IS THINNESS

EMBARRASSING Undoubtedly It is to Many a Maiden THROUGH THE DEATH and Youth-While Even Those Prescription Increases Weight.

Rounded Figures.

Well Along in Years Prefer Well

A scrawny, gangling youth or maid-The thin person is abnormal and he was suddenly stricken with apop | Withal none had led a more active lacks the power to absorb and retain lexy, and became unconscious after public life. For five years, 1876-1880 the flesh and fat elements which the being taken into the house. Doctors in lusive, he served as an alderman re-gastric Julees in the stomach and in-festines should extract or separate Garrett and Third were summoned presenting Frontenac word and when A recent accidental discovery has found the veteran journalist beyond est man who had filled the position. blended with certain other drugs, will human aid. The Dean of Ontario was 114 at foresix years on the public add from one to three pounds of flesh hurried in an auto car to the home of school board and was given the per week during treatment, while the his faithful parishioner and friend, and chairmanship twice. He served for of essence of pepsin and three ounces breathed his last, at 4.15 o clock. The ture board, for two years as chairounce compound essence cardiol; shake all present at the end. E. H. Pense, men's liberal club for seven years, and let stand two hours: then add the only son, arrived Sunday morning president of the Kingston Reform as-

INTITH the Underwood system the policy and book record are made at one operation? For writ-ing policies, the Underwood No. 3 is the perfect machine.

**** UNITED TYPEWRITER CO., LTD.

J. R. C. DOBBS, KINGSTON.

Causes Debility Here Are Facts Backed Up By a Strong Guarantee

Catarrh causes debility. In our opinion, most people suffering from general debility have entarrh. Such cases of debility cannot be completely cured by medicine not designed to eradicate catarrh. In every case where our remedy fails to give entire satisfaction we will not charge a cent for the medicine employed during the trial.

every disease that flesh is heir to. It King Edward, when prince, to King- first of the order in Canada; was life George's cathedral on Tuesday after- remotely promised to make for the in the death of Mr. Pense." is intended fot one purpose, i. e., to ston, in 1860. The bright sketch was covernor of the Kingston general hos- noon. cure catairh by assailing the diseased penned with rapidity, showing how pital and while chairman in 1892 and condition in a reasonable, scientific clear the writer felt as he recalled 18.33 promoted several new buildings way, which is to employ agents that that great event of half a century and general improvements; was presihave been found to have the tonic and ago. alterative power to correct faulty met. Mr. Pense was born in Kingston on tion in 1881 2, when the enjoyable ex- ward, in St. George's cathedral, on abolism (tissue change) and to samulate and help nature overcome the the Kingston Academy. He succeeded Pense Station was named in memory said : done, appetite increases, nutrition improves, weight is gained, comfort of body is attained and life's work taken up with the zest natural to 'the perfectly healthy individual.

We want you to try Rexall Muco-Tone. Follow directions and take it regularly and constantly for a ceasongole length of time. Then, if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us ly at our store,-The Rexall Store.

A rich, yet mild, brew, like REGAL Lager, is good for the nerves, heart and stomach. Your physician knows this, and will tell you that REGAL is a stimulant that cannot harm you. Try

GASOLINE, COAL OIL, LUBRICATING OIL FLOOR GIL, GREASE, ETC. PROMPT DELIVERY.

Toye's Building.

The steamer Normandy bound for are the only Rubber and Canvas politically. Toronto with pig-iron, was wrecked off Heels on the market. The Canvas When the next general election was the edast of Newfoundandd. Her pass does the trick; they won't slip .- All called Mr. Pense wanted to retire! In St. Paul's church on Sunday personal and in a business way. The aengers and crew were saved. Shoemen.

EDWARD J. B. PENSE.

The Passing Away of the Whig's Career.

and were soon in attendance, but cheeted mayor in 1881 was the youngreached his bedside shortly before he twenty years on the collegiate insti-Get in a haif pint bottl three ounces breathed his last, at 4:45 o'clock. The tute board, for two years as chair-(not cardamon). Shake well and take from Toronto, and Miss Emma, the ociation for five years and of St. a teaspoonful before and after meals, second daughter, at present of News learne's society, for many years; was drinking plenty of water between meals burg, N.Y., Sunday afternoon.

