

Give Your Stomach a Vacation

By Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Which Digest Food Without Any Aid.

A Trial Package Sent Free.

The stomach should have a rest when it is tired out and irritated from dyspepsia and indigestion. One should not call upon the stomach in this condition to do its full and complete duty. What the stomach needs is natural assistance and when this is given it the stomach responds quickly to the needed rest and comes back to its duties refreshed and invigorated.

When you feel as though your stomach were a piece of lead, when gas or foul odor issue from your throat, when your tongue is coated and your appetite gone, it is high time to send your stomach on a vacation. The stomach is constantly coming in contact with foreign substances, which it must reduce in form to give strength and health to the other organs of the body. It is the commissary department of the human system and must furnish from such supplies as come to it all that such a system demands.

If the stomach becomes deranged and cannot furnish all that is necessary, it weakens the entire machinery of man and it itself placed out of commission. It cannot cure itself because the curative powers of nature receive their force from the stomach, so that if the stomach issues imperfect nourishment it cannot receive perfect curative means for its own benefit.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets impart all the power, vigor and strength necessary to the stomach. They do the stomach's work and without calling on this organ for assistance. If you would put your meal in a glass jar and with it place the correct amount of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you could sit down and watch these little tablets digest the meal as perfectly as the most healthy stomach. This demonstration has been made in almost every state in the union by these tablets, one grain of a single ingredient being capable of digesting 3,000 grains of food.

If you have the slightest doubt about your stomach, go to the nearest drug store and buy a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, price 50c, or send us your name and address and we will immediately send you by mail a trial package free. Address: A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound. DR. MACKIE CONDEMS

Card Playing as it is Now Practised in Kingston.

Under the heading of "Profligate Frivolity," Rev. Dr. Mackie contributes the following in St. Andrew's Church Notes, of February 4th:

"I do not condemn card playing, branding it a vice. I am neither narrow nor presumptuous, infringing on any man's liberty, or adding an iota to the divine law. I allow wide latitude to others, as I claim it for myself. But I hesitate not to condemn card playing, as for some time past in our city, as verily a public sport, with players and winners announced to the world, and the news in press as worthy of commemoration and commendation. I condemn the perpetual round of card playing parties, consuming the best hours of the day, always lessening and often utterly destroying all interest in domestic duty, and debasing the nature to the claims of public utility, philanthropy, and religion. Excessive card playing lowers the moral standard of the community, banishes hightoned fellowship, intellectual converse, and the refining, ennobling influences of truly cultured society.

"Here and there I find individuals of unquestioned position, and sterling worth who say that they are not in Kingston society now because they do not play cards. I say that such persons are the light and the salt of the city, are the highest stratum of Kingston society. They have not gone down. God keep them there, however few they may be, and make them the upholders of many.

"Like every other thing abused and turned into a vice, excessive card playing has its baneful effects, and quickly shows them—the wrinkles and lines of care, the haggard and dissatisfied look, and the hard expression, and in the end nervous prostration. These are the wages of this profligate frivolity—some of them—and are sure to be paid.

"If the devotees are inclined to doubt the minister, let them consult the physician, and leave off. If Feb. 2, 13.—They that count it pleasure to riot in the daytime. What a fearful description of souls redeemed by the blood of God to works of faith and labors of love!"

It is proposed to establish the largest furniture factory in Canada at Whitby, near the Algonquin reserve, by a company which has just acquired the St. Anthony Lumber company's mills and limits. There is an unlimited quantity of hardwood to supply the works.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE. Two Good Shows are Billed For This Week.

This season will be the last in which Cole and Johnson, the clever colored comedians, will be seen in "The Red Moon," which comes to the Grand on Wednesday, February 9th.

All the songs and music of the production were written by Johnson, and the book and lyrics, as well as the staging of the play, are the work of Cole. The production is replete with good clean comedy and high-class character work, permeated with excellent solo and chorus singing of negro and Indian songs, which, with the elaborate costume and scenic effects, have made the production one of the most successful musical comedies on the stage.

Aida Overton Walker is a feature of the company. Besides being a sweet singer, she is an accomplished and graceful danseuse. The triumphant feature of the production is the introduction of Cole and Johnson's famous piano specialty.

In order that the music of the production may be more effectively rendered, the orchestra of the Grand will be increased to twelve pieces, with the orchestra carried by the company.

"The Affinity."

