L. J. WILLIAMS THE CAPTAIN'S FATHER

Was Bounced, Much to His Surprise—He Had Hoped to Get Out of the Crowd Unnoticed, But Failed—Urged to Make a Speech.

Special to the Whig. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—Kingstonians have good reason to feel proud of Williams, whom many Ottawans say was head and shoulders above any player on the field at Toronto, Saturday, in the Tiger-Ottawa game. To-day the Citizen says: "L. J. Williams, of Kingston, to whom the Ottawa Football Club is indebted for its brilliant captain, was seized by some of the Ottawa rooters and bodily bounced, much to his own surprise. Mr. Williams hoped to escape unnoticed after the game, but word soon got round as to the identity of the man who pulled harder, perhaps, than any one else for Ottawa, the result being that Mr. Williams received almost as many congratulations as his worthy son. At the Prince George crowd called on 'Jack's dad' for a speech, but Mr. Williams was too modest to respond. Amongst the Kingston wires reaching here regarding Saturday's game were these to Williams: "Heartiest congratulations 'Jack.' And a Kingston boy leads them." "Queen's rugby football club is proud of its former captain." "Queen's students. "The family is proud of you. Heartiest congratulations." "Ken. "Ottawa sends congratulations for great victory. You can have my job if you want it."—Charles Hopewell, mayor. "George Kennedy, good old Kingston. You're still the best in the game." Kingston friends.

FIFTY FOOT FENCE.

Objects to Apartment House Over-looking Grounds. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—A fence about fifty feet high is being erected by Dr. Echlin, on his lawn, on Elgin street, with a view to maintaining the privacy of his grounds and shutting out the view from a new apartment house built by Dr. Kennedy on the adjoining lot. Telegraph poles are being used for the fence, which is being erected in accordance with Dr. Echlin's declaration that if the apartment house was erected with a large number of windows overlooking his lawn, he would retaliate by building a fence high enough to shut the view, and would be quite within his legal rights in so doing. Relations between the two doctors are now somewhat strained.

WOMAN BROKE JAIL.

She Stole Key From the Sheriff's Wife. St. John's, Mich., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Beetha Haker, who escaped Thursday night from the Clinton jail, where she was awaiting trial on the charge of murdering her aged husband, was captured, late yesterday, near her home, the scene of the crime. ## DIE CAST—REDMOND

GLORIOUS VICTORY ASSURED FOR HOME RULE.

T. P. O'Connor Predicts That After Coming Elections Lords Will Be Shorn of Their Power.

New York, Nov. 22.—A cablegram from John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the English parliament, by T. P. O'Connor, who is here in the interests of the Irish cause, declares that the greatest constitutional struggle in England in the last century has begun. Mr. Redmond said:

"The die is cast. The greatest constitutional struggle in England for upwards of 200 years, has commenced. No such opportunity has been offered Ireland to strike for liberty since Grattan moved for the declaration of independence. If the Irish Nationalists abroad and at home act unitedly in this supreme hour a glorious victory is assured."

"Mr. O'Connor said to-day that he had been able to send Mr. Redmond £20,000 (in cash) and that between $20,000 and $30,000 had been pledged besides. "The House of Lords have signed their death warrant so far as their present power and the present constitution is concerned," said Mr. O'Connor. "I am firmly convinced that after the next election the House of Lords will no longer have the power to do more than postpone home rule for a few months, or perhaps a year or two."

Morgan Is Inspector.

Joseph Morgan, B.A., of the Lethbridge high school staff, has been appointed a school inspector at Edmonton. Mr. Morgan has been on the staff of the Lethbridge schools since 1904, and during these years earned a wide reputation as a faithful and successful teacher. Mr. Morgan is a graduate of Queen's University. Mr. Morgan taught school at Bath, Ont., for five years, and also lived in Kingston.

The illustrations in the Christmas Red Book Magazine are in keeping with the high literary quality of the issue, and especially enjoyable are the art studies which, as usual, lead the number. Rupert Hughes has a story that for utter irresponsibility on the part of its characters, a quartette of college glee club members, is remarkable.

FOUND ALIVE

Cry Went Up From Cherry, Ill., Mine.