Shortly after Mr. Pense had passed for many active seasons, as well as away, the sad news was bulletined by of several other olubs; was the active the newspapers, and caused great sor spirit of the Kingston athletic associa-man, over eighty years, wrote for the !

Whig, the child of his journalistic genius, reminiscences of a most re-gentleman in his declining years that he had been one of those who saw in

John A. Macdonald, the young law-that statesmanship which later made him as premier a conspicuous figure in

It was under the guidance of such a his newspaper training. A love for le the national life of Canada.

A Born Journalist.

yer, in the forties, the evidences of

THE LATE EDWARD J. B. PENSE.

best papers in Canada, Its circulation W. F. Nickle.

-A Sketch of Mr. Pense's Active ambition and by a persistency of finally accepted the nomination. At dal cannot sully his character. purpose, made the Whig one of the the June election he was deleated by en is almost invaliably slighted, overluoked or ridiculed in any social gathering. There is something about a to Edward John Barker Pense, manfold; with every department of the He was one of the Old guard of the plump or well proportioned figure aging director of the British Whig business he was familiar. In editorial time when the liberals in Kingston love and adulation as well.

Publishing company, on Saturday as well as practical work, he was ex-People with a proper amount of afternoon. Mr. Pense, apparently in pert, and as a writer clear, terse and time when William Robinson was electwhile the thin are unblessed, unweiting good health, attended to his office vigorous. Every advantage he gained ed as member of the legislature as an other would I pause, but my come and frequently miserable for life, duties as usual on Saturday morning was the legitimate result of application, independent liberal, and when the li-The difference lies in the power of the and went home to lunch after one In some sense, therefore, he was a redigestive functions and the ability of o'clock. Shortly after half-past two presentative Canadian in the fourth one in t more than Mr. Robinson, for whom speak of the very sudden and sad as citizen or friend, as husband he fought valiantly. By his death death of Mr. Pense, for we always or father, or journalist or public serthe liberal party has lost one of its thought of him as one belonging to vant, his death is a distinct loss.

Whatever was good for the community ed to a party, no doubt; we must all extends its heartfelt sympathy spirited and broad-minded. Almost be represented his powerful party in lost husband and father; the Standsonal friend, the late Sir George A. seeking in his ambitions or blind to to-day, contains this editorial: for compared the Kingston lacrosse club loyalty to Kingston. No man did strove as far as he could to forget ties that had known him so long, and more by pen and voice to give les party, and be a representative of the the blow will fall heavily on family, native place a standing and a city, watchful of her interests, and city, province and nation, for out of row throughout the city. The people tion, was master of Minden Masonic ful if Kingston to-day would have had tion, the welfare of the city and the the soul and heart of a loving huswere shocked and at first refused to odge in 1878 and 1879; was warden its Grand Opera House but for him province, and this only, and in the band, a kind father, a clean public-After the old house was built, and disinterestedness of his motives, and spirited citien and a Canadian of organized a company, and built the had his reward.

him to do what he did. and yet found time to enter new moral and religious tone not com- gone in and out of the office of E. J. Churchman, a monthly church Ino human mind can estimate. journal, and last year he began the "From a life of manifold labor he we extend to the grief-stricken family of 'cures,' but without any benefit publication of a weekly church paper, was gradually releasing himself, hop- our sincerest sympathy in their sad whatever, until I tried Herpicide, Novcalled Church Life. Both these papers ing to enjoy the sweet fellowship bereavement and commend them for ember 16, 1899, I began using Kerhave been a success through his of his home and beautiful surround consolation to that source of com- picide, and in three months a fine and Ontario diocese and St. George's busy here and there with the embel-Whig roof.

Two years ago, Mr. Pense purchased "Mortonwood," the fine residence and grounds on King street west, from Lieut. Col. H. R. Smith, A.D.C., and changed its name to "On-gwa-na-da," will miss him most." the Indian word for "Home Sweet Home." This was the residence in which King Edward was to have The Whig, by request, publishes in the same

At St. George's Cathedral.

