NATURE'S lines are graceful, smooth flowing, healthy lines—like the Venus Medici—not broken, injurious, and harsh as produced by the ordinary corset.

The resultant health you'll enjoy by wearing the "La Diva" Renaissance the resultant fine shapely physique are nature's smiles-of approval.

We looked the fashion centres of the world over in our quest for a perfect corset.

Our designers studied the styles at the Longchamps race-track Paris, in the tea rooms of London, Paris and New York, in the great dressmaking establishments of the Rue de la Paix. Then our ideas were developed on the human figure, and our "La Diva" Renaissance is the result.

It will give you figure all the "Chic" and "Svelte" appearance of the most fashionable French and American woman, and moreover by holding the body in shape without compressing unduly at any point, the "La Diva" Renaissance is more healthy for you than any other Corset.

MANY HEAVY FINES WILL OFFER REWARD COMPANY ORGANIZED

HAVE BEEN PAID THE COURT BY TIPPLERS.

The Trouble Experienced by Magistrate in Dealing With Cases of Men on "Prohibited List"—Men Nearly Always Want to Shield Person Who Served Them.

The way of the transgressor is hard, likewise the way of the man who has been placed on the "prohibited list," that is if he still endeavors to secure liquor. Kingston has quite a large number on its list, and quite a few of them are continually getting into trouble. During the past few years a large amount of money has been paid into the police court, by these unfortunate. However, the fine does not appear to be a cure, as the person who has been placed on the "prohibited list," that is if he still endeavors to secure liquor. Kingston has quite a large number on its list, and quite a few of them are continually getting into trouble. During the past few years a large amount of money has been paid into the police court, by these unfortunate. However, the fine does not appear to be a cure, as the person who has been placed on the "prohibited list," that is if he still endeavors to secure liquor.

The one great trouble that the court has to contend with in dealing with these cases is the securing of information from the accused as to where he secures his liquor. Naturally, he wants to shield the man who has given him his drink. If he does not, he knows that the next time he wishes to quench his thirst, there will be "nothing doing" for him there. And so he holds off. And for this same reason many a man has had to spend a week in jail, on remand, just because he will not tell the magistrate where he secured the liquor.

All sorts of stories are told the court, about where the liquor was secured, and the stories are ridiculous. The old story, about meeting a man on the street, who had a bottle, has been told so many times that the court has become tired of it. This kind of evidence will not do, especially when the names of parties cannot be given, and Kingston's magistrate has come out strong on this point, stating that a person must give the name of the person who gave him the liquor.

"A man I met on the street gave me a drink, out of a bottle. I do not know his name, he appeared to be a stranger."

How very, very often a story like this has been told the magistrate. It might go for a couple of cases, but after that there's nothing to it, and so there must be "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth," in regard to these liquor cases.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"The Girl Question" to be Discussed on Saturday.

Fresh and pretty, funny and tuneful, snappy and dashing, is the new music play, "The Girl Question," which H. H. Frazer presents at the Grand on Saturday, matinee and night. Like "The Place and the Girl," the book and lyrics for "The Girl Question" were written by Frank Adams and William Hough and the music by Joseph E. Howard. The jokes are witty and original, the situations funny, and though at moments there is a dramatic situation for a tenderly pathetic line, which generally seems incongruous, or bordering on the melodramatic in a musical comedy, they are introduced here with a tact and deftness which only heightens their enjoyment, as a contrast to the fun of a moment before. Another merit of the play is that it is clean. There is not a suggestive line or scene in the play, and if "The Girl Question" is a question of girls, its rating must be A-1, for no prettier, more youthful or merrier chorus was ever assembled. The show girls are regally beautiful, yet have no lack of animation, while the little broilers are childishly eager and happy in their delightful dances.

Accept British Postal Notes.

Beginning to-day British postal notes will be negotiable at the Kingston post-office, and it is presumed the same condition of affairs will prevail throughout all Canadian cities. Hitherto people here presenting these notes at the post-office were referred to any private bank they had an account with, and occasionally these banks refused to accept them, with the result that the notes had to be speedily returned to Britain, as they are only valid for one month. Face value will now be allowed for these postal notes at twenty of the leading post-offices of Canada.

Attend the Meeting.

The meeting of citizens called by the mayor for Monday evening to consider a celebration for Victoria day should be well attended. This is something that helps both city and merchants, and nothing adds so much interest to the affair or makes those in charge feel so good as a well attended first meeting.

IN AN ENDEAVOR TO TRACE FALSE FIRE ALARMS.

Every Effort Possible to be Put Forth to Catch the Guilty Ones—Sum of $50 to be Paid for Information.

A reward of $50, will be offered by the city, for information which will lead to the arrest of the person or persons, who have been guilty of sending in false alarms, to the fire department.

There have been so many false alarms sent into the firehouse of late that both Mayor Couper and Ald. Rigney, chairman of the fire and night committees, believe that it is high time that some steps were taken to find the guilty party, and the matter of offering a reward for information, has been taken, as the first step. The advertisement, offering the reward, and signed by Mayor Couper, appears in the Whig, of to-day's issue, and will hold good at any time. There is a heavy penalty of many years in the penitentiary, for such a crime, and it is to be hoped that some one will be secured regarding who has been the responsible person.

Tracing a false alarm is a very difficult matter, as the person who is doing the work always has it arranged to be near the box when no person is around, and of course runs away as soon as he has sent in the call. "If these false alarms keep up much longer," remarked a citizen to-day, "we will hold good at any time.
