

can do for your throat is to use + THE CANDY CURE It's a real insurance of throat-health you Five Cents. get when you buy

COUGH DROPS

he Candy Cure Made by Paterson of Brantford

Mid-Winter Furniture, Iva Martin, Mrs. Walter Macnee, Mrs. Carpet and Curtain Sale ruthers, Mrs. Russell Hale, Mrs.

T. F. Harrison Co.

Kingston Carpet Warehouse

See Our Window Display of Rugs and Mats for Christmas Presents.

Hearth Rugs, from $2.50 Sofa Rugs, from $2.50 to Door Mats, from 75c. to

Sheep Skin Mats, from $1.25, $1.50. Bedroom Mats, from $3.50 to $50.00. Smyrna Rugs, from $1.00

R. McFAUL

Kingston Carpet Warehouse.

WE INVITE YOU to call and examine the attractive B. Spencer. houses to rent, for sale, and the choice on our books. Spring's Mrs. Hunter Ogilvie will be in town coming-no such chances at these prices later on, the guest of Mrs. George Richardson, the chances for a decline in price Costs nothing to investi- University avenue. gate. May be dollars ahead staying with Mrs. Clark Hamilton, while last year, at this time, it was for you, Come in to day.

Real Estate

BROCK, Cor. KING STS.

Gold in Twilight

Miss Mary Hora's bridge, on Friday, for Mrs. Hunter Ogilvie, was a visit. very pleasant affair. Six tables were in play and the prizes were won by tawa. Miss Lily Norton-Taylor, Mrs. James Gildersleeve and Mrs. William Harty. The hostess herself played and the Forsythe. guests were Mrs. J. P. Shine, Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, Mrs. John Bell Car-Francis Macnee, Mrs. James Cappon, ers. H. E. Burstall, Mrs. Henri Pabray Bell, Miss Lois Saunders and lap, A. Ruttle, R. Sinclair, J. Mil-Miss Eleanor Macdonell. Miss Grace ler. Hemming made the tea and Mass Nora | Legislation-D. Dougherty, W. Dris Gordon poured coffee at the close of call, D. Pelow, R. Murray.

A number of the girls are getting up dance with which to grace the city half on Wednesday, January 26th. A writer, who signs his name ing, say eight is the hour, and that paying a warm tribute to the singthe patronesses are: Mrs. R. W. Gar- ing of the little school boys in St. Percy Stevenson. Among the girls heard in any of the churches," says the

Mrs. James Lesslie, William street, asked a few girls to tea on Friday to meet Miss Marguerite Carr-Harris The daughters of the house looked after the tea things and those present were Miss Edith Folger, Miss Alic King, Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Anna Fairlie, Miss Elsie Pense, Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Louise Kirkpatrick, Miss Frances Sullivan, Constance Tandy, Miss Marion Red don, Miss Kathleen Richardson Miss Kate McAdam.

Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, Beverley street, gave a luncheon party, terday, for Miss Nora Gordon. guests were Mrs. Alan Palmer, Florence Cunningham, Miss France Sullivan, Miss Marion Redden. Grace Hemming, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Eva Rogers, Miss Elsie Pense, Miss Marguerite Carr-Harris, and Miss Madelon Carter.

Colonel and Mrs. J. H. V. Crowe, I the Royal Military College, gave a dinner party on Thursday, their guests being Major and Mrs. Norman Stuart Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Iva Martin, Miss Eleanor and Mr. Macdonell, Mr. and Mrs. William Harty and Mr. C. Constantine, Miss Helen Crowe making up the

Mrs. W. G. Jordan, Barrie street honor of Mrs. Herbert Tandy. guests, who were very few in number sat round the fire, with their work and had a delightfully "cosy" hour o

Mrs. Robert Fraser, West street, will give a little bridge, to-night, in honor f Mrs. L. B. Spencer. This hostess will also entertain at a dancing party next Thursday, in honor of Miss Edith

Mrs. Willam R. Glover, 264 King street, will receive for the first time on Thursday, January 27th, and afterwards on the second and fourth Fridays of each month Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick factorily. Queen's line up as follows: chaperoned a sleigh load of the and Souter, with MacDonald and Coryounger men and girls over to Wolfe mack as spares. Island on Thursday night. There was a dance and delicious supper.

Mrs. Joseph Haycock, King street, entertained at a most delightful little dance this week, in honor of her daughters' guest, Miss Evelyn Grange, Mrs. Bertram Nelles, Alfred street, will not receive on Tuesday but will be at home the first and eighth of bebruary for the last time.

