

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N. S., writes:

"For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

"That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

"They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

"For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box."

TALK OF THE NAVY.

Where does Mr. Borden get his information that Britain's "present need" demands the gift of two Dreadnoughts at a cost of $20,000,000? The war scare is over, and the facts are coming out that the imperial navy holds the supremacy of the sea and is bound to retain it. The authority for this statement, in a recent issue of the London Times, is Dr. Macnamara, a Canadian, and the parliamentary secretary to the admiral, and one of the best posted of men.

Here is a summary of the British naval plans, as stated by the doctor: In Dreadnoughts Britain has seven to Germany's two. In April, 1912, the so-called danger point, Britain will have twenty Dreadnoughts and Germany thirteen. At the same date Britain will have forty pre-Dreadnoughts to Germany's twenty. Of cruisers, leaving out the Invincibles, twenty-five to eight, and of Dreadnought docks Britain has twelve to Germany's six.

That disposes of the "present needs" argument, and disposes also of the pretence that he is abandoning the non-political policy agreed to last spring because of the dangers of the empire.

HOT AND COLD PARTY.

The Brockville Times quotes the Whig as saying that there was a loyalty of the lip and a loyalty that showed itself in action. Its idea is that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would give evidence of this in the stumping of Quebec should the empire be seriously menaced. Better than that the attitude of Mr. Monk, who would refuse help of any kind—unless the people ordered it. Some one to fire the heather under these circumstances would be very necessary.

But our friends of the opposition are fond of airing their loyalty at times. Years ago they wanted the people to understand that the liberals were the enemies of the flag, and that they were not to be trusted in power; while the liberals in office gave proof of their fidelity as the conservatives never did.

It was the tory party that stoned a certain governor-general, and laid plans for the annexation of Canada to the United States. It was the tory party that said, when attention was called to the fact that the National policy would operate against British connection, "then so much the worse for British connection." It was this same tory party that opposed the British preference in the tariff on the ground that it did not exact a quid pro quo.

Oh, these dollar and cent conservatives are great at singing "God Save the King," for spectacular effects, but of their loyalty, as the Whig has already remarked, "the Canadian people had quite enough."

THE TAIN OF WATER.

The water department has under consideration the question of projecting another suction or intake pipe out into the harbor so that a break or defect in one may not affect the supply of water for domestic purposes. It is estimated that the cost will be $25,000, in which case the department will be in want of funds and the city should be asked to return the amount it misappropriated a year ago. The savings of the department are meant for emergent purposes, and here is an instance in which the money could be at once available if left intact as it should have been.

It seems that the water department, when it extended the intake pipe some years ago, did not remove and renew the service pipe close to the pump house, and running under the present wharf. It may have been sound at the time, and apparently useful for many years, but it is now in a condition which suggests immediate replacement. The new work cannot be undertaken without the vote of the people—that is if the cost of the undertaking is to be made a debt of the department, to be paid for by debentures, which will fall due during the next twenty years. Were the money on hand—were the savings from year to year allowed to accumulate without inviting attack—the renewal of the plant in part could be assumed without issuing debentures, which is an expensive method of raising money.

The interest in the long run becomes a very large part of the civic liability.

The question of a filter came up incidentally, at the meeting of the water committee. Some people think it should be provided, as a permanent improvement, and that it must be had sooner or later. It would cost probably $50,000, but would it in any case dispense with the necessity for the second intake pipe? The situation demands the careful consideration of the council, and a prompt decision on its part seeing that the defects of the present system, outside the pumping station, involve a taint of the water which should not be allowed any longer than possible.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Winston Churchill wants to march on the guns of the enemy. A reminder that he has been at the front and tasted active service.

The reform of the lords will be the slogan in the next parliament. As the unionists favoured this in the elections the only question remaining is the nature of the reform.

Who made the navy a party question? Not Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The great switch on this subject was made by Mr. Borden, and the Toronto World comments upon it as a great surprise.

The Chicagoans are making a row because the new tariff has increased the cost of Bibles. A great bluff to the effect that they are Bible readers and that the new tariff has increased their cost of living.

Three months ago Mr. Borden did not say a word about the Dreadnoughts and the referendum. Then he was content to stand by his resolution of last spring. He has wobbled again and tangled up his party.

William O'Brien is fighting the nationalist party of which he is supposed to be a member. He has always been considerable of a troublemaker. Some people will remember when he talked too much in Kingston for his own good.

The members of the opposition, who were satisfied a while ago to stand by Mr. Borden on the naval question, are again having a great strain put upon their party loyalty. Until a division occurs they do not know where their leader is.

Mr. Borden fears that with a navy Sir Wilfrid Laurier will eventually out this young nation adrift and set up housekeeping on its own account. Mr. Borden must have abandoned all idea of becoming premier of Canada. Has the party given up hope?

Joseph Chamberlain says tariff reform must remain the chief plank in the conservative platform, there being nothing to replace it. T. P. O'Connor says it is dead and that no party can succeed with it in the industrial cities. Who is interpreting the public sentiment aright?

The Mail continues its attacks on the Newmarket canal, a scheme which was boomed by the conservative department, headed by T. H. Lemieux, M.P., and has been criticized because it comes through Mr. Aylesworth's constituency. Some members of parliament and their journalistic apologists appear to have canal or water on the brain.

