

ACTRESS WON KING WOULD MAKE HER QUEEN IF HE COULD.

England's Eligible Princesses Did Not Seem to Suit—Actress Best of All, However.

London, Dec. 2.—King Manuel of Portugal proved a very coy matrimonial subject during his visit here, and the elaborate plans that were made to induce him to select a British princess as a bride had a decidedly nebulous outcome.

All of the eligible English princesses were paraded for his inspection, but despite all efforts to induce him to concentrate his affections on Princess Alexandra, Manuel seemed to fancy Princess Louise of Battenberg, a cousin of Queen Victoria. Eva of Spain, yet even this attachment is very indefinite, as Manuel, with rare youthful caution, paid marked attention to King Edward's unmarried daughter.

daughter, Princess, Victoria. At the Drury Lane she and Manuel astonished the management by smoking cigarettes and indulging in high jinks between the acts.

While it is true that King Manuel does not seem to have been captivated by any of the royal princesses he fell a victim to the charms of Lily Elsie, the actress, who introduced the "Merry Widow" to London theatre goers. The young king visited Daly's Theatre during his stay in London and pronounced Miss Elsie the most beautiful and fascinating woman he had ever seen and declared that if it was within his power he would make her Queen of Portugal; thus the beauty and fascinating charms of the actress threaten to upset the matrimonial projects which King Edward had planned for the youthful monarch of Portugal.

NO COW IN THE CASE.

Preacher Stirs Up Denial of Old Yara.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Public reference on Sunday by a preacher to the story that Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lamp and caused the fire of 1871 that destroyed Chicago, has called forth another denial of the tradition from James O'Leary, former poolroom operator and son of the owners of the cow.

"That story about the cow kicking over a lamp and causing the fire of 1871 that destroyed Chicago, was the monumental fake of the last century," says O'Leary. "I know what I'm talking about when I say that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion in the hay loft."

You see, it was like this. The old man had put in a load of green hay a few days before the fire. The fire started in that hay loft and the place where the cows were kept was underneath that. It was Sunday night that the big fire started, I know I went to bed before eight o'clock. If I had not I would remember it from a strapping I had not got to sleep when I heard the women shouting in front of the house and we all got out. The first we knew about the cow and the lamp was when we read about it. Father and mother died and we went over that monumental world-wide fake."

WOMAN BEAT MINER.

Spat on Her Dress and Knocked Husband Down.

Charleroi, Penn., Dec. 2.—James Cathcart, an athletic looking miner, from the Monongahela river district, registered a vow that he would chew tobacco no more on street cars.

About last midnight he was thrashed by Mrs. Eva Soles, who lives near here, who had come from Pittsburgh with her husband, on the same car with Cathcart. Nearing Charleroi, Cathcart spat on the dress of Mrs. Soles purely by accident, as he says, but she Soles declined to accept an apology. After the entire party had alighted Cathcart knocked Soles into a ditch, and was himself knocked down with a gallon can of molasses, thrown by Mrs. Soles. The angry woman flooded Cathcart again with her fist as he arose, and he cried enough!

HUNTING FATALITIES.

Many Killed in Upper Michigan and Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Dec. 2.—The hunting season in Upper Michigan and Wisconsin this year promises to involve more fatalities to hunters than usual. Already the number killed is equal to the highest figure in nine years, with the exception of 1907, the worst on record.

So far the killed number twenty-eight and the injured twenty-seven. There are still three days of the season. On the twenty-eighth dead, nine were killed in bird hunting before the deer season began. Most of the others were killed by mistake for deer by other hunters. In 1907 fifty-one were killed, but the majority of these were shot in duck hunting.

MISSING 24 YEARS.
Aged Lake Captain Finds Family in Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Henry Depidge, a captain on the Great Lakes for many years, who for twenty-four years has been separated from his family, and believed by his children to be dead, walked into the home of one of his daughters last night, and to-day there was a reunion in which four generations were represented. The meeting between the captain, who is now seventy-nine years old, and his children, his seventeen grandchildren and his great grandchildren took place at the home of a grandson, John F. Tyrrell, No. 4247 West End avenue.

Capt. Depidge left his home in St. Joseph, Mich., twenty-four years ago for a trip to Buffalo. On his arrival there he was taken ill. After many weeks at a hospital he returned to his ship. In the meantime the family had moved to Chicago. He was unable to find them here. He retired a few years ago, and has since been living in Buffalo. Recently he decided to come to Chicago to make another search for them, and through old lake sailors he discovered one of his daughters.

BIBLE MUST NOT BE READ.

Bases Decision on Ruling Seventy Years Old.

Alderson, Dec. 2.—State Commissioner of Education, A. S. Draper has rendered a decision in which he holds that the Bible must not be read in school during regular hours. He followed a decision made by John C. Spencer in 1829. In his decision Dr. Draper says:

"The question here submitted is not a new one. The established policy of the state education system has been to deny the right of school authorities to compel the attendance of pupils upon religious exercises held during school hours. There has been no departure from the rule that under the general school laws of the state religious instruction may not be given in the public schools as a part of the prescribed courses of instruction therein, that religious services, consisting of prayers, reading of the Bible, and singing of hymns shall not be held during the hours customarily allotted to the performance of school work, and that the pupils of the school may not be compelled to attend such services whenever held."

New Haven, Mass., Dec. 2.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, New York, spoke on socialism at a students' meeting in Woolsey Hall. Fifteen hundred Yale men heard him.

Dr. Abbott said among other things:

"Under the socialist programme the government becomes the employer of everyone, and the position of industrial and political boss is combined. This is much worse than present conditions. I myself should prefer to work under Boss Carnegie than Boss Croker."