THE WHOLE GAMUT

FROM DEEPEST DESPAIR TO HYSTERIA OF HOPE

Was Run Over By the Waiting, Weeping Crowd About the Mouth of the Mine—Twenty Men Rescued Alive—A Report Not Well Founded.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 22.—The whole gamut of emotions, from deepest despair to the hysteria of hope and then to the depths of despair again, was twice run over Saturday and yesterday here by the tireless men who have been working for a week to rescue those entombed in the St. Paul mine a week ago, and by the waiting, weeping women above. Forty bodies had been brought from the pit mouth Saturday, and most of them identified, when the report shot through the prostrate community, "They've found them alive."

Twenty men, who had built a barrier between themselves and the noxious gases, created by the fire, had been found by the rescuers in an almost exhausted condition. It took six hours, to get them to the surface, and the report spread around that 123 more men were alive in a farther reach of the mine, shut off from fresh air by a wall of black damp.

At midnight, Saturday night, however, the fire broke out afresh, and the rescue workers were forced to leave their work and fight the flames. The fire was smothered yesterday to such an extent that explorers were able to work in the mine, but black damp in one of the galleries defied them. As did caving-in and other debris. It was not even discovered whether more men are alive in the mine galleries, although the explorers, urged by the extreme condition in which the twenty men, saved Saturday, were found, worked with almost superhuman strength and rapidity. The finding of thirty-seven bodies and their removal were the only visible results of yesterday's endeavor. The night records showed that of the 310 men left in the mine a week ago Saturday night, 198 are still missing, while 92 bodies have been found and twenty men rescued alive. It is declared to-day that the assertion that 130 live men had been discovered was not well founded. If there are any more men alive in the mine, however, each hour that passes is looked on as making their chance of escape pitifully less.

FOUR DEATHS AT ATHENS.

Some Athenians Banned From Drinking Whiskey. Athens, Nov. 19.—Reeve Holmes returned on Saturday from a business trip to Toronto and has been this week attending, with Township Reeve Mulvena, the sessions of the counties court in Brookville.

A number of citizens were placed on the "Indian list" as the result of an interest in local option. About 400 attended the harvest dinner on November 15th, in connection with the silver jubilee of Christ church. Prominent visiting and local clergymen and laymen delivered addresses.

The Methodist anniversary services are to be held on Sunday, the 21st inst., with a congregational tea on Tuesday evening. Mrs. T. S. Kendrick and Mrs. E. Jackson took part in the programme of the W.M.S. entertainment held in Wilts town schoolhouse on the 12th, and Mrs. W. G. Todd and the Misses Gainford assisted at Glen Buell Episcopal League entertainment the same evening.

On Monday evening Mrs. George Derbyshire entertained very pleasantly, in honor of her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) G. Sanderson, recently returned from India. An interesting and valuable collection of curios, from that faraway land was exhibited and formed the topic of conversation for a social hour or two.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenbarker, on November 10th, a daughter.

Athens has lost four of its old and esteemed residents. G. Stevens, and, yesterday, the 15th, at the home of her son, T. Howarth, Mrs. Howarth passed away.

Gas Tank Satisfactory.

Manager Folger, of the light, heat and power plant, and City Engineer Craig will present a report to the city council this evening on the gas tank, in reply to information asked for some time ago. The tank is in excellent condition, having more than fulfilled the terms of the contract. There is scarcely any leakage at all. George C. Wright, B.Sc., of the city engineer's office staff, has some excellent photographs he took of the tank interior while it was under repair, and which show the awful condition it was in when the inner lining was being removed.

SHOULD HAVE RIGHT

To Ask For Reconsideration of Claims.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—The report of the board of conciliation and investigation, under the Lemieux act, to consider the dispute of the board of management of the I.C.R., and the Halifax Union of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, was issued on Saturday. The board finds that although some senior men were dismissed while junior men were kept on, this was done, with few exceptions, because of the superior qualifications of the junior men. The board also finds that no unfair discrimination had been exercised on account of the men belonging to the union. While the claim of the officials of the road, that they must be the best judges as to what men shall be retained or dismissed, is considered just, still at the same time, as some cases of hardship must necessarily occur, the board says the men should have the right to ask for reconsideration through the medium of the duly qualified officers of the union.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Newsy Paragraphs Picked Up By Reporters On Their Rounds.

