The household of Thomas Friend, of Wolfe Island, was sorrowed on Saturday evening by the drowning of his little son, Leonard T., aged four years. She ran to the shore and pulled him out and called loudly for aid.

Interred in Middleton Plot. The remains of the late Lewis Middleton arrived from New York, via Montreal, on the Grand Trunk International Limited, and were conveyed from the G.T.R. outer station to the C. & N.W. cemetery, where they were interred in the family plot. The funeral party was met at the station by local relatives and a few old Kingston friends. All the members of the family were present at the burial: Mrs. John Henderson and Miss Kate Middleton, Kingston; John Middleton, St. Louis; Arthur Middleton, New York; Henry Middleton, Chicago; Mrs. (Dr.) Robertson, Ottawa, and Miss Mary Middleton, Toronto. The burial service was conducted by Rev. Dr. MacGillivray. A few of the many floral tributes were brought to Kingston.

A New Club Formed. A new club, just formed, in Ottawa, will be of interest to Kingstonsians, many Queen's graduates being members. It is called "The University Women's Club." One of the initial meetings was held Saturday. Miss Derrick, of McGill University, was the speaker. A reception was held to which all members were invited. Any women graduates, or undergraduates of Queen's, or any other Canadian or American university of two years' standing, living in Ottawa, are asked to join. Amongst those living in Ottawa who have joined, are: Mrs. Adam Shortt, Miss Muriel Shortt, Mrs. Bernard Brock, Mrs. Walter Boyd, Mrs. Arthur Matheson, Mrs. Laidlaw (nee Miss Macdonnell), and Miss Elsie Saunders.

The Comet Was Viewed. A splendid view of Halley's comet was obtained on Saturday evening. The big star with its long searchlight-like tail appeared at dark, and as the sky was perfectly clear it was viewed by the whole city. Thousands on Princess street gazed upwards to see the phenomenon, but their view was not as good as that secured by those away from the glare of the street electric lights. Few people surely can now say that they have not seen the comet. It was visible to anyone with half an eye, though it was not the grand sight the astronomers prophesied it would be.

First of the Season. The steamer "Vigilant" made her first trip at the season today among the Thousand Islands Sunday, having on board quite a number of passengers from Rochester and Kingston. The weather was fine and the trip was much enjoyed. The company's boats will be making the trip every Saturday from now on.

The members of the regiment were given places on the left of the cathedral, the officers, including Col. Henry Smith, A.D.C., being in the front seats. The singing of the vast congregation, reinforced by the voices of the cadets, who like the martial hymns, was inspiring. Alfred Harvey, one of the trebles, sang the solos in Te Deum and Jubilate, and Capt. Arthur Craig sang at the offertory, "O, Canada," his full and rounded voice ringing well the music. He and Lieut. P. G. Campbell, both in regimentals, took their places with the white-robed choir. The offertory was taken up by Maj. W. H. Macnes, Capt. W. S. Hughes, Capt. H. Dawson, Capt. S. H. Simpson, with, as usual, a batteryman and a cadet taking up the alms in their respective galleries. The Dean of Ontario sang matins and the preacher was the garrison chaplain, Maj. Rev. Canon Starr.

His text was "In the name of God we will set up our banners," from the Bible version of the Psalms. The preacher reminded the regiment before the beginning of the night, when on parade, the news had come of the king's death, and they had returned to the armouries, with silenced drums and bugles, stunned by the sense of an almost personal loss. He hoped all had come to the service with a greater sense of loyalty and responsibility than ever before, realizing that the integrity of the throne is the keystone on which the empire and the constitution rest. In that spirit they must lift up their banner, with its three crosses, the cross of St. Patrick, St. George and St. Andrew, the banner whose blue field is blue of boundless hope, whose crimson tipples the outpoured blood of heroes, whose white stands for that which can make our men's strength as the strength of ten because their heart is pure.

Canon Starr then asked them to stand for three great principles, discipline, right-thinking, religion. The success of an army depends not on numbers but on discipline in all ranks. An old soldier had said there were three essentials in the making of a soldier. The first was discipline, the second discipline, and the third discipline. "A disciplined man will use his discipline in the wisest way, therefore discipline yourselves." The king's uniform calls for responsibility, punctuality, alertness, endurance. Right deep, thought is also needed in our land. Loose, slovenly thinking is one of its greatest evils. Religion must be above all else, and it is to be maintained. There are men who think religion good enough for old women and children. It is the fool that hath said in his heart "There is no God." "The king that is gone, the king that reigns have bowed down before the Sovereign God. I appeal to you, then, at this national hour, to stand for discipline, for right thinking, for religion, and then when 'lights out' sounds, when the echo of the three last 'G's' is past, and when comrades wrap you in the flag, and you lie down to rest, you may say as the king said 'I have done my bit, I have striven to set up the banner of the name of my Captain, and the King of Kings will welcome you with His own 'Well done.'"

After service the 14th formed outside the cathedral and proceeded on the short route march, along King street to Earl, to Clergy, down Princess to Montreal, and thence to the armouries. Before dismissing the regiment Lieut. Col. Cunningham presented three long service medals, the recipients being Sergeant George Fratchett and Sergeant Alexander Watson, of No. 3 company, and Private Robert Payne, of No. 6 company.

