SCIENCE BEAT ARTS AND WON INTER-FACULTY RUGBY HONORS.

Queen's Conversazione on Dec. 17th—Several Good Men Available As Senior Hockey Goal Tenders.

By Our Queen's Correspondent.
Science retains the inter-faculty football honors for the season of 1909. On Thursday afternoon, in truly scientific style, they defeated arts by a score of 14 to 0.
Many and manifold were the sensations of the strenuous game. Referee Walsh and "Georgie" Hicks frequently placed themselves in the limelight. It was Hicks' initial appearance in the football arena, and his spectacular exhibitions made for him a reputation that will surely last.
Arts won the toss and decided to kick with the wind, but in spite of this fact the ball remained pretty much in their territory. Science found little difficulty in breaking through the arts line, and frequently brought Dobson down before he could rid himself of the ball. When the mechanics were in possession of the pigskin they endeavored to kick, but their opponents offered a stout resistance, and the first half ended with the score standing 2 to 0 in favor of science. Hero Hicks being twice forced to rouse.

In the second half "Ken" Williams punted in his usual good form, and it was on a fumble of one of his high ones that Elliott got away for a run, passing to Reid, who went over for a touch, which "Paddy" Moran easily converted. A little later the Queen's half-back made a fifty-yard run, adding another five to the science score. Williams kicked to the dead line, making the final figures: Science, 14; Arts, 0. The teams:
Arts—Full back, Scott; halves, Twigg, Cornack, Hicks; quarter, Garvoch; scrummage, Omond, Macdonald; Buchanan; wings, Smith, McArthur, Galvin, Marsh, McKenzie, McArthur.
Science—Full back, Williams; halves, Crawford, Reid, Leake; quarter, Moran; scrummage, Clark, McKay; wings, Elliott, Erskine, Gallagher, Dickson, Lloyd, McKenzie.

There promises to be keen competition for the position vacated by the absence from college of Daniels, last year's goal tender on the senior hockey team and already several names have been suggested as possible aspirants. One, J. A. L. Arwin, will try for the place. He claims to have guarded the place at Mount Allison university, in the Maritime league. Mills and Gilbert, of last year's thirds, will also be out.

The committee appointed to report on the possibilities of conducting an annual conversation will reconvene at the Alma Mater society on Saturday evening that this function be held Friday evening, Dec. 17th.

FIRE IN FRONTENAC.

General Store and Outbuildings Destroyed.
A destructive fire visited Arden, on Wednesday night, completely wiping out Detlor's barn and carriage storehouse, and doing general store, causing damage to the extent of about $19,000. A fall of wet snow and the work of the villagers saved the eastern part of Arden from being destroyed. Detlor's house, Brown's store and W. Pringle's hotel were scorched. George Monds was in his store, securing papers when the building fell, and he had a narrow escape.

The Lucas family, father, mother and daughter, are doing fairly well, the little girl being the worst. Walter Hastings, his niece, Lena Hastings, and his nephew, John Hastings, from Bedford, are also in the Hotel Dieu and are all seriously ill.

Thomas H. Fleming has returned from a trip to Toronto, where he attended the sessions of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Fleming says that this year's convention was a fine gathering, there being four hundred delegates in attendance. The convention, which has been in session for two weeks, will be brought to a close on Saturday night. Many important questions were taken up, and marked interest was shown by all the delegates.

From South Africa.
Kingston had a visit, to-day, from a resident of South Africa, in the person of Rev. Alfred Hall, who is on his way to Toronto. He is interested in having copper shields placed in the schools and this morning he brought the matter before the chairman of the board of education, W. H. Godwin. While in the city he paid a visit to the Collegiate Institute and also Queen's university. Rev. Mr. Hall is stationed at Durban. He left on the noon train for Toronto.

Religion Demands It.
W. C. Gunton, assistant superintendent of the Children's Aid Society, left, to-day, for Belleville, where he is to prosecute two evil cases; one against four brothers and another against an elderly man. Mr. Gunton told the Whig that he was finding horrible cases all over the province, and in time they would be dealt with. He told an interesting tale of a family, near Brighton, who have lived in a cheap cotton tent for over a year, winter and summer. The man is rather old, bald-headed, refuses to wear a hat, and will not wear shoes or stockings until it becomes so cold that his feet would freeze unless he did. The old man has been interviewed and says his religious principles demand him to live as he does. He has a wife and quite a family, who suffer very much during the cold weather. Something will be done for them this winter.