Pausing for some moments as dent of the Canadian Press associa-June 3rd, 1848, and was educated at cursion into Manitoba occurred and Sunday morning, the Dean of Ontario good Mr. Pense was for it. Being cause or causes of catarrh. This being in 1872 to the proprietorship of the was trustee of On | Before I leave this place I cannot made his mistakes, but greater by the members of the bereaved family Bitters. I took three bottles and became journal, which his grandfather, Ed tario see house, which he negotiated but take this opportunity of express far than any small mistake was the their sincere sympathy and carnest cured and I can now cat anything without ward John Barker, had founded in and renovated after several other at- ing our sense of loss, both as a vity superb good which he accomplished, prayers. 1834, and conducted for thirty-eight tempts at a scheme of purchase had and as a congregation, caused by the and the persistent work and the unyears. Dr. Barker was a man of failed. He had a leading part in sudden removal from our midst by tiring energy which he at all times One second hand parlor suit, 3-pieces marked individuality. He had his establishing the dairy and veterinary the hand of death, of our dear friend, directed to the advancement of the Walnut frams, Regular $65, for $20, at own opinions of passing events, and schools, of Kingston, as chairman of Edward John Barker Pense. His sum-leity-and this whether as alderman, R. J. Reid's. in the early political history of the committee; was part proprietor and mons came with a swiftness that as mayor or as the honored representation lake, Queen street, has Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont. country, especially during the period president of Carnovsky Wood Work makes it almost impossible to realize tative of the city for many years in returned from Madoc, where she spent when the seat of government was lo- ing company; was long president of that he is indeed taken from us. When the legislature; whether in journalism five weeks with her daughter. Mrs. and the money you paid for the treat cated in Kingston and when govern- the Kingston Infants' Home.

The SS. Normandy sank twenty ment will be returned without any ar- ments were made and re-made with He organized the home committee of night, cated in Kingston and when govern- the Kingston Infants' Home.

I heard his familiar voice, on Friday in which profession he was distinguish- (Rev.) R. Bamforth, ment will be returned without any ar- ments were made and re-made with He organized the home committee of night, cated in Kingston and when govern- the Kingston Infants' Home.

Sponges, from 25c. to 85 at Gib- miles south of St. John's early on startling rapidity, he made his mark, the Knaston Old Boys' association, that had befallen the empire by the out the country, having at one time son's Red Cross Brug Store, 'phone Saturday. All of the erew reached the Rexall Muco-Tone comes in two siz. He was a prolific writer, but he was and for the monarch who had no been president of the Canadian Press 230, es, 50c. and $1.00 a bottle. Sold on a particularly pointed one and dis- tie in welcoming nome the sons of more toyal subject than he, I little Association; whether as the moving cussed the issues of the day in terse the Limestone City living abroad, thought that in less than twenty-four spirit in many lines of clean sport in and caustic language. His vigor of Last summer he had the pleasure of hours I should be summoned to his which he always took a keen and style was only equalled by his vigor entertaining the homecomers to the bedside but a few minutes before he lively interest; whether as a director of intellect, and while yet an old number of a thousand at his beauti- drew his last breath. Indeed I was in various industrial enterprises; ful residence on King street west. just in the act of writing him a sum- whether as a leader in charitable or-Mr. Pense had a faculty of uniting mons to a committee on behalf of ganizations, or in church work; or those about him in public bodies in that mission cause in which he has whether as a plain, every-day citizen happiest thoughts to the venerable his retention for long periods in public his bedside. Others can speak of him how his and newspaper man in the quiet of his working barmony, which accounted for been so active, when I was called to las a citizen, whose public spirit was ly to benefit the community of which that, preparing as he was to retire Mr. Pense entered the political arena he was so honored a member, better in 1902, when he was elected by ac-than I, or of his love for his counlamation, at a bye-election, to suc- try which all who heard his enthueed Hon. William Harty as local siastic speech the other night tould end that he might enjoy a well-earnmember of the Ontario legislature. A never doubt. In this place I will general election followed in May and content myself with thanking God that man, closely identified with the poli- Mr. Pense was elected over Mayor J. in the midst of the numerous distical incidents of his time, and under Morgan Shaw by 136 votes. In Jans tractions of an exceptionally busy his inspiration that Mr. Pense began uary, 1905, he was again the Kheral life he never worgot the claims of the candidate for the Untario house, at Master or His service, a service which the work was hereditary. His father, the time the Ross government was he gave most ungrudgingly and zea-Michael Lorenzo Pense, was for some tottering, and by his strong personal- lously, the extent of which we shall enjoy it for only a few brief months time the publisher of the Argus, of ity he was elected by the small manonly realize now, that he is gone. The mysterious workings of Providence Kingston, and an attache of the Whig. jority of twenty votes, when nearly all Brethren, it is lives lived in the spirit his political friends and liberal stal. in which he lived that are most valuwarts in other constituencies went able possessions for this or any other under. He was unseated the following country, for it was the life of a Mr. Pense began as city reporter at October, on account of a couple of good man, lived with a deep sense the age of fifteen. He was a hard work- bribery charges being sustained, be, of his responsibility to God. Our Tribute at St. Paul's.

