PAYS FOR BUGLE BAND

GANANOQUE'S MILLIONAIRE IS GENEROUS.

Kingston Buyers Raided Gananoque For Turkeys—A Lad Summoned to Police Court For Breaking Street Arc Lamp.

Gananoque, Dec. 24.—Through the generosity of Charles Macdonald, the recently organized Macdonald Cadets will organize a bugle band, he having offered to purchase the instruments and furnish a qualified instructor. His generous offer was thankfully received and accepted.

Charles A. Watt, who has been a prominent member of the Board of Education for several years past, tendered his resignation, on Monday last, as other duties prevent his regular attendance at the board sessions. At a special session of the board his resignation was accepted.

Gananoque council, No. 132, C.O. C.F., elected the following officers: Past councillor, T. H. Waldie; chief councillor, Frank Keyes; vice-councillor, Frank Johnston; prelate, E. D. Gillespie; Rec. and Treas., W. B. Emery; Asst. Rec., A. Kenny; marshal, Frank Wright; warden, E. B. Keating; guard, D. Darling; sentry, W. J. Reid; trustees, R. W. Cunningham, E. B. Keating and W. B. Emery.

Miss Victoria M. Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker, King street, is confined to her home by a severe attack of appendicitis.

Buyers from Kingston have been in town during the past few days buying up turkeys and other fowl for the city trade. The stock of several local dealers being depleted by them, the price paid for turkeys was twenty cents a pound.

Ross Lloyd has been summoned to appear before the police magistrate, charged with breaking one of the town's arc lights. The case will be heard at an early date.

Douglas Boyd, the fifteen-year-old son of the late Thomas Boyd, Victoria avenue, is seriously ill, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Wadsworth, with slight hopes for his recovery.

Maple Grove church held its annual Christmas entertainment, last evening. A number from Gananoque assisted in the programme. Springfield church hold its annual entertainment this evening, several Gananoqueans having been secured to assist in the programme.

Councillor W. J. Gibson and Reeve C. E. Britton have been appointed by the town council as a committee to interview the board of management of the Canadian Northern railway, to present Gananoque's plea for connection either by branch or main line with that road.

T. F. Milne, commercial specialist of Port Arthur Collegiate Institute, late of Gananoque high school, is spending his holidays at his home, Church street. Stanley Robinson, South street, had the good fortune to land several prizes at the Brockville poultry show last week.

Miss McDermott, of the West Ward school, and Miss O'Connor, King street, are spending their vacation at their homes in Kingston. Miss Cram, West Ward school, at her home in Carleton Place; Miss Gordon, Stone street, in Athens. Dr. W. F. Cornett, Kingston, spent a few days, this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Pine street. Dr. George C. McKinley, Leeds township, returned, yesterday, from a month's trip in the West Indies. David Byers, Queen's, is holidaying here with relatives. Miss Essie De Long, King street, leaves, today to spend Christmas with Maple Grove friends.

AT THE GRAND.

"The Time, The Place And The Girl," Last Night.

"The Time, The Place And The Girl," the musical comedy, which made such a hit, last season, was the offering at the Grand last night, and delighted a good-sized audience. The musical numbers included the old favorites, "Blow The Smoke Away," "Thursday Is My Jonah Day," and "Honeymoon." The songs are catchy, the lines witty, and altogether, the production is a most enjoyable one. The story centres around Johnny Hicks and his chum, "Tom" Cunningham, who are forced to run away from the law, after they get into a mixup in a gambling house. They strike a sanitarium and hotel in the mountains of Virginia, which is tied up for two weeks, owing to the fact that a case of small-pox is discovered. Something occurs to make it more interesting, in that the cook and all the hired help happen to be on the outside when the place is quarantined, and as they cannot get back, all the guests have to turn in and do the work. They find it rather hard, but do the best they can. Vivian Allen undertook the part of "The Girl," Margaret Simpson, in an able manner. The comedy work fell to George Ebner as "Happy Johnny Hicks, the gambler, and he was really good in the part. The company gave fine support.

"The Volunteer Organist."

The beautiful pastoral play, "The Volunteer Organist," which is the attraction booked for the Grand on Christmas day, matinee and night, is a most unusual and original dramatic conception. The characters are true to life and tell a story that goes straight to the heart. There are tears and laughter, sunshine and gloom, all artfully blended in this most human and engrossing stage picture of life in the Green Mountain state. In the third act of Mr. Gray's play, there is a church scene which has been pronounced by able critics as being the most absorbing part of an exceptionally interesting play. In fact, this scene has been made so true and real that as soon as the curtain rises on it one is immediately transferred into the realms of all that is holy.

"Going Some."

"Going Some," a farce comedy that has been declared by critics throughout the country to be the funniest thing written in years, will have its first presentation here, under the management of the Shuberts, at the Grand, on Thursday, December 30th. "Going Some" is described by its authors, Rex Beach and Paul Armstrong, as a "play of college boys and girls and cowboys," and it is as refreshing and as novel as its slang title. Walter Jones, the comedian, is the chief fun-maker with "Going Some," and in the role of the trainer of a pseudo athlete, has the best part of his career.

"Graustark" Coming.

"Graustark," George D. Baker's dramatization of the novel of the same name, is to be the attraction at the Grand, on Wednesday, December 29th. The romantic story of the love of Grenfall Lorry and Princess Yetive of Graustark, with the stirring events connected therewith, due to the chivalrous American becoming involved in the affairs of that principality and its neighbors, makes a good play. The company presenting the play is up to the standard, each individual having been selected for his or her adaptability for the particular role in which they are cast.

To The Electors of Ontario Ward:

Owing to the retirement of Alderman Nickle, who has ably represented our ward for several years, I have been requested to offer as a candidate. If elected, I shall try to give a square deal to both Ontario Ward and the city at large by exercising the same business qualities in civic as in private commercial matters; also a square deal to the taxpayers by consulting their interests, before that of any political party. If this platform is worth supporting your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Yours,
T. F. HARRISON.

MAYORALTY, 1910.

TO THE ELECTORS:

Yielding to constant and repeated requests, I have decided to offer myself for re-election. In my course as your Mayor I have tried to be true to my pledges and my record, and, if you are satisfied with my efforts, I hope you will indicate it by continued support.

D. COUPER.

To Electors of St. Lawrence Ward:

I have been requested by a number of the business men to offer as a candidate. If elected, I shall endeavor to give the business interest of the city my best attention and also consult interested taxpayers over matters of importance to them.
