TOO LONG A DELAY
OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AWAKING TO HER DUTY

And Responsibility to the Jew—If Christ Came Now as a Jew, Would He be Rejected?

The most interesting of the series of addresses given by Joseph Cohn, of Brooklyn, was given in Cooke's Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening. Mr. Cohn emphasized the necessity of the Christian church awaking to her duty and responsibility to the Jew. All too long there had been delay. The Jew had no place in the church of today and the speaker wondered if Christ came with a Jewish face and manner and dress into the church, even in this city, whether he would not be rejected because He was a Jew. The congregation felt the straight and pointed thrusts of the lecturer. Mr. Cohn then passed on to the important subject of the conversion of his father, which proved the great acquisition the Jew would be to the Gentile church.

"My father was born in Austria-Hungary, where, at the age of seven, he was left an orphan by the death of both parents, and had to shift for himself. At the age of thirteen he decided to become a rabbi, which involves long and continuous study for the complete mastery of the Jewish Talmud, a book consisting of sixty books, of large dimensions. In this Talmud he learned that this world was to last six thousand years, viz., two thousand confusion and void, two thousand with the law, and two thousand in the time of the Messiah." This statement at once led him to study more deeply, and with many anxious thoughts and much prayer he braved the curse of the Talmudic doctors and commenced to read the prophets, and there learned of the suffering Messiah in the 53rd chapter of Isaiah. The thought that the Messiah must have come some two thousand years ago overwhelmed him, and he enquired of the rabbis of his own neighborhood could help him, so he went to an old rabbi, who told him the Messiah had come, and that he had better go to America, as that was the only likely place he would hear all about his coming to earth.

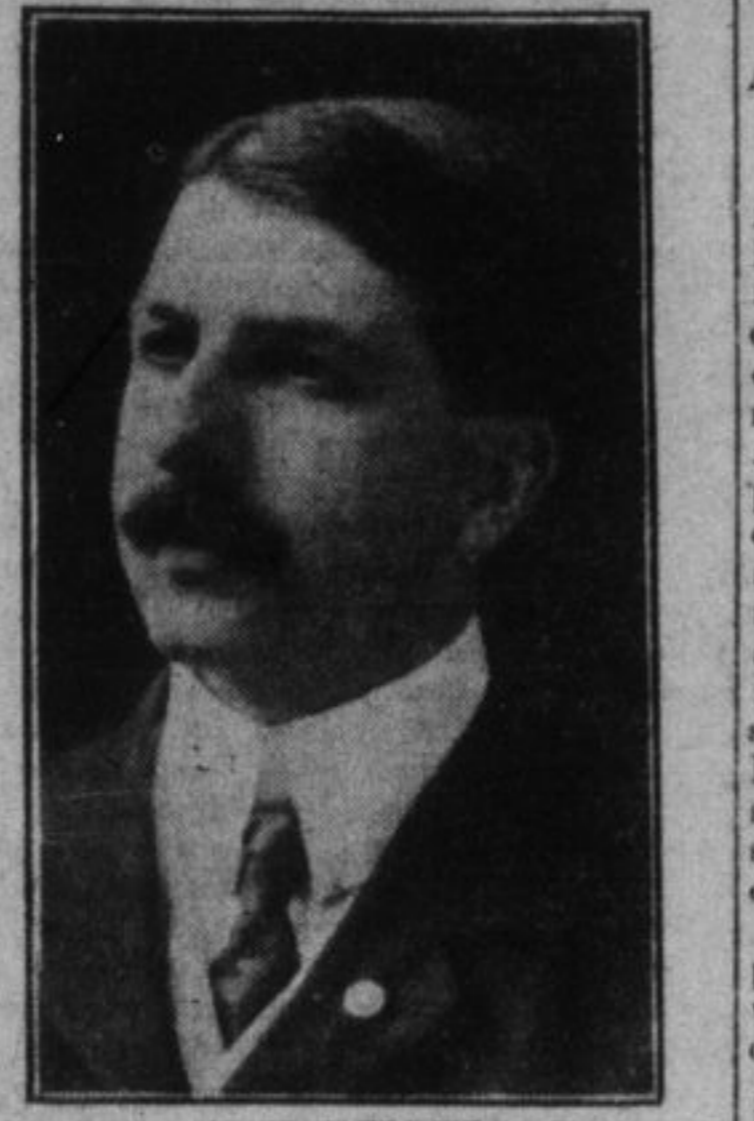

Immediately he set sail for America and was received with open arms by the Jews of New York and offered a synagogue. But he refused all offers, telling them he had come to America to find the Messiah. Finally he was led by God to a mission for Jews, where he learned for the first time of Christ from Jewish lips. The next day he went to the preachers' house and received a copy of the New Testament in Hebrew. He hurried to his lodgings and without sleep or food read the book from cover to cover, and when he finished he had welcomed the Redeemer the Christ of God. He ran out to his own people, thinking they would be glad to hear he had found the Messiah, but when they learned it was the Christ of the cross, they began to persecute him, until he was obliged to flee for his life to Scotland. There in the Free Church College he learned English and theology and commenced to work among the Jews in Glasgow. During all this time he had been separated from his beloved wife and children. They were being closely guarded by relatives and friends in Austria, lest they should leave and also become apostate. Finally they escaped in the night and arrived in Scotland.

