ROCKWOOD WON OUT

IN THE FIRST OF THE TANKARD CURLING MATCHES.

It Defeated Kingston by Five Shots—Return Game Next Wednesday—J. B. Walkem Won Two Curling Matches on Friday.

The first match for the Rockwood curling tankard took place at the Rockwood rink, on Friday afternoon. Rockwood won by five points. The return game will be played at the Kingston rink next Wednesday afternoon. Friday's scores were:

Rockwood, No. 1—W. R. Dick, J. Davidson, W. Potter, J. Dennison, skip—15.
 Kingston, No. 1—R. Douglas, R. D. Sutherland, Prof. Wallace, A. McLean, skip—20.
 Rockwood, No. 2—W. Gowan, T. McCammon, W. Fenwick, W. Carr, skip—15.
 Kingston, No. 2—A. Dalton, E. Carman, E. Lyons, Dr. Dyde, skip—8.

Local Curling Games.

In the Kingston Club games, Friday night, in series A, G. E. Searle's rink beat Prof. Gwillim's, by 15 to 4.
 In series B, J. B. Walkem's rink scored two victories, defeating W. R. Sills' rink in the afternoon, by 13 to 11, and trouncing Dr. Ross' quartette in the evening, by 13 to 6. The Glan street lawyer's lucky number seems to be 13, and his lucky day Friday.

Then Prof. Macdonald's rink defeated G. E. Hague's, by 11 to 9, and T. Slater's won from J. W. Power's, by 9 to 8.

'Varsity Beat McGill.
 At Toronto, on Friday night, Varsity beat McGill in the senior intercollegiate hockey game by 7 to 3.

Harrowsmith Won Out.

There was a battle royal at Harrowsmith, on Friday night, when the local team trimmed the Kingston & Pembroke railway bunch by a score of seven goals to five. But the Harrowsmith men had a run for their money all right. At full time the score was a tie, five all, and ten minutes extra time was required to decide the struggle. William Burton acted as referee, and was indeed very fortunate in getting off with his life, for the game was fast and furious from start to finish. A return game will be arranged for and on that occasion the locals believe that they will be able to turn the tables. The teams lined up as follows:
 Harrowsmith—Goal, Stewart; point, Lyons; cover, Godfrey; rover, Wright

WILL VISIT KINGSTON

GEN. BADEN-POWELL COMING OUT NEXT SUMMER.

His Trip Will be for the Purpose of Inspecting the Scouts—Local Corps is Getting Into Line—Meeting of the Class in Signalling.

During the summer, Kingston will be honored with a visit from Gen. Baden-Powell, who is coming to pay a visit to Canada. The date, of course, has not yet been fixed, but will be decided upon after the general arrives in this country.

As is well known, Gen. Baden-Powell is at the head of the great scouting movement, and his object in coming to Canada will be to inspect and to give instructions regarding the different corps, which have recently been organized in different parts of Canada, including one in Kingston.

There is a class of boy scouts, at the Y.M.C.A., which was organized quite recently, and great interest is being taken in the work. On Friday night there was a very large attendance at the signalling class of the corps, under Melville Lemmon.

A letter giving notice of Gen. Baden-Powell's coming to Kingston, was received by Lieut. Col. Hemming, and in this letter, information was asked concerning the local corps of scouts, and their work, and all this desired information will be forwarded.

THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S.

The Glee Club Gave a Concert at Rockwood Hospital.

By Our Queen's Correspondent.
 The Queen's Glee Club put on a pleasing concert at Rockwood, Friday evening. About fifty students participated in the evening's entertainment, and thoroughly appreciated the unstinted hospitality proffered by the officials of the institution. The ladies' club and the gentlemen's club both contributed numbers individually, and also in combined chorus at the Queen's Choral Society. They were ably assisted by J. B. Sterling, cellist, and the college quartette.

The Divinity-Science hockey contest resulted in a decisive victory for the mechanics, the final figures being: Science, 4; Divinity, 1. In the last period, the condition (moral) of the divinity told, and they were able to prevent their opponents from scoring. There is no truth in the rumor that "Jack" Macgillivray's toes touched the rafters when he was pulling off his sensational acrobatic stunt. Gregory Shearer, in goal, played a remarkably steady game, moving his right leg and left arm only once. For science, Beaman, Gallagher and McKay were the satellites.

The Queen's Western Association will meet Monday afternoon.

The annual assault-at-arms which is to be held Saturday, February 26th, promises to be an exceptional event; a great programme is being arranged.

Mock parliament this evening. Woman's suffrage will be again aired. Two of the college expert talkers will deliver special speeches on the question. The students' orchestra will provide the musical part of the programme.

WITH SMILE ON FACE

Mrs. Caldwell Entered Into Her Rest.

Riverside, Cal., Morning Mission, Jan. 23. Unexpectedly yesterday morning the death summons came to Mrs. Catherine Caldwell at her home at 1424 Line street. She had been in her usual health up to the hour of her death, and attended prayer meeting on the previous evening at Calvary Presbyterian church, of which she was a member.

