Told in Twilight

Easter Tuesday was as gay with social functions as it was bright with sunshine and laden with the warm sweet breath of spring. Several hostesses chose it for entertaining at luncheon and tea and all afternoon, women and girls, in spring finery, were moving about the streets, from one gaiety to another.

That popular King street hostess, Mrs. Hugh Fraser, was at home at the tea four to about twenty of her friends, married ladies chiefly. Her daughters, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Montague Strange made tea and out the ice, Miss Madge Taylor and Miss Milford Jones dispensing refreshments. Among the guests were: Mrs. Clarke Hamilton, Mrs. John Mackenzie, Mrs. John Mackenzie, Mrs. Noel Kent, Mrs. Charles Gildersleeve, Mrs. James Gildersleeve, Mrs. Alexander Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, Mrs. John Mackie, Mrs. Edward Torrance, Mrs. H. E. Burdall, Mrs. Hiram, Mrs. H. H. Hobbie, Mrs. Carman, Mrs. Edward L. Fort, Miss Annie Muckleiton, Miss Macaulay and Miss Nan Skipton.

Up in the western corner of the city another very pleasant tea was being given by Mrs. John Fairlie, Brook street, at home. Miss Gina Fairlie, down from Toronto for the Easter holidays, was receiving with her mother and everyone had the pleasure of a little chat with her. In the tea room, which many golden daffodils brightened, the tea table, Miss Lillian Howat, and Miss Nina Ferguson dispensed tea and coffee, with Miss May Rose cutting ices. The girls assisting were Miss Anna and Miss Margaret Fairlie, Miss Alice King, Miss Marion Leslie, Miss Daisy Ferguson, Miss Kate Craig and Miss Winwood Mackenzie.

Miss Gladys Sweetman, youngest daughter of the late Archbishop of Toronto, was married, yesterday, at the Church of the Messiah, Toronto, to Rev. J. B. Fotheringham, M.A., of Trinity College. The Lord Bishop of Niagara officiated, Canon McNab and Rev. Mr. Cosgrave assisting. The bride wore ivory, matching with lace and pearls, the veil held by the orange blossoms her mother wore. Mrs. John Walton, her sister, was matron of honor, and she wore a lace gown with black picture hat; and carried pink roses. A pearl star was her gift from the groom. Mr. Jack Sweetman gave his sister away.

Mrs. Walter Macne gave a small luncheon at the Country Club, yesterday, with Mrs. Frank Botterell as guest of honor. The others present were Mrs. T. D. R. Henning, Mrs. James Cappon, Mrs. Carman and Miss Lily Norton-Taylor.

Yesterday, Mrs. G. Y. Chown, Barrie street, entertained at tea, with Miss Kathleen Wade, of Renfrew and Miss Margaret Maclellan, of Toronto, the most important guests, the others present being the schoolgirl set.

The school girls are having a gay week. On Monday Mrs. James Henderson, Gore street, gave a tea for Miss Milly Henderson's friends, Miss Mabel Henderson being guest of honor.

Miss Macaulay's luncheon, on Monday, for Mrs. Botterell was a very pleasant one, made particularly so by the presence of Mrs. Charles Abbott, of Stratford.

To-day, Mrs. Samuel Bailey, University avenue, is entertaining at tea, for her niece, Miss Ida Smith, and the schoolgirls home for the holidays.

To-morrow, Mrs. James Hendry, King street, will be hostess at a tea for the younger girls, with Miss Mabel Henderson as raison d'être.

To-morrow evening the Rev. Professor and Mrs. Jordan will entertain Queen's graduating class in divinity at dinner.

Mrs. W. G. Jordan, Barrie street.

HIGH-O-ME

That's the Way to Pronounce Hyomei, the Money-Back Catarrh Cure.

As doubt exists in the minds of many readers of the Whig let us say that the above is the proper pronunciation of America's most wonderful catarrh cure.

G. W. Mahood is the agent for Hyomei in Kingston and he will sell you an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and full instructions for use, for only $1.00.

And if it fails to cure acute or chronic catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, croup, hay fever or coughs and colds, he will give you your money back. The person who suffers from catarrh after such an offer as that, must like to snuff, spit and wheeze, and be generally disgusting.

Read what Mr. Higginbotham, a respected citizen of Guelph, Ont., says of Hyomei.

