

Sales Doubling Every Six Months

Wonderful Demand for a Wonderful Remedy.

During the past few years, the sales of "Fruit-a-tives" have doubled every six months. In the six months from January to July of this year, the sales of this popular medicine were more than twice as great as for any similar period since "Fruit-a-tives" was introduced to the public.

The National Drug & Chemical Company of Canada Limited, the largest wholesale drug house in the world—Lymans Limited of Montreal—and Lyman Brothers of Toronto—are buying "Fruit-a-tives" in 100 gross lots, 100 gross mean 14,400 boxes, which retail for $7,200.00. This gives some idea of the steady demand for these wonderful fruit liver tablets.

It is safe to say that "Fruit-a-tives" is on sale in every drug store and in departmental stores and general stores carrying medicines throughout the Dominion. Nor is the sale of "Fruit-a-tives" confined to Canada. In many parts of the United States, "Fruit-a-tives" is the standard family medicine and hardly a day passes that the Fruit-a-tives Company does not receive prepaid orders from our neighbors over the line. The many testimonials, which have been published in the leading papers, are the most convincing evidence of the great value of "Fruit-a-tives". 50c a box—6 for $2.50—or trial box, 25c. If your dealer does not handle them, any quantity will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

MISSIONARY WORK

ADDRESSES DELIVERED AT ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.

Bishop Farthing, Rev. R. H. Haslam and Dr. T. W. W. Crawford. Were the Speakers—Meeting Held Under Auspices—Laymen's Missionary Movement Sunday Afternoon.

"Missionary work is the work of the church of Christ. A church can never be Christian, unless it is missionary. No man can have the love of Christ in him who does not think of other people. The man who thinks of himself, and does not think of others, has no right to call himself by the name of Christ. A man who uses what God has given him, for himself, for the betterment of himself, and who does not realize his responsibilities to God, has no right to call himself by the name of Christ."

Bishop Farthing, of Montreal, made the above statement, in an address delivered in St. George's cathedral, on Sunday afternoon, at a meeting held under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The meeting was well attended, and three most inspiring addresses were delivered. No stronger appeal on behalf of home and foreign missions, was ever made in the city, than at this meeting. In addition to Bishop Farthing, there were addresses by Rev. R. H. Haslam, who has been engaged in missionary work in India, and Dr. T. W. W. Crawford, who has been laboring for the missionary cause in Africa. Dean Hildwell presided at the meeting, and the choir was also present.

"People who think of nothing else but increasing their own wealth, luxury or pleasure," said Bishop Farthing, "are missing everything that makes life worth while. The selfish man is the man who should be pitied, not all our hearts. He cannot be happy. The church of God has to wake up, and thank God she is waking up. This is shown by the body of men gathered at this meeting here this afternoon. And we can see the change in other Christian cities. Let some distress come to a city, and you will see how ready the people are to meet the cry of need. There must be self-sacrifice, and love. Congregations must wake up, and think of the doing of greater things."

"Remember, that we at home, must see that the church does not grow weak. We must not allow the church at home to suffer. I do not mean by this that we should not help the foreign missions, we must do everything possible for that part of the work. The church is one, whether foreign or at home. The home church should be a strong asset to foreign missions. We must never lose sight of both the foreign and home missions. We will never receive the blessing of God, if we keep everything at home. You will often hear people say, 'Let us wait until we are all Christians at home,' when you speak to them about foreign missions. This is an old cry, but if you wait for this, you will be waiting until the judgment day."

"Let us have a church of strength here in the Dominion of Canada. The best we can do, is to start to work with a will, in foreign as well as home missions. We are one in this work. Do you mean to say that India is not one with us. Let us think and work with a will, for the church of Christ, because we love Christ who loved us."

Rev. Mr. Haslam made a strong appeal for missionary effort, referring to the work in which he has been engaged in India. He pointed out that missionary work was an enterprise which Jesus Christ wished the church to push forward at the present time, for the sake of the church at home and the heathen world. The old gospel was just as powerful, in the saving of souls, in the early days, as in the early days. We should understand the gospel, and understand the will of God, concerning our own life. If this was carried out, the missionary problems would be solved. The question should be asked, "Lord, what wilt thou have me do?" The battle could not be won by an army, or the Laymen's Missionary Movement, but by the spirit of the living God, laying hold of the individual. The speaker pointed out the many opportunities before the church for missionary work. In the field in India where he and his wife were stationed, they had a population of 996,000 people, without the knowledge of Jesus Christ. The field was so large that more workers were needed. He would visit one place to deliver God's message and would not be able to cover the same ground again for three years. People were asking to be taught but the task could not be undertaken. People were eager to hear God's word, but the field could not be covered. Wonderful opportunities were at hand and the speaker appealed on behalf of those people who were so eager to hear God's word. Dr. T. W. W. Crawford referred to his work in Africa and made a most stirring appeal for the spread of the gospel. Africa at the present time had practically no religion, and now was the time to plant missionary stations all over the country. Mahommedanism was making itself felt. The medical missionaries were doing good work, and endeavoring to do more than to care for the sick, by telling them of Jesus Christ—the old story of Jesus and His love. A great many did not work for missions, and this was because they had not enough love of God. To those who did not believe in missions he would say, "Do you believe in Jesus Christ? Jesus Christ was the first missionary. Do you believe in the Bible? The Bible taught missions. If we did not believe in missions we did not love Him who first loved us. If we could see it in this way we would give of our gold and silver, and our sons and daughters, for the work."

Before the close of the meeting Dean Hildwell extended thanks to the speakers. He said that they were all gathered as members of the church of Christ and had one platform. The Laymen's Missionary Movement stood for the one platform—a platform which stood for the obeying of the command of Jesus Christ. He expressed the hope that there would be many more such gatherings held in the city.

In The Matter of Cleaning Off Sidewalks.

"I notice that the police are after people in the down town district, who refuse to clean off their sidewalks," remarked an Alfred street resident to a representative of the Whig this morning. "It is a shame the way that some of the people on Alfred street neglect their walks and I intend to make a complaint against them. There are some walks that are never cleaned off, and I understand that the owners of the property have been notified from time to time but this apparently does not do any good." The resident went on to point out how easy it was to keep the sidewalk clean, as well as the down town section, in good shape if only each resident would do his share of the work.
