CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP

Makes Housekeeping Easier

In fall and winter 'Crown Brand Syrup' should be more largely used by everyone. It simplifies the making of delicious dishes to such an extent that house-keeping becomes easier in every way.

Crown Brand Syrup eaten with bread, toast, biscuits, pudding, porridge or pastry, provides sustaining dishes that please the palate and don't overheat the body—dishes that are plain, wholesome, easily prepared and easily digested and at the same time very nourishing.

Won't you try CROWN BRAND SYRUP? When you think of its purity, its wholesomeness, of all the dainty and delightful dishes you can make with it,—when you think of its fine "honey-cream" flavor and clear golden colour,—and how it will save you trouble and bring variety to every meal—don't you think it worth your while to order some. Children thrive on it. Adults enjoy it.

For your convenience Crown Brand Syrup is put up in 2, 5, 10 and 20 lb. tins with fill-of-life.

WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points in Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Westport Waits.

Westport, Nov. 22.—Mrs. James Lennox is seriously ill. Mrs. (Dr.) A. L. Tinkess, Lafargeville, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ewing. William F. Perkins left this morning for Greenwood, B.C., to settle up the estate of the late Benjamin Perkins. Mrs. W. W. Scott is quite ill at present. Frank Lynett left last week for the western states. Lewis A. McCann left on Saturday for Haliburton.

White Lake Locals.

White Lake, Nov. 22.—The farmers have finished ploughing. S. Soles and daughters, Mamie and Elsie, have returned after spending some time with friends at North Bay. Mr. and Mrs. J. Burke and son, Joseph, also Mr. and Mrs. H. Burke spent Sunday at T. Johnston's. Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis spent Sunday at William H. Conboy's. T. Johnston and son, Arnold, visited friends in Perth recently. Misses Annie and Rhoda Conboy spent a few days last week at Clarendon.

Briefs From Bongard's.

Bongard's, Nov. 22.—A good programme is being prepared for the tea meeting, which will be held in the Methodist church, on Thursday night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. Mr. and Mrs. H. Bongard, Waupoos, were guests at J. D. Bongard's, on Sunday. Mrs. William Hobson, Pierson, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Harrison. Mrs. C. W. Wright, Conway, visited Mrs. J. D. Bongard last week. D. Winters and wife, Pierson, were in this vicinity on Sunday last. Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McCormick attended the funeral of the late Joseph McGee, of "The Pines." Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bongard intend returning to their home here about the holidays. J. Bradley and wife visited at Fairmount recently.

News Of Lyndhurst.

Lyndhurst, Nov. 22.—R. G. Harvey is improving after his illness. Mrs. D. Gbolisse is convalescent. Mrs. G. S. Rooney is improving her residence. A sweet has been erected a fine driveway and horse stable. G. E. Roddick has his new house nearly completed. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Tate spent last Monday and Tuesday visiting friends in Junetown. William Tate spent Saturday at Berryton with his sister, Mrs. Robert Moulton. There are a number of old people sick around Lyndhurst. L. Wilson and L. Chaso are very low, without any hopes of recovery. They both have passed the eighth day mark. Amos Weeks and R. R. Tate have bought each a carriage horse.

Death At Donaldson.

Donaldson, Nov. 22.—Three passed away on Saturday morning. Mrs. John McKenzie, Sr., at the ripe old age of seventy-eight. Although Mrs. McKenzie had been ailing for some time, her death came as a great surprise. When Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie first came to this part of the county, it was a great wilderness of pine, and they lived to see great changes. Mr. McKenzie passed away a little over a year ago. Mrs. McKenzie's maiden name was Eliza Hogan. Seven children were born to them, five boys and two girls: Hugh, of Deloraine; William, of Verdun; Charles and James, of Winnipeg; John and Mary (Mrs. Chatters), of this place; and Mrs. Stuart, deceased. Besides these, there are left to mourn a brother and a sister. The remains were laid to rest in Ompah cemetery, to-day.

Notes From Carrying Place.

