Amityville Man's First Wife Had Thirteen Offidren, While Second Has Had Fifteen.

New York, Feb. 24.-Oscar Darling, of Amityville, believes in a large family. That he lives up to such a belief was proved when little Darling o. 28 made its appearance this week at the architect's home.

The fact that there is such a new little Darling in the Darling house is the only fact that the happy father will allow to get to an interested pubhe. Whether it is a boy or a girl neither he nor the attending doctor will say. There has even been a rumor that it is twins. The present Mrs. Darling is Mrs. Darling No. 2. She has presented fifteen small darlings to her husband since she forsook the name of Cathetine Hamilton, when she was nineteen and Mr. Darling was forty-one. By his first wife Darling had thirteen children, and most of the twenty-eight are NOT a useless intoxicant, but a living. He is an architect, civil engiliquid food of a palatable and meer and the inventor of a system of water supply.
