21,589 left for fittings and architect's fees.

Power & Son are now completing the plans and specifications for the metallurgy building, for which Prof. William Nichol donated $40,000 to the Mining School governors, in return for an annuity. Tenders for this building will be called before the end of the month.

RUGBY ON SATURDAY.

Local Teams Ready For Toronto and Ottawa.

Queen's seniors will line up against Ottawa College on Saturday—the same as they lined up against Varsity on Saturday last. The team has been working steadily all week, and should easily give Ottawa a good drubbing.

Elliott is the only Queen's man who has felt any ill effects, but it is hoped he will be able to play. The team will be: Williams, full back; Leckie and Moran, and Dickson or Campbell, halves; Morley, quarter; Kinoshia, O'Connell, Clarke, scrumming; Lloyd, Gallagher, inside wings; McKay, Erskine, middle wings; Smith, Elliott, outside wings.

Cadets seniors are in fine condition for their game with Varsity II, on Saturday afternoon. The soldiers have been working hard, and should easily increase their one point lead. The Cadets will line up as follows: Meredith, full back; Greene, Stuart, Smith, halves; Campbell, quarter; Young, Holt, Blue, scrumming; Arnold, Rogers, inside wings; Parr, McAvity, middle wings; Boswell, Gwynne, outside wings.

The Collegiates feel quite confident of easily defeating their old rivals, Ottawa Collegiates here on Saturday. The Ottawa team will come up on the occasion, and will be met by the locals, who will act as hosts during the day.

Asking Amendments.

Toronto Star: Another amendment in regard to the O.H.A. juniors comes from James Sutherland, of Kingston, who suggests that all games in this series be divided into quarters, with five minutes' intermission at the end of each fifteen minutes of play, instead of one ten minutes' intermission at half-time. Mr. Sutherland contends that the young players exhaust themselves quicker than the intermediates and seniors, and should be legislated for accordingly. The only objection that can be raised is the tendency of the players to overstep the time limit during intermissions, and not respond quickly to the referee's whistle which would be unfortunate from the spectators' standpoint. Nobody likes sitting in a cold rink waiting for dilatory players to come on the ice, and the delegates might consider that to be sufficient to kill the proposal at the convention.

Varsity Teams Coming.

Varsity II and III rugby teams will arrive from Toronto at 7:45 o'clock, this evening for their games with R.M.C. I and Queen's III to-morrow.

The steamer Welshman, burned near Lachute, last Sunday, was built in 1874 for the late F. G. Gledersleeve, by the late William Power on the site now occupied by the government dry dock. The machinery was made in Toronto, and was installed by John F. McEwen, of this city. The Welchman carried wood from Rideau canal to the late W. & N. company. Years afterwards she was sold to the Ottawa Forwarding company.

HERE'S SOME GOOD NEWS

From W. W. Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

W. W. Gibson, proprietor of the Red Cross Drug Store, has just returned from a buying trip to Toronto, where he made his selections of fancy baskets and hand-painted boxes of McConkey's famous choice of royalty, and his delicious sweets, for his Christmas trade. The Red Cross Drug Store has the highest reputation between Montreal and Toronto, and even in these cities more beautiful baskets or boxes are not to be seen than are sold at this store during Christmas season. Last year orders were received from as far as the West Indian Islands, British Columbia, Texas, Halifax, New Orleans, Pittsburg, and Chicago, for these high-class sweets, for delivery in Canada.

This year Mr. Gibson promises even more beautiful designs and also a larger assortment than he has ever shown to Kingstonians. Last year was a record year for Christmas trade in this line, and the store that dispenses of 2,300 pounds, or one ton and three hundred pounds, has an enviable reputation. Mr. Gibson says his motto is to always be ready to get the very latest designs, and it's always a pleasure to show the goods and give prices.

ON THE TENNIS COURTS OF QUEEN'S TO-DAY.

Casselman and Dobson Meet—The Students' Parade on Saturday Evening Promises to Be a Great Event.

The finals in the single events of the tennis tournament will be decided to-day, when Casselman, the winner of the present series, will meet Dobson, last year's champion.

George Hicks played remarkable tennis on Wednesday; he ran off no less than seven consecutive sets, defeating Clark, 6-3, 6-4; Tuttle, 6-2, 6-3, but going down before MacLeod in the semi-finals, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2.

Casselman defeated Dyde, 7-5, 6-1, and MacLeod, 6-1, 10-8, 6-4. In the mixed doubles, Miss Chown and W. F. Dyde defeated Miss McInnis and Mr. MacNeil, 6-4, 7-5.

The tournament will close to-day.

Prof. Nissen will lecture in the science building this afternoon, on, "Mining in the West."

The members of the hockey team will commence their training classes in the gymnasium on Monday. These will be continued three days each week until the ice is in shape.

The parade on Saturday evening will be a monster. Each faculty and year is endeavoring to surpass the other in beauty and brilliancy, and some startling novelties will be introduced.

Y.M.C.A. BOYS AS SCOUTS.

They Will Go on An Expedition on Saturday.

A rather novel outing has been arranged for the junior and collegiate boys of the Y.M.C.A. for Saturday, when they will engage in a scouting expedition, and with fine weather the affair promises to be a most interesting one.

The boys will divide into two parties. One party will leave the Y.M.C.A. at 8:30 a.m., and the second party to take up the role of Baden Powell's scouts will leave later on, and when they locate the other boys. The first party will head for Barriefield. William Manhard will be in charge of one party, and J. J. Thompson will look after the other party.

The officials in charge of the work at the Y.M.C.A. are endeavoring to give the boys, the best possible outing, and this is much appreciated by the boys. It is hoped that there will be a large turnout to-morrow.