After a while my father became impressed with the necessity of taking up work in New York, among the Jews and so came to America for the second time, for the past fifteen years has labored for the salvation of the Jew. God has blessed the work and daily it grows, but there are pressing needs that must be met if the persecuted Jew is to be able to make an open confession of his faith in Christ.

Mr. Cohn then urged the audience to come to-morrow night and hear of the problems of the Jew, his relationship to the civic and religious life of the community.

Rev. Dr. MacTavish occupied the chair, and spoke feelingly of the need of the hour and concurred in the great responsibility of the church with reference to bringing gospel to the Jew and certainly by displaying Christian courtesy and fair play. We have overlooked the command and neglected our privilege. He then thanked Mr. Cohn for his impressive and able address.

DIED FROM BULLET
HE SHOT HIMSELF WHILE DESPONDENT.

Edgar Dudley, a Bookkeeper, Suicided—Eggs are Coming From Russia to Montreal at Local Prices.

Montreal, Feb. 9.—Edgar Dudley, a book-keeper in Henry Morgan's, who shot himself last night at his home on Mance street in a fit of despondency, induced by ill health, died in the general hospital to-day. Dudley was 55 years of age and had been in Morgan's employ twenty-five years, coming here from England. He leaves a family.

Montrealers will have an opportunity of judging what kind of fruit the poultry yards of Russia can produce, as a consignment of 6,000 dozen eggs have just been received here from Riga, Russia. Strange as it may seem these eggs can be brought approximately 5,000 miles at a price to compete with the local ones. It is believed to be the first time a commercial transaction of this nature has taken place, but there have been previous instances of foodstuffs being brought from abroad at a time when the local prices were extremely high. Butter has been shipped to England and re-imported before now owing to the scarcity of the product and consequent high prices.

Hon. G. B. Baker, senator, of Swainsburg, Que., died suddenly at luncheon, to-day, at the Edinburgh Cafe. The senator had just taken his seat at a table when he was seized with faintness and fell to the floor. The attendants and guests rushed to his assistance and an ambulance from the Royal Victoria Hospital was called, but when the doctor reached him he was found to have passed away.

A.O.H. SMOKING CONCERT.

An Enjoyable Affair Held on Tuesday Evening.

A very pleasant event was the smoking concert carried on by Division No. 1 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, at their hall, Brock street, on Tuesday evening. President J. J. Laackie occupied the chair. After the fragrant weed had been freely indulged in and refreshments served the following programme was presented:—Address of welcome, President Laackie; piano solo, T. J. O'Connor; song, J. Hurley recitation, (by special request) "Asleep at the Switch," W. Kelly; address, Dr. E. Ryan; recitation, Martin James; step dance, Hugh O'Rourke; song, J. McMoran; song W. McParland; comic song, J. Hurley; recitation, W. Kelly; song, F. Parle; address, Wm. Hardy, organizer for the C.M.B.A.

The concert which was voted complete success, and thoroughly enjoyed, was arranged by the entertainment committee, composed of James V. Doran, F. Corky and T. J. O'Connor. Before and after the concert a billiard tournament was carried on, in which Messrs. Laackie, Corky, James, and others participated. Mr. Corky carried off the honors after a close contest.

Reports From Rockport.

Rockport, Feb. 8.—The death of Mrs. Chlois Slate, took place at her son's, Emery Slate's home, on Hayden Island, on Sunday eve, Jan. 23rd. Mrs. Slate lived for many years in this village and had a large circle of friends here. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church at Alexandria Bay, on Thursday afternoon, after which the remains were placed in the vault at Clayton, N.Y. Deceased was eighty-five years of age. Miss Beatrice Hollingsworth, of Escott spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Green. Mrs. Ida Edgley, who is in Brockville general hospital, is improving in health. Mrs. Wm. Kahnt entertained her Sabbath school class at her home, on Thursday afternoon. Miss Ada Quinn, of Lansdowne, is spending a couple of days with Mrs. J. Cook. Miss F. Heaslip and Mrs. Powell, of Escott, spent a couple of days with Miss Ida Ferguson.

Did Not Believe in Banks.