Yesterday morning she spoke of a slight indisposition after breakfast and remarked that she would lie down for a little while. Soon after her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Bryan, went in to see her and found that the death angel had called. She passed away with a smile on her face, as if asleep. Death was due to heart disease, from which she had suffered for some time.

Mrs. Caldwell was born in Montrose, Scotland, 70 years ago. When quite young she moved to Kingston, Ontario, Canada, where she was twice married. For the past twenty-two years she and her family have lived in Riverside, and here she has many friends who are greatly saddened by her death.

The children of the first marriage are George N. Reynolds, who is on a tour around the world, and Mrs. Maggie Robinson, of Kingston. The surviving children by the second marriage are Mrs. Kate Pottenger, of Montfort; Mrs. Sarah Pott, of Redlands; Mrs. E. J. Bryan, of Riverside and Thomas S. Caldwell, of Oakland.

She was a woman of many graces of mind and heart, and her death will be sincerely mourned. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced.

MADE A PRESENTATION.

P. G. Marshall Was Remembered at St. James' Church.

After choir practice, at St. James' church, on Friday evening, there was a pleasant gathering at the home of the vicar, Rev. T. W. Savary, when the organist, P. G. Marshall, who is leaving the city, for Simcoe, Ont., where he has accepted a position as organist, in one of the churches there, was waited upon, and presented with a solid leather suit case. The vicar read an address, and W. J. Murray, on behalf of the church wardens and the choir, made the presentation. Mr. Marshall replied in feeling terms, thanking the church wardens and the members of the choir, for their handsome gift. Addresses were given by W. J. C. Allen and Francis King, both of whom paid a warm tribute to the service rendered the church by Mr. Marshall. All joined in wishing Mr. Marshall every success in his new field of labor. After the presentation, the members present spent a most enjoyable time in various amusements, and refreshments were served. At the close, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. Mr. Savary, for his kind hospitality.

The sum of $500 was paid at the Perth customs office as poll tax on a seventeen-year-old Chinese boy who arrived in the county town last week from China. The boy is a son of a Chinaman living in Lennox.

THE MAD DOG SCARE.

A Review of the Cause and Situation.

Western Ontario has a mad dog scare. The air is full of rabies. Every dog owner is under suspicion by his neighbors of harboring a menace to their lives. The health department of the Ontario government is in a state of unquiet activity, devising ways and means of combating the canine peril, and rigid rules are being adopted for the protection of the public.

The federal authorities have been asked to help, and drastic are the measures taken to stop the spread of hydrophobia. Great is the wrath of the dog owner. The innocent dog must suffer with the guilty dog. No matter how apparently inoffensive the poodle, he must be chained up or muzzled, otherwise his days will not be long in the land. The authorities refuse to recognize social graces in the dog world because the dogs are biting the families of the obscure citizen and the statesman with strict impartiality.

The other day the daughter of the Honorable W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, was playing about near home when a collie dog came along and bit it. It was his last achievement. He was shot.

The plague of rabies in Ontario is of foreign origin, comes from the state of New York. They have been tracing the disease from dog to dog, and the evidence, direct and circumstantial, leads them to a rabbi dog which crossed the suspension bridge at Niagara last May and entered upon an active and successful campaign. Nearly fifty Ontario people have been bitten since then, but none has died. Horse and cattle, however, have been bitten and have died, and the Ontario health authorities now say that 500 or 300 mad dogs are roaming about the province, despite the slaughter of these animals, energetically. Sixty dogs have been killed in two Western Ontario towns, but the disease is rapidly spreading and has reached Toronto.

Every Ontario county west of York and Simcoe, inclusive, has been visited by the rabies scare. Under the regulations now being enforced by the provincial police, no dog is to be allowed at large in an infected district, under heavy penalty to the owner, and in other districts no dog is to be at large unless his mouth is effectively closed with a metallic muzzle.

This order is reasonable inasmuch that none of the people bitten has developed rabies. But the regulations are, nevertheless, in force, backed by the dual authority of Toronto and Ottawa.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dr. Massie Says That Dogs at Large are a Menace to Health.

Kingston, Feb. 12.—(To the Editor)—In view of the outbreak of hydrophobia in a section of Ontario, north of Toronto, both federal and local governments are taking action with the object of preventing the spread of the disease and ultimately stamping it out.

The disease, happily a rare one, is usually brought into a locality by some stray animal, and is so insidious in its character that it is not noticed until a number of animals have been bitten and are found to be affected. Hence the danger of its spreading.

If the disease should ever get a start in Kingston, it would certainly find conditions most favorable for its propagation.

Useless curs abound all over the streets, and seem to own the town. In some localities it is not safe to pass along at night, and those who drive are continually annoyed by dogs running out at their horses or tearing their robes.

My own horse while being quietly ridden down one of our streets yesterday, was bitten on the thigh by a large dog. Dogs running at large are a nuisance and menace to public health.—J. MASSIE.

The city by-law clearly states that dogs are not to be permitted to run at large. They are not allowed on the streets unless accompanied by owners. A nuisance should be started against the dog nuisance.

HOUSED HIM TO DEATH.