"I have the best kind of reason for giving Booth's Hyomei my hearty endorsement. I had suffered with an itching sensation in my throat, swelling of the nasal glands and glands leading to my eyes, in fact genuine catarrh, for several months. I used several remedies but received no relief until I used Booth's Hyomei. I am glad that there is on sale a remedy that relieves like this one and also glad to endorse the use and speak a good word for Booth's Hyomei." N. Higginbotham, 63 Queen St., Guelph, Ont.

MI-ONA Cures Dyspepsia.

Your money back if it don't. Gives immediate relief from heartburn, sour stomach, indigestion, flatulency and sick headache. 50 cents a large box at

YOUNG MAN KILLED

SAUNDERS H. FRAYNE MET HIS DEATH AT RIB LAKE.

Was About Nineteen Years of Age, and Had Been Engaged in Mining District—He Left Kingston Little Over Year Ago.

"Saunders H. Frayne was killed here. Notify relatives in Kingston." The above telegram, was received by Mayor Cooper, on Wednesday morning from Rib Lake, in Northern Ontario, sent via Toronto.

The news came as very sad news to Mrs. Emily Frayne, living at 244 Earl street, as it turned out to be her son, who was killed. Although she had not received a letter from him for some little time, he had written regularly, and the news came as a great shock to her.

Only meagre particulars have been received of the accident. It occurred about nine o'clock, on Tuesday evening, and it is believed that he was killed on the railway. Deceased was about nineteen years of age, and was engaged in the mining district. He left Kingston a year ago this winter.

After having deceased's mother located, Mayor Cooper telegraphed back, stating that relatives had been notified. It is not known as yet whether the remains will be brought to Kingston or not.

ACTOR LIES DYING

IN THE HOTEL DIEU OF HEART DISEASE.

Thomas Sinclair, of "The Climax" Company Stricken With Fatal Illness—His Mother Here From New York.

Thomas Sinclair, of "The Climax" company which appeared here last Friday and Saturday at the Grand Opera House, is very ill in Hotel Dieu, of heart disease. His physician, Dr. R. W. Garrett, has very little hope of his recovery. The actor's mother was telegraphed for yesterday, and she arrived this afternoon on the Cape Vincent steamer and was met at Foster's wharf by D. P. Branigan, manager of the Grand, who has been most attentive to the sick actor since he was taken to hospital after the performance by the company last Saturday night.

Mr. Sinclair is thirty five years of age, and a fine fellow. He asked the doctor this morning what chances he had and when told he begged to be given something that would at least keep him alive until his mother arrived to bid him farewell. Mr. Sinclair took the part of the doctor in "The Climax" and gave a faithful presentation of the role. He was far from well when he arrived with the company in Kingston last Friday afternoon, and was wholly unfit to appear on the stage that evening, and much less the next, but as the company had no understudy for his part, he acted through three performances in the two days, and on Saturday night collapsed, and had to be removed to the Hotel Dieu after the play. It was thought that he would be out in a week, but he grew worse.

This afternoon Dr. Garrett said that Mr. Sinclair might possibly recover, but would never be able to do any active work again.

Good News.
 At the request of many customers, Best's palm room has been opened for the season. This is a full month earlier than last year, but the present warm weather has rushed things. Regular patrons of this popular retreat will no doubt receive this news with a great deal of pleasure.
 G. H. Hunter, deputy sheriff, was busy to-day in the county serving summonses for the jurors and witnesses for the coming sitting of the High Court in April.
 As a rule, ministers and editors are cowards so far as just convictions are concerned.
 We are all more or less inclined to fetid estimation, so far as self is concerned.

St. Paul's Tea and Sale.

Was a Success on Tuesday Afternoon and Evening.

On Tuesday afternoon and evening a successful tea and sale was held by the Anglican Young People's association, of St. Paul's church. The spacious church hall was tastefully decorated and when the different booths were arranged, a very attractive scene was presented. A large number visited the hall during the afternoon, and the many home-made articles displayed for sale at the different counters were quickly bought up. The young ladies in charge of the tables were kept very busy.

In the evening the hall proved too small to accommodate the large crowd that gathered to hear the concert. Charles Bont was chairman and in his opening address made everyone feel perfectly at home. A fine programme of vocal and instrumental music was put on; the younger children taking a great interest in the affair.