The Messrs. Shubert will present at the Grand Opera House, on Friday, February 11th, the most sensational comedy, "The Affinity," from the pen of Eugene Brieux, undoubtedly the virile French writer's best work, with Laurence Irving, son of the late Sir Henry Irving, and Miss Mabel Hackney in the leading roles. This comedy, while being the biggest laugh that has struck New York this season, is also a tragedy in depicting so fully this particular side of Paris life. Eugene Brieux, the author, considers it the saddest story he has written. No one is likely to be shocked, for its plain talk is logic, submitted in the most delectable and humorous manner. The company comes direct from the Comedie Theatre, New York, to which place it will shortly return to resume its Manhattan engagement.

THE LATE REV. W. W. BURTON.

He Died at His Home on Sunday Night.

For a long time a sufferer from serious heart trouble, but a worker always, Rev. William Webster Burton succumbed at last to the disease, just at the hour when prayers were being said for him in St. George's cathedral, on Sunday night.

Mr. Burton was born in Lincolnshire, Eng., in 1850, coming to Canada twenty-four years ago. He was appointed to the parish of Queensboro and after being there for four years, was sent to Madoc, where he remained for fourteen years, doing a good work. For six years he has been diocesan mission secretary, and has been most successful. Mr. Burton was a close student, and was deeply respected by his brethren of the church. He was a graduate of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury. He was a man of deep spirituality, unostentatiously doing his duty as a priest in the church of God.

His wife, who died but a few weeks ago, was Miss Sarah Mayfield, also of Lincolnshire, and his surviving children are William Mayfield, Gladys Besse, and Dorothy Mayfield, all of whom are much in the loving thought of many friends. The burial office will be held in St. George's cathedral at half-past two, on Tuesday afternoon.

SYDENHAM STREET CHURCH.

Sermon by Rev. C. A. Sykes on Religion and Education.

In Sydenham Street Methodist church, on Sunday evening, Rev. C. A. Sykes preached a strong sermon on "Religion and Education." The speaker showed that the object of each was identical. Each aimed to develop man in his threefold nature. The method of imparting religion and education was similar. The teacher in both religion and education began with the known, working into the unknown; began with the simple and worked into the complex.

The singing at the service was led by the Male Glee Club from Queen's University, and was greatly enjoyed. The club sang as an anthem, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War." A quartette composed of Messrs. William Ewa, H. Armstrong, Harold and Harvey Anglove, sang, "Just Beyond." The church held a very large congregation at this service.

Wolfe Island News.

Wolfe Island, Feb. 5.—In the recent successful ball held by the A.O.U.W. the names of three of the members largely responsible for its success were omitted, viz., Thomas White, Charles Hall and D. Larush. Last Monday afternoon the members of the Larush association held their annual meeting and the officers were elected. President, E. Bricland, first vice-president, A. Hough, second vice-president, Henderson Horne, treasurer, William Fawcett, secretary, George Rattry, committee, George Furner, W. Kemp, T. Fawcett, A. Hawkins, George Fyerd, Hugh Horne, William Healey, Thomas Haller, Peter Brown.

Mrs. Thomas Phair died at her daughter's residence, Mrs. Robert Forrest, on Wednesday afternoon, at the ripe old age. Deceased was well liked throughout the island. She leaves three daughters and one son, Mrs. W. Bustard, D. McCullough and James Phair. The funeral took place in the English church on Friday, after which the remains were placed in the vault.

Work at the Intake Pipe.

Work still proceeds at the water works intake pipe. The shaft, which seems to be in the old pipe of pipe connecting the pump-house with the pipe laid in 1892. To-day the diver was busy putting clamps around the leaky joint under the pump-house, so as to make it tight.

Secured Twenty-one Prizes.

Dumphy & Begg, of this city, were among the exhibitors at the Gannan county poultry show, last week. Out of twenty-three entries made by them, they secured twenty-one prizes—a pretty good showing for their town.

S. E. Thompson has returned home from spending a few days at Prescott.

THE SPORT REVIEW

FRONTENACS AND OSHAWA PLAY THIS EVENING.

In the Junior O.H.A. Championship Series—Queen's and St. Michael's Meet on Wednesday Evening.

The hockey match at the covered rink, this evening, should be one of the fastest and best junior games of the year. Oshawa has an exceptional strong bunch of players, and, although the Frontenacs defeated them on their own ice, they had no easy time, and will have no picnic doing so here. If the Frontenacs get safely by Oshawa, they will be over about the worst part of their journey, championship-wise, as the Oshawa season are voted as fast as any team in the west. The local club deserves credit for doing so well this season, and the people should turn out well this evening and help the game along.

New Frontenac Player.

