AIRSHIP AT $100,000

AERIAL TRAVEL WILL BE LUXURY OF RICH.

Rate of Running Aeroplane For Passenger Service Estimated at $7.50 Per Hour.

Berlin, Dec. 21.—A committee of live aeronautical experts have got out estimates of the working expenses of aerial passenger lines which reveal clearly enough that travel in the air will for some time to come be a luxury in which only wealthy persons can indulge.

The famous inventor, Major Von Parseval, is the chairman of the committee, and the members are the inventor, Herr Rettig, Prof. Romberg and Lieut. Moedebeck.

It is stated that the cost of constructing an airship of approximately 8,000 cubic meters capacity, with a shed for its accommodation and other accessories, would be approximately $100,000. Major Von Parseval undertakes to construct an airship of this size and at this price which would be capable of carrying eighteen passengers besides the crew.

Assuming that ascents could be made on 200 days in the year, the annual working expenses would be approximately $75,000, or $375 per working day. Even assuming that the airship carried a full complement of passengers on each trip, which is highly improbable, it is clear that each passenger would have to pay more than $25 for a day's trip to cover the working expenses and to yield a small margin of profit. In view of the fact that the proprietors would have to reckon with smaller number of passengers on many days the fares would have to be apparently higher.

Assuming that instead of undertaking all-day trips the airship were able to make half a dozen ascents per day, the fares would still have to be fixed as high as $5 to $7.50 per hour.

ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVES.

Fifty to Be Built For Pennsylvania Railroad.

Pittsburg, Dec. 21.—Orders have been received at the East Pittsburg shops of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company for the early completion of the entire complement of electric locomotives for the New York terminal station of the Pennsylvania railway. The contract calls for fifty locomotives in single units, to be constructed in accordance with designs made by the department of electric motive power of the Pennsylvania railway and the engineers of the Westinghouse company.

The engines embody the latest features in electric railway construction and design. They can be operated as a single or double unit, and are said to be the largest vehicles for railroad transportation ever built. Each single locomotive is operated by an electric motor of 2,000 horse power. One of these double locomotives is equal in drawing capacity to three ordinary freight locomotives and will run sixty miles an hour.

The Westinghouse company has already completed and delivered two of the giant locomotives, which in the tests made on the Long Island division of the Pennsylvania railway fulfilled every expectation. These tests resulted in the order for the completion of the engines, and it is expected that all will be delivered by July 1, 1910.

Cook Is Within Call.

New York, Dec. 21.—Intimate friends of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who are on pins and needles, as it were, pending the decision of his date at Copenhagen, said that in their belief Dr. Cook is at the home of a friend in Christiansand, Norway, within easy call of Copenhagen.

It is thought that Dr. Cook left this country on the steamer United States, which sailed on Thanksgiving day. Walter Lonsdale, the explorer's secretary, is known to have sailed on the vessel.

Show Republican Party.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Dec. 21.—William Jennings Bryan, as guest of honor at a banquet given by the delegates of this city, said:

"For the last thirteen years the democratic party has actually dominated the public affairs of this country and mocked the public affairs. The republicans have done nothing good that was not outlined in the democratic platforms. The republican, today, has but one way of becoming popular, and that is by imitating the democrats."

Cardinal Satolli is gravely ill at the Vatican.

Very Effective for Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatic Sufferers.

The function of the kidneys is to filter and strain the impurities from the blood. Pains in the urinary region and the small of the back indicate that the kidneys are sick and need treatment. Neglecting such symptoms brings rheumatism, diabetes, dropsy and heart trouble, while a simple home treatment will restore and keep the kidneys in fine working order. Being a mild, balmy, hemostatic, old and young can use it with perfect safety. One half ounce need extract Buchu, compound fluid Balsam, one ounce compound syrup Sarsparilla, two ounces mix in a bottle. Take a teaspoonful before each meal. At night take another dose, drinking plenty of water.

A local druggist says he fills it frequently for the best physicians.

Deaths At Westport.

Westport, Dec. 20.—Mrs. D. Foley, one of the oldest residents of Westport, passed away on Thursday last at the age of eighty-one. She leaves a grown up family: James, of Ottawa; Martha, Julia, Annie, Loretta, Birdie, William and John, who reside at home. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Cleveland, who were attending the funeral of Mrs. Bateman have returned to Albany, N.Y. Harold Kennedy, of Athens, spent Sunday at home. Thomas Sweetman, Sr., an old and respected resident of Bedford, died on Sunday, following a short illness.

Howard Lang, the thirteen-year-old son of Peter Lang, Syracuse, N.Y., is dead, with a gaping wound in his back, caused by a charge from a shotgun in the hands of John Humann, twenty-one years old, while the two were hunting. It was an accident.