The bridge enthusiasts of the Bad minton club will play for Major Norman Leslie's prize at the armories

Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, "Annangave a small luncheon, on Sunday afternoon. Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Hunter

Mrs. William Harty, Sydenham Over Losing R. B. Nelles, Who Goes street, will give a girl's bridge, Tuesday, in honor of Miss Nora Gor-

Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Bagot street, will give a small bridge, to-night, in nonor of Mrs. Zachary Wood. Mrs. Hugh Macpherson will receive at "Elmhurst" on Wednesday next, and afterwards on Tuesdays. Mrs. James E. Reid, Earl street, gave a little tea this week, for Mrs. L.

Mrs. Charles Low, Union street, gave irs. D. Norton-Taylor and Miss Lily Norton-Taylor, Wellington street, are home from Toronto.

King street, and will also pay short selling at 14 cents.

The Bishop of Ontario and Mrs. Len- nice table spread.

good spirits at sailing. Mrs. T. Benson is up from Ottawa and is visiting her mother, Mrs. T. Merrett, William street.

Major E. W. Hubbell and Miss Edith Hubbell are expected up from Ottawa to spend the week-end with Mrs. Henry Hubbell, Bagot street.

Mrs. L. B. Spencer will leave Mrs. Fraser, to-morrow, and will go back to Mrs. Samuel Birch for another

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The following committees have been net, Mrs. Alan Palmer, Mrs. Frederick appointed by the Trades and Labor Prownfield, Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. council to deal with matters of inter-Kenneth Blair, Mrs. Percy Stevenson, est to that body : Mrs. W. R. Givens, Mrs. A. de Mow- Arbitration-F. Gallagher, F. Dun-> Organization-F. Curtis, T. H. Fleming, E. McDonald, James Gurney.

"Little Boy Choir." would be delighted to hear him sing

VARSITY WOULDN'T POSTPONE HOCKEY GAME

Queen's in Slush-Queen's Trim-Team by 36 to 29.

By Our Queen's Correspondent. With a view to presenting spectators with an exhibition of real hockey rather than an amusement more closey resembling some of the more stren-Varsity management agree to a defleite postponement of the hockey efforts proved unavailing. It was under similar weather conditions last season, that Queen's, at the hands of Varsity, were administered their only defeat, which in no way endangered the championship, and it is believed that the real struggle for intercollegiate honors will be between Queen's Prof. Morrison will not meet with ais Bible class Sunday morning.

The concert to be given by the college glee club, Wednesday evening next, will undoubtedly attract a large audience as it is announced Dr. R. Manning is to be the soloist of evening. Mr. Manning sings with style and expression peculiarly pleas-

29. George Birch as referee and J. J. will stand about the same as last Thompson as umpire officiated satis- year.

Prof. Anderson will lecture before "Philosophy of Vergil.

tion this morning, telling of the great opportunities for the student in mission work in the Orient.

The public is cordially invited to atevening to listen to the lecture to be delivered by A. O. Wheeler on "Our Mountain Heritage.'

Rev. E. D. McLean, D.D., of Torono, is to preach at Convocation hall

REGRET OF THE Y.M.C.A. to Ottawa.

The board of directors of the Y.M. LA. met in special session, last evenng, to meet C. M. Copeland, proincial secretary of Ontario and Quebece in regard to the transfer of R. B. Nelles, the local secretary, to the Ottawa association. The board express ed its sincere regret that Mr. Nelles hould leave, but was willing that he should take the opportunity of pro-motion. A name was suggested by Mr. Copeland of a most successful secretary how in another field, who will ikely be accepted by the local board.

PRICE SOARING UP.

Dealers Speaks About Price Live "Pork is pork all right these days," said a dealer to the Whig, to-day.

"Live hogs off ears in Toronto, are now selling at $8.50, per cwt, and may possibly reach the $9 mark." The dealer remarked that a scarcity of hogs on the market, was the Miss Kate McAdam, of Prescott, is cause of the jump in price, and that was very slim. Lard, he pointed out, Miss Marguerite Carr-Harris is now was now selling at 164c. per pound, whits to Mrs. Henry Skinner and Mrs. George Richardson before leaving Mrs. G. Waddell, Consecon, has moved to Belleville. Before she left the Ladies' Aid presented her with a very nox Mills got off, safely, on the Ara- A street supervisor has been ap-

ACTION.

On Several Important Matters-The City Lacks Advertising Pamphlets -Retail Merchants' Convention Here Next June.

