PUPILS MADE MERRY IN THE VARIOUS CITY SCHOOLS.

The Christmastide Was Happily Celebrated—Programmes Rendered By the Children Were Most Creditable.

In Central school the usual Christmas closing exercises were observed. Many parents and friends found their way to the kindergarten, which is always a place of special interest on closing day and all were delighted with the way the little ones acquitted themselves. Their programme was as follows: Christmas tree exercises held Tuesday morning with Dr. Nash as Santa Claus; piano solo, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," opening prayer; hymn, "A Star Shone in the East One Night"; Christmas picture talk; greetings; finger exercises, sight-singing; song, "Joy Bells Are Ringing," song by Helen Anglin and Margaret Wilson; sense game; song by the children. While preparation was being made for the children's games, a piano duet was played by Miss Greenlee and Miss Mills, and a lullaby, sweetly sung by Mrs. Huntington Simpson. Kindergarten games followed. Santa appeared and distributed the gifts made by the children for their parents.

The following are among those who took part in the closing exercises in the other classes: Senior I—Class recitation, "St. Luke's Story of the Birth"; Christmas hymn, "Once Unto the Shepherds"; class exercise, "Mother Goose's Children," by twelve girls and boys; recitation, "A Lesson From Our Christmas Trees," Carl Franklin; chorus, "Oh, Santa Claus," class; Christmas lullaby, by seven girls; recitation, "Baby's Stocking," Helen Bewis; exercise, "A Merry Christmas," by fourteen girls and boys; chorus, "Santa Is Coming," class; class recitation, "The Christmas Spirit." Honor certificates were presented to Thelma Hoag, Daisy MacCannon, Winnifred Guild, Jean MacPherson, Etta Kirkwood, Lela Hunter, Mildred Francis, Vernon Jackson, Albert Lindrige, Carl Franklin.

Junior Fourth—Chorus; recitation, "The Stolen Custard," Beta Hunter; recitation, "He Overlooked It," James Campbell; dialogue, Louis Sugarman; Willie Fowler, recital, Cornelius, solo; "A Christmas Lullaby," Mae Perry, chorus; "The Children's Song," recital, "Who Is He In Yonder Stall," recitation, "A Christmas Prevention," Hazel Thompson; chorus, "Merry Merry Christmas Bells"; drill, Upside Down, eight pupils; recitation, "The Holly Stocking," B. Shames; song, "Jollity," recitation, "Santa Claus Secret," Norman Frost; recital, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

Rideau School Closing. In the morning all the pupils assembled in the room of the principal and for an hour enjoyed a good programme of recitations, songs and choruses, to which each class contributed its share. The rooms were prettily decorated with evergreens and looked very Christmas-like. In the afternoon each class, in its separate room, had a treat of apples and candies sent by Santa Claus. To many of the children this was the best part of the day's proceedings.

Depot School Closing. Quite a number of visitors were present at the depot school to see the Christmas decorations, and to be entertained by the little folks. Hector Hughes performed the duties of chairman in a very pleasing manner. A number of Christmas songs were sung by the class and recitations were given by the following pupils: Helen Potter, Kathleen Harkness, Grace Gow, Della Hutcheson, Kathleen Miron, Winnifred Young, May Payne, Mabel Vallier, Gladys Abbott, Vera Hughes, Mary Henry, Lillian Elliott, Gladys Miron, Willie Knowlton, Pearl Young, Albert Knox, Honor Young, Helen Russell. Several dialogues received careful attention, the last being "A Christmas Reunion," in which the following characters were represented: "Mother Goose," Alice Moxley; "Father Christmas," Alton Hamilton; "Jack," Howard White; "Boys," Lucy Moxley; "Jack Horner," Clifford Vallier; "Peter Pumpkin Eater," Frank Jarvis; "Miss Muffet," Irene Jarvis; "Curly Locks," Clara Harrison; "Simon Simon," Stanley Knox; "Tommy Tucker," Kenneth Henderson; "Polly Plinders," Gladys Henderson; "Santa Claus," Gordon Sears.

The pupils had their usual Christmas treat and the national anthem ended the proceedings.

Catarqui School. In Catarqui school all the pupils assembled in the three downstairs rooms, the pupils in each room carrying out a splendid programme, consisting of choruses, recitations, songs and dialogues. Particularly interesting was a Christmas dialogue given by boys and girls of the senior class, in which the pupils were dressed to represent different nationalities. They took their parts well, Santa being very real. In one of the junior classes

FRONTENACS TO PRACTISE THE CIVIC MEETINGS DURING THE YEAR.

A Call to the Players to Turn Out and Help to Bring Back a Championship—"Skipper" Gaskin Home For the Holiday.

The Frontenacs, seniors and juniors, will have their first workout this evening from eight to nine, and every member is requested to be present. The teams have just an hour's practice and an hour passes all too quickly, especially when men are working, and as the players need all the work they can get, all should be out. Come on you old players and get in line. A bunch of city men got together and said they would see the teams through. They are doing their duty, now come on and do yours, the teams need your services. You need the exercise, and the old Limestone City needs the championship. So come on, boys, get in line!

