Nature intended you to have graceful, smooth and flowing lines—these are the lines of our new "La Diva" Renaissance corset gives you.

The resultant health you'll enjoy by wearing the "La Diva" Renaissance corset gives you. The resultant health you'll enjoy by wearing the "La Diva" Renaissance corset gives you.

We looked the fashion centres of the world over in our quest for a perfect corset. Our designers studied the styles at the Longchamps race-track Paris, in the tea rooms of London, Paris and New York, in the great dressmaking establishments of the Rue de la Paix. Then our ideas were developed on the human figure, and our "La Diva" Renaissance is the result.

It will give your figure all the "Chic" and "Svelte" appearance of the most fashionable French and American woman, and moreover by holding the body in shape without compressing unduly at any point, the "La Diva" Renaissance is more healthy for you than any other Corset.

La Diva Corset

We're anxious to see how Canadian women will appreciate our endeavor to obtain for them a really wonderful corset. For that reason we have made the price of "La Diva" only $2.50—it's a $3.50 corset.

Write today for our Corset Booklet. We send it FREE. This booklet will tell you just what style of corset is adapted to YOUR physique in order to retain health and give shapeliness.

CHANGE IN A BANK

PUBLIC MOURNING FOR THE KING IN NAPANEE.

A Former Teacher is Back Renewing Acquaintances — Returning to Their Several Homes.

Napanee, May 13.—W. A. Wilson, of Govan, Sask., who came home to attend the funeral of his father, the late Henry Wilson, left, yesterday, for his home in the west. Since the news of the king's death was received last Friday night, the flags on the public buildings have been at half-mast, and the post office is draped in black and royal purple in respect for his majesty.

T. A. Gale, teller in the Dominion Bank, has been removed to the head office at Toronto and leaves on Sunday to assume his new position. Mr. Gale has made many friends in Napanee during his stay here. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris and two children, Toronto, spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Norris, Belleville Road, F. S. Selwood, Calgary, at one time on the Collegiate Institute staff, here, spent a few days this week renewing acquaintances.

Aubrey Pringle is spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Pringle, J. E. Robinson is spending a few days in Syracuse, visiting friends. Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Dorothy, have spent the past two weeks with her mother. She will return with Mr. Robinson next week. Mrs. J. M. Lapum and daughter, Edith, Soranton, Pa., who have been visiting Mrs. Lapum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Rockwell leave next week for their home.

Enjoying Maiden has a fine new auto, and is enjoying spins about town and country. Mrs. Norman Hagie arrived home last week after a nine months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. D. J. Wilson, in Vancouver, B.C. Miss Constance Grange is visiting her brother, E. W. Grange, in Ottawa.

Stanhope Anderson, has entered the employ of the Dominion Bank, Miss Florence Fraser left, yesterday, for New York, after spending the past few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fraser, Bridge street. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Caton moved to their farm this week for the summer months.

HEROINE OF CRIME. She Has Now Attained Her Ninetieth Year.

MISS FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. London, May 13.—A steady line of messengers called at a little house near Park Lane, on Thursday to leave messages of congratulations and great boxes of flowers for Miss Florence Nightingale, whose ninetieth birthday it was. For more than fifty years, Miss Nightingale has never been able to come outside her dwelling, and of late she has been confined to her bed most of the time. Though her body is weak her mind is still alert and active. She expressed her thanks for the countless good wishes sent her from far and near and appeared especially pleased at the felicitous messages.

King George sent a congratulatory message to Miss Nightingale, whose friends had not told her of King Edward's death, fearing the shock of the intelligence. King George's message was, therefore, read aloud to her as coming from "the king."

Died on Thursday.

On Thursday, at noon, Mrs. Perry, widow of the late Henry Perry, Napanee, died at her home on Queen street, after but two days' illness. On Wednesday she was threatened with pneumonia, a nurse was secured and on Thursday noon she suddenly expired. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late W. H. Clark, postmaster of Clark's Mills, Lennox county, and was a quiet, devoted and gifted Christian lady. She and her sister, Mrs. Davidson McDonald, widow of a Methodist Japanese missionary, who died suddenly in Toronto some years ago, had been living together here and the grief of the sister is very great. They were devotedly attached to each other. Mrs. Perry had lived for years with Mr. McDonald in Japan. The deceased was a member of Queen Street Methodist church. She is survived by her sister here and a brother, Dr. W. H. Clark, of San Francisco. The remains will be taken to Napanee on Saturday morning for interment. The late Mrs. Perry was a niece of Mrs. Sydney Warner, Napanee.