The board of trade had a meeting on Friday evening but it was nearly Mrs. G. W. G. Grout has gone to rine o'clock before enough members Ottawa to visit her sister, Mrs. Joseph | could be got together to do business. The January thaw and rain made home feel comfortable. The Monetary Times, of Toronto, wrote in reply to a letter from Sec-Deal With Matters For The retary Reid that the reason King-trades Council. pear in its issue was because the city engineer couldn't supply detailed figures. Last year the board of works twice threw out the engineer's recommendation that contractors be required to file with lim estimates of cost of construction as well as general plans. The board instructed the secretary to communicate with the city council and ask it to fix its building by law so that reports of Kingston's building construction may be reported as that of nearly all other cities is. The Berlin board of trade wrote, asking co-operation in having the muni-Cards, which were issued this morn- stranger," has written to the Whig cipal act amended so that municipali- Convocation Ancient Frontenac and ties can bonus more than one industry of the same kind within its limrett, Mrs. Walter Macnee, Mrs. James Mary's cathedral at high mass and at its, and prevent monopoly. This mat- Frontenac and Cataraqui chapter of Hamilton, Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, the evening service on Sunday even-Mrs. A. de Mowbray Bell, and Mrs. ing last. "It was the best I ever legislation." Royal Arch Masons, was held on Fri-legislation.

Irene Swift and Miss Lenore Hamil. who can be heard above the others. 1 A short discussion took place on

Hon. Adam Beck's recent letter, stating that the power to be developed in Eastern Ontario would mean as much to the east as Niagara Falls power es to the west.

Next June the Retail Grocers' sociation of Ontario is to meet Kingston. The board discussed question of issuing an illustrated pamphlet to distribute visitors. The As They Knew They Could Beat advertising committee will attend to this matter. A letter was received from the Hamilton Spectator asking med the 'Varsity Basket Ball for copies of some of Kingston's advertising pamphlets. It was felt that this city was very lax in rot issuing pamphlets as other places do.

Died at Newburgh. The death occurred on Wednesday of nous aquatic sports, the athletic ex William Anderson, Newburgh, one of ecutive made every effort to have the the oldest residents, in his eightyninth year. The late Mr. Anderson was born in Fredericksburgh, but since early boyhood had realled in the township of Sheffield, until two years ago, when he removed to Newburgh. He had been a sufferer from an ailment of long standing, and for some months had been confined to bed. He is survived by a widow, three sons, John, in Prince Edward county; William, in Sheffield, and Robert at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Wright. Mr. Anderson was life-long member of the Methodist

Fixed Summer Rates. Passenger officials of the various railroad and steamboat lines in Canada and the United States, east of the Mississippi, met at Buffalo, N.Y. during the past week and approved the new summer tourist rate sheets compiled by the Niagara frontier rate. The most brilliant exhibition of committee. J. F. Fairlamb, general basketball ever witnessed at Queen's passenger agent of the New York Cenwas the contest of last evening, be- tral lines, was elected chairman of the tween 'Varsity and the local team. first named committee for 1910, and The half time score was: 'Varsity 18, 1910, and E. E. Horsey, general man-Queen's 16, and it was not until last ager of Lake Ontario & Bay of five minutes of play that the result Quinte Steamboat company, was elecwas in any way a certainty. The ted chairman of the latter. No radical final figures were, Queen's 36, 'Varsity changes were made, and tourist rates

Lots of Building This Year. The prospects for building construction this year are very bright. The two largest erections will be the methe philosophical society, Monday tallurgy building at Queen's Univerafternoon; his subject will be the sity and the structure the Bank of Commerce purposes erecting at the corner of King and Brock streets. Rev. Mr. Cook from India spoke at Quite a number of dwellings are con-the meeting of the missionary associa- templated, particularly in Rideau and Frontenae wards. It looks as though the building trades would be very busy this year. Evangelistic Meeting. Wm. Gibson, recently from Los Angeles, will speak in Brock St. Hall, between Wellington and Bagot streets, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock. All

Special Prices Saturday ON RUSSIAN PONY COATS

We have had exceptionally good business this season with Russian Pony Coats and will now clear out the balance at greatly reduced prices.

Special for Saturday

2 only, 38 inches long, $40 only, 46 inches long, $50 Lynx Collar), $80.

These coats are made in the newest styles. Good satin linings in all.

SPECIAL

Black Shawls. Ladies' Wool Special Sale Price 25c Each.

Black Sateen Underskirts. Sale Price Only 49c.

4-Ply Collars, worth 15c Special at 7 1-2c Each.

