AID FROM THE STATES. The New York Herald does not see what Canada needs with a navy.

Mark the expression of the quotation. If Canada's peace be menaced from overseas—on either the Atlantic or Pacific, of course—the first aid will come from the United States!

WILL REPORT LATER. Mr. Tatlow, ex-financier in the McBride cabinet, says the railway deal which the premier made, will ruin the province.

MOST DISGRACEFUL SCENE. John Dillon, convicted of the murder of a Montreal police officer, Shea, who was sent to arrest him some months ago, was not hanged on Friday because at the eleventh hour it was declared the man was an imbecile.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Fancy Hon. Mr. Fielding going to Washington, cap in hand, and humbly asking if Canada may favour France in the matter of a trade treaty?

SCANDAL IN LAND DEALS. The sale of land in Quebec, crown lands by one who was a member of the government and now holds a distinguished place in the legislative chamber, was announced during the recent bye-election.

abide by its decision. In this respect he differs from the premier of Quebec, and it is very remarkable. What is the cure for these frauds or scandals? Honest government.

LOCAL LICENSE STRUGGLE. The temperance forces have been somewhat disturbed, if they have not been dismayed, by the action of the finance committee, which proposes to recommend to the council that no action be taken on the appeal for a reduction of licenses.

The plain fact is that the council is not disposed to affect its financial equilibrium. The problem may be as Sam Small put it, that the sum which is derived from licenses is a mere bagatelle, less than 50c. per head.

Then it will be recalled that the members of the council are the servants of the people, and do generally as they are required.

Failure of the kidneys to throw off waste products of the system is the cause of this dangerous condition. Headache, backache, irritability, Bright's disease, general derangement, all follow.

George R. Grant, Buffalo, N.Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, Cape Vincent, N.Y., has received the appointment of assistant secretary of the public service commission of the second New York district.
