FOR VICTORIA DAY THE DAY'S EPISODES MADE HIM CHIEF INSPECTED CADETS

BIG MILITARY PARADE IN THE MORNING.

Motor Boat Races, Baseball Matches, Horse Races, Military Sports and Band Concerts on the Programme.

The finance committee of the Victoria Day celebration had a meeting in the council chamber, Monday morning to decide upon final arrangements for the celebration. The main topic was the military parade, and every gram was received from militia headquarters in Ottawa that there was no objection to the troops taking part in the parade in the morning, so the R. C. H. A., R. M. C. cadets, Watertown National Guard and the Macdonald Cadets of Gananoque will be in line.

The parade will be formed up at the front barracks leaving there at 10.30 o'clock, going to King street, to Barrie street, to Princess street, back to the barracks, where it will be disbanded. This parade, as in years past will be the big drawing card and all the units should put up a fine appearance.

The motor boat races, will be held off the yacht club also in the morning and the Victoria juniors and Regiopols will play an exhibition baseball game in the cricket field.

In the afternoon, commencing at 1.30 o'clock will be the horse races, the baseball match between Victorias and Irlights. These events should all draw well. Three bands will be in attendance in the afternoon.

In the evening there will be a band concert in Macdonald park. This programme is a fine one and should draw large crowds.

Dance City hall, 9 p.m.

This morning, Lieut.-Col. Hemming received a telegram from the militia department saying that the Watertown soldiers were to be accorded permission to land at Kingston armed and uniformed.

ELEVENTH HOUR PERMISSION Is Given for a Military Review on Tuesday.

The Victoria Day celebration committee has been in a quandary for the past few days regarding the military parade and review on Tuesday. Lieut.-Col. Hemming had asked the militia department a week ago as to whether it would sanction a review on Victoria Day, in view of the close proximity of the day of the funeral of the late king. The celebration committee had been told ten days ago by officials at Ottawa to go ahead with its preparations for the celebration, and that the necessary authority would be given later. On Saturday it seemed uncertain if the Kingston troops would be allowed to turn out. This would have been a great misfortune, when American troops were coming over to do honor to the memory of Victoria.

On Saturday Hon. William Hart, M.P. was seen by members of the committee, and he immediately got the wires busy between here and Ottawa and this morning Lieut.-Col. Hemming received a telegram from the Eastern Ontario Command at Ottawa saying that there was no objection to the parade being held in Kingston on Victoria Day. The news was decidedly welcome and the celebration is thankful to Mr. Hart for what he did in stirring up some people at the capital. The blame for the eleventh-hour authority is placed on the Eastern Ontario Command office at Ottawa which might have secured the permission days ago and prevented much uneasiness.

Col. Hemming immediately notified Lieut.-Col. Burstall, who commands the R.C.H.A., and Lieut.-Col. Cunningham, of the 14th regiment, and said that they had his authority to parade on Tuesday if they wished. Col. Burstall stated that the artillery would certainly take part in the review. He will be in command of the troops participating, as Lieut.-Col. Hemming has gone to Peterboro on inspection duty. The Royal Military College was also notified from Ottawa that the cadets might take part in the review if the commandant desired to turn them out.

Through the confession in Lisbon of an anarchist named Ramirez one of the conspirators in the assassination, in February, 1908, of King Carlos and Crown Prince Louis of Portugal, the identity of 1,146 other conspirators in this crime has been revealed. To-day's confession shows plot was even more widespread than the police supposed and that sixteen prominent politicians several of whom are still active in government affairs, were involved.

SIR JOHN FRENCH VIEWED THEM ON THE CAMPUS.

The School Cadets Paraded Three Thousand Strong—Sir John Will Not Appear in Social Functions.

Toronto, May 23.—Sir John French, inspector-general of his majesty's forces, arrived in Toronto, this morning, and at eleven o'clock inspected the cadets of the public schools on the campus of Toronto University. The cadets paraded 3,000 strong. They formed up in front of the parliament buildings and marched from there to University campus. Owing to the empire being in mourning, officially, in consequence of the death of Edward VII, Sir John French will take no part in social functions while in the city. However, he will unveil the South African monument in Queen's avenue to-morrow.

General French, speaking to the boys after the parade, made a brief allusion to the death of the king, using his reference chiefly to point out the extent of the empire which mourns the loss of the king. He reminded the boys that upon them depended the future and safety of that empire. In an interview with the newspaper men afterwards, General French was clearly ill at ease. He confessed that he was bashful about interviews. He quite emphatically and quite frankly stated that the parade and evolution he had witnessed to-day were surprising to him and he became quite enthusiastic in speaking of it. "It was, he said, 'a spectacle I should have liked everybody in Britain to witness.'"

Robson did not elect or plead and was remanded for a week, bail being allowed at $1,000.

The hearing of a charge against the manager of a telegraph company for transmitting information to assist in betting on a horse race was adjourned in the police court, this morning, until the 25th. This is the first case of its kind under the recently passed anti-gambling bill.
