WILL BE CONSIDERED

WAGE SCHEDULE AT THE LIGHT PLANT.

Matter was Taken up at the Regular Meeting and Referred to Manager and Chairman—Some Tenders for Supplies.

The regular meeting of the light, heat and power committee was held on Tuesday afternoon, in the offices of the general manager, at the light plant. The chairman, Ald. Elliott, was in the chair, and the other members present were Aids. Hart, Toye, Rigney and McCallum.

The manager presented a report on the gas main extensions, giving the names of the different streets where the work would be undertaken, the required number having been secured for that purpose.

The committee considered the request of the staff for the gas hold, but no decision was arrived at, the matter being left in the hands of the chairman and manager.

Shakes Hands With a Grit.

The Toronto Star, in its account of the Gordon Hall cornerstone ceremonies, says: "Just before the ceremonies began, big-hearted Michael Sullivan, the contractor, was called to the premier's side and introduced by W. J. Nickle, M.P.P., who, it is surmised, told the premier that he was about to put his hand into the custody of the biggest grit in Kingston, and at the same time the square of men. The two shook hands as heartily as if they were one in politics, possibly the sentiment was they were united as Canadians."