His Political Life.

cest was steady and substantial. He This election was regarded as the ter into the joy of his Lord.

Catspaw Rubber Heels a strong government and in a con- feetienate remembrance by a few of stituency that was equally divided the members of the congregation.

Only a few hours before his death! er, and if he could get a dozen ex- fore Justices Street and Teetzel, but deepest sympathy goes out to those paper which the Whig put out on changes to pore over his joy was com- in the following January he defeated near and dear to him who have been plete. At the age of twenty-three af- D. M. McIntyre in a bye-election by so suddenly stricken, but we know death of King Edward, and from his ter managing the paper for several thirty-five votes in a remarkable con- that even in their sorrow they will years, he purchased it for $7,500 en test, both parties signing an agree rejoice to feel that he was ready to be inscitational articles of which tirely upon credit, without a dollar of ment that a clean election would be obes the summons of his Master, and the spirit was on him, he was so careast was steady and substantial. He This election was regarded as the ter into the joy of his Lord. ed to make the paper what it is tosaw the necessity of new departures greatest tribute that Kingston could A cross of flowers bung between the day. It was and the paper underwent a complete pay to one of its sons, for Mr. bilars of the altar at celebration and truly done. day. It was a good work, well and > ure to the publisher of the Standard that it was given to him in the past year or more to come to know Mr. Pense intimately and well, both in a change. Its identity in journalism be ced more than a year before that he W. F. Fitzgerald, vicar, paid a grace papers must not have been slow to ame more marked, its opinions more would do so, but when the time of ful tribute to the memory of Mr. recognize that early misunderstandaggressive, its political influence more his election came there was no one to Pense. He stated that the decensed ings were swept aside, early unkind direct. As the exponent of liberal take his place, and, loyal to his party journalist was an honor to his politi- words forgotten and a splendid and OF principles it has always been credited as he had been for the previous thir eat party, and that he always cordial feeling of good will estabwith being largely instrumental in ty-six years, he stepped into the rejoiced to see men like Mr. Pense re- lished between the two newspapers educating the people so that parties breach, although he recognized that turned to parliament. Mr. Pense, the and their staffs, so that now the became more evenly balanced. Mr. the chances of his winning again vicar said, was a man of strict integ. Whig and the Standard have to say l'euse, in short, was a born journalist were very uncertain. "I couldn't de rity, concerning whom, as he lies in of each other nothing but kind words. Owner and Pilot Was Very Sudden and he, in the exercise of a reasonable sert my party," he said after he had death to day, even the voice of scan- and to the everlasting credit of him

Dr. Mackie's Appreciation.

St. Andrew's church. Rev. Dr. Mac to be at peace with his neighbors and kie, at the close of his discourse on to do unto others as he would be animal food; it has no effect on "Christian Mourning." made the fol- done by-he it was who, like the us all. We always regarded him as Kingston and the people of Kingston one of our most prominent and en- will miss him-but they will not for-Mr. Pense was always a leader in for every chance of advancing the after him. His work and his deeds live benevolent and patriotic movements, true interests of the city. He belong- To the bereaved family the Standard had his support. He was public do that if we think, and for a time shares in their sorrew. They have alone he raised a large amount of the provincial parliament, but I do ard has lost a friend, money to erect the fountain in front not think that anyone ever felt or of the court house to the memory of said that in political warfare he was lings but recently acquired, a well-earn-Mr. Pense was a leading churchman, ed, restful evening. But white he was tions.

