PALACE RINK OPENS.

It Fills a Want in The North End of City. The Palace skating rink, at the corner of Barris street and Raglan Road opened its doors to the general public for the first time, on Wednesday night.

The Palace skating rink, at the corner of Barris street and Raglan Road opened its doors to the general public for the first time, on Wednesday night.

The two large dressing rooms, one for ladies, and one for gentlemen, are fitted in fine style, nothing being spared to make them comfortable.

The manager, Bert Stansbury, certainly has a fine rink, and deserves every success, as he stepped in and gave the people what they wanted, and in far better style than they imagined it could be done.
