AT COOKE'S CHURCH
ANNIVERSARY SERVICES WERE HELD SUNDAY.

First Service Was Held in This Church Sixty-Three Years Ago—Rev. W. A. McIlroy, of Ottawa, Occupied the Pulpit.

Sixty-three years ago, the first service was held in Cooke's church. Anniversary services were held on Sunday, and they were of a bright and helpful nature. The services were presided by an old Kingston boy, Rev. W. A. McIlroy, B.A., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, who delivered two eloquent and forceful sermons. The choir rendered a programme of sweet music.

During his morning discourse, Rev. Mr. McIlroy pointed out that what the church needed to-day, was power, power to drive men from sin. The church must justify her existence, and in order to do this she must have the power, God never gave His power, until it could be utilized. This power would not be forthcoming, until we were willing to pay the price. All power had its price. Spiritual power was the greatest need of the church, but in order to secure it, we must fulfil the conditions and pay the price. We must have a passionate love for the souls of men.

"We must have spirit-clothed men, in the church, and spirit-clothed men in the pulpit, in the choir, at the doors, and in the aisles of the church, men who will go out into the highways and byways, seeking to save the lost. If you have not this power, it is because you have not fulfilled the conditions, and paid the price. It is within the reach of everyone. Do you not long for this power?"

Nation's Need of Men.

"Let us play the men for our people and for the cities of our God" (1 Samuel x, 12), the battle cry of Job when the Ammonites and the Syrians, were the text chosen by Rev. Prof. Robert Laird for his discourse to St. Andrew's Society in Chalmers church on Sunday evening. The chairman of the society emphasized the fact that the quest is still for "men," just as it was in the time of Demosthenes, Jeremiah and Napoleon. Canada needed "Men" to-day, men who would stand for the living truth and safeguard the country. "Men" were needed in politics and in business. It was the duty of national societies like St. Andrew's to help supply the country with men of high ideals. It was their duty to do as Job did—to play the men for the people and the country.

The St. Andrew's Society members occupied the front pews of the church, and constituted a goodly number. Afterwards, they convened in the Sunday school hall and passed a vote of thanks to their chaplain for his able discourse.

During the service, Mayor Cooper, one of the society's members, sang as solo, "The Greatest of These is Love" to the air of "Scots Wha Hae." At the conclusion of the sermon the choir sang "The Land of the Living," without accompaniment, the voices blending beautifully.

At St. Mary's Cathedral.

The season of Advent was observed in St. Mary's cathedral, yesterday. The "Gloria" was omitted and the officiating priest was vested in violet and the altar was draped in the same color. Rev. Father Mac delivered one of his practical and instructive addresses at high mass. The scaffolding has all been removed, with the exception of a small piece in the sanctuary, and the decorations were showed with pleasure.

THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S
CANDIDATES FOR ALMA MATER ELECTIONS.

The Levana Tea on Saturday Afternoon—Queen's Seat Congratulatory Telegrams to Varsity and Royal Military College.

By Our Queen's Correspondent.

The Levana tea, held Saturday afternoon in Grant Hall, was well worthy of the profuse patronage it received. The daintily arranged tables proved highly attractive in being conducted by the following young ladies, artistically arrayed in college gown and mortar board:

Tea table—Misses Richardson, Robertson, Cloney, Cordingley, Sanderson, Price and Wright.

Candy table—Misses Clowen, Anglin, E. Clowen, Boyd, Henderson, Jordan and Phillips.

Ice cream table—Misses Macalister, MacInnes, Stuart, Goodwin and Hay.

The following acted as a reception committee: Misses Penson, Nesbitt, Dene, Hudson, Callander and Farrow.

