CADETS BEAT QUEEN'S II. by GOALS TO 2.

Queen's Men.

Cadets I won the first round in the ntermediate Intercollegiate hockey series from Queen's II at the covered rink on Monday evening, 9 goals to One 2. The Presbyterians had a lead of one goal from the last game, but it did them no good. The score on the round was 13 to 7 in favor of Cadets. played on good ice before about 500 people, who were shown a fairly fast World's Mightiest "Burntcork" Show. were handed out unnecessarily by the

Like the first game in this series it was not first-class hockey, neither side using combination, only on rare occasions. The forwards played al over the ice, in any position, and consequently were often bunched up, and in each other's road. Queen's cid this repeatedly in the second half. Again, Queen's, with the exception of PRINCESS back. The soldiers forwards, while no better than Queen's on combination work, were better on back checking and stood the pace better, holding the fast pace right up to the fin-

Some good rushes.

On Queen's defense Mills, Elliott and Lockett all played well, but the soldiers' forwards proved too much for them. During the second half Mills was struck over the eye with the puck and received a very nasty gash an inch and a half long. The cut bled freely for a few minutes and he was carried off for repairs.
