

WOMEN AT THE POLL IN NORWAY: THE SUFFRAGETTE ISSUE IS SETTLED.

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Kingston People.

Too many Kingston citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The increasing pain causes constant misery making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest, and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Can you doubt Kingston evidence. Thomas James, of 105 Colborne street, Kingston, Ont., says: "For over five years I had suffered with my back. Each spring it would become so weak and painful that I would be laid up for weeks and not able to turn myself in bed. The pains that would catch me across the kidneys would leave me in a miserable condition. I had tried many doctors, but could find no relief. My condition became more painful with each attack. I was weak and languid for the most part of each summer. Booth's Kidney Pills were advertised at Mahood's Pharmacy and I concluded I would try them. I used one box and it cured me, when all else had failed. I am stronger and have enjoyed better health generally than in years. I feel grateful in recommending Booth's Kidney Pills." Sold by dealers. Price 50 cents. The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont., sole Canadian agents.

PLAN SECOND CANAL

Colombia May Parallel United States Cut Across Panama.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The government of Colombia is contemplating the construction of a canal across the Isthmus of Panama, paralleling that of the United States, but at another point on the isthmus, and within Colombian territory. British capitalists are investigating the matter with reference to financing the enterprise. This is the startling news which has leaked out since the house appropriations committee returned from its visit to the isthmus.

It is reported that the Rothschilds may finance the undertaking. Colombian officials are authority for the statement, alleging that the route for the completing canal has already been selected.

Washburn Waifs.

Washburn, Dec. 9.—William Woods and family contemplate moving to the city. Rumor says that R. Anderson is also going to give up farming. Walter Toner and his mother, who were removed to the general hospital last week, are both very low. Recent visitors: Joseph Hitchcock and family spent Sunday with parents in Pittsburg. F. Mandell, at William Thompson's. Mr. and Mrs. J. Kirkwood and little son, Gordon, at her brother's.

The suffragette question has been settled in Norway, and in the election for members of the Storting, or national parliament which have just closed, the right of voting was exercised by them for the first time. There was no confusion or disorder at the polls, and the women voted as if they were accustomed to doing so all their lives. Miss Anna Rogstad, teacher at the Grunerlokken public school, is the first woman deputy member returned to the Storting. In Norway, deputy members are elected to take the place of the regular members in case of illness or other cause. The voters receive election papers and then, entering the room, pass through a small chamber, where they attach a cross to the name of the candidate selected. A clerk at the table searches the register, and when the paper is placed in the ballot-box.

NEWBORO IS EXCITED OVER THE LOCAL OPTION CAMPAIGN.

A Runaway Accident in Which Some Young People Had a Narrow Escape—Newboro May Have a Curling Club.

Newboro, Dec. 7.—The municipal council met Monday evening. The taxes of William Spicer and D. D. Davidson and the Misses Brady, were ordered refunded. The local option by-law was read a second time. Court of appeal will be held in the court house here on Dec. 22nd, by Judge Reynolds. Nearly twenty-five people have made applications to have their names put on the voters' list.

Excitement in the local option campaign is running high, and parties who never voted before are willing to have a salary of $200 in order that they will have votes. Three temperance meetings will be held this week, and Rev. T. E. Burke, Kingston, will deliver a lecture here on Dec. 10th. Only two business places here allowed temperance posters to be hung in their stores.

What nearly terminated in a fatal accident occurred on Friday evening. A party of young people, Misses S. Fleming and M. Warren, and Messrs. H. Fenwick and Allan Fleming, were driving in a surrey, to attend a concert at Elgin. When about two miles past Crosby's brook, and dropping down, struck one of the horses on the heels. Both horses started to run away. The neck-yoke pulled off and allowed the pole to fall to the ground, and in this dangerous condition the horses ran about a quarter of a mile until the carriage, striking a telegraph pole, was completely upset, and the horses were freed from it. The driver, Mr. Bowden, was pulled over the dashboard and dragged a considerable distance, but managed to bring the frightened animals to a standstill. Mr. Fleming was for a time unconscious, and the other occupants were more or less shaken up. Miss Fleming received some bad cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders, and has since been confined to the house. The young people are to be congratulated on their almost miraculous escape from fatal injury, and Mr. Bowden deserves great credit for his pluck throughout the incident.

Mrs. Orme Lackie and Miss Pearl Porter left on Tuesday to spend a few weeks at Alexandria Bay, N.Y. Mrs. William Bilton, Miss Mabel Singleton, and J. T. Gallagher, were among the visitors to Brockville on Tuesday. A number from here attended the excursion to Brockville on Monday evening to see the musical comedy "The Smart Set" at the Grand Opera House. Capt. Colin Fleming returned home on Friday evening after a successful season spent on the government fishing patrol boat. George Warren is spending a few days with relatives in Montreal. J. Southworth was in Brockville a few days last week attending the funeral of the late Mr. Griffin. George Preston, Brockville, is a business visitor here.

A TRIP TO ALASKA.

A Tour That Can Be Made With Comfort.

A trip to Alaska is one seldom undertaken by people in the British Isles, and of the many bookings undertaken by the Grand Trunk railway officials in London, few tickets show the destination to be that part far north of Canada, where coal and gold, together with meteorological observations, are often supposed to be the chief reasons for the existence of that land. That such a trip can be made with little out of the ordinary fatigue of travelling is well proved by a recent communication sent to Fred C. Salter, European traffic manager of the Grand Trunk railway, from Bromley Chalton, P.R.G.S., who has just returned from the north-western limit of the North American continent. The letter has an added interest by reason of the fact that on the day of the official opening of the Grand Trunk railway's new offices at 17-19 Cockspur street, S.W., Mr. Challoner was the first person to book a passage with the company for Canada. On Dominion Day (July 1st) the trip was planned and provision made for the journey, and in the first week in October, back in England again, the well-known geographer has been pleased to write to the Grand Trunk offices expressing his entire satisfaction with the easy way in which the journey was accomplished. After thanking the railway officials for making his journey so comfortable, he says: "I was very pleased, indeed, with both the road and rolling stock of your company, and in my opinion it is second to none on the continent of America. The arrangements you made for me were very much added to my comfort and enabled me to reach my destination in the quickest possible time, and I must say I experienced the greatest civility from the company's staff during my passage on your road. The route you worked out for me was a most interesting one, and coming back as I did over the Rockies and the Great Lakes, I did not travel over a single mile a second time except the short run between Sarnia and Toronto. Will you be good enough to send me particulars of your 'Round the World Tours.' I am thinking that next spring I may have another run out to the west and if I do I should like to return home via the east." Thus the whole of Great Britain is quickly put in touch by this great railway system, with what frequently is said to be the uttermost parts of the earth.

Segregation of Freshmen.

Boston, Dec. 10.—The plans of President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard University, for the segregation of the freshmen and the establishment of freshmen dormitories, as outlined in his inaugural address, was approved today by the board of overseers of the university. His ideas for modification of the elective system were also discussed, and the president was given authority to carry them out.

DYSPEPSIA, HEARTBURN, GAS AND OTHER STOMACH MISERY VANISHES.

Relief in five minutes awaits every sufferer.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour rising, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brush or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach misery you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless nights or headache or stomach misery all the next day, and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapiesin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient strength to thoroughly relieve gas on the stomach or to cure odors from the stomach or to cure a stomach headache.

You couldn't keep a handkerchief or more useful article in the house.
