

ECZEMA MUST YIELD TO THE WONDERFUL SOOTHING HEALING INFLUENCE OF DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

There is one thing you can depend on Dr. Chase's Ointment to do every time, and that is to cure eczema. There is no more severe test to which an ointment can be put, and because Dr. Chase's Ointment triumphed over eczema it has become the standard ointment.

When another ointment is praised it is said to be as good as Dr. Chase's. And this illustrates the high position held by this preparation.

Mrs. Oscar Vancott, St. Antonio, Sask., writes: "I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for eczema and other skin diseases. One son while nursing broke out with running, watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many salves were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail, would not eat and we thought we would lose him."

"Provisionally we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by this Ointment, and we hope more people will learn about it so that their poor little ones may be saved from suffering."

Do not be satisfied with the experience of others, but put Dr. Chase's Ointment to the test when occasion arises. Try it for chafing and irritation of the skin, for chapped and cracked hands, for chilblains and frost bites, for sores and burns. It is delightfully soothing and healing. 60c. a box, all dealers; or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

WAS A SURE METHOD RICH, HE PLAYS POOR, WINNING A GIRL'S LOVE.

Brazilian Gold and Diamond Miner Dissembles as a Greasy Mechanic and Woods. Pittsburgh, March 5.—Antonio R. Guinara, a wealthy Brazilian mine owner, took a unique and sure method of winning a bride for himself and a way in which he is satisfied that she took him for himself alone, and not for the privilege of sharing in his millions.

Three months ago Guinara was introduced to Miss Goldie at a church social, and it was a short time after the first meeting that Guinara commenced to ply his suit.

Miss Goldie returned his affection and loved him for himself alone. It was then that he asked her to become his wife and she accepted. Still Guinara kept his secret and the fact that he is extremely wealthy did not come to light until the engagement was announced.

LYNCHED IN COURT ROOM. Texas Mob Had Made Every Preparation. Dallas, Texas, March 5.—Spurred to vengeance by a series of brutal negro crimes, a white mob, on Thursday, took Allen Brooks, the negro who, a week ago, attacked a little white girl from the district criminal court room, where preliminaries for his trial were being argued, and lynched him.

ELUTION BEFORE JULY. Says Sir Edward Tennant, in New York, March 5.—Sir Edward Tennant, Bart, brother-in-law of the Right Hon. Herbert Asquith, the British premier, George Wyndham, and the late Sir Henry M. Stanley, arrived in New York, by the Royal Mail Steam Packet Tagus, he will sail for England in the Lusitania next Wednesday.

His Critic. What astonishes the visiting Briton most is the manner in which every kind of immigrant to the United States adapts himself to the prevailing ideas about Englishmen. In the course of conversation with the noble Italian who condescends to brighten show the visitor informed the boot-black that he was an Englishman—and Englishmen had a great respect for Italians and had entertained Garibaldi in grand style.

THE QUEEN'S Toronto, the Queen City of Canada, has much of the beautiful. It is found in the many handsome churches, artistic public buildings, imposing offices, public libraries, parks and gardens. Its government buildings are fine. Of hotels there are many; none, however, approaching the Queen's for perfect service, quiet comfort, and homelike surroundings, and the peculiar excellence of its cuisine.

EQUITY FIRE INSURANCE CO. A Satisfactory Year's Work—Annual Report.

With a reduction of working expenses and a substantial increase in the premium income, the company's twelfth annual statement to the shareholders shows laudable progress. Fire losses in 1909 were exceptionally moderate, the total amounting to only $86,315, against a gross premium income of $328,703, which, with interest earnings and payments on capital stock, makes a total gross income of $392,493. All adjusted losses had been paid by December 31st, and undistributed losses at that date represented only a trifling amount.

Glendower Notes. Glendower, March 4.—Edward Morey sold a horse to Wilbur Carroll and Sanford Leeman sold one to Edward Morry. Miss May Wilson is visiting at Desert Lake.

Good Prices for Hogs. Grand East, March 3.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Jane Amy took place from her home here on Thursday last. A young son at Leslie Skinner's, Hugh Saul has been out driving since his severe illness. H. Parrett loaded a car of hogs, Monday at $2 per cwt. Mr. Henderson and family are moving to the village, Dickson & S. n. merchants, will load two cars with potatoes this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Galbraith, Bethel, entertained some of their friends on evening recently. Peter Stover, Toronto, is around calling on friends.