Man Who Sympathized With McKinley Murderer.

Pittsburg, Feb. 12.—Sending a bullet into his head Caspar Limbach, a German decorator, put himself beyond the alleged persecution of his neighbors along the assassination of William McKinley.

In September, 1901, while McKinley lay wounded at Buffalo, Limbach, because of alleged fiery remarks sympathizing with Czolgasz is said to have become the object of persecution in the various communities of the South Side. Repeatedly he was beaten and driven from one borough to another. On one occasion a noose was thrown about his neck upon his refusal to retract his alleged remarks.

Not until the rope was tightened and into the air over the arm of a telephone pole did he retract.

A few weeks ago Limbach's mind began to give way, and he became obsessed with a fear that his enemies would confine him in an asylum. He was released from an hospital only a short while before.

The sum of $500 was paid at the Perth customs office as poll tax on a seventeen-year-old Chinese boy who arrived in the county town last week from China. The boy is a son of a Chinaman living in Lennox.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Clearance Sale of Winter Goods.

Prevost, Brock street, will have a great sale of ready-made clothing, furnishing and clothing made to order for rest of the winter.

Want Snow Removed.

A large number of citizens, who have occasion to go through Victoria park, for a "short cut," wish to have the snow shoveled. This morning, a petition, asking that the city council have the work attended to, was in circulation, and was very largely signed. It will be presented to the city council, at its session on Monday night.

G.T.R. and the Storm.

"The storm is not giving us much trouble as yet," said a G.T.R. official to the Whig, this afternoon. The trains have been running pretty well on time, and there has been no block on the line. Train No. 6, from Toronto, was on time, and No. 4 was reported but fifteen minutes late. If the storm keeps up to-night, there will, no doubt, be some trouble.

The Late Mrs. John Asselstine.

At her residence, 254 Alfred street, Mrs. Myra Pannell, wife of John Asselstine, passed peacefully away, on Saturday, after a long illness, surrounded by her family and sisters. She was born in London, England, and with her parents came to this country some years ago and settled in this city. She leaves her husband and two children, John S. and Myra S., to mourn her loss. She is survived also by a brother William Stammers Pannell, and three sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Briggie, Mrs. Abraham Shaw and Miss Pannell, all residing in this city.

Wanted in Toronto.

At the request of the Toronto police a young woman, giving the name of Lizzie Hazlett, was placed under arrest by the local police on Friday night. It is stated that there is a charge of theft against her in Toronto. She was placed under arrest on Princess street, about 8 o'clock by Constable James Bateson. She was walking along the street, with a soldier, who taken in charge. The young woman formerly lived in Kingston, but removed to Toronto, a short time ago. A detective from Toronto, will arrive in the city, to take the accused back to Toronto.

New Thing at the Bijou.

On Monday a continued drama will begin at the Bijou. It is a dramatization of the famous romance, "A Celebrated Case." The story is of the Franco-English wars of the middle Georgian period and the celebrated battle of Fontenoy is included. The first half will run on Monday and Tuesday. The second on Wednesday and Thursday. They will be named respectively "Convicted by His Own Child," and "Saved By His Own Child." Each drama is complete in itself. On Monday a splendid wild west drama, "The Ten of Spades," will be shown for one day only.

Home From Convention.

R. J. Bushell has returned home from Toronto, after attending the best representative meeting of delegates to the convention of the association exhibitions ever held in that city. Mr. Bushell has had the honor of being elected one of the directors of the association, and being interested in vegetable growing, he, doubtless, will be in a position to aid such industry more than heretofore, as it is the first time for that interest to be represented on such a board. Mr. Bushell says that the Kingston township show is now no small factor in the 350 fairs held annually in the province, and promises to be still larger factor after this coming year.

A New Auctioneer.

As will be seen in an advt. elsewhere in this issue, J. E. Hutcheson, announces his intention of opening an auctioneering and appraising business in the city. Mr. Hutcheson needs no introduction to Kingstonsians, especially to the older generation, for he was an auctioneer here in the good, old days gone by. For twenty-five years he was known as one of the best and shrewdest of auctioneers, and in those days he handled nearly all the business offering. For a number of years he has spent most of the time outside the city, but he now will devote his entire time and energies to the auctioneering business. He solicits a share of the business of each citizen. A message to Henderson's grocery or Wadlington's meat market, or to Mr. Hutcheson's home at 517 Albert St., will receive prompt attention.

CHARGED WITH DESEDITION.

Case Was Dealt With at the Police Court.

At the police court, Saturday morning, a man named James McLean was accused of deserting his wife and family of several children. T. J. Rigney appeared for the accused, and the case was settled by the accused agreeing to return to his wife and family. His home is in Syracuse, but it appears that he has been living in the city for about two years. His wife came over from Syracuse, on Friday, and had a summons issued against her husband. It is alleged that he has been living here under an assumed name. He was employed as a wine clerk at a local hotel.

Resigned.

Johnnie (to young brother of his new girl)—"So Miss Ella is your eldest sister. Who comes after her?" Little Tommy—"Nobody comes after her; but pa says the first one that does can have her."
