MRS. KEPPEL SPENDS $200,000 ON HER HOME.

Her beautiful place is a "Fairland of Beauty" Uncommon Even in the West End Palaces.

London, Jan. 4.—No little sensation has been caused in London by the publication in a weekly paper of an article, entitled "Mrs. Keppel's Ambition," and giving details of the changes which are being made in the house recently acquired by the Hon. George and Mrs. Keppel in Grosvenor street.

Mrs. Keppel, who has placed the family fortunes on a more satisfactory basis than they used to be in the days when her husband went to Chicago as the representative of a tea and provision merchant, wanted a mansion in Carleton House Terrace, and negotiations for the purchase of one of these desirable residences were progressing favorably until there came an unexpected hitch, and the lady had to content herself with the dull and heavy-looking house, 16 Grosvenor street, which was for years the premises of a piano manufacturer.

Now, however, the close supervision of Mrs. Keppel herself, is transformed rapidly into a fairland of a beauty uncommon even among the palaces of the West End.

It is well known, according to the London paper quoted, that Mrs. Keppel long wanted to be one of the hostesses of London, a task which she, with her beauty and wit, is well fitted by nature. Hereto she has not been able to do all she desired in this direction, but her new establishment is of sufficient spaciousness to satisfy the most exacting hostess, while the decorative scheme which she contemplates will form a rare setting for the functions it will witness.

The house has a frontage of nearly sixty feet on Grosvenor street and runs back a distance of more than 200 feet. On entering the hall a spacious morning room takes the eye. It is a fine lofty room which will lend itself readily to a display of the decorative tapestry designed for it.

Immediately adjoining is the dining room, a stately room of some forty feet by twenty-five feet, with a handsome Adam ceiling, in a remarkable state of preservation. The Queen room, like all the reception rooms, will have paneled walls, but this decoration of the Middle Ages is to be treated and framed entirely in modern spirit.

It is not the intention of Mrs. Keppel that the waiting list for new mansions shall be as dull as the tapestried walls of some houses. Lightness and delicacy will be aimed at rather than sombre heaviness which usually prevails when such decoration is adopted.

Practically all the walls will be in large panels running from the skirting to the cornice. These panels will be bordered by massive moldings, enriched with embellishments of a special and novel design, and in them

JUNIOR FRONTENACS PLAY IN TRENTON

On Monday Evening—Two Other Kingston Hockey Teams Go Away to Play Games—Senior Frontenacs May Play Queen's.

The junior Frontenacs leave on Monday afternoon, for Trenton, where they play the second O.H.A. junior game of the first round. Report has it that Trenton has a very strong team, but it was beaten in Pieton, this week. However, the Frontenacs have a good, fast, steady seven, who play well together. The defence plays defence, every player being in his position every minute and on the line every player knows what is expected of him, and does it to the best of his ability. If Frontenacs play in Trenton as they can play, they will win. The team will line up as follows:

Marchand, goal; E. Davidson, point; D. Davidson, cover; Brouse, rover; Gratton, centre; A. Davidson, right wing; Moray, left wing; James Sutherland, stalwart Crawford and Samuel McHugh will look after the team. Michael Joyce will go as spare forward.

To Play in Deseronto.

The Wellingtons will play in Deseronto, this evening, with the town team. The game should be a good one, as a bunch of teams have gone down to defeat before the Deseronto team. Last season a very strong team represented the above town. This year the Wellingtons think they can take their measure and will take up a strong team. The following players will go: Marchand, goal; Little, point; Nicholson, cover; Brouse, rover; Gratton, centre; Reid, left wing; Moray, right wing. A number of supporters will go up with the boys.

Royals at Trenton.

Stanley Trotter left, this afternoon, for Trenton, with the Royal hockey team, to play a friendly game with the junior O.H.A. team there. He took up a strong bunch, which should win out.

Kingston Teams Travelling.

More Kingston teams seem to be travelling around this season than last, especially so early in the season. Nearly all the city teams that ever do go away have had a trip already, and some are to-day on the second one. The Kingston boys all ways have a fine time when they are away, and are always well looked after by the teams they visit. Kingston teams seem to be the demand by teams from all over the surrounding country, and cannot fill their dates in time, so many requests are coming in.

Senior Frontenacs Practice.

