Had a Fine Gathering.

The Boys' Brigade of Brock street Methodist church gave a most enjoyable concert in the lecture hall of the church last evening.

Miss F. Davis, Corp. Horton, Sergt. Bartlett, Private Hartwick, Mr. Jones and W. H. Atkins charmed the audience with their singing. A group of boys from the Y.M.C.A. gave some fine gymnastic exhibitions.

The Boys' Brigade gave a splendid drill exhibition.

H. Trener, Mrs. T. R. Carnovsky and Mrs. Jones played accompaniments on the piano.

There was a good attendance and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. Much credit is due Sergt. Atkins who has given his time to the training of the boys.

MADE A ROUND UP

EIGHT TRAMPS GATHERED IN BY POLICE.

They Went Around City Begging Money, and Telling "Fake" Stories About Having Been in Accidents—Had Liberal Supply of Cotton for Bandages and Also Liniments—Brought Before Magistrate.

The police made a round up of a band of vagrants who have been going around the city begging and selling court plaster, and telling "fake" stories about having met with an accident, in order to secure money. Eight men were placed under arrest. The round-up was made by Sergeant McCarry and Taylor.

For some time complaints have been made about men going around the city begging, but within the past few days the nuisance has been far greater. There are some able-bodied men in the line-up, and their game has been to go around the city, giving a hard-luck story about having been hurt in some accident, in order to get money, at the same time offering a package of court plaster for sale for the small sum of ten cents.

As far as can be learned the men have been working together and are a worthless lot, going about the city, securing what they can from the people, and meeting in the evening to divide the spoils. Much of the money collected has, so it is alleged, been spent in strong drink. It has been noticed by the police that the men who have been around to the houses for money, have had a very strong breath, giving every evidence that they had been touching up the whiskey.

Six of the eight arrested were taken near the outer bullethead, where they were in hiding in a car, having learned that the police were after them. One was found asleep in a yard on King street and the other was taken in charge while he was endeavoring to work up some business on one of the side streets.

When searched at the police station the men had enough court plaster to start up a corner drug store, and also an assortment of liniments of various kinds. The liniment was used by the men to rub on their arms to give the impression that they had injuries, and each of the police also had a big supply of cotton wool in making bandages.

It was an old, old game, but many were taken in on it, and as a result the men collected quite a bit of money, although they had very little in their possession when arrested. They spent it just as fast as they could get it.

The eight men were arraigned before the magistrate in the police court on Friday morning. Six were sent to jail, one remanded, and the other discharged, as it was shown that he had been working regularly, until just a few days ago, when he happened to fall from grace. They all had a story to tell, and after listening to each one, the magistrate dealt out the sentences.

Frank Murphy admitted the double charge of vagrancy and drunkenness registered against him. He got three weeks.

Martin Blake made the plea that he had a poisoned hand. He was given three weeks and if his story is true he will be given medical attention at the jail.

John Tompkins had the longest speech of the "bunch" and was also very saucy in court. Constable Taylor, who assisted in the arrests, stated that he had a great deal to say when he was taken in charge.

"I was not begging at all," he stated to the court, "and besides I have not had a drink in five years."

He explained that he was about to catch a train for Toronto to look for work when the law stepped in and took him to the police station.

"I was to go on a ship to-day, but there is no use of going now," he added, making believe he was very sorry.

Tompkins' address for the next month will be at the jail.

"I wasn't begging, sir. I was just selling court plaster," said Michael Sheridan. He explained that he had just walked into the city and was just going out again when the police detained him. However, he could not give a good account of himself, and was sent down for two weeks.

William Curry claimed to be a sailor and said that he had endeavored to get to Hamilton, to go on board the steamer Dundurn. His trip to Hamilton will be postponed for ten days.

John Rourke was going all the way to Napanee. He heard that he could get a job there. However he did not appear to be in any hurry to get the job as he tarried in Kingston quite a long time.

"I'll give you twenty days," said the magistrate to Rourke.

Joseph Laporte was remanded to jail to see if his story was true. He said he had a job on one of the boats and his captain will be asked about it.

Engaged an Editor.

The Resort Publishing Company, of Thousand Island Park, N.Y., of which Lloyd E. Brown is president, has engaged an editor on the St. Lawrence Bulletin, the coming season, Richard H. Barrett, of Rochester, N.Y.