BROKE INTO TEARS.

Poor Baptiste Goes to Jail For Three Months.

John Sauve, commonly known as "Poor Baptiste," was before the police magistrate this morning, for drunkenness, and when he stood up he broke into tears. Baptiste is about seventy-seven years of age, and has been before the court on many occasions. His love for whiskey has been his downfall.

The magistrate said that he would impose a fine of $10 and costs, or three months, and as he was without funds, he went down. His case was the only one before the magistrate to-day.

Randolph Hotel Mystery.

There's a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde at the Randolph hotel. One of the staff, to-day, is what he wasn't yesterday. He's changed entirely, and is the wonder of all who have gazed upon him. The individual referred to is Henry O'Brien (alias "Solid" and "Hank"), the chief clerk of that hostelry. Last evening, he left his desk looking like himself—this morning he returned looking like some one else.

The change is in his head, and the secret, the celebrated wit at the Dorchester, the celebratory artist, of Toronto, was in town yesterday; and that the Randolph man was seen in his company last evening.

On An Unknown Isle.

A shipwreck on an unknown island, with a white queen reigning over blacks is the unique subject at the Bijou to-day and to-morrow. It is an unusually powerful drama, full of excitement and with mild and splendid sea coast scenery. A unique comedy by the Biograph company accompanies it.

He Knew The Steps.

One of Kingston's new policemen was escorting an "old timer" to the jail, this morning.

"Mind the step, now," said the constable to the old fellow.

"All right, boss," replied the prisoner. "I knew that step before you were born."

Trouble For Carters.

There is trouble ahead for some carters, who have not taken out a license. The police have been making an investigation, and found that some are at work who have not taken out a license, and summonses will be issued.

CANADIAN TELLS POLICE HIS STORY.

George T. Howard Says He Went to a Saloon and Was Given a Drink Which Put Him Out of Business.

Watertown, N.Y., Times.

Claiming to have been given knockout drops in broad daylight at a local saloon, George T. Howard, of Stella, Canada, made complaint to the police Wednesday that he had been robbed of $170 in gold.

Mr. Howard came over, Tuesday afternoon, from Kingston on his way to New York. At Cape Vincent he bought a ticket to the metropolis, but decided to stop over night in this city and go on in the morning. He got a room at the Romang house. Yesterday morning, according to his story, he met a man about sixty years old and with some other fellows went to a local saloon. He says the men were about the hotel when he bought a drink and paid for it with a $20 gold piece.

Howard claims that in the saloon he was given a drink which put him out for about two hours. When he came back to realization his money, about $170 in gold, was gone. All that was left him, according to his story, was his railroad ticket.

Still dazed Howard started out to find an attorney and met Detective William Dye, of Kalurah, who advised him to tell his troubles to the police. Howard said he had already related the tale to one policeman on the street and that the officer laughed at him. He said he did not know the name of the sixty-year-old man with whom he went out for whose saloon they went to, but assured the detective that he would know the man if he saw him, and that he could conduct the officers to the thief parlor.

At the Romang house it was said that George T. Howard stopped there. Upon his arrival here, Tuesday night, Howard reported to Station Master Jacob H. Herman that he had left his grip on the train and asked that if found it be sent to an address at Fort Richmond, Staten Island. The grip was not upon the train and it is believed by the railroad men that Howard left it on the boat. It is said he did not have it when he boarded the train.

This morning Howard boarded the Cape Vincent train, but having neither ticket nor money, was put off at Brownville by the conductor. He said he had a ticket for New York, but did not have any money, and could not go on.

RELATIVES ARE ANXIOUS CONCERNING JOHN JOHNSTON.

When John Johnston, the Napanee man, left his home, the other night, and came to Kingston, he left a light burning in his house, and also left the door unlocked. He has a brother, engineer on the steamer Aletha, and he was around the city this afternoon, endeavoring to find the missing man, but was unsuccessful.

Johnston is married, but he and his wife are separated. He has a fine collection of chickens at his home, and he was very much interested in poultry work, and while he does not believe that he has been drowned or met with foul play, he cannot account for his long absence. McMasters, who was with Johnston, in Kingston, has returned to Napanee, but he does not know anything of the whereabouts of Johnston.

LITTLE GIRL DISAPPEARED

And Police Are Trying to Locate Her.

There is still another disappearance, this time a girl, about fourteen years of age, and the police have been asked to look for her. Constable Arniel is at work on the case.

The little girl, so it appears, has been living for about two years, with her grandmother, on Division street, and she has been missing from the house. The father and mother parted, and the four children were taken care of by the grandmother. Some time ago, so it is claimed, an attempt was made to kidnap the child, and it has been hinted that this has happened in this case.

However, no charges have been made as yet, but the police are endeavoring to find out where the girl is staying. It is believed that she is still in the city. Her father went west several years ago.

TO REAR A BLOCK.

Similar to the Ontario Chambers—Tenants Must Vacate.

W. H. Reid, Francis Burke and M. Leach, auctioneer, who occupy the stores on and near the corner of Brock and King streets, have received notice from the rectory of Kingston that they will have to vacate the property on April 1st next. It is understood that the owners will build a block similar to Ontario Chambers, that it will be occupied by J. B. McLeod, and a large fraternal association.

G. I. Generous, True.

The Ontario Register says: "The Venerable Mr. Masterson, vicar-general of the archdiocese of Kingston, impresses everyone in a great gathering like the plenary council as good and generous and true in everything about him. He is a truly ecclesiastical figure, erect in figure, comely in appearance and modest in demeanor. The laymen at the Chateau Frontenac, when he stayed, remarked as he passed: 'Well, that is a good old priest, anyway—one it would not be hard to unfold most intimate thoughts to.'"