The senior Frontenacs will practice at the covered rink, on Monday evening, at eight o'clock, and all senior players, old and new, should be out. If the Queen's-Frontenacs game comes off on Wednesday, all the old players will be needed, and they should turn out, just to show that they can win one game out of three from Queen's. All the senior players but two seem to be available.

Collegiate will also practice, on Monday evening, from nine to ten o'clock, at the Kingston covered rink. The K.C.C. boys will have to get in some hard work to hold the junior Intercollegiate cup, which they won last winter. The first round, Cadets II, Queen's III and Collegiate, must be finished by February 1st.

Juvenile Hockey League.

The organization meeting of the Y.M.C.A. juvenile hockey league held Friday afternoon, and the following officers were elected: President, William McFarlane, vice-president, B. J. Rielly, secretary-treasurer, J. J. Thompson. The object of the league is the furtherance of hockey in the city, and the promotion of the game under. At present there are four teams entered and in order to give other teams a chance to enter the meeting adjourned until Monday, Jan. 10th, at 4:30 p.m., when entries from teams will be received and certificates issued. The first games will be played Saturday, Jan. 15th.

Sporting Notes.

Princeton hockey team defeated Cornell at Nicholas rink, New York, by a score of 1 to 0.

Montreal Star: "It's just as easy for a hockey player to break a contract as it is to break an opponent's code."

Ottawa Citizen: Vancouver and New Westminster lacrosse teams are already chasing players for next season. Capital players are still chasing the club.

To-onto Telegram: Full many a boy would run till he fell for the pure sport of it, but he'd quit in less than five minutes if he tackled the parental woodpile with the family buxak, rugby field Wales easily defeated France, and it looks as if the "Lok" will prove a hard side to beat again this season. Newport still remain the only unbeaten side in Wales and have a powerful side.

Ottawa Free Press: Speaking of body-aching, Marty Walsh claims he holds the long-distance record, when Harvey Pulford boosted him to the rafters in the Ottawa-Queen's Stanley cup series in 1906.

The Montreal Star contains a fine picture, a Friday's issue, of Arthur Bernier, executive manager for the senior 14th team. The Kingston player seems to be making many friends in Montreal among the sporting people.

"Jim" Delehanly, second baseman of the Detroit American league team last year, and brother of the new Toronto outfielder, signed a contract last night with the Detroit team for 1910. He is the first of Detroit's infielders to sign up for next season.

Battling Nelson, lightweight champion, and Ad. Wolgast, are matched to fight forty-five rounds on Feb. 22nd at a new arena to be built in San Mateo county, just south of San Francisco. Wolgast accepted by telegraph Herter's offer of $2,750. Nelson's share will be $12,000.

WANTED TO GO TO JAIL

But Will Be Sent to Work on Farm—Looked for Easy Life.

It is not every day that you meet a man who wishes to be sent to jail. Horace Atwood, who is not more than thirty years of age, and who was sent out to this country by an immigration agency in the old land, would rather go to jail than look for work. He was in the police court on Friday morning and the magistrate gave him a chance to leave the city, whereupon he asked to be sent to jail.

The magistrate would not grant his request and after the court was over a Kingston gentleman secured a job for him in the country, where he is known as a farmer. In the police court Atwood made the bluff that he could not find work, although he had been hunting all over the city. However, the magistrate was wise to his little game. Atwood said he did not want to go to work on the farm. He wanted to go to jail and if no person else would make a charge against him he would lodge one himself.

"And I can do it," he said. "Do you know that just yesterday I was laid up in bed with a miner's strike? I spent the money as I did not want to go to Gananogue. Is not that sufficient evidence to send me to jail?"

Atwood finally consented to go to the farm and if he before to work there will be more trouble ahead for him. He is said to belong to a well-to-do family in the old country.

BLEW AWAY THE FROST.

A Lad's Tongue Stuck to a Brass Rod.

A young lad named Charles Hay was the victim of an exceedingly painful accident on Wednesday evening, one that only for the timely arrival of Mr. Ald. Angrove and W. W. Gibson, might have resulted very badly. The little fellow was looking into a King street lamp when he was struck by a large brass rod. Unluckily, the rod fell down his tongue, and in an instant it was stuck to the rod and he was held fast. The boy was powerless and could not even make a sound; every move he made caused intense pain. Mr. Angrove and Mr. Gibson happened along and thought the boy seemed in a peculiar attitude, so took a closer view and were surprised to see him held fast by the tongue.