CORRIGAN'S

Ladies' Tailoring and Dressmaking.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Cataraqui Chapter R.A.M. The regular convocation of Ancient day evening, in the Masonic hall, A deputation was appointed to in- when the officers were installed, and responsible for what is quite sure to be a success are: Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Kate Smellie, Miss cers, and the list of officers follow: First principal, Dr. A. W. Winnett: second principal, John Pearson; third principal, W. Y. Mills; scribe, D. J. Evans; scribe N., J. B. Phillips; treasurer, J. A. Minnes; principal sojourner, H. E. McLeod; senior sojourner Elmer Davis; junior sojourner, L. (

> Lockett. There was a good attendance of members, and after the installation of officers, the members sat down to fine banquet, and afterwards speeches were delivered, and everyone had Simmons Bros', twenty per cent January enamelware sale now on. See our windows for cut prices. "Pure gum rubber goods" last fo years. Sold in Kingston at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

Latest Fiction Received To-Day

THE WHITE SISTER By F. Marion Crawford, Pub. Price, $1.50. Our Price, $1.20 STRADELLA, By F. Marion Crawford MARTIN EDEN. By Jack London. $1.50. POPPEA OF THE POST OF By "Barbara," WHEN A MAN MARRIES By Mary Roberts Rhinehart. A CERTAIN RICH MAN By William Allen White, THE KEY TO THE UNKNOWN By Rosa N. Carey. You will find the LATEST FICTION here at prices as good o better than Departmental Stores. We have also received shipments of over 300 volumes of the latest additions to the Popular Copyrights, identical in every way with the $1.50 and $1.25 Books. Our price, 50c.

THE COLLEGE BOOK STORE

260 PRINCESS ST. 'PHONE 919.

Monday Sweep.

A quick clean up of Remnants, including Silks, Dress Goods, Liuings, Prints, Wrapperettes, Muslins, Lawns, etc. Lengths ranging from 1 to 8 yards.

Monday Morning at Half Price.

At the same time 250 yards of FANCY WAISTINGS, including Wool Challies, Delaines and French Flannels, priced from 30c to 50c yard. Monday Morning Yours for 15c Yard

Boys' Lamb's Wool Shirts

Sizes 22 to 32. Priced up to 50c each. Monday to Clear 25c Each.

Odd lines in Men's Underwear, Shirts and Drawers, all sizes, priced up to 75c

Monday to Clear at 39c Each.

Newman & Shaw,

The Always Busy Store.

FOR THE SICK

We have been 25 years in the Drug and Prescription Business.

Our store is equipped to serve the sick in the very best man-ner possible, and, handling no side-lines, enables "na" to give our entire attention to their

When purchasing or directing your friends to a place to purchase Medicines, Siek Room

Supplies or Fine Toilet Specialties, we hope to merit your at-

All Prescriptions are carefully filled, just as the physician orders, nothing but the purest of drugs is used, and prompt

Dr. A. P. Chown,

Druggist and Optician.

185 PRINCESS STREET.

Kingston, Ont.

'343 'Phone.

delivery guaranteed.

demands.

Higher Prices.

A sharp advance is taking place in rubber goods of all kinds, and the suffering public will have to stand for it the same as they always have done. Manufacturers and jobbers have already advanced the price, but it will be some time before the prices go up at the "Best" Drug Store, where a season's supply has been faid in at the low prices. It will pay to buy hot water bettles, etc., at this store, as 2 only, 50 inches long (Black | the two-year guarantee still holds good on all pure rubber goods sold.

B.A. Hotel Arrivals.

R. G. Wright, Toronto, J. Murray, Montreal; J. V. Moose, New York; H. J. Scanlon, Toronto; L. K. Markey, Detroit; W. A. Linney, Ormston; J E. Hampton, Deseronto; C. M. Copeland, Toronto; R. B. Villers, city; J. H. Wilmott, Toronto; W. H. Churchill, Perth; F. W. Meagher, Montreal; J. R. Craig, Eerlin; E. A. Taylor, Toronto; J. H. MacDougall, J. Halliday. F. Copeland, J. G. Ross, Montreal; John D. Weese, Toronto.

Have you guessed on the wood pile at Best's yet? A $5 Gillette razor is worth a little time and thought.

yourselves if our claims are not just.

SMITH BROS., Jewellers. Issuers of Marriage Licenses.

Our Diamond Sales

Our Gems are of a

Each stone being

Come and see for weighed and thoroughly inspected before heing purchased.

increase rapidly each

fine quality. Carefully and suitably mounted.

year.

I am paying Big Prices for Raw Furs. Don't send your Furs away from home. The market is higher than you think it is, and I can do better for you.

W. F. Gourdier, Kingston, Ont. Exclusive Furrier.

Can Do High-Class Work

No contradiction can wash out that fact. It is as clear as the water we use, as ineffable as the snowy whiteness we impart to linens, and as unyielding as the starch in our collars and

We Do High-Class Work

Cor. Princess and Sydenham Streets. Phone 22.