Returned From New York. "Jack" Gaskin arrived from New York on Tuesday evening to spend two weeks' holidays with his parents, Albert street. "Skipper" will be welcome to the city and many hockey managers only wish he were going to remain the season instead of only two weeks, as he was one of the best defence players in this district. More than once the work of "Skipper" at point or cover-point has changed defeat to victory, for many teams, including Queen's intermediates and junior teams, and city league teams innumerable. "Jack's" many friends were pleased to see him back.

City Hockey League. A well-attended meeting of the City Hockey League was held on Tuesday evening in the Frontenac Business College building, Vice-president, Gravelle presiding. The chief matter for consideration was a number of applications from teams who never before belonged to the league. The matter was discussed at length and finally it was decided to let the teams already entered in the league consider the applications of the new teams, and report to the next meeting on January 1st, and have everything arranged for the season. The league is certainly in a flourishing condition and so far it looks as if about fifteen teams would be in the senior series.

Marty To Play Lacrosse. Ottawa Citizen. "Marty" Walsh and Albert Kerr, of the Ottawa hockey team, have decided to go in for lacrosse and when the summer comes will be found out on the sward. "Marty" played the game at Kingston, being a crack outside home man, while Kerr held down the centre position for the Brockville team in the Eastern Ontario Lacrosse League two years ago. Frederick Taylor has also decided to get back into lacrosse, but neither of the three has yet announced whether he will turn out with the Capitals or with the new team, the organization of which is already under way. Petie Green thinks Kerr and Walsh would make fine lacrosse players. Both are good stickhandlers as well as being fast men on their feet and should fit in nicely at the national game.

Many times in the last two or three days messengers have had to return a second time to have in order to get a receipt for their parcels. At Louise School. The closing exercises in this school were held Wednesday afternoon. Promptly at two o'clock the primary classes assembled in the principal's room, where the following programme was given: Chorus, "The Stockings Ball," class; recitation, "Joe's Christmas," Andrew Sykes; recitation, "Christmas Eve," Gordon Folger; recitation, "Christmas Carol," Florence Boarrey; song, Gordon Cornett; recitation, "Yuletide," Isabel Leslie; recitation, "Christmas A. (God Save the King).

Victoria School. The annual closing exercises in connection with Victoria school were held on 22nd. All the exercises were of an educative nature and consisted of dialogues, recitations, speeches and choruses. Several of the rooms had Christmas trees, from which presents were distributed to visitors—little boys and girls, and sometimes, in the case of the kindergarten, these gifts were made and given to parents or friends. In this way a spirit of generosity is inculcated. The kindergarten class held their reception to parents on the 21st. Many parents availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting the little people. A most interesting programme was rendered and not the least interesting feature was the distribution of Christmas gifts from the tree to the parents. Another feature of the closing exercises deserved special attention. The Senior III class pupils, with their teacher, invited the children of the Orphans' Home to be present at their home, where presents were rendered and the home was much pleased and the pupils repaid for their unselfish work in the pleasure they had given to their guests. On the whole the exercises in the grades were a pronounced success. The following received honor certificates. These certificates are given each term for regularity, punctuality, combined with diligence and good conduct.

HAD SYSTEM AT WORK. Different Kinds of Poison at Different Periods. New Albany, Ind., Dec. 22.—That Mrs. Pearl Armstrong systematically administered doses of poison to her husband, George Armstrong, for four days, and finally brought about his death, was the charge formulated today, by County Prosecutor Baillet against her. She is in jail.

Boxes that had contained rat poison and strychnine, and a pair of gloves were found, to-day, by the police, in a sink hole in the rear of the Armstrong—home. Florence Myrtle Harris, sixteen year of age, who lived with the Armstrongs, directed the police where to find these articles. The girl told the prosecutor that Mrs. Armstrong said she "would have a better time if her husband was dead." He was ill, and she gave him, last Thursday afternoon, the girl said, a dose of rat poison, pretending that it was medicine. Armstrong went to bed and grew worse. On Sunday afternoon, according to the girl's statement, Mrs. Armstrong, protecting her hands with gloves, filled several capsules with carbolic acid, and Armstrong took them. "I begged Mrs. Armstrong not to give her husband more poison, but she answered that she had started to end his life, and she might as well finish it." The girl stated to the prosecutor that on Sunday the woman gave him a dose of strychnine. Armstrong died, yesterday. Mrs. Armstrong maintains that her husband took poison with intent to commit suicide.

What The Baroness Gets. Paris, Dec. 22.—A despatch from Nice to the Petit Parisien, says it has been learned that the marriage of King Leopold and Baroness Vaughan took place at a little chapel near Bordighera. The Matin quotes M. Picard, attorney for Baroness Vaughan, as stating that King Leopold left her $26,000,000.