The two men got one on each side of the youngster, and blew their breath on the rod, and after a couple of minutes' work succeeded in releasing him. When the boy was finally freed, he was in severe pain, as most of the skin had been taken off his tongue.

A Hint To Shopping Ladies.

If you wanted anything badly, and if you got to the store were persuaded to take something else instead, when you came away wouldn't you be disappointed? Well, if somebody had "got one over you," and not for your benefit, mind, but for their own profit!

And when you proved that the something which was represented as being "just as good," as what you asked for was not as good—was not to be compared even with the real thing, wouldn't you feel still worse?

This is just the case about Zam-Buk. Like all good things it has many imitations. When buying it, just ask for Zam-Buk, and see that you get it. The name is protected by law, and is clearly seen on each package. Don't have anything else! These words are stamped on every package, and a few extra cents out of your pocket of firmness.

McGill Musicians Coming.

An unusual entertainment is presented by the Glee and Mandolin club of McGill university, Montreal, who will conduct their annual tour during this month. The members of the two organizations will offer a programme of glee and mandolin songs, and a well-trained body of violin and guitar section is composed of expert players trained by a noted Italian musician, Signor d'Albino. The latter will be heard in solo numbers when the organization comes to the Grand Opera House on Saturday night, Jan. 22nd.

Pulpit Exchanges.

At the annual interchange of pulpits to-morrow morning the preachers will be: First Baptist, Rev. Dr. McTavish; Union street, Baptist, Rev. Douglas Logan; First Congregational, Rev. J. D. Boyd, B.A.; Bethel, Rev. F. Sproule, B.A.; Calvary, C. J. Stephens; Sydenham street Methodist, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray; Queen street, Rev. Dr. Mackie; Brock street, P. H. Baker, B.D.; St. Andrew's, Rev. T. E. Burke, B.D.; Chalmers, Rev. T. E. Baker, B.D.; Cooke's, Rev. C. A. Sykes, B.D.; Zion, Rev. H. D. Whitmore.

An Alarming Statement.

Dr. Connell, of the Kingston Dairy School, has been examining the impurities into the drinking waters on Ontario farms, and he finds that sixty per cent. of the samples of water sent him were dangerous to health if used for drinking purposes. He thus makes the startling statement that one-third of the wells on Ontario farms contain dangerous bacteria in quantities great enough to be alarming.

Drop In Milk.

There was a big drop in milk on Division street on Friday. One of the ricks belonging to the Frontenac dairy was upset, and altogether about two hundred quarts was poured out on to the roadway.

Just Arrived.

If you want a Queen's sweater coat, now is the time. Collars in quarter sizes. P. J. Hunt, Brock street.

Many a man who has no knowledge of music attempts to play on his wife's sympathies.

MUST FACE PROBLEMS

WITH THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD.

Address Given by Rev. Mr. Bates, Missionary From Japan, at Prayer Service—Final Meeting of Series was Held in Queen Street Church.

The final meeting in the series of special prayer services, was held last night, in Queen Street Methodist church, and was attended by one of the largest congregations of the week. The pastor, Rev. S. Selzer, presided, and those who assisted in the service were: Rev. C. M. Sykes, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, Rev. H. D. Whitmore, and Rev. T. E. Burke.

Rev. F. A. Cassidy, M.A., was to have been the speaker, but late this week, Mr. Cassidy found that it would be impossible for him to be present. Both Mr. Cassidy and Rev. Mr. Bates have been engaged in missionary work in Japan, and are at present home on a furlough. When Mr. Cassidy found that he would be unable to attend and give his address, Mr. Bates very kindly offered to fill his place, and the address he delivered was an excellent one.

The speaker referred to his work in Japan, and pointed out that the religion of Jesus Christ was the religion for all men. It was good for one man; it was good for all. Christianity would meet all the demands made up of it. This religion was good for every individual.

"The only way in which our world problems can be met," added the speaker, "is in the spirit of Christian brotherhood. There are not enough guns in England to crush Japan and China, and the problem must be met by a spirit of brotherhood, and it is only in this way that the danger can be met. Our relation with these countries shows an attitude of superiority, our missionary effort shows an attitude of inferiority. We look upon these people as being very low. They may need the gospel, but they are not as low as some of us imagine. They have their virtues. In regard to treaty, commerce, missionary work and in fact all our relations with these people, we must show a Christian spirit. Let us get back to Jesus Christ's teaching. Christianity is a universal religion. The religion of Jesus Christ is a religion for the world."