"Girl Scout" To Be Repeated.
The tremendous success of the "Girl Scout," and a public demand for "more," have resulted in the securing of this great picture-drama for two more days in Kingston. After one more week in Ontario this film will go west to Winnipeg and Vancouver, and will not be seen in Kingston again. The officers of the artillery say that the battle scene, with its remarkable noise effect, is extraordinarily realistic, and that no better vivid scenery can be found in South Africa than those parts of Barrield which appear in the picture. Those who desire to see our soldier boys in battle should not miss this last chance. In the afternoon the Girl Scout will be accompanied by a drama of love and money-making in Wall street, entitled "The Game of Exposed Finance," but during the rush hour in the evening this will be omitted. All next week "The Cinephone Singing and Talking Pictures."

AWAIT THE DECISION
Of Finance Committee on Liquor License Question.
At the civic finance committee meeting, this evening, the arguments for and against reduction of liquor licenses will be heard. The reduction petitioners are not asking the committee to decide on the question, but simply to give the people a chance to decide upon it at the polls in January. They claim that they know the pulse of public feeling, and that it is strongly in favor of reduction.
In January, 1907, when the reduction referendum was before the people the vote was: For reduction, 1,963; against reduction, 1,521; majority for reduction, 442.
The liquor men will argue to the committee that license reduction does not lessen drunkenness, as evidenced by the police court records from October 1st, 1907, to October 1st, 1909. They will also point out that Kingston will lose $250 in revenue for every license cut off.

STORY OF POLICE COURT.
Two Offenders Before the Magistrate To-Day.
James Burns, an old man, with a wooden leg, stood before Magistrate Farrell, in police court, to-day, on a charge of drunkenness. It was not his first appearance by any means. James turns up in court every little while.
Burns admitted drinking but said that he had been feeling sick and that this was the reason for his having taken whiskey. He is an inmate of the House of Industry and the magistrate asked him why he did not call the doctor when he was ill.
"Well, you see," replied Burns, "his pills do not do me any good."
"But can you get what you want from him in the form of pills?"
The magistrate told the accused that any time he happened to be ill he should send for the doctor. He was remanded until Monday.
Another drunk was fined $5 and costs, or twenty days.

35c. Red Or Blue Grapes, 30c. Red or Blue Grapes, Table Apples, Crawford.

Capt. Edward Booth says the people in the upper part of the city favor the street railway and would be loathe to have it cease running. The line enhances the value of property beyond Alfred street.

Apples and Grapes, J. Crawford.
Rev. J. Bruce Wallace gave an address before the members of the Epworth League, at Princess Street Methodist church, on Thursday night.

GIVEN A RESPITE DILLON NOT HANGED IN MONTREAL TO-DAY.

It is Said He Has Become a Hopeless Imbecile—No Interest in His Reprieve—Two Labor Men Sent Up For Trial.

Montreal, Nov. 19.—John Dillon, the condemned murderer, who was to have been hanged at eight o'clock, this morning, at the jail, but was given a respite of fifteen days, yesterday afternoon, by Judge Tremblay, to allow time to enquire into the statement that Dillon had become a hopeless imbecile, was taken to the court house, this morning, to receive personal intimation from the judge of the stay of execution. He was attired with the accustomed carelessness and carried the famous silk hat which he cherished throughout the long stay in jail and during the trial and the condemnation. He gave no evidence of interest in the proceedings and stared into vacancy while the judge addressed him. He was then taken back to jail.
Little doubt is expressed in legal circles that Dillon will go to the penitentiary for life, as the result of the respite. That he is a hopeless imbecile is admitted on all sides and it is hardly likely he will be sent to the gallows in that condition.
A Longue Pointe miss, aged five years, named Lamontagne, gave her two-month-old baby sister a bottle of soothing syrup, yesterday, and the baby died. The baby was crying and as the child could not find her mother she decided to give the baby the medicine herself, but not knowing the quantity gave an overdose.

Henry Bousfield and Peter Paterson, two officials of the United Mine Workers of America, were, to-day, committed for trial at the court of king's bench, on charges of uttering criminal libel against the Dominion Coal company in connection with the miners' strike. Donald McDougall, local president at Glace Bay, is under commitment on same charge.

MAY EXTEND FUNCTIONS
Of Royal Military College For Staff Work.
The following are some of the proposals with reference to an imperial general staff for Canada: Extend functions of Royal Military College, Kingston, and include on its staff specially selected officers from the educational branch of the imperial general staff, their efforts being directed towards raising the standard of professional proficiency and promoting uniformity of thought among the officers of the dominion forces who, in due course, will compose the local section of the imperial general staff.

To send Canadian candidates for imperial staff college to Royal Military College, Kingston, for six months before the entrance examination. (Not to compete unless fully recommended by commandant.)
New commandant to be a general staff officer, first grade, belonging to the home regular army with previous instructional experience.

Canadian section of imperial general staff to consist for the present of chief of Canadian general staff, two directors, Commandant, Royal Military College.
The necessity of a staff college is admitted, but the establishment of one is not within the range of practical politics for some time to come. Meanwhile Canada is prepared to bear her proportion of any increased expense at Camberley if officers may continue to go there.
