POLICEMEN WERE SWORN IN.

Swore Allegiance to King George V. on Wednesday.

A solemn and impressive ceremony took place, in the police court room, at the end of the month, and the police force were lined up and being sworn in by Magistrate Farrell, swore allegiance to King George V. All over the country police constables, officials, and public servants have had to take oaths to serve the new sovereign. The oath reads:

"I do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lord, the King, in the office of police constable for the city of Kingston and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the peace to be kept and preserved, and will prevent all offences against the person and properties of his majesty's subjects, that while I shall continue to hold office. I will to the best of my skill and knowledge, discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law. So help me God."

STREET LIGHTING QUESTION.

Not Likely to be Considered Until Autumn.

It is not likely that the question of improved street lighting will be considered until the autumn. The city council is likely to adjourn for the summer at the end of this month, and the Light, Heat and Power committee is not prepared to report. It will cost $10,000 or $12,000 to renew the system and that means that a by-law for the deputation issue will have to be submitted to the people, which can be done at the January elections. The lighting system can possibly be made to last another year, but it can scarcely be depended upon. When Manager Folger is away to attend the gas meeting at Hamilton next week, he intends going over to Buffalo to view some new air installations.

To Wash Money.

The United States is going to launder its paper money. Only silver certificates will be washed, however, as the ink on the yellow backs and national bank notes will not stand it. Machines will be established in the sub-treasuries costing about $1,000 each, yet saving the American government about $1,000,000 a year.

While no one will refuse a dollar bill because it is dirty, yet clean bills are much more acceptable, and it would be a good idea for the Dominion to get into the laundry business also. Some of the Canadian one and two dollar bills look as if they had been in very dirty hands very often, and could tell a very gruesome story.

Booming the Ross Rifle.

Ottawa Free Press. General Sir John French describes the Ross rifle as "a weapon of unsurpassed range and power." And Sir John French knows more about military needs than a dozen Worthingtons or two dozen Northrops, or even several editors of Ottawa Citizen.

H. B. Mills, general passenger agent for the Thousand Island Steamboat company, has left for Cayton, N.Y., where he will spend the summer. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. E. M. Mills, who will also spend the summer there.

Told in Twilight

Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Bagot street, gave a very delightful bridge, last Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Constance Tandy, when everything passed off splendidly. The rooms were prettily decorated with tulips and white lilac, giving the spring-like air so welcome at this season of the year, and so suitable for bridge-players, of which the guest of honor is one. The hostess' sister, Mrs. Bernard Browne, helped in the entertaining. There were three tables, those playing being Mrs. Andrew Forman, Montreal; Miss Lettice and Miss Constance Tandy, Miss Fitzhugh, Montreal; Miss Mabel Brownfield, Miss Mildred Macmorine, Miss Loretta Swift, Miss Bessie Smythe, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Lillian Kent, Miss Carrie Waldron and Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Carrie Waldron carried off the first prize and the second was won by Miss Bessie Smythe, while the "good luck" prize fell to the lot of the bride-elect, Miss Constance Tandy, who will pass it on to her bride-maid, Mrs. Forman and Mrs. Browne were the only two married ladies invited.

Mrs. Charles E. Taylor held her post-nuptial reception, yesterday, at her new home on East. The youthful bride wore a lovely gown of ivory paillette, en princess, the yoke and sleeve puffs of German net and trimmings of silver bugles and pearls. Mrs. T. F. Harrison, who received with her, was in mauve silk voile, trimmed with satin and lace. In the tea room Mrs. Albert Scott poured coffee and Mrs. Oliver Chown tea, the girls assisting being Mrs. Ernest Sparks, Miss Isabel Polson, Miss Pearl Oldrieve, Miss Addie Toye, Miss Dora Oldrieve, Miss Laura Nicolle and Miss Mildred Selvey. The mahogany table with its centre of pot lilies, made a perfect foil for the mass of gorgeous parrot tulips in the middle. Delicate sprays of lily of the valley were also on the table, the vases standing on Mexican doilies of exquisite fineness. White lilacs filled the drawing-room and were massed in the grate, and above the mantelpiece. Mrs. Taylor had a very busy afternoon for throngs of visitors came and went to and from her pretty home.

Mrs. William Martin, Bowmanville, formerly of Kingston, gave an entertainment at her home last Monday evening, in aid of the English church, her daughter, Miss Helen Martin, came from Guelph to sing and a very interesting lecture was given by Mrs. Yates. A few of Mrs. Martin's friends remained after and enjoyed a dance in this beautiful and hospitable home where Mrs. Martin is an ideal hostess.

Mrs. Charles Lowe's dance on Monday evening, though small, was most enjoyable, it being a very jolly little affair. The sweet scent of lilacs pervaded the rooms, and added that finishing touch which flowers always give, and a very pretty and quaint idea, carried out in the drawing-room, was that of no modern electric light, but simply candles, and the warmth and glow from the fire.

A small and very informal affair was given by Mrs. H. A. Betts, Albert street, this afternoon, for Miss Zelle Burns. It being the hostess' receiving day, she asked a few of Miss Zelle's friends to drop in and give her a small cup and saucer shower. Of course, the usual verses accompanied each parcel, and were read out, causing much amusement.

Mrs. J. B. Walkem and Miss Maud Betts asked a few of their friends for a game of croquet and a cup of tea on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Walkem's pretty home, "Kewadin," is looking its best just now, and on the good smooth lawn the game was much enjoyed by those present.

Rumors are current of a dance at the Yacht Club about the second week in June. This will be highly appreciated by the girls, especially (as one young lady was heard to faintly murmur) if enough partners are provided for all to trip it on the light fantastic toe.

The mess dinner at the barracks, tomorrow evening, promises to be more brilliant than usual with such distinguished personages as General French and Sir Percy Lake as guests of honor.

A small luncheon was given, at the Country Club, on Monday, in honor of Miss Constance Tandy, the bride-elect of June 15th, and her guest, Miss May Fitzhugh, of Montreal.

Mrs. Herbert Robertson, Wellington street, is giving a small bridge, this afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Grange, of Nanapan, who is visiting her.

This afternoon Miss Jessie Dickson, Barrie street, gave a tea and handkerchief shower for Miss Zelle Burns, the bride-elect of June 7th.

Mrs. John Macgillivray, Albert street, was hostess at a small bridge last Friday afternoon.

Tuesday was a busy day at the Country Club, several little luncheons being held there.

Mrs. C. de Carteret, Alfred street, who has been on the sick list, is better, we are glad to hear. Mrs. de Carteret's sister, Mrs. Harris, of Toronto, came down last Saturday to visit her.