"Under existing conditions if a man

THE SPORT REVIEW.

Interesting News From the Various Sporting Fields.

Ottawa cleared $4,000 on the rugby season. Hugh Gall will likely captain the Varsity rugby team next season. Ottawa Journal: And did you hear the wail from Kingston, from James T. Sutherland, et al?

Another professional hockey league is being organized to buck the newly-formed Canadian Hockey League. There is no chance of Varsity meeting Yale this year. The United States college team went out of training two weeks ago.

Montreal Star: Varsity showed conclusively that Canadian college rugby, well practised and well played, has all other kinds beaten to a standstill.

The Oxford-Waterloo Hockey League will have six teams this season. With adequate rink accommodation these towns would be valuable additions to the O.H.A.

Both Ottawa and Hamilton rugby teams are claiming the services of Lawson for next season. The big Varsity half-back graduates next spring.

Coach Griffiths, of Varsity, has warned his men against underestimating the Parkdale rugby team. Both fourteeners are unmitting in their preparations for the final game next Saturday.

Al Wolgast, who got the decision over Lew Powell in their twenty-round contest at San Francisco, Monday night, is regarded by the Californians as the legitimate opponent for the lightweight championship, now held by Battling Nelson.

The Ottawas are not to be forgotten for their good work on the gridiron during the past season, and, although they have been beaten out for the dominion championship, all will receive rings, pins, or watches for winning the Big Four honors.

An Ottawa despatch says Percy Levesque, the Ottawa goalkeeper, has arrived from Haileybury and signed with the club. The other players will all report this week. The club is after Bruce Ridpath, of Toronto, for right wing, and has eyes on Lester Patrick in the west.

Gotham hockey enthusiasts will probably be given an opportunity of seeing some Canadian exponents of the ice game at work this winter, as plans are now being made to bring Queen's and Varsity sevens down to New York for games during the holidays.

Ottawa Journal: Anyway, Ottawa can smile to the east. Montreal couldn't even hold the Kingston soldiers. The R.M.C. cadets now meet Dundas for the intermediate honors of the dominion. Will the Intercollegiate make it a repeat performance?

Toronto Globe: Walter Camp introduced the ten-yard rule and the forward pass to American football after seeing a Canadian senior game some years ago. He could have gleaned enough pointers had he been here on Saturday, to make the American game sport fit to play and watch. Sooner or later the Canadian game, or something very similar, will supplant the game as at present played in the United States.

The natural resources should be conserved for the benefit of the eighty millions of owners, not given away to the privileged few.

"I advise you young men of Yale to help pass laws to control corporations properly. A corporation is a democratic contrivance for the gathering of wealth in administration for its proper disposition. An effort should be made that the poor man would have opportunity to invest his savings in such corporations instead of saving banks.

Your effort should be in favor of industrial education, so that the mind and hand could work together. Industrial democracy means evolution. Socialism means revolution."

VIOLATING THE LAW.

Woman Sold For $1.50—Turns Her Out.

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 2.—Ernest Phillips, of Akron, and Edward Smith, a farmer near Lockport, were held for the Grand jury, on a charge of violating the penal statute that prohibits the selling of a woman.

The case first came to the attention of the authorities when Phillips' wife appealed to the superintendent of poor for aid. She was found living in a barn with her child. Mrs. Phillips said her husband had sold her to Smith for $1.50 and that Smith had turned her out.

When arrested, Smith admitted that he had lived with the woman, but said he did not know she was Phillips' wife. The alleged sale of the woman was the result of a talk the men had in a tavern. Smith had said no woman would live with him, whereupon Phillips is alleged to have said:

"You can have my wife for $1.50."

"Well," said Faulkner, "it's this way: You see, we are a commercial people and we are brought up to the truth that anything that saves time saves money. Now, we discovered long ago that if we talk through our noses, instead of through our tonsils as you folks do, that we can talk quicker, thus saving time, and, therefore, saving money. We teach it in the schools, you know."

Restorative Treatment for Nervous Men.

Coming from a source of unquestioned authority on the ailments of men it is presumed to be infallible while the profession generally condemns the treatment and describes them in many different forms of various diseases.

The following formula is highly efficient in quickly restoring in nervous exhaustion, melancholia, anxiety, timidity, in venturing, dizziness, heart palpitation, trembling, insomnia, insomia, fits, fainting, and general inability to do those natural and rational acts upon which depends a man's self-respect and happiness in social and every day life.

The instructions for mixing at home secretly so that no embarrassment may be felt, are as follows:

First—Take three ounces of sassafras root, camphor compound and one ounce compound fluid balm.

Wort: mix and let stand two hours.

Then add one ounce common mint, one ounce common tincture radomene compound (not cardamom), and mix all together.

The directions are as follows:

Take one dose in the morning and one when retiring, until bounding health and full strength are restored. Even a few weeks will witness most wonderful results.

Astonishing nervous force and equilibrium follow the treatment, no matter how serious the case.

This contains no opium whatever and may be used by women who suffer with their nerves with absolute certainty of prompt and lasting benefits.

REPORTED EXECUTED.

Prominent Nicaraguan Said to Have Suffered.

New Orleans, Dec. 2.—It was reported here by George S. Laoya, a planter near Leon, Nicaragua, that Francisco Espinosa, father of Rudolfo Espinosa, former Nicaraguan minister at Washington, and of Emilio Espinosa, one of the leaders of the revolutionary movement in Nicaragua, had been executed.

"You can have my wife for $1.50,"

"I had only ten shillings," Smith explained.

"So I borrowed a quarter.

When I got ready to go home the woman climbed into the wagon and went home with me.

Mrs. Phillips is now in the poorhouse.
