Philadelphia, Feb. 1.-Miss Margaret Gruening, a graduate of Smith Colege, and a well-known suffragette, was released at midnight from Moyamensing prison, where she had been ked up for more than ten hours, on the charge of inciting riot. Miss Gruening, who is a daughter of Dr. Emil Gruening, of New York, s one of the organizers of the Pensylvania Suffrage League. With many other suffragettes she is taking an active part in the strike of shirt-waist workers. While she doing picket duty Friday night front of a waist factory, a riot unred between the strikers and girls who are still at work. Miss Gruening with a number of the strikers, was arrested and locked in a police station over night.