Mr. Barrett has been on the city staff of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle for over four years and in addition has had good general newspaper experience.

The Bulletin, which is published summers only, in the interest of the Thousand Island resorts, is now in its eighth year and some pleasing innovations will be introduced this summer.

Concrete Walk Building.

The concrete walk being constructed around Tete de Pont barracks is nearly completed. It covers a distance of about 900 feet. After another piece of walk in that district has been laid the walk gang will construct the new walk to be put down on King street, along the city park. Walk construction is proceeding very early this year.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY.

Two Students Were Ordained by the Moderator at Evening Session.

The presbytery of Kingston met on Thursday in Chalmers church at two o'clock, with Dr. Macgillivray acting moderator. Sixteen ministers were present and six elders. At the request of the congregation, Rev. Mr. Glover was appointed to supply the Church of the Redeemer, Deseronto, for another year. From the committee for the examination of students, Prof. A. Laird reported very favorably of the eleven whose names have been already announced. They then severally gave in parts of their trial discourses to presbytery. These, with the report of the committee, were cordially approved, and the presbytery resolved to license them to preach the gospel, this to be done with the ordination of two, at the meeting in the evening.

There was a good attendance at the evening session of the presbytery, which was also held in Chalmers church, and at which the moderator, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, presided. Eleven students had completed their course, and offered themselves for a license, which was granted by the moderator. Two of the number were also ordained, William Stott, B.A., Sapperton, B.C., and J. A. McAuliffe, B.A., of West Highgate. The following were licensed: J. W. Johnson, Athens; R. H. Liggett, B.A., Garden Hill; A. M. Little, B.A., Kingston; J. M. Macgillivray, B.A., Picton; J. A. Shaver, B.A., B.D., Kingston; Alexander T. Rintoul, B.A., Balderston; C. C. Salsbery, Waterford; J. C. Robinson, Kingston.

The ordination prayer was offered by Rev. Robert Laird, Sr., and then followed two addresses, one from Rev. Mr. Laird and another from Rev. James R. Conn, of Napanee. The church choir was present, and rendered appropriate music for the service.

MANAGED TO SKIP OUT.

Couple of Vagrants Made Very Hurred Exit.

There was a couple of "knights of the road" who are wearing broad smiles, to-day, in some place some distance away from this city. In some way, they got wise to the fact, on Thursday, that the police were going to make a raid on all the vagrants in the city, and to use the words of their own vocabulary, they "beat it." However, they did have time to give the tip to their pals.

This afternoon, the six men sentenced by the magistrate, were marched to the jail, by Constable McCarry, Mullinger and Armiel, and they made quite a picture. They are a strong, able-bodied band of men and would be a valuable asset to the farmers in the west. If they had had a desire for work, it does seem rather a pity to see six men going to jail for vagrancy when work is so plentiful just now.

The Late George Huffman.

George Huffman passed away Wednesday evening at the residence of his son, William Huffman, Belleville. Deceased had been a resident of this city but a few months, and during that time had been in failing health. Mr. Huffman, who was in his eightieth year, was born at Fredericksburg, Ont. where he resided nearly all his life. He was a man who was highly respected by those who knew him. For many years he had been a member of the Methodist church. Mrs. Huffman preceded him to the tomb some years ago. Surviving are three sons and five daughters. The remains will be taken to Fredericksburg for interment.

District Artillery Officer.

Master Gunner Mulesky, of the Pacific Coast command, has been appointed to fill the position of district artillery officer for this district, a new office provided by the recent changes in the militia establishment. Several local men were after the position but Mr. Mulesky captured the prize. The new office is one of the oldest artillery officers in Canada and is married to a Miss Young of this city.

Workman Was Burned.

James O'Neil, John street, received some severe burns on his face and right arm, as the result of an explosion of gas, which occurred while he was at work in one of the pits at the gas works. The accident occurred about 5:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. He was removed to his home in a cab and Dr. Robert Hanley was called to dress the injuries.

Houses Under Erection.

At present, twenty-six new dwellings are under erection in different parts of the city, besides a large number of extensions to old buildings, and ranging in cost from $200 to $500. If labor conditions remain unique, a journey which Herbert B. year in building operations, one that will likely equal 1909, when the building record here was reached.
