Mr. Troyer, of the Canadian College Mission, was introduced to the staff and pupils of Gananoque high school, yesterday afternoon, by the town council representative on the board, W. B. Carroll, K.C., and addressed them in the school assembly rooms, soliciting the co-operation of teachers and staff in the school mission work for equipping schools in heathen lands, five cents a month being the limit asked from any pupil. Miss L. E. Mulloy was elected treasurer of the fund, and a large number of pupils freely responded to the missionary's request. At St. Andrew's church, or Monday evening, Miss Jennie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dempster, Leeds township, was united in marriage to John Wright, son of Mrs. N Wright, Sydenham street. The cere mony was performed by Rev. Gracey. The bride was attended Wiss Hazel Wright, cousin of groom, while the latter's interests were attended to by W. Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left during the evening to spen I their honeymoon in Montreal.

DRY DOCK EXEMPTION.

Ratepayers Should Get Out and Vote The Sawyer Active preparations are now being made for the dry dock exemption votimp on Monday, the 21st, and it is the duty of every ratepayer to go to the polls that day and vote for the law. The measure is endorsed by the aty council, the board of trade and all the leading citizens of Kingston The city loses nothing by granting the exemption. The property is own d by the dominion govern nent, which does not pay taxes, and, therefore, has always beer exempt. As the dock is being leased ty a company it becomes liable taxation.