Death of Hugh Cunningham. A gloom was cast over this community on Feb. 17, when it became known that Hugh Cunningham had passed away at his residence, a mile and a half north of Tamworth. Deceased was in his usual health up to two weeks previous to his death, after a few days, he developed pneumonia. He was about thirty-nine years old. About nine years ago he married Miss Cassie Murphy, Tamworth, who, with two small children, are left to mourn. He also leaves an aged mother and one sister, Mrs. James Fleming, of Rochester, N.Y., and three brothers, John, Daniel, and William, all of California, and William James of the homestead. The funeral, largely attended by a circle of relatives and friends, took place on Saturday morning, to the Roman Catholic church, Erinville, where a solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Carey. Remains were placed in the vault to await interment in the spring.

Blonde Widow Runs Gauntlet of Blaise Set. Boston, March 5.—The lady in the mermaid's dress has hit Boston and has shocked Boston's most ultra-blaise set. She arrived at a downtown cafe in company with a near-student, and she made the crowd gasp. After recovering from the shock, everybody stared at her. She was pretty, about thirty, and a decided blonde with peach complexion.

Budget From Bongard's. Bongard's, March 4.—On Monday evening an entertainment was held in the church under the auspices of the Sunday school to raise funds for a library. There was a large crowd present and an excellent programme was rendered. Refreshments were served. Special mention should be made of Miss Pyne, of Picton, and Miss Smith, of Fredericksburgh, who so ably assisted with the programme.

Vanished Mountains. Harper's Weekly. It has been observed that in the neighborhood of great ranges of mountains the force of gravity is slightly less elsewhere, and the explanation is that the earth's crust is less dense beneath the places where it has been heaved up. Assuming this to be a general law, one authority points out that it is possible to discover where ancient mountains now worn away and leveled by the action of the elements once existed, because the density of the underlying rocks has not changed. France, it is thought, possessed one of these vanished ranges, running along the parallel of Bordeaux, for on that line there is a lessening of the force of gravity. A similar phenomenon occurs on the plains of southern Russia.

The Bridal Wreath. The bridal wreath is usually formed of myrtle branches in Germany. It is made of orange blossoms in France as well as in the United States. In Italy and the French cantons of Switzerland it is of white roses. In Spain the flowers of which it is composed are red roses and pinks. In the islands of Greece vine leaves serve the purpose, and in Bohemia rosemary is employed. In German Switzerland a crown of artificial flowers takes the place of the wreath.

LEAF SHOWED COAL MINE. Fortunate Discovery Made on Vancouver Island.

Many a fortune has been made by some sudden "happy thought" or discovery. A fuller leaf was the first cause of a fortunate investment. The father of the Hon. James Dunsuir was a miner in Vancouver Island. One day he was wandering through the woods, when his eye was attracted by a pretty leaf shining in the sunlight. He stooped to pick it up when his hand uncovered a part of the ground and revealed a seam of coal. Mr. Dunsuir said nothing, but set to work to obtain capital to buy the land and exploit it. Fortune came to him swiftly, for the ground was a rich mine of coal. He built the only railway on Vancouver Island and died a millionaire. All through a leaf, in the first place!

A Comparison of Prices. Philadelphia Record. The Boston News Bureau has been making a little investigation of its own into retail prices on wages in its own city at three dates a decade apart. Its conclusion is that there was no material change in retail prices, 1900, but from that date to January, 1910, but from that date to January, 1910, there was an advance of twenty-five per cent. Wages, it concludes, are thirty-three per cent. higher than they were twenty years ago and twenty-four per cent. higher than ten years ago. According to this computation the ten years preceding 1900 were years of rising wages and stationary prices; the ten years since that date have been a period of rising wages and prices, the amount of increase in the two items being practically the same. In the event ten years there have been singularly great inequalities in prices, while an increase of prices due to a common cause, such as the increased supplies of gold, should be approximately uniform. The increase in hog products was eighty-three per cent.; beef, thirty-four per cent., and fish, twenty-eight per cent. Vegetables and dairy products are but little higher than ten years ago, but considerably higher than twenty years ago, and groceries have advanced twelve per cent. in a decade and decreased six per cent. in twenty years.