DEATH OF DR. JAMES H. HANLEY.

Passed Away Monday Night at his Home on Gore Street.

After an illness extending over several weeks, Dr. James H. Hanley, son of James Hanley, customs officer, passed peacefully away, at the family residence, 73 Gore street, at six o'clock, on Monday evening. Deceased was travelling when he came over from Watertown, where he had been in practice, at Christmas time, to visit his parents, and never recovered from this attack of illness. He graduated from Queen's University, in 1890, and had been in practice in Watertown for four years. He was well known throughout the city, and the news of his death was learned with sincere regret.

The late Dr. Hanley is survived by his father, mother, and one brother, Dr. George J. Hanley, White Plains, N.Y.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, on Wednesday morning, at 9.15 o'clock, to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung by Rev. Father Hanley for the repose of the soul.

Impure Blood.

Let the blood become impure or impoverished and the nerves, which draw their nutriment from the blood, are apt to reply with pain. Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Locomotor Ataxia, and other painful affections arise from impure blood. Debility and muscular weakness has the same cause. The certain remedy is Wade's Iron Tonic Pills (Laxative).

They are a great nerve strengthener and blood maker. In boxes, 25 cents, at J. B. McLeod's Drug Store, corner King and Brock streets, (Wade's old stand) and corner Princess and Montreal streets. Money back if not satisfactory.

PASTORAL LETTER

BISHOP DESIGNATES SOME GOOD HOTELMEN.

To Those Who Do Not Respond to Qualifications He Says Frankly, "Get Out of the Business."

St. John, N.B. Feb. 8.—An assignment of the liquor traffic, the strongest deliverance on the subject recorded by the Catholic church in Eastern Canada, was contained in Bishop Casey's pastoral letter read today in all churches of diocese of St. John.

After explaining what sort of liquor dealer a man must be to be worthy of respect, he speaks of "others" and to these he says: "Get out of business, in which you are damning yourselves by damning your neighbors." After condemning the habit of drunkenness in the strongest possible language, his lordship says: "Not less guilty before God, than the unfortunate himself, is the false friend, or the backslider, who places temptation in his way. He who offers to treat one whom he knows to have a weakness for drink, or the dealer who sells to such a one, is as guilty before high heaven as Cain who killed his brother."

Then the bishop asks, "Is there a liquor dealer worthy of general esteem, one perfectly respectable in all his relations, one who fears not the anger of God, or the reproach of wives and mothers? Is there one who has properly obtained a license and conducts his business to meet legitimate want of the public; who is himself perfectly sober; who does not adulterate liquor to abuse them; who permits no display, such as blasphemy or indecent language, in his store; who seeks not to evade the law; who incites no one to drink, least of all the young; who never sells to minors, in a word, who is obedient to civil law and to the principles of Christian charity and justice? Such a man is a liquor dealer worthy of respect and is good for his cause from his business to fear the judgment of God or reproach of public."

AT THE ORPHEUM.

New Bill For This Week Draws Capacity Houses.

The Orpheum Theatre presented an entirely new bill, on Monday evening, and the theatre was crowded to capacity every performance. The shows at this popular play house seem to improve every week. Since Manager Trayte has been scouring his acts from Cleveland, the local theatregoers have been able to see as good vaudeville as in any house in Ontario. The headliners this week, Lorraine and Dudley, in their sketch, "Christine," are good ones. The team jumped here from Shea's Theatre, Buffalo, where they played a week. In the above acts, Miss Lorraine who was a member of "Coming Through the Rye," and "The Red Mill" companies, portrays the part of a Swedish girl. She is ably supported by Edgar Dudley, who is also known to the comic-opera stage.

Miss Cora Wilmont, comedienne, is the cleverest in her line ever seen here. She possesses a good voice of great range, and over which she has complete control. Miss Wilmont also proved herself an eclectician of ability, giving two recitations from Kipling's works, that were greatly enjoyed by her audience.

The Jetneys, a colored team, close the bill. These two men are fine step dancers, their turn making a good hit. Their song, "The Cubanola Glide," sung here by "Eddie" Morier, in Hockett's minstrels, was well rendered.

Two fine reels of moving pictures were shown, a comedy, "The Man that Can't Sit Down," and "A Tale from the Backwoods," are excellent Selig films.

PORTSMOUTH COUNCIL.

Petitions Received for the Opening up of Two Roads.

The Portsmouth council met on Monday evening. Members present were: Reeve, Bailden and Councilors Alimark, Marks, Sullivan and Kennedy.

Two petitions were received, one for the opening of Johnson street, west end, to Forty Foot road, and one for grading and putting in repair King street, running south, for about 200 feet, through what was known as Cleason's block. Tenders will be asked to do the work.

The council decided to get the opinion of J. L. Whiting, K.C., re road space from King street to Forty Foot road on Johnson street, and, if it is decided that there is a road allowance, it will be opened up, and thus settle for all time a long-standing dispute.

S. Lowe will furnish the village with coal oil and other small supplies. His was the only tender. John Millender for repairs to sidewalks was accepted.

John Sealy was appointed assessor. The auditor's report was received and 100 copies were ordered to be printed.