Tribute From the Standard,

lodged when he visited Kingston in jadvance the following approximation from the Kingston Standard : R. Marshall, secretary of the King-Mr. Pense was twice married. In The sad news of the sudden death ston Old Roys' association, of Tor-1877 he wedded Miss Cornelia on Saturday of E. J., B. Pepse, pro- onto, writes the Whig, expressing the Vaughn, daughter of the late Ray G. prietor of the British Whig, will come sincerest sympathy of that association Vaught, and who died in February, as a distinct blow to Kingston and tion, of which Mr. Pensa was a warm 1897. He is survived by his second the people of Kingston. Few men supporter, and by the members of which civilized life. It is largely due to grow wife, formerly Miss Hamilton, daugh- were better known in Kingston than he was highly esteemed. The association and diet, over-esting, too free indulter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hamilton, he and no one was more respected. I on has appointed George B, McKay, gence in stimulants and over-taxing the Now, surely no one should hesitate to credit the announcement, for so many believe us or to put our claim to a had seen the Whig proprietor in the practical test under such conditions. Morning, and again saw him driving the for over thirty years and was frame, professional nurse, of Newburg, ever since remained, here given of the local branch of the stomach with indigestible food, eating too and lay delegate to the synod of On. Find the food sufficiently without chewing the food sufficiently in the carry of synod a long time and N.Y., and Misses Edith, Elsie and best that was in him for the city, its can lose anything by the transaction. office in the morning, Mr. Pense had prominent in church building and its interests. Mr. Pense had prominent in church building and its interests. Mr. Pense had prominent in church building and its interests. We make these statements and this discussed the death of his majesty the eccating parochial improvements; con. of Kingston, is a brother, and Mrs. was more than a good citizen; he was . J. McDonald Mowat received a teleoffer because we know and have time king, with his editorial staff, and by dacted negotiations which led to the W. D. Gordon, Montreal, a sister. In an all-round citizen, by which we gram from Hon. A. G. MacKay, leadand again proved that Rexall Mu o request had written the racy account settlement of the medical co-education their great bereavement, they have the mean a man who took an active, an er of the liberal opposition in the On-Tone rarely fails to do as we claim on the eighth page of Saturday's is diffaulties, and was president of the whole city. energetic and an enthusiastic interest tario legislature, which read: "Con-It is not a cure all prescribed to cure sue, of his recollections of the visit of Kingston Women's Medical college, the The funeral will take place from St. in everything that directly or even very to the family my sincere sympathy > generously and heartily loyal. It mattered not what shape the project ended his loyal tribute to King Ed- took nor in what direction it moved regret the sudden death of the late so only that it was for Kingston's E. J. B. Pense, who proved himself to buman, like the rest of mankind, he dearly fond and to which he was so

There is something tragic in it all, the field of journalism, a fearfully strenuous field at any time, to the to which he had just moved amid the shelter of the great trees which he loved so well and to the music of the waters of Lake Ontario as sthey there is something tragic in it all are indeed nest finding out. is many good men die in harness. Saturday on the occasion of the Pense was running in opposition to matins, placed there in grateful and, af-It is a matter of pride and of pleasfrom political life, as he had announ- morning, just before the sermon. Rev. result of this the renders of both who now lies dead let it here be said that largely to him was this due, for At the Sunday evening service in to help a fellow journalist, his wish Christian gentleman he was, led the bread, etc. "Here would I pause, but my heart way to this happy understanding would go further on. I think I am led the way that we should appreciate

Canadian Freeman's Tribute.