COMING TO THE GRAND.

The Time, The Place and The Girl.

Quite the best thing that indefatigable trio, Hough, Adams and Howard have done is the musical play, "The Time, The Place And the Girl," which will be offered at the Grand on Thursday, December 23d. This play must be placed in a class by itself, a story with music, fairly bubbling and sparkling with witty lines, a clever plot and many popular and catchy airs.

HAVE LONG FIGHTS

CORBETT INSISTS JEFFRIES BOX 20 ROUNDS.

Trainers Will Attempt to Persuade Former Champion to Take on Best Heavyweights in Full 20-Round Bouts.

New York, Dec. 21.—Jim Corbett, who will help train Jeffries, will insist that the big fellow engage in several 20-round "private" fights against tough customers before meeting the colored champion.

"I am going to do all I can to help Jeffries win," declared Corbett. "I think that if he simply spars to get into shape it will do him little good, and have arranged to get into condition myself and have some real fights with him. They will not be merely light forms of exercise. They will go at one another as if there was a big stake up and a good house looking on. I believe this is just what Jeffries needs to make him fit, and forty days before the match with Johnson comes off Jeff and I will start in one another."

"If Jim Jeffries was the Jeffries of ten years ago I wouldn't bother going to see the fight," continued Corbett. "But we must find out just what stamina he may have lost while he has been out of the game. In spite of my best efforts with him we have no monetary agreement with him; I am simply helping him out because of my desire to see him in shape to beat Johnson."

Jim Jeffries is right now about thirty-five pounds heavier than Jack Johnson, and when they go into the ring there will be in the neighborhood of thirty pounds difference between the two men. In discussing the weight angle of the big fight, it's a question as to whether this difference in weight is going to count for any advantage on either side. If Jeff has the better of weight and is still in superfluous condition it will help him. Jeff said at Cincinnati Monday that he weighed 230 pounds. Johnson weighed in New York the other day and tipped the beam at 196. He is lighter now than when he fought Ketchell.

Jeff says he weighed about 238 when he fought his best fight, and if he is handing out the right line of dope, it is easy to see that so far as weight is concerned he will be just as well off in the next fight as he was when he licked better champions than Jack Johnson.

POLITICAL COMPROMISE.

Brockville, Ont., Dec. 21.—A meeting of citizens who signed the compromise agreement in 1903 to eliminate party politics from municipal elections was held last night. The agreement has been in force six years, with liberals and conservatives holding power every other two years, and the scheme has been found to work so satisfactorily that it will be continued. A public meeting was called for this evening.

WHIG'S FASHION HINT.

Regina's new nine-sheet curling rink was opened this week.

Cornell will abolish football if next season is productive of a list of injuries such as this year.

Wagner hit .339 and led the National Baseball League, according to official averages just announced.

Montreal Star: Money will buy a hockey player, but it cannot always be a winner, as Renfrew may discover at later date.

Hal Chase, the world's greatest first baseman, made more errors than any other first sacker in the American Baseball League.

"Danny" Webster, of Los Angeles, and Monte Attell, of San Francisco, bantamweight champion of the coast, fought twenty hard, fast rounds to a draw.

Arrangements have been made for an interstate soccer football game to take place in Philadelphia on Christmas day between New York and Pennsylvania teams.

"Marty" Walsh, of Kingston, says he doesn't want to see those Renfrew magnates any more. "They keep me awake thinking of all the coin I turned down," says the Ottawa centre man.

New license fees for amusement places were provided in an ordinance adopted at Chicago Friday. By the new order the National and American League baseball parks will be obliged to pay $1,000 a year, or about double the rate heretofore required.

N. J. Cartnell, the American sprinter, defeated A. Postle, the Australian champion, by three yards in a 220-yard dash in the fast time of twenty-one and a half seconds, at London, England.

This lowers the British professional record for the distance.

Andrew J. Lynch, at one time known as the king of umpires, was elected president of the National League baseball club. Lynch was the darkest kind of a dark horse and his election came as a great surprise. He was nominated by John Brush, of the New York club, and the vote was made unanimous without any delay or argument of any kind.

Pietro Dorando, the Italian runner, collapsed in the twenty-third mile of his Marathon race against B. W. Gardner, an English runner, at Albert Hall, London, England. Gardner's time for the twenty-three miles was two hours twelve minutes two-fifths seconds, a new world's indoor record. His time for the full distance was two hours thirty-seven minutes twelve seconds.

That the sale of a baseball player from one club to another is a direct violation of the thirteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, which prohibits slavery, is a point raised in the Luzerne county court, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in a suit involving the transfer of a player from one organization to another. Last July the owners of the Wilkes-Barre club of the New York State League purchased from the Allentown club of the Atlantic League Pitcher Joseph Pequin.