The meeting of Alma Mater on Saturday evening, was largely attended and much important business was transacted. The nominations for the society elections to be held Saturday, December 4th, were received: Honorary president, Dr. Thord; president, M. R. Bow, Dr. Jordan; first vice-president, K. F. Williams, W. Dobson; second vice-president, G. N. Lyle, G. W. Bondick; critic, G. N. Macgillivray; secretary, N. Malloch; assistant secretary, R. S. Stevens; treasurer, A. M. Kirkpatrick; H. S. Smith; committee, N. Leckie, E. S. Malloch, G. L. Campbell, H. Mackinnon, L. Pierce, D. Mackenzie.

The announcement that Dennis Jordan would be a candidate for the A. M. S. presidency came as somewhat of a surprise to the men of arts, who had expected that it would be a representative of the science faculty who would contest this office. Mr. Jordan is extensively and very favorably known throughout the faculties and will certainly poll a large vote next Saturday. The fight for the first vice-presidency promises to be equally as interesting with the names of two such popular men on the ballot as "Ben" Williams and "Billy" Johnson.

Queen's sent messages of congratulation both to Varsity and Royal Military College on their splendid victories Saturday afternoon.

The debate between the junior and senior years on the resolution that it would be advantageous for Canada to construct a navy, resulted in a splendid victory for the representatives of year '11, who presented the negative side of the argument. Messrs. Chisholm and Donahue were the final spear-men with Messrs. Burnett and Brewer as their opponents. The judges were Prof. Matheson, Prof. MacDonald and G. A. Platt.

A large congregation listened to Prof. Hugh Clark in Convocation hall, Sunday afternoon. Lawson Chambers, M.A., conducted an interesting service in the evening.

The claim that Lowrey sustained his injuries by being kicked by a horse, is refuted by doctors, there being no cut marks that would result from a contact with shoes.

HUMANE MEDAL GIVEN
E. W. STANBRIDGE FOR HIS BRAVERY

In Saving Two Persons From Drowning—Presentation Made at Royal Military College By Hon. William Hart, M.P.

At eleven o'clock Monday morning E. W. Stanbridge, a servant at the Royal Military College, was presented with a bronze medal awarded him by the Royal Canadian Humane Society for bravery in saving two persons from drowning. The presentation was made by Hon. William Hart, M.P., in the presence of the commandant, staff and cadets of the college. The cadets were drawn up in a square on the parade ground, Mr. Stanbridge standing in the centre of the square.

Just before 10 o'clock a man, apparently an address saying that the officers and cadets fully appreciated the heroic act of E. W. Stanbridge, and were greatly pleased to see him so honored, in referring to the two cases of Crowe said:

"On the afternoon of Friday, August 13, about 3:30 p.m., a boat containing two men and one woman capsized off Point Frederick. One of the men, who remained clinging to the boat, by his shouting attracted attention, and R.M.C. Servant Stanbridge ran to the scene of the accident where he saw a man struggling to get ashore, and went to his assistance. This man, who was about 200 yards from the shore, sank before he was reached, but Stanbridge dived and brought him in, where it was found necessary to resort to artificial respiration. The other man was eventually brought ashore but unfortunately the woman was drowned."

Earlier in the summer Stanbridge was also instrumental in saving another life. A small boy named Gowen, about eight years old, was fishing from the bridge, and fell over. On hearing some of the operators shouting that a boy had fallen in Stanbridge ran to the spot, and without waiting to divest himself of any of his clothing jumped in and rescued the boy, who was unable to swim.

These facts were submitted to headquarters at Ottawa, in August, and the committee in militia council replied that he had most pleasantly forwarded the details of the case to the president of the Royal Canadian Humane Association. The result of which has been that the Royal Canadian Humane Association has been pleased to award its bronze medal to E. W. Stanbridge for the courage he displayed on the above occasions."

In presenting the medal Mr. Hart said in part: "I take great pleasure in presenting this medal for bravery to E. W. Stanbridge, who on two occasions has saved the lives of two persons from drowning. It is a most commendable and noble deed, and one which we all should emulate. It is a credit to our country that we have a man who does this without any demand for him to do it shows a kind of bravery we must all take off our hats to.