The Frontenacs will have one new man on the team, to-night, when they meet Oshawa. Michael Moran, right wing man, will not be able to play. A new player, A. Yellowy, will replace "Al" Davidson at point, the latter going up on the line. Yellowy is counted a good defense man.

Edward Wellauer, Berlin, vice-president of the O.H.A., will referee the game. Mr. Wellauer is well known as a good square official, and the locals are fortunate in securing his services.

Denies the Authorship.

F. H. Mueckler, manager of the Royal hockey club, denies the authorship of the letter that appeared in Saturday evening's Star, which stated that he could defeat any other in the local league. The letter was signed in Mr. Mueckler's name without his authority. He places its authorship to a certain quarter, and will seek an explanation. The Royals' manager says that his letter is a claim to be able to defeat any team. It plays the game, and doesn't boast.

Games at Palace Rink.

Four games were played at the Palace rink on Saturday. In the morning, in the Juvenile City League series, two games were played, the Eagles defeating the Wellingtons, 4 goals to 3, and the Tigers defeating the Victorias, 8 goals to 2. In the Senior City League series, Wolfe Island was defeated, 8 goals to 2, by the Granite seniors, and the Junior Granites defeated the Dry Dock seven, 9 goals to 1.

Curling Games.

Three games were played in the regular series at the curling rink, on Saturday evening. S. R. Bailey was defeated by Capt. Bell, 17 shots to 5. Prof. Gill was defeated by E. O. Slier, 16 to 2, and A. B. Cunningham went down to defeat by William Dalby, 13 shots to 0.

Queen's and St. Michael's.

On Wednesday evening Queen's and St. Michael's will cross sticks in an exhibition game. How the game will be a question. It should be very fast and clean, and if the visitors have as fast a team as last year they will defeat Queen's on their own ice.

Saturday Hockey Scores.

In the National Hockey League, on Saturday night, Ottawa won from Cobalt, 5 goals to 4, on Cobalt ice, and Wanderers defeated Shamrocks, 10 goals to 2, in Montreal.

McGill Will Speak Later.

Mr. McGill was a little thinner, a little stooped, but not so nervous as when he left Toronto three years ago. He smiled as he recognized the reporters and shook hands.

"Yes, I am glad to be back," said the former banker. "I am glad to be free. If I have done wrong, I have paid the penalty. If there could say the same there might be another story. Now, boys, I don't want to say much. When I get used to things a bit and look around, I may have something fuller to say."

HOW THIN FOLKS CAN GET FLESHY

New Accidental Discovery Gives Startling Results—Puts Flesh on Thin People and Rounds Out Imperfect Figures.

Simple Prescription Given.

For women—and men, too, for that matter—who can never appear stylish with anything they wear, because of abnormal thinness and angularity, the remarkable prescription is designed to solve the problem. It is a beauty maker for the face. It is simply wonderful while it adds brightness to the eyes, and color to the cheeks and lips. It requires no particular dieting, but acts as an aid to nature by its peculiar action on the nerves and blood supply. The blood and nerves distribute over the body, all the nourishment or flesh building elements obtained from the food. The trouble with thin people, has always been that they do not absorb or retain enough of the fleshy matter to make them gain in weight even to a normal extent; but this new discovery of blending certain harmless drugs is a revelation to science, and hundreds have gained from ten to forty pounds in a few weeks. There is no danger of becoming too fat. When you get the right weight then stop using.

The general health and strength is greatly improved in anyone from the age of sixteen to sixty. Women soon get plump, with well rounded arms and full bust, and men become straight, strong looking and healthy. In a half pint bottle get three ounces essence of pepsin and three ounces compound essence cod-liver oil, and stand two hours. Then add one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cadomene). Take a teaspoonful before and after meals, and weigh before beginning this treatment.

At the Princess Theatre.

Three feature pictures: "Twelfth Night," from Shakespeare; "Spooks in the Snow," "A Coquette's Suitors," Foster and St. Clair, in refined singing and unique comedy. See to-day's programme, the finest and best in the city.

Cold at Sharbot Lake.

Railway men say that at Sharbot Lake, early on Monday morning, the thermometer registered three-five degrees below zero. That's one of the coldest places on the line," remarked one railroader, this morning.

LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB.

It Was a Fine Event on Saturday at Convocation Hall.

