Inaugural Meeting Was Held This Morning.

ASKS COUNCIL TO BE ACTIVE THIS YEAR.

The Standing Committees Appointed ing over a small surplus and, with -Chairmen About the Same as Last all this, the year has been by no Wilbur Year-Various Appointments Made | means barren in it's results. The gas and By-laws Passed.

The inaugural meeting of the city council of 1910 was held this morning at eleven o'clock in the council chamber before a goodly number of spectators. Mayor Couper was sworn in for his second term by Police Magistrate Farrell. All the aldermen were present excepting Ald. Toye The standing committees were appointed and are much the same as last year. The by-laws to purchase land for the extension of Sydenham street, from Johnson to Brock, and for the extension of upper William, from Division street to University avenue, and for the purchase of new fire engine, were given their third reading the city clerk reporting that the ratepayers had eadorsed them at the polls. Appointments were made to the board of health, board of education and School of Mining board and members of the court of revision were appointed. Some other general business was transacted. After the declaration of office had been administered to the mayor by the police magistrate the latter placed the chain of office around the neck of his worship amid the applause of the aldermen and spectators. The following newly-elected aldermen signed their qualification papers: Sydennam ward, Dr. R. Healey; Ontario ward, T. F. Harrison; St. Lawrence ward, D. A.
