

ORDINATION SERVICE

REV. E. LE ROY RICE AT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

A Large Number at the Service Held on Monday Evening—The Charge to the Pastor and Address to the People.

The First Congregational church was well filled on Monday evening, for the ordination of the minister, Rev. E. Le Roy Rice, B.A. The moderator, Rev. J. K. Unsworth, of Montreal, presided, and after the opening exercises, the minutes were read by Rev. H. D. Whitmore, of Calgary Congregational church. Miss Hazel Massie sang very sweetly, "My Task," and the sermon was preached by Rev. Hugh Pevley, B.A., of Montreal. His text was chosen from 1 Corinthians, xii, 25: "And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues."

The speaker pointed out Paul's conception of a church, where everybody was active, not like some of the churches of to-day, where only perhaps one-third of the members were active. He pointed out how each one could be a helper in church work. A man might take three or four years to become an expert workman, but it would not take him a week to become a helper. If you have power to be an apostle, prophet, or teacher, you should be one. We should be ambitious and reach the highest possible measure of Christian service. To be a helper, there must be willingness, a power which will enable one to get away from his own interests. The very fact that a person was willing, showed that he was a helper.

The church pews should be filled on Sundays, and the Wednesday night meeting as well. All these things would be a power for good. There should be a willingness to serve in all small things, in spite of the fact that you might consider it a humble or common-place task. There should also be sympathy. We should cultivate and allow our hearts to go out to others. The prayer of ordination was offered by Prof. Cooke, of Montreal, and then the right hand of fellowship was extended to Rev. Mr. Rice by Rev. H. D. Whitmore.

The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. Frank J. Day, M.A., B.D., of Zion Congregational church, Montreal, of which Rev. Mr. Rice was a member. He urged the new minister to believe in discipline of difficulties, and the culture of common things. He must keep close to Christ, as it was only through keeping close to Him that he could tell the story of His love. There would be difficulties and burdens in the work, but he should not shirk them. He must live in the thought of growing and expanding life. He must touch the things of every day life.

The speaker expressed the hope that the minister would not enter upon

THE CITY COUNCIL

On the communication of Isaac Smith, asking for relief from payment of taxes on account of inability to pay that the request be not granted.

Regarding the fire committee's recommendation that the department horse, driven by the chief, be sold, Ald. Carson asked if the chief objected to the horse.

"No," replied Ald. Rigney, "the people object to it."

Ald. Carson—"The horse is perfectly safe for going to fire."

The Williamsville Rails.

An agreement between the city and the Street Railway company, giving the latter permission to remove rails on Princess street above Alfred street, was presented to the Board of Works. This agreement provided that the company should have the right to remove the rails between now and 1914 if it desired.

Ald. Elliott pointed out that nothing was said about removing the ties.

Ald. Carson replied that the ties were not to be removed. The company desired only to remove the rails. The city engineer, he said, had recommended the agreement submitted, and reported that there would be three or four inches of macadam over the ties. In its present condition, with the rails uncovered, the road is dangerous, and the city is liable for accidents.

It was decided to refer the agreement to the Board of Works for consideration and to take it up again at the council's next meeting.

K. and P. Railway Leased Land.

A report from the City Solicitor relative to the lands occupied by the K. and P. railway company, was referred to the finance committee, as also was a copy of a report by G. G. Hare, engineer of the company. The latter report stated that the lands held by the company had been valued at $9,410. The rentals received were: From the M. T. company, $450; from S. Anglin & Co., $100; from the Frontenac Coal and Lumber company, $1,225; from Whitney's, $100; from E. Davis & Son, $900; ten boat houses, $10. Total, $2,925. Fifty per cent of the property rented to the Anglins, forty per cent of that rented to Davis & Son and nearly all of that leased to the Frontenac Coal and Lumber company is in fee simple. The balance of the leased lands yields the company $1,570 a year. This matter will be dealt with by the finance committee.

FINANCE RECOMMENDATIONS.

These recommendations of the finance committee were adopted: That the account for repairs to the grand stand at the fair grounds be paid.

Ald. Carson—"The horse is perfectly safe for going to fire."

THE FIRST GAME

IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE ON THURSDAY.

The Executive Had a Meeting to Talk Over Matters—Lawn Bowling in Progress at Queen's Campus.

The junior series will open on Tuesday, June 14th, when the teams from Sydenham street church and St. George's will play. The juniors are also taking a great interest in the game and will make every contest a hard one.

There was another meeting of the Sunday School Baseball League, at the Y.M.C.A. last night, when some further details in regard to the games were arranged. