ITS FOREST WEALTH.

Nova Scotia Takes Measures to Get Estimate.

The province of Nova Scotia during the past summer inaugurated a survey of its forest lands, thus setting an example to the other provinces of the Dominion in this regard.

Conditions allowed of only a rough survey, or "reconnaissance," the survey was carried out under the direction of Dr. B. E. Fernow, dean of the faculty of forestry of the University of Toronto.

He takes occasion, however, to correct erroneous impressions as to the extent of the forest. While the white spruce, growing in comparatively open situations, may, he says, make a saw log in six days, the forest spruce, which is mostly red spruce, grows more slowly and will probably not average a saw log in less than a hundred years.

It is found that, to a large extent, the different species of trees are localized. The white pine is found, for the most part, in Shelburne and part of Queen's, the hemlock most prominent in Annapolis and the spruce in Digby counties.

Nova Scotia is to be heartily congratulated on taking this forward step. One of the greatest needs in regard to the planning of a business-like system of administering and caring for the forests of Canada is the acquiring of definite information as to just where these areas are located, their extent, the quantity of timber and species of trees to be found on them, their accessibility and other points.

Heretofore these points have had to be largely guessed at, no certain knowledge being in existence. While the present survey may leave much to be desired, it at any rate substitutes definite (if only approximate) knowledge for guesses. Nova Scotia is to be congratulated on having led the way among the provinces of the Dominion in thus substituting certainty for vagueness in regard to its forest areas and resources.

First Time in 30 Years. Halifax, N.S., Feb. 18.—For the first time in thirty years, a conservative was elected, Wednesday, in Queen's county in the bye-election to fill the vacancy in the legislature created by the translation of Hon. E. M. Farrell from the speakership to Ottawa.

W. L. Hall, a Liverpool barrister, has a majority of 230 over his liberal opponent, A. W. Hendry, the leading business man of the county. Farrell's majority at the last general election was about 300.

This is the first bye-election in which a conservative has captured a seat in the legislature since 1878.

Will Build Parsonage. Lindsay, Ont., Feb. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eaton, of Toronto, have decided to build a parsonage for the Methodist church, of Omeuse, and the gift has been thankfully accepted by the official board. Steps are being taken to arrange suitable plans. Mrs. Eaton was formerly a valued member of the church and has always manifested a deep interest in its welfare.

EXPULSION FROM EXCHANGE.

Punishment for Firm That Maudaged Hocking Pool.

New York, Feb. 18.—Henry S. Haskins, board member of the Stock Exchange firm of Lathrop, Haskins & Co., which failed with the recent collapse of the Columbus & Hocking Coal and Iron pool, was declared ineligible for reinstatement on the exchange, yesterday, because of his firm's connection with the fiasco.

As Mr. Haskins was the only member of the firm having a seat on the exchange, the action is equivalent to expulsion. His seat will be sold and he will never be able to become a member of the exchange again.

Lathrop, Haskins & Co. were the managers of the Columbus & Hocking Coal and Iron pool, according to testimony recently brought out, and James R. Keene manipulated the stock in the market. Two other Stock Exchange houses—J. M. Friske & Co., and Roberts, Hall & Friske—have yet to appear before the governors of the exchange for their participation in the pools.

WOMEN ON POLICE FORCE.

As Soon as They Get Right to Vote in New York State.

Buffalo, N.Y., Feb. 18.—If women are given the right to vote in New York state, the first jobs they will try for will be on the police force.

That is what Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Women's Suffrage Association, said at the first political convention of women suffragists ever held in Erie county.

"One hundred women on the police force of New York city would do more to wipe out juvenile crimes and sins against childhood than all the other forces in Greater New York combined," declared Dr. Shaw.

Conger also said that he was "approached" by Louis Bavel, former member of assembly from Orange county.

Watching a Stomach Digest Food

Was the Means Whereby Science Made Possible the Cure of Dyspepsia.

A Trial Package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Sent Free.

The Abbe Spall-zwand was the first scientist to systematically study the chemical power of the gastric juice, but it was by the careful and convincing experiments of Beaumont that the foundation of our exact knowledge of its composition and action was laid.

Beaumont was an army surgeon, located at an obscure military post in Michigan, while it was yet a territory, and was called upon to treat a gunshot wound of the stomach in a Canadian voyager—Alexis St. Martin. When the wound healed a permanent opening was left by means of which food could be placed in the stomach and gastric juice taken from it.

Beaumont made scientific experiments with his crude means and wrote a book, which to-day is recognized among the classics of physiology.

Beaumont showed the way for other scientists so that to-day medicine knows what the stomach does with food and what food does to the stomach.

Science also knows what the gastric juices are and how to make them best for the system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, thanks to the poor army surgeon and Alexis St. Martin, give man a means of digesting food, replenishing the exhausted juices, soothing the nerves and correcting dyspeptic conditions of the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are natural fruit and vegetable essences reduced in concentrated form and by tremendous power compressed into a tablet. These wonderful little digesters are known all over America and Canada. Full meals have been digested by them in glass tubes and they are sold by every druggist.

Physicians to the number of 40,000 use them. They are meritorious and powerful. Go to your druggist and buy a package to-day, price 50c., or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 120 Street Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ATTACK BY EAGLES

LITTLE BOY'S BATTLE FOR LIFE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Ten-year-old Lad Caught by Two Huge Birds While on Way From School—Lifted From the Ground Twice and Painfully Scratched.

Laporte, Pa., Feb. 18.—Ten year old Ira Cottingham, Ringdale, near here, while on his way from school, was attacked by two immense eagles. Acting in unison the two fierce birds struck the talons in the youngster and lifted him fourteen or fifteen feet in the air before the weight of the boy caused the clothing to give way. Before he struck the ground the eagles were at him again, and he took another unwelcome flight, only to fall the second time. Finally the boy managed to get to the ground, but he was fought the birds for prey for nearly twenty minutes before they desisted from their attack.

The Cottingham boy has nearly two miles to cover between his home and the school-house. He was walking in the public road, when his ears were suddenly assailed by a rushing sound, and the next instant he was knocked to the ground by the force of something which struck him on the shoulder, at the same time hurting him as though a knife had been thrust into his flesh. Then he was raised into the atmosphere. The eagles made no attempt to attack the boy's eyes, as large hawks, driven to desperation, do sometimes, but his shoulders were deeply scratched, where birds' talons had repeatedly sunk into his flesh, while several places on his hands showed where the birds had attacked him with their beaks as he tried to beat them off. He will carry some of the scars through life.

Stocking Icy Cause Poison.

A case at Kingston shows vividly the danger of neglecting to apply Zam-Buk to a cut or a sore. Mrs. A. Harrison, living in Place d'Armes, while attending to her household duties, struck her ankle against a sharp projection on the furniture. She took no notice of the injury, deeming it trivial. In a day or two the ankle began to swell, and cause excessive pain.

A doctor, called in, found that dye from her stocking had entered the wound and set up blood poison. Treatment with Zam-Buk followed, but it was several days before the limb was out of danger. "Had it not been for the powerful antiseptic properties of Zam-Buk and its exceptional healing virtues, the wound might have had a very serious result," says Mrs. Harrison. "But I believe if I had applied Zam-Buk at the time of the injury, it would have prevented the blood-poisoning altogether."

ARE GETTING UNEASY.

The Advocates of "Votes for Women" in Ontario.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—The advocates of "Votes for Women" in Ontario, are apparently getting uneasy, least Allan Studholme, the labor man, may abandon his bill to grant the suffrage to women. In his mail, this morning, he received communication from the Canadian Suffrage Association, requesting him to bring in the bill for woman's suffrage at the present sitting of the legislature, and promising the association's co-operation in his efforts. The ladies have no cause to doubt Mr. Studholme's untiring energy and zeal. The little labor man was diligently canvassing for a second all morning, but had to admit, when interviewed, he had been unsuccessful.

When he secured a second, however, he declared the bill would go before the house, and if sufficient support was forthcoming, there would be a division.

KING DID NOT BUY VILLA.

Denial Authorized by His Majesty's Secretary.

London, Feb. 18.—Lord Knollys, private secretary to King Edward, authorizes a denial of the story printed in the Chronicle to the effect that the British ambassador to Italy has acquired the beautiful Villa Brancaccio, at Possipello on behalf of the British sovereign.

The Central News adds to this by saying that apparently the reported purchase was confused with the acquisition by Mr. Reid, the American ambassador, of a residence in the vicinity of the Bay of Naples, which he has taken for two months.

THE CONFLICT OF LOVE AND FAT

The average man will "jolly" with the stout girl; but he steals glances over her shoulder at that Miss Slender. He would sooner hold the hands of the latter in a fatuous silence than really enjoy himself with the other. Such is the power of love. Just a line—from chin to toe, or nose to heel—that's all. But it rings the merry marriage bell.

Fat women should not repine—but refine—their own lives by means of that phenomenal—the Marmola Tablet. No exercising or dieting is necessary. Simply take one tablet after each meal and at bedtime, and in a little while the overplus of fat—the coarseness of aspect—will disappear. The figure will become slight enough to permit of a maidenly contour, a pure outline, being fashioned with corset and gown. Then victory—if not revenge.

Although Marmola Tablets often take off uniformly a pound of flabby fat a day, they are quite harmless (being made of the famous fashionable prescription: 1-2 oz. Marmola, 3-4 oz. PL. Ex. Casarea, Aromatic, 4-5 oz. Peppermint Water). Consequently, even timid ones are safe in using them, for no ill—not even a wrinkle or stomach ache—will follow their use; seventy-five cents secures a safe case at any druggist's or by mail from the Marmola Co., 1189 Farmer Bldg. Detroit, Mich.

Skin Diseases.

Under this name such troubles as Salt Rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Tetter, Shingles, Psoriasis, Scurf, Itching Rash, Eruptions, Boils, Pimples, etc., are included. Skin diseases, as a rule, are not dangerous, but are unsightly, irritating and often terribly annoying to the sufferer; they depend mainly on bad blood, on some cause or another, for if the blood is pure and the circulation good such disease can exist, except it arise from lack of proper cleanliness or from contagion.

To get rid of skin diseases it is necessary to observe strictly all the laws of health, maintain regular action of the bowels, avoid high living, eating only plain nourishing food. Cleanse and keep the blood pure by taking Burdock Blood Bitters, which unlocks all the secretions, and makes new rich blood by acting on the entire system.

Mrs. E. M. Myers, East Jordan, N.A., writes:—"I don't think there is anyone in this Dominion can recommend Burdock Blood Bitters more than I can. I suffered terribly with Salt Rheum for six years, and did everything for it without relief. For curiosity sake I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, and it completely cured me. I would advise others to use it."