To-day's rain is the heaviest in many weeks. Isaac Hurley, of Sydney, is a visitor in the city. F. G. Lockett conducted the service in Bethel church on Sunday evening. Last night the records showed that "For husky throats," Zymole Tablets sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

Police Constable Timmerman is enjoying a week's holidays. "Nick" has not decided yet whether he will go hunting.

Salon Palmer's high-class perfumery, toilet wares, sachet powders, cold cream, face powder, and perfume, are now sold at Prouse's drug store, up town post office branch.

Christopher Denny, Parham, arrived in the city on Saturday and was removed to the hospital in James Reid's ambulance. The man was badly crippled with rheumatism.

"High-class Christmas sweets," McCook's and Huyler's, will not be shipped to Kingston before December 12th. Customers will be sure they are buying perfectly fresh goods then. Sold in Kingston only at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

A drunken sailor made quite an exhibition of himself on Ontario street, this morning. He was poorly clad, without an overcoat, but had a very heavy load inside. He had many falls while endeavoring to go from one saloon to another, and succeeded in wiping up much mud.

Frederick Potter and Morley Valbeau, the young men who discovered Meteler Weaver's body, received their reward on Saturday. Each one received $15, thirty dollars in all, from the relatives of the deceased. It was reported on Saturday that the boys received $25 each, but this was an error.

OVER 1,000 JAILED

THOSE REFUSING TO PAY CLAPPED INTO PRISON.

Many Killed on Streets—Anarchy Reigns Within President Zelaya's Government As Well As in the Army.

Panama, Nov. 22.—The story told by recent arrivals here from Nicaragua, in substance, is as follows: More than 1,000 persons have been imprisoned in the penitentiary at Managua, the number including congressmen, the military commanders of Granada and Rivas, and many other prominent persons. President Zelaya has severed relations with the liberals of Managua, towards all of whom he is particularly inimical, and the United States Consul Olivares. The homes of these men are guarded day and night. No one is permitted in the vicinity of the military barracks or near Zelaya's residence, where he is guarded by 1,000 picked soldiers. After nine o'clock at night no one is allowed to walk in the streets of any of the towns under government control. All houses are ordered closed at that hour. Anarchy reigns within the government, as well as in the army, because Zelaya will trust no one, and has made foreigners his confidantes. All Nicaraguans have been called to arms, and many are leaving the towns and joining the rebels or hiding in the mountain fastnesses. Up to the present Zelaya has extracted war contributions amounting to nearly $1,000,000. All who refuse to pay the tax are immediately imprisoned. Many persons have been killed by soldiers during disorders that occur daily in the towns.

TWO IMPORTANT MATTERS

To Be Settled By City Council This Evening.

Two important matters will come before the city council this evening. The light, heat and power committee will recommend that the street railway company be given power for five years at 1.20 cents a kilowatt hour, the city to have the privilege of cancelling the agreement at the end of the third or fourth year. It refused to grant any further concession and the council will have to decide the matter. The company is on record as declining to accept a five-year provisional agreement, but may possibly recede from its position and accept the committee's offer. The matter is in the council's hands. It must deal with it itself for the committee has intimated that it will not consider any more street railway company communications on the power question. It has finished with the matter.

The other matter before the council is regarding liquor license reduction. The finance committee will recommend that a referendum to the people be not granted, and it is expected that this recommendation will be adopted with little discussion.

Accident To Hunting Party.

Perth Courier.

An accident somewhat marred the pleasures of the Code hunting party at Plevna. The members of it had got nicely away from the hotel at Plevna, en route to camp, when the leading waggon, carrying the camp outfit and provisions, toppled over a steep hill, precipice going down a steep hill. The occupants, John Watt of Yarker, and Messrs. William Campbell and William Pattie, two of our esteemed reeves, were thrown out and more or less injured. Mr. Watt was tossed into the brush and cut about the head. The council will have to decide the matter. The council will have to decide the matter. The council will have to decide the matter.

