

Important New Novel

THE KINGDOM OF SLENDERS WORDS

A New Novel by Hallie Ermitie Rives.

By the unusual power of her previous novels—"The Castaway," "Harris Courageous," and "Satan Sanderson"—Miss Rives made herself one of the best known American women writers of fiction.

This new story is laid among the American officials set in Tokyo, where Hallie Ermitie Rives has lived for several years, and where her husband, Mr. Post Wheeler, is attached to our Embassy. By far the author's best book. Pictures by A. B. Wenzell.

TO URGE ON COUNCIL

THE WISDOM OF IMPROVING THE CITY BUILDINGS

By Heating Them With Steam and Making Structural Changes—To Endeavor to Have Board of Education Quarters Established There.

The city property committee is going to urge the city council to vote a sufficient amount of money to put steam heating in the portion of the city buildings that are still heated by stoves, and to remodel the eastern wing and Ontario hall as well, utilizing the latter either as a city council chamber or as quarters for the board of education. The question was considered at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the committee, which has before it a report of the city engineer giving estimates of the probable cost of putting in steam heating. The committee was agreed that the present stoves should be replaced. They are costly, unsatisfactory and unornamental.

The engineer advocated steam heating as cheaper than hot water and also as good. By abolishing the stoves now in the building the sum of $214 a year would be saved in fuel and insurance. This is equal to a capital expenditure of $4,755.

To heat by steam all portions of the building not heated by hot water would cost $4,722, which would be within the capitalization of the amount that would be saved in fuel and insurance. Leaving out Ontario hall and the janitor's quarters would cost $2,866. To heat only the downstairs portion would cost $1,500.

The renovation of the offices would cost $973, according to an estimate made several years ago by Architect Newlands. The committee decided to ask council to grant it permission to engage an architect to give an estimate as to the cost of converting Ontario hall into quarters for the city council or the board of education. It was the opinion of the members that a complete job should be made. If it was possible to get the board of education to change its quarters to the city buildings it should be done. They couldn't see the wisdom of keeping so much unused space in the city buildings and paying rent and fuel account for the board of education uptown. It was decided to appoint Alds. Graham, Harrison and Hoag to wait upon the board of education and discuss the question of removing its quarters to the city buildings, if the necessary provision was made there.

CELEBRATED ANNIVERSARY.

Granite Lodge Oddfellows Held a "Smoker."

The fourth anniversary of Granite lodge of Oddfellows was fittingly celebrated by the members on Wednesday evening by the holding of a "smoker" which proved a most enjoyable affair to the many present. Music was provided by McAuley's orchestra, and songs were contributed by W. E. Bassam and John Ingles, but the most part of the evening was given over to progressive euchre. Henry Hunter succeeded in carrying off the highest honors in this amusement. Choice refreshments were served, and everyone had a jolly time. Granite lodge, which is one of the youngest lodges in the city, is most progressive. The membership is on the increase, and in time it promises to be one of the banner lodges of the order.

Hysterical Tendencies

Are They on the Increase in the Young Women of To-day?

Our daughters, by denial of the simpler modes of living of which our grandmothers flourished, are developing into mere bundles of nerves. In this brief, but all too true, conclusion Mrs. S. E. Powers, well known in Bridgeport, proceeds to say that no responsibility rests with greater force upon parents than that of fortifying the overstrained nerves of their children by a judiciously selected tonic and careful diet. "My third daughter had just finished her high school course. She gave signs of absence of repose—lacked self-control—was nervous—irritable and very high strung. She had formerly always shown excellent temper and judgment, and these outbursts of impatience and temper clearly indicated her health must be at fault. I was advised to give her Ferrozone and got four boxes at once. I took particular care to see that she ate regularly and sufficiently of nutritious food. Had she not been built up by Ferrozone, it is hard to say what serious trouble might have developed. Certainly Ferrozone is a splendid medicine for such troubles, weakness and ill-health as young girls suffer from."

Every growing girl and boy, in fact any person in low or debilitated health, will be quickly built up by Ferrozone—try one or two tablets at meal time, 50c per box, six for $2.50, all dealers.

AT POLICE COURT WANT MORE MONEY

ANOTHER ASSAULT CASE AIDED BEFORE MAGISTRATE.

Mrs. Tozer Was Fined One Dollar and Costs for Attacking Mrs. Florence Brothers—How One Row Led to Another—Young Map was Dismissed.

In the police court, on Wednesday, Mrs. Florence Brothers was accused of assault. In the police court, on Thursday morning, she was plaintiff in a similar case. She charged Mrs. Elizabeth Tozer with assault. The latter was found guilty, and fined $1 and costs, amounting in all to $3.75. Mrs. Tozer is the grandmother of the little Tozer girl, who was assaulted by Mrs. Brothers and the one row appears to have led to the other.

When arraigned on the charge of assault, Mrs. Tozer stoutly denied the charge. "There was no such a thing, sir," she said to the magistrate. "I spoke to her about my little niece, and she said that she would serve me the same."

Then the story of Mrs. Brothers, the plaintiff, was heard. She said she was employed at the cotton mill, and that when she was coming out of the mill, on Monday night, Mrs. Tozer grabbed her by the throat; she had to protect herself, and so grabbed Mrs. Tozer by the hair.

"That's all false," cried out the accused.

Amelia Smith, a witness, said that she saw Mrs. Tozer grab Mrs. Brothers by the throat. She tried to separate them, but did not succeed until another woman came to the rescue.

Emily Andrews, another witness, said that she did not see any blows struck.

The magistrate said that he had no doubt that the assault had been committed, and he then imposed a fine of $1 and costs, or ten days.

A young man, arrested a few days ago, on a charge of having procured for a member of the "prohibited list," was discharged, as the evidence was not sufficient to convict him.

WORTH SEVERAL MILLIONS.

Alexander McDougall, of the Kingston Shipbuilding Company.

Citizens are naturally interested in the composition of the new Kingston shipbuilding company, which has leased the government dry dock, and which is asking exemption from taxation. One of the leading members of the Kingston company is Capt. Alexander McDougall, of Duluth, president of the Collingwood Shipbuilding company, limited. He left Collingwood when a young man and soon became a prominent lake captain. His last active sailing was as captain of the steamer Japan. Later he became commodore of the Anchor line fleet, Buffalo, and some years later he located at Duluth, where he became a contractor in unloading and storing all materials for construction of the Northern Pacific railroad, which was being built along the coast. He then patented the whaleback ship and built a large shipyard at Superior, and built and managed a great fleet of ships. Previous to the merger of vessels and shipyards he was the leading shipbuilder and shipowner on the great lakes. He sold out to the merger companies and then having some spare time, he visited Collingwood and started the shipyard there, at his old home town. Besides this enterprise, he is a prominent man and director in many large and flourishing enterprises. He is an authority in the United States on waterway improvements and features concerning inland lakes and river navigation. He is highly respected and well known for his sterling honesty, energy and broad-minded ability. Mr. McDougall is a very wealthy man, being worth several million dollars, and his active interest in the Kingston shipbuilding company will be of considerable value to the city.

Carnival at Palace Rink.

On Wednesday evening a successful carnival was held at the Palace rink, and drew a large crowd. The rink was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and colored lights, and presented a very pretty scene when five hundred skaters were in motion, to the music furnished by the 14th band. There were about 300 skaters in costume, many new and original designs being used. After a hard time the judges awarded first lady's prize, a handsome silk umbrella, to Miss Phyllis Purvis, as "Queen of the Ice," and first gentleman's prize, a solid gold watch, to Joseph Foster, as "Cowboy." This carnival was every bit as successful as the last one, and the people greatly appreciated it.