Carrying Place, Nov. 20.—Mrs. (Rev.) Wright, who has been so seriously ill, is slowly improving. George Wells, an old resident of this place, died suddenly on Friday last. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Fawley, Napanee, and Miss Wells, Trenton. Mrs. Wright, Maitland, is a guest at St. John's rectory. Walter Rowe has returned from Waupoos. Everyone about here is getting in coal for winter. C. Crow, Trenton, is the successful tender. D. Young has removed to H. Flindall's house on the farm. Fred. Kemp and Miss M. Wannamaker were quietly married on Wednesday evening of this week. They will reside in Rochester. Mrs. E. Weese, of Belleville, was the guest of Mrs. Fitzgerald this week. Mrs. George Bingley is home again after an extended visit to Cornwall. The guild of St. John's church meets this week at St. Hayes' residence. Miss B. Glenn, of Victoria, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hall.

Church To Be Proud Of.

Yonge Mills, Nov. 20.—The re-opening services at the old Stone church were held last Sunday and large crowds attended each service. Rev. Mr. McLeod, Brockville, preached eloquent sermons, morning and afternoon. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Pockock, took the evening service. The collections for the day amounted to $40. Rev. Mr. Cameron, St. John's church, Brockville, gave a lecture and exhibited very fine views on Monday night. The committee is to be congratulated on the success of the work, as we have a church to be proud of. The funeral of the late George Simpson, Sherwood Springs, was held at the church on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Crawford, Brockville, spent a few days with Miss Minnie Gibson. Hiram Cook has returned home after spending the summer in the North-West. Mrs. Clow, Junetown, was the guest of Mrs. E. L. Birney, recently. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferguson, Brockville, were calling on friends here this week.

Tidings From Clarendon.

Clarendon, Nov. 21.—Donald Ferguson, of Sherbrook, one of the oldest and most respected residents of the township was buried last Wednesday. Dr. J. Hill, of Lloydminster, Alta., called here on his way to Edinburgh, Scotland, where he is taking a post-graduate course. Two weddings took place last week: the contracting parties being Charles Cox and Miss Page, and Isaac White and Miss Bain. Still another wedding is announced and invitations are out for December 1st when Miss Gladys Gutz and James R. White, of Havelock, are to be united. David Riddell is home from Hamilton. J. G. Burke and family have moved to Ardoch. C. Dennis has gone to the hospital in Kingston, suffering with rheumatism. Robert White and family attended D. Ferguson's funeral last Wednesday. F. Clement is renewing old acquaintances. Latest reports say John Barr and Delmer Hunt, two typhoid patients, are recovering. Miss Roadhouse paid a visit to Oso Saturday and Sunday. Thomas Greer, jr., has returned. Thomas Kirkham is back from South Shrook. Dr. Kilborn is attending Mrs. Duncan Ferguson, who is very ill.

LETTER EXPLODED.

Attempt Upon Life of Baron Rothschild. Breslau, Prussia, Nov. 23.—What appears to have been an attempt upon the life of Baron Albert Rothschild, of Vienna, is reported from "Schillendorf," the Rothschild hunting seat in Upper Silesia. A schoolmaster at Schillendorf was stopped by a man who courteously requested him to deliver a letter to the baron. The schoolmaster consented, and had continued on his way when the letter exploded, frightfully injuring the bearer.

Fall And Winter Importations. Prevost, Brock street, has received all his tweeds, chevots and vicunas for suitings; also a great variety of overcoating for his order department. His $18 suits and overcoats made to order surpass anything he ever had yet.

Magistrate To Testify. Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 23.—A peculiar complication has developed in the case of a Rudimir Protich, the foreign interpreter, charged with conspiring to prosecute S. Strausberg. Strausberg was arrested a couple of weeks ago on a charge of extortion, the warrant being issued by Magistrate Jells. The charge was dismissed and now Strausberg is getting after Protich for alleged conspiracy. Under the circumstances Magistrate Jells, an important witness for the crown, will have to give evidence in his own court.

When "Work" Becomes "Labor" There's Something Wrong. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Will Right It.

When it seems as if you simply could not bear up any longer it is high time to look for the cause of the trouble—and the remedy. In an astonishingly large number of cases the real cause of woman's misery is found to be constipation, and the remedy that always cures is Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Neglect of the daily movement of the bowels, so necessary to health, soon poisons the whole system from the impurities retained in the body. Headaches, indigestion, biliousness and lassitude follow, and often more serious female disorders are brought on or aggravated.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only regulate the bowels, but they stimulate kidneys and skin as well to throw off waste matter and purify the blood. The result is quickly apparent in the disappearance of the headaches and biliousness, and the return of health and vigor. Thousands of women all over the world owe their present good health to Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.