A Grand Sight. A Kingstonian living in Rochester writes of quite a unique event in that beautiful Garden City, Sunday, the 22nd inst., was observed as "Lilac Sunday," at Highland Park, and there were thirty-five different species of lilac trees to be seen. There were fifteen thousand people present and a band of music, numbering fifty instruments, played all the time, both classical and popular airs. The writer also goes on to speak of the magnificence of the rhododendrons and magnolias, indeed all the shrubs are almost beyond description.

The Locos were expected to take the game. While the Irishmen have a strong team and deserve all kinds of credit for the way the few have stayed together and entered a team every year in the league just to keep the game going, still the team this year is not as strong as usual, and not quite as strong as the other two. Immediately the fight for the silverware will be between the Vics. and Locos with honors about even. "Bill" Kennedy's "boiler" platers came up strong and at the end of the winning it was 4 runs to nil in their favor. Then the Irishmen took a brace and pulled up well, the game going along till the sixth innings without any more runs being tallied, then the Locos landed one or two, Williams getting around first, and for a few moments it appeared interesting, but the Locos pulled out ahead. In spots the game was good, snappy, and kept the fans on their toes. Col. Hunter growing so excited that he forgot his peanuts.

Turootte, who threw a very good game for the losers, did not receive the support he was entitled to, a few glaring errors being made behind him. This player also proved himself a fine pinch hitter. The teams:

Sporting Notes. Langford's next big bout will be with Kaufman on June 11th at San Francisco.

The bad weather this spring seems to have affected nearly all the big pitching stars. "Montana Dan" Sullivan has signed to meet in Oakland, Cal., on June 23rd.

Jan Hogue and Jewey Smith will fight for the heavyweight championship of England next month.

Clayton King, the Berlin westerling, who has been fighting around New York all winter, is back home with a record of only three defeats in sixty-eight battles, a cauliflower ear and a damaged eye.

Jeffries, like Sharkey, and other fighters, believes there is lots of exercise to be had in swimming, but Johnson shuns the surf so though it were poison. Johnson is willing to take his plunge in a bath tub every morning. He says that swimming has a weakening effect upon the body.

Battling Nelson's latest word is that he is not going to fight Ad. Wolgast until late in the summer. Pat has gone to his ranch in New Mexico and says he will meet "Tommy" Ryan on the coast in July.

Stanley Ketchell, of Michigan, the middleweight champion, knocked out Willie Lewis, of New York, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout at the National Sporting Club, New York. Lewis, who was the Parisian idol some months ago, is a welter-weight and was fully ten pounds lighter than Ketchell.

Entertained for Visitors. Mrs. Leighton Gilbert, Belleville, Mrs. Duke Roberts, Winnipeg, and Miss Kate Curtis, Port Hope, are guests of Mrs. Joseph Hiscock, Wellington street. Saturday afternoon Miss Hiscock entertained at a small tea in honor of her visitors.

Charles E. Adair, aged twenty-six years, son of Charles F. Adair, of Cataraqui, met death as a result of being run over by a train some time during Saturday night. Just how the accident occurred no person appears to know, and it is likely that it will ever remain a mystery. Whether he was riding on a train or whether he was struck while walking along the track is not known.

About six o'clock on Sunday morning the dead body of the young man was found lying on the rails on the Grand Trunk tracks, about one hundred yards west of the division street crossing. The body was found by the crew of a freight train coming from the west. The engineer noticed the body and was unable to slacken up in time to prevent running over it again, and the authorities were notified. The freight train did not proceed on its way until after the body had been removed.

S. S. Corbett was notified and he had the body removed to his undertaking parlors. The body was cut clear in two, and his clothing was badly torn. Death must have been instantaneous. Dr. Ross, coroner, was notified but after making all inquiries possible he decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Dr. Ross stated to-day that he did not hold the company to blame in any way for the accident. He could find no particulars whatever as to how the young man had met his death. His body had been found on the tracks just at daybreak but as to how the accident had occurred he could not say.

The way the body was cut in two would give one the impression that it had been riding on a train and had fallen off. It may be he took to the train to get to his home, the intention being to jump off at the Cataraqui crossing.

He left his home early in the evening. He was the only child and his parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sudden bereavement. Deceased was employed at the locomotive works as a machinist. His father is the township clerk at Cataraqui.

About four years ago the deceased had a leg broken as a result of falling off a train.

ARCHBISHOP PROTESTS Against so Much Ticket Selling in His Parish. From the pulpit of St. Mary's cathedral, on Sunday, Archbishop Gaucher spoke out strongly against so many churches and organizations in his diocese selling tickets in Kingston at the same time and without his permission. Last week tickets were being sold by no less than four Catholic churches and institutions, two of which were outside St. Mary's parish.

Complaints were made to the archbishop against the overlapping, overlapping demands being made at once by the Catholic churches and institutions that wished to sell tickets for religious or charitable objects without secure his permission.

He will remain in Ottawa a day or two as the case of Rural Dean Mackay and will then call to see his old parishioners at Frankville. Letters can be sent to Ottawa.

At the Grand Opera House on Saturday afternoon and evening, before fairly good audiences, the old-time but ever-popular southern farce of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented.

Germs in Her System Every Woman Should Read this Advice and the Generous Offer, that Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names. It is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe on honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.