Kirkpatrick, ex-lieutenant-governor of the claims and excellencies of the op- "Mr. Pense was active to the last, money back. Ontario, Everybody recognized his posite party. When in power he and fell in the nedst of those activiwhen things looked much against a the righteousness of his efforts, and the highest and noblest type. Per CURES CATARRH, ASTHMA re-erection, Mr. Pense came forward, in the esteem of the community he sonally, the blow strikes hard. We city a playhouse that is a credit to Moreover, if we think of him as the grown up in the sunshine of his it. It was his optimism that enabled proprietor and editor of the British great big generous nature. From a Whig all these years, we cannot but boy apprentice in his office to that Only those intimately associated feel ourselves under lasting obliga advanced stage of manhood, where with him know what a tremendous tions to him when we think what the silver streaks of age are now beworker he was. He was ever busy, might have been-clean paper, high ginning to crown the years, we have fields, of labor. Because of his stren- mon in newspaper columns and the B. Pease, and have had almost daily nous work, he lies dead at the early constant consistent advocacy of all contact with him in a hundred ways, age of scarcely sixty-two, for he was thought and purpose that had an up- and now that his chair is vacant in is caused by a germ. Kill the germ cut off at a time when he was as lifting, elevating influence on human his lonely office, and the place that and it is almost certain that hair active and vigorous as he was twenty life and progress to perfection. The knew him so long will know him no willgrow again, if the follicle has not years ago. During the past few years full value of such an influence, work, more, none will miss him more! than been totally destroyed. Nels Peterson he became editor and publisher of the ing through the press of the proprietor of the Freeman, and in of line Spur, Mont., says "I had been the name of the paper and its readers bald six years, and had tried all kinds

"Mr. Pense was one of the best and picide. Everybody can have luxuriant, cathedral have lost a man who was lishments of his grounds he was gone, ablest journalists in Canada-a man of glossy hair, if Herpicide is used thoran energetic Christian worker and a and Kingston lost one of her most great and varied abilities, of keen oughly. Take no substitute, devout worshipper. He was a man of useful and honorable sons, a loss sympathies broad and generous in all Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. kindly sympathy, and beloved by all of which the whole city, irrespective friendship was worth cultivating. Nar-cide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar plexion, is deeply conscious, and so rowness and bigotry found no place bottles guaranteed. G. W. Mahood, turns, its heart full of sympathy, to in his manly nature, and maker was special agent. wards that darkened home where foreign to his whole being. He was those who knew him best and loved large enough for stupendous things, him for what he was, mourn and and humble and child-like enough to will miss him most." be touched by the needs of a babe on the demands of the weakest dumb creature.

Expressions of Sympathy.

good of Kingston, of which he was so Adjutant Smith, of the local corps + Can Eat + N.B., writes: "I have of the Salvation Army, writes as fol- | 7

lows to the Whig: The Salvationists of the city deeply be a sincere and practical friend of the army for many years, and extend to

Many in Kingston are Being Thoroughly Purified by Miona, the Guaranteed Cure for Indiges-

People of Kingston who suffer from dyspepsia and other stomach troubles are getting tired of taking preparations he it was who by his large-minded-containing pepsin, because pepsin ness, his tact, his ready willingness simply digests the food artificially. Pepsin relieves, it never cures.

starchy food, such as potatoes, rice, Mi-o-na cleanses and purifies the walls, so that they properly mix the food with the natural digestive juices of the stomach. Mi-o-na tablets quickly arouse the tomach from its inaction, and in a few days it is able to do its work easily and without exertion. There will be no more sour stomach, fermentation of food, dizziness, sick hendache, belching of gas, or foul breath.

Mr.o-na only costs 50 cents a large box, and is guaranteed by G. W. Matood to cure dyspepsia, sea or car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy, and of his old political foe but his per- ever dishonorable in his tactics, self- The Canadian Freeman, in its issue stomach sickness resulting from overindulgence of the night before, or Bronchitis, Croup, Coughs and Colds, or money back. Sold and guaranteed by

WAS BALD SIX YEARS.

Three Months of the New Scientific Treatment Restored His Hair,

Bladness is caused by dandruff, which fort that never fails in such condi-I growth of hair covered my bead completely." Ask your druggist for Her-

MISERABLE.

Burdock Blood Bitters has an establish ed reputation, extending over thirty-four years, as a positive cure for dyspepsia in all its forms, and from all diseases arising give such relief in number of years with dyspepsia and could get no relief until I tried Burdock Blood it hurting me. I will highly recommend

For sale by all dealers. Meanractured onl ! by The T. Milbum shore safely in the steamer's boats,

The Royal

For comfort combined with style and beauty. a shoe that has won the hearts of thousands of men and women all over the world.

Made in Blutcher, Button or Straight Lace. All the popular leathers If you want the most satisfactory shoe on earth try a

ROYAL

SOLD ONLY BY

And yet he died as we believe per-haps be should have liked to die, and REID & CHARLES

Fresh Strawberries

Every Day This Week LARGE QUART BOXES

302 King St