Coughs, Colds Bronchitis

If there is an ailment in the throat or chest, it is surely essential that the remedy be conveyed direct to the affected part. It's because the healing vapor of Catarrhozone is breathed into the sore, irritated, throat and bronchial tubes, because its balsamic fumes kill the germs and destroy the cause of the trouble. These are the reasons why Catarrhozone never yet failed to cure a genuine case of Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis or Throat Trouble.

The wonderfully-soothing vapor of Catarrhozone instantly reaches the furthest recesses of the lungs, produces a healing, curative effect that is impossible with a tablet or liquid, which goes merely to the stomach, and fails entirely to help the throat or lungs.

To permanently cure your winter ills, your coughs, sneezing, and Catarrh, by all means use a tried and proven remedy like Catarrhozone. But beware of the substitutes and imitators. Look for CATARRHOZONE only.

THINGS THEATRICAL

NOTES ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS, AND PLAYHOUSES.

Crusade Against the Barefoot Dancers in New York—Nazimova to Appear in Rehearsal.

'Pinsford' was first produced in America at the Boston Museum, November 25th, 1878.

'Ben Hur' is 'due' in Toronto in a couple of weeks, and will be followed by 'The Merry Widow.'

'The Messrs. Shubert are to have a new theatre in Baltimore. The site is in the heart of the theatrical district.

'Votes for Women' was not a very successful play. It is now being poled down and the mob scene will be tried in vaudeville.

'The Mighty Dollar,' W. J. Florence's great play, was first seen on any stage September 26th, 1875, at the Park Theatre, New York.

Blanche Ring, starring in 'The Yankee Girl,' has issued instruction forbidding her chorus girls wearing jewels during the performance.

'Madame Sherry,' a light opera for which the tunefulness of Hugo Felix won a success in Paris and London some years ago, is to be seen in America.

Charles William Macready first appeared in America October 2nd, 1826, in New York City, as 'Virginius.' The opening night receipts were $1,500.

Bon-Gret and his players have begun a ten-weeks' engagement in New York at the Park Theatre, presenting 'Everyman,' 'She Stoops to Conquer,' and a number of other classics.

James Sheridan Knowles, actor and dramatist, made his American debut on July 29th, 1835, at the Park Theatre, New York, as Master Walter in his own play, 'The Hunchback.'

Digby Bell made his American debut on the stage in 1876 as a concert singer at Chickering Hall, New York. He was next seen in grand opera, playing the part of Beppo in 'Fra Diavolo.'

'The Girl From Rector's' is receiving an awful scoring from the press in the southern cities. One paper said it was 'Cheap, coarse, common, clapping, and merely and darkly tough.'

Maxine Elliott gave a special matinee of 'The Inferior Sex,' at Daly's, in New York, on Thursday, in order that her brother-in-law, Forbes Robertson, might see her performance.

Frothingham Circular: The Canadian critics always appreciate English born actors and this season Charles Frothingham has made every effort to send all his English stars on the Canadian tour.

Under the direction of the Civic Forum, the distinguished Ellen Terry will come to America next season for a lecture tour of ten weeks. She has chosen as her subject 'The Heroines of Shakespeare.'

Billy Carter, the old-time banjoist, is to be given a benefit in New York on March 7th. Carter is now 79 years of age. In his day he was a highly-salaried performer, as salaries were in those days.

Charles J. Ross, heading the cast of 'The Love Cure,' has strong views on the decency of stage productions, and three Chicago preachers asked him to speak from their pulpits on that theme.

He was too shy, however.

After three months' study of the language, Madame Maristella Ovi, the German Bernhardt, will essay an English-speaking part next Monday. Then she begins an American tour with 'Baccarat,' by Henry Bernstein.

'The Henrietta,' Bronson Howard's great play, in which Stuart Robson and William H. Crane scored their

The Real Thing.

New York Sun.

"I have always thought," said the old reporter, "that there was more voluntary charity in New York than is generally believed, and now I am convinced of it. I never wear an overcoat, and a week or more ago while a storm was rampaging around over Manhattan I wandered out into Park Row to meet a friend at three o'clock in the morning. I pulled my hat over my eyes and turned up my coat collar to keep out the snow and wind. My friend had been detained and I sought a temporary shelter under the lee of the Franklin statue. As I stood there I noticed a man hurry by and glances at me. To my surprise he wheeled suddenly and walking up to me handed out a nickel."

"You might need it," he said, and hurried away.

"I was too much surprised even to thank him."

Speaking of home remedies, the "witch" of our grandmothers was a pretty good remedy for quite a long list of juvenile disorders.

EAT LESS AND TALK MORE.

If Doesn't Lower Prices & Will Improve Digestion.

In the department of "The Pilgrim's Script" in the March American Magazine, the following letter is published: "I was interested in your article called 'Some dangers from High Prices.' It is true that simple food costs a lot of money today. I have just returned home from a family gathering where there were gathered together representatives from various States and cities. It seems to me that nothing was so marked in the family talk as the various reports on the cost of living. Butter, eggs and meat and other things have gone up and up everywhere. The small town is no better off (relatively) than the city. There is no use in telling the people to rush to the country. As the thing stands now there is no relief in that direction."

Anthony Comstock, the guardian of New York's theatrical morals, has commenced a crusade against the barefoot dancers now appearing in the New York vaudville theatres. Those who have come under his eagle eye are Lois Fuller, Ruth St. Denis and Maud Allan.

Next month New York will see Mme. Nazimova in a repertoire of plays, including three Ibsen dramas, "Little Eyolf," "Lady Inger of Od," "Cat" and "The Wild Duck"; "The Fairy Tale," by Smitzog; "An Ideal Wife," by Marco Praza, and "The Sea Gull," by Anton Tchekhoff.

Forbes Robertson, who is about to enter on his sixth consecutive month at Maxim Elliott's theatre, New York, success, had its first production on any stage at the Union Square Theatre, New York, September 25th, 1887.

George Ade, the famous author and humorist, says that "The Lottery Man" and "The Inferior Sex" are two of the funniest comedies that the stage has ever known. He considers them among the ten best plays of the current season.