THE JUBILEE SERVICES.

Another Good Sunday in Queen Street Church.

The jubilee services in Queen Street Methodist church, on Sunday, were interesting. The edifice was thronged at night. The sermons by Rev. C. E. Elliott, D.D., of the Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal, were strong presentations of truth and given in a style that impressed his hearers and riveted their attention. The name of the preacher is one that is revered in the church and in speaking of his pleasure to be privileged to preach in the church of which his father was pastor, he remarked on the constancy, faithfulness and love of the people towards both his parents. They came back to the place of their ministrations with joy and found the love of many never failed. Here, at the end, their bodies were laid to rest at their own request where their love was fixed and where their service had been faithfully given. To be asked to take part in the jubilee services was an honor he greatly appreciated. He testified to the usefulness and ministry of the people of the church and he joined with multitudes in the wish that the coming years would abound in blessing, in happy and fruitful services.

In the morning, Mr. Bland spoke in a tender and effective manner on the need and value of secret prayer, in keeping in close and vital touch with Christ. His conviction was that communion with the Master was the only safe course, for in closest touch with Him, the world fell beneath and men and women became enthroned and enveloped with the life of Christ. In the evening his theme was the living Christ, the only hope and salvation of men. His presence in the world was real and vital, and without Him any religion would be impotent. The congregation responded with good contributions to the jubilee fund. The choir was strong and effective. The anthems were well rendered and Miss Hinckley's solos were excellent. In the afternoon the Sunday school had its jubilee service. The little folks were asked to give $25, and responded with $35. During the hour there were bright, lively songs and capital addresses by Rev. Meek, J. G. Elliott and Rev. C. E. Bland, in which reminiscences were given of faithful services, godly influences and noble examples by teachers and officers.

WINDOW IN ST. GEORGE'S

In Memory of the Late Miss L. Gildersleeve.

A very beautiful window has been placed in St. George's cathedral, in memory of that very dear and good mother of the congregation, Miss L. Gildersleeve. The givers are the surviving members of the family, and it has been put in the nave, opposite the memorial window to her brother, Charles F. Gildersleeve. The coloring is soft and restful, the subject representing the Angel of Resurrection, his feet resting upon the Mount of Olives, behind him the rising sun, and in his hand the trumpet of awakening and a stalk of Annunciation lilies. At the top, against a background of crimson, is the subject representing the Angel of Resurrection, his feet resting upon the Mount of Olives, behind him the rising sun, and in his hand the trumpet of awakening and a stalk of Annunciation lilies. ### AT THE POLICE COURT

ABLE-BODIED MAN ACCUSED OF VAGRANCY.

He Was Charged With Loitering Around Portsmouth, and Remanded a Week—James Burns to Turn Over a New Leaf.

On a charge of vagrancy William H. Wilkinson, an able-bodied man, was placed under arrest on Sunday afternoon, by Constables Bateson and Naylor. He was arraigned in police court this morning. "I don't think I am guilty," said Wilkinson, when the charge was read. "I have been paying my way, but it so happened that I did not have any money when I was arrested. I was about to leave town to work for a farmer near Odessa, when I was taken in charge." The accused gave the name of a farmer and said he had been hired to work for 75c per day, and board. Chief Bailie said that reports had been received about Wilkinson loitering around Portsmouth. People in that district appeared to be afraid of him. He had not been working and any money he had received must have been secured through begging. The accused told the magistrate that he had been in Brookville a week and had paid his board there. On Nov. 13th, he started out to see a friend in Belleville who had promised to help him. However, when he got as far as Kingston his feet became sore and he had stopped over. The 13th of the month was unlucky for him. The magistrate remanded him for a week in charge. "Patrick Bard was drunk and taxed $1 and costs, or ten days. James Burns, the man from the House of Industry, who was gathered in for being drunk, and who told the court that the doctor's pills did not do him any good, said that he was feeling much better, after the few days he had spent in the jail on remand. He promised to turn over a new leaf and was given a chance to return to the Home. He promised to have more faith in the doctor the next time he became sick and would take his medicine instead of that served out in the bar-rooms. He left the court with a kind "thank you, your worship."