"Where there is no heart there is no music," headed the excellent programme of the Ladies' Musical Club, on Saturday. The Misses Craig and the Misses Minnes were responsible, and they secured as vocal soloists, Miss Ardelle Elder, who sang two numbers most sweetly. As Miss Kathleen O'Hara was suffering from a cold, Miss Elder supplied her place on the programme. The pianistes were Mrs. R. A. McLelland, Miss Ethel Minnes, Miss Daisy Chown, and Miss T. A. Knapp, and Mrs. H. W. L. Day, who contributed a duet. Mrs. Edwin J. McLelland sang an old English air very charmingly, and Arthur Craig gave three numbers, "Frustration," "Worship" and "Pretty Little Kate." Mr. Craig was particularly honored in being asked to take part in the programme, which is usually distinctively feminine.

VICTORIAN ORDER WORK.

Accomplished During the Year Ending 1909.

During the past year the Victorian Order course paid 1,322 nursing visits, and 144 casual visits, making a total of 1,462; there were 102 patients, and of these 48 paid fees amounting to $104.60. Fifty-four were attended free. In religion there were: Roman Catholics, 35; Methodists, 27; Anglicans, 20; Presbyterians, 10; Salvation Army, 4; Baptists, 3; Hebrews, 1.

As will be seen, the Victorian Order work is undenominational. Cases attended must be under the care of a doctor. Destitute cases are attended free; patients that are able to do so are expected to pay a small fee.

A Mission Address.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, who will be in town for the meeting of the Woman's National Council, will give an address on the opening up of the Province of Honan, China, in St. George's hall, on Ash Wednesday, at 4.15 p.m. This address will be the first of the annual Lenten Mission study classes, held by the Woman's Auxiliary, and has been set at the hour named, a quarter past four, on Wednesday, that the public school teachers may attend.

Beware of Hong Kong Coin.

The banks have issued a warning to merchants regarding the amount of Hong Kong silver, which is in circulation. The coins are mostly ten cent and five cent pieces and from the amount in circulation, the banks are of the opinion that some person is dealing in it, buying the coin on the coast, and carrying it to the city in Ontario at par. The banks have in the past accepted Hong Kong silver in small amounts, but the large quantity in circulation at present has caused them to refuse it for the present.

Held Special Services.

Special services have been conducted by Rev. R. Stillwell for four weeks at Gallinger town, on the Aultsville Methodist circuit. The attendance has been large, sometimes amounting to a crowd. A. J. Belton, B.D., of Finch, has rendered valuable assistance for five nights. Mary, are devoting for the better life, among them a large proportion of middle-aged men. The work is manifestly of God. All denominations join in the meetings.

At St. Mary's Cathedral.

In St. Mary's cathedral on Sunday, the festival of the Purification of the Virgin Mary, or Candlemas, was observed. Previous to high mass, the candles were blessed by the archbishop and distributed to the assistants, followed by the customary procession around the cathedral. The music and singing were appropriate to the occasion.

Hard on the Railways.

The severe cold weather, is very hard on the railways. The weather of Sunday and Monday was the cause of axes and journals freezing up, and when this occurs the time table is put out of order. The morning train over the K. & P. railway was on time, but the Bay of Quinte train was about thirty-five minutes late.

Was Given Shelter.

An old man, a stranger in the city, applied for shelter, at the police station, on Sunday night, and was given accommodations. He left the city, this morning, and is expected to return on his way to Montreal. He had very little money, and was very glad to partake of the police station's hospitality.

Banions No Joke.

Not to the man who has to move about, but a slight application of "Putnam's" cures the thickest tissue and cures the banions quickly. Just as good for warts, lumps and callouses as Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Use no other.

AT Y.M.C.A. MEETING

JOSEPH COHN, OF BROOKLYN, N.Y., GAVE AN ADDRESS.

He is Engaged in Work Among Jewish People, and Made a Strong Appeal for Support—"The Wandering Jew," Subject of Address.

Joseph Cohn, of Brooklyn, N.Y., was the speaker, at the meeting held in the Grand Opera House, Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Cohn is engaged in Jewish work in that city, and his address was entitled, "The Wandering Jew." There was a fair attendance at the meeting, the balcony being reserved for ladies. R. B. Nelles, president, and Rev. H. D. Whitmore offered the opening prayer.

In his opening remarks, Mr. Cohn said that he spoke as a representative of a people known to the world for four thousand years—that of the Wandering Jew, who has no country, no flag, no home, and with nothing to bind him. He did not want his audience to reject what he had to say, he wished everyone to compare all he had to say with the Bible. He wished to point out just who the Jewish people were, their condition, and their relation to his hearers. He referred to the story of Abraham, called upon by God, to leave his country kindred, and go into a land that He would show him.