The Falling Appetite. Indianapolis Star. "We've got right smart ailing folks around here, or they say there are," said the hotelkeeper at Mitchell, Indiana. "Now, there's old Uncle Jim, ninety years old, if he's a day, and ready to die next minute. He went into the store the other day and the clerk said: 'How be ye to-day, Uncle Jim?'"

"Feelin' awful bad," said Uncle Jim. "My stomach's all gone. Can't eat nuthin'. Didn't sleep a wink last night for the misery of it. Nigh unto death, I am."

"He grunted around some more and then he saw a basket of turnips settin' there. 'Them's good turnips,' he said to the clerk. 'How much be they?'"

"Twenty cents a peck," says the clerk. "Well," says Uncle Jim, 'gimme half a peck on 'em, and he took them, and I'll be goshwinded if he didn't pull out his old jack knife and eat that hull half peck of raw turnips right then and there."

Battle Between Natural Forces. A boy died recently from blood poisoning in a wound which had only been inflicted a few days. It is terrible to read of cases like this when timely use of Zam-Buk is a known preventive of blood-poisoning.

The microscopic germs, which are able to cause blood-poisoning and death, cannot be seen by the human eye, but they are instantly killed by Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is prepared from purely natural herbs. In other words, it is a natural healing force. By applying Zam-Buk to a sore or other poisoned places you, therefore, pit nature's healing power against nature's destructive power. What better line of action could be taken? And just as surely as nature's beneficent power is greater than its destructive power, in most cases Zam-Buk wins. Try it on that old wound, that ulcer, that bad leg, or that eczema patch. Only fifty cents a box, all druggists and stores, but don't have any imitation!

Out of the Picture. Boston Herald. When the late E. H. Harriman completed that wonderful engineering and railroad feat known as the Salt Lake cut-off there was a celebration and Harriman took a large party of big railroad men out to it.

They had their pictures taken at the right spot accurately. Mr. Harriman stood at one end of the group. When the pictures were printed and the photographer brought them around the railroad men examined them.

"Why," shouted one of the guests, "where's Mr. Harriman?" "To you mean that little chap that stood at the end?" asked the photographer. "Why, I cut him off."

The Sane Course. Toronto News. Shaw, former secretary of the United States treasury, warns his countrymen that the unreasoning of the American fleet exposes the nation to foreign attack. In the light of such authoritative information the facility is apparent of Canadian dependence upon the Monroe doctrine. Canada's safety lies in a real and effective contribution to British sea power. Keep England mistress of the ocean, and the inviolability of Canada and the rest of the empire is assured.

An If-It. A hunter, as relates Mr. Roosevelt, who was well known for his happy way of looking at things and giving a humorous turn to any serious situation, was one day lost in the woods with a companion. As night came on they made camp, but although they were hungry they had shot no game and had nothing to eat. With a perfectly serious face this fellow looked at his companion and said: "If we only had some ham we'd have ham and eggs, if we only had some eggs!"

THE LAST RESORT. When all else failed, the Doctors said, "try Fruit-a-tives" And "Fruit-a-tives" cured Mrs. Cadieux.

"About March 1st 1909, I was taken deathly sick with Stomach Trouble, Backache and General Breakdown. I failed from 125 pounds down to 80 pounds, was confined to bed for eight weeks, and was unable to eat or keep anything on my stomach, vomiting nearly all the time. I expected to die, and took many remedies as well as employing different physicians. The doctors said they could do nothing for me and, as a last resort, one of the doctors told me "to try Fruit-a-tives—if they would not cure me, nothing would."

My husband bought "Fruit-a-tives" from Mr. Arthur Kolan, merchant of Plantagenet, and I started taking them at once, and inside of few days, I was able to leave my bed. My stomach got strong and I could eat and retain my food. I gained rapidly and soon had my usual good health back again, and today I weigh as much as ever, 125 pounds.

MDE. LAURENT CADIEUX. Even the doctors are recommending "Fruit-a-tives". They realize now that these wonderful fruit juice tablets will positively cure all Stomach Troubles, Indigestion and Dyspepsia—and they are using "Fruit-a-tives" in their practice. Few people realize the vital importance of keeping their blood pure. Impure blood is the chief cause of Stomach Trouble, because it is from their practice.