Mrs. Madill, who lives near Collingwood, has worked very hard in her life-time, and by honest effort had accumulated about $600 from the sale of butter, poultry, etc. The old lady did not believe in banks nor in any of the various methods provided for the investment of money, so she stowed away her carefully earned pile in a spot known only to herself. Wishing to add to it, she paid the hidden place a visit recently, but found that her wealth had melted away like the Simcoe hotel men before the Scott act vote and only fragments of paper were left to show the money had been destroyed the whole of the money to build themselves a nest, which might just as well have been built from a one-cent copy of an out-of-date daily paper.

Favors Income Tax.

Trenton, N.J., Feb. 9.—Governor Fort transmitted to the legislature the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution, with a resolution that it be approved. The governor states that an income tax is the most just and equitable that can be levied.

"It imposes the exactions of government," he says, "upon the citizen in proportion to his ability to bear it and upon the basis of the wealth which, under the laws of the country, he has been able to accumulate." The inability to impose an income tax, if the necessities of the government require it, he says, would amount to a national calamity.

Clearance Sale of Winter Goods.

Frontenac, Brock street, will have a grand sale of ready-made clothing, furnishing and clothing made to order for rest of the winter.

Season of Lent Opens.
The ceremonies in connection with Ash Wednesday were observed in St. Mary's cathedral this morning. The archbishop blessed the ashes. High mass was afterwards celebrated. The altar was draped in penitential colors and the season of Lent was inaugurated.

Will Likely Recover.
Edward Burke, the young son of the Rev. T. E. Burke, who has been ill in the General Hospital with typhoid fever was reported to be resting easier to-day. Slight hopes were held out for his recovery Saturday and Sunday, but he has improved a little since then, and it is thought that he will recover.

The Late Dr. J. H. Hanley.
The funeral of the late Dr. J. H. Hanley took place, Wednesday morning, at St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung by deceased's cousin, Rev. Father A. J. Hanley. The cortege was large. The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. P. Hanley, T. A. Hanley, Robert Hanley, M. D., James Duffy, James Gowan and Mr. McCarey. Afterwards the remains were conveyed to the vault at St. Mary's cemetery.

Wild West at the Bijou.
"The Woman Bandit of Arizona" is the title of a thrilling wild west drama which is being shown at the Bijou to-day and to-morrow. It tells the story of a young Mexican woman who sets up a stage coach in order to get money for her sick husband, and by this wrong action throws suspicion on the man whom she hoped to aid. The complications arising out of this situation are very interesting, and there is a lot of hard riding and fighting by the cowboys involved. There is also a drama, entitled "Her Sailor Son," and a comedy "The Smart Policeman."

Mark Hambourg's Programme.

The following programme will be played by Mark Hambourg, pianist, at his Grand Hall concert to-night:—Toccata and Fugue D Minor, Bach-Tausig.

AT ZION CHURCH.

Fine Entertainment Given by Girls' Circle.

The entertainment given in Zion church, on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Girls' Circle, was a decided success. The programme was a lengthy one, and was much enjoyed by the very large audience. The programme was a varied one, and every number was warmly applauded. A number of fine tableaux were given by the girls and boys, and the showing was a most creditable one. There was also a feast of good music, and, altogether, the programme provided a grand treat. The tableaux included, "The Gypsy's Warning," which contained three fine scenes; "The Daisy Tabernacle," under the "Greenwood Tree" (taken from Shakespeare's "As You Like It"), "Nobody Works But Father," "Home Sweet Home," "Consolation," and "Rock of Ages." A few dialogues were also given, including "Aunt Mina's Money," "The Rose and The Thorn."

The musical part of the programme included instrumental selections by Miss Ewart; duet by Messrs. Gibson and Partridge; instrumental duet, piano and violin, Mrs. Denney and Miss Denney; duet, Miss Allen and Mr. Dalton; violin and piano duet, Alice Gibson and Robert Gibson; violin selection, Mr. Dalton; solo, Mr. Partridge. Miss McKenzie favored with a fine recitation.

Do You Value Health
Regulate and Cleanse Your System.

Spring cleaning does not answer the body. The prime element in the maintenance or the recovery of health is activity of liver, kidneys and skin. Not occasionally but only by weekly stimulation of these functions can poisons, waste matter, and accumulations within the body be drawn out so that the blood and inward parts be purified and kept wholesome. Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the mildest laxative medicine known; they purify the blood, fortify the activity of the liver and kidneys, increase the eliminating power of the skin and create a general feeling of well being—the outcome of wholesome conditions within. Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a general tonic to the digestive system; they restore functional effectiveness to all the organs of secretion and contribute in this way enormously to the stability of health.

For general family use in all cases of biliousness, bad blood, indigestion and disorders of the stomach, Dr. Hamilton's Pills have no equal. Sold in yellow boxes, 25c. all dealers.

Who said "Sour grass" it is now ready for use and you can depend on its being clean and properly made, as I made it myself. H. J. MYERS, 60 Third St., Phone 570.