Reference was made to the great missionary work being carried on by the Christian church, in foreign lands. Missionaries were being rushed to all parts of the country, in order to win the world for Christ, but the work might be continued for nineteen hundred years more, and then all would not be saved. And what was the reason? Had one missionary been sent to teach the Jews? Here, then, was the reason. The key and foundation of the work had been neglected. One quarter of the population of New York, was composed of Jewish people, and this field had been left untouched. God was waiting for this work to be taken up. The Jew himself was equipped for a missionary. He could not have to be sent to a foreign country, as he was already located there. He was a person who could stand any climate. Did anyone ever hear of a Jew leaving Kingston because the climate did not agree with him? He were engaged in some foreign field in missionary work, it would not be necessary that he be sent home on furlough, like others. He could remain all the time, and do good work. He was also quick to learn the language. The speaker knew of one Jew, who landed in New York with practically no money, and who was now doing a thriving business on Broadway. The Jew was mad for knowledge. He was quick to learn, and had courage and earnestness. The Jews, he declared, had not rejected Christ; their leaders would not reject him; but if the question had been put to a vote of the people, He would have been accepted. In Russia, to-day, thousands of Jews were being killed, and no person appeared to care. Was this Christianity? and was it any wonder that these people hated Christianity? A different kind of Christianity would have to be shown. Could one point to a church that loved the Jews? He was looking for one, but would say that they were quite rare.

"Did you ever spend five minutes in prayer for the Jew?" asked the speaker. "Did you ever hear the Christian church pray for the Jew?" How often, perhaps, your boy will call the word "Jehovah" after a Jewish lad, and yet you go to church and worship Jesus Christ. There will be Jews in Heaven, and one would do well to get used to them here, on earth. I do not assist in bringing one Jew to Christ. I would take the road off my back, and give it to the work among the Jewish people.

The speaker, in his closing remarks, asked the members of his audience if they would like to assist in the work among the Jews. He was engaged in this work in New York, and he wished to have the people interested in it. Just to point out the lack of interest already taken, he referred to the killing off of many Jews in Russia, four years ago. At that time, he said, an appeal was made to one thousand churches, for assistance, and only three churches responded to the appeal. The love for the Jew appeared to be more of a joke. We might give sympathy with our lips, but our hearts were empty towards the work.

Mr. Cohn will remain in the city, for a few days, in the interests of his campaign.

Queen Street Church.

Some months ago Queen Street Methodist church decided to introduce the use of communion cards, as a reminder of the members, and as a means of keeping a record of the attendance. Yesterday morning the cards were used for the first time with the result that notwithstanding the bitterly cold morning, the attendance was the largest in many years, if not the largest in the history of the church. The members of the Young Men's Club, at the request of the trustee board, have consented to act as ushers, and to take the collections in the church, morning and evening. They will be thoroughly organized for the purpose. They will enter upon their duties next Sunday.

Well Worth Going To.

Our mayor, Mr. Cooper, Miss Hazel Maslin, Mrs. Arthur Clark, Miss Edith Orser, C. B. S. Harvey, will be among the soloists at the concert in St. George's hall to-night. The screaming farce, "Box and Cox," with Miss Mildred Macmorris, and two clever members of the R.C.H.A. in the cast, will follow the musical part of the programme, which will be enhanced by cornet solos by Sergt. Huberland.

Closed Engagement Here.

There was a large audience at the closing performance of the Partello Stock company, at the Grand Opera House, on Saturday night. The company presented "The Girl and the Bandit." In the specialties, Emily Selwyn sang two pretty songs. The company left for Brockville on Sunday, where it will fill a week's engagement.

Small Fire Near Denbigh.

Denbigh, Feb. 5.—Mrs. E. Sallans returned home safely after a week's visit at Kempville. Mrs. A. Fritch and George Fritch are home from a business trip to Eganville, and at the same time enjoying a visit with two former ministers, Rev. G. Brackenbush, of Eganville, and Rev. G. Damsel, of Banko, who are still affectionately remembered by their former parishioners here. Mrs. Claude Conway and daughter, Beatrice, of Renfrew, who spent a couple of months with Mr. and Mrs. John Conway at Snake Creek, has returned to town. Miss Mary Greer, for some time the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Greer, and of her sister, and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Adams, intends to return to Uncle Sam's domains next week.

Gustav Stein, who has purchased a farm in New Ontario, and intends to move on it, with his family, before spring, has commenced to forward his agricultural implements to Caldwell Station for shipment to his new home. He lately sold a span of colts in Renfrew for upwards of $250.

Small-pox of a mild form exists in several families in Slate Falls Settlement. The infected premises have been quarantined and the school ordered to be closed, and the provincial board of health has been notified of the outbreak.