WOMAN'S CONFIDENCE.

Glad to Confide to Sympathetic Women. Womanly women shrink, as a rule, from speaking to men other than their husbands about any trouble peculiar to their sex from which they are suffering. These women of modesty and refinement prevent them from consulting a doctor in regard to such disorders, even though they may be many times more painful and distressing than dyspepsia for which a physician is regularly consulted. On the other hand they are always glad to confide about these matters to an experienced, sympathetic woman. They know that her sisterly nature appreciates their sufferings and that she has a clearer and more instantaneous understanding of their condition. The lack of them than any man possibly can, on account of her personal experiences and the experiences of those with whom she has come in contact.

Mrs. F. D. Currah, of Windsor, Ont., has undoubtedly a wider acquaintance in a confidential way with the "Canadian Lady." A sufferer for years from these troubles herself, though now in the best of health and the mother of several children, she is eminently well qualified to give counsel and encouragement to those who are suffering and dependent. More than 10,000 women in all parts of Canada consider her a personal friend and assist their recovery to Orange Lily, for which remedy Mrs. Currah is the Canadian agent. She inspires confidence from the start by offering to send, absolutely free of charge, the most to last for ten days to every suffering woman. This causes many to investigate it and the fact that almost all of those who test it continue its use until cured is perhaps the best proof that could be given of the efficacy of an effective remedy for these distressing diseases.

Ring The Fire Bell.

It would be a great help to the firemen, especially in the day time, if the city bell would ring every time an alarm is sounded. Even a telephone call is registered at the police station, and the two strokes are always given from the lower station to notify the pump house, and the station receives the call at the same time. Some times, men are away from the station, and other times one of the teams may be at the blacksmith shop or out exercising, and do not know there is a fire until some one tells them. The firemen would like to hear the bell at every alarm.

Patents Issued.

The following patents have been issued through Featherstonhaugh, Denison & Co., patent solicitors, 18-20 King street west, Toronto: 276,126, Canadian—John P. Arroyo, clothes rack; H. Keller, St. Louis, coat; A. G. Clarke & H. F. Borrie, document file; Charles J. Klein, electric snap switches; John Livesey, hat pin guard; J. F. Richardson, telegraphy; Frank Sawford, cap for incandescent lamps; Henri Vohl, bolt and nut; Harry A. Wolf, auto. photographic apparatus; William Wals, United States, electric controller; H. Edmonds, New Zealand, self-sealing cans; J. F. Ross, France, self-sealing cans.

Boat, Iron and Wire, big bottles, special brand, 75c at Best's. A large number of war pensions have been at the police station the past few days, having their papers filed out by the chief, for pension funds to be sent on to Ottawa. Kingston has quite a number of pensioners.

Band's Iron Tonic pills, 100 for 25c at Best's.

Reperi Miller, who was injured while playing in a game of hockey, on Thursday, is doing nicely, and it is expected that he will soon be able to be out again.

Extra strong horsebalm, in sticks, at Best's.

Band at Palace rink, Monday night.

Police Will Make Trouble For All the Officers.

There is trouble ahead for all people in the downtown section of the city, who refuse to shovel the snow from in front of their place of business. The engineer's department is out with a big stick after all offenders, and the police are assisting this department in the work. On Friday, everyone was notified that they must shovel off the snow, and after a reasonable time, if the order is not carried out, a summons for the police court will follow.

The shovelling of Thursday night made the walking rather bad, but where the shovel was put to good use, these talking should start in and help along the work of keeping the sidewalks in good shape.

Canadian Club.

A meeting will be held in the board of trade rooms on Monday, January 10th, at 5 p.m., for the purpose of organizing the Kingston Canadian Club. All persons interested in this movement are requested to attend. It is the purpose of the club to foster patriotism by encouraging the study of the institutions, history, arts, literature and resources of Canada, and by endeavoring to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the dominion as may be desirable and expedient.

Be Sure And Attend.

A missionary meeting will be addressed by the Bishop of Montreal, Rev. H. A. Haslam, India and Dr. T. W. W. Crawford, East Africa, will be held in St. George's hall, Monday evening at eight o'clock.

Band at Palace rink, Monday night.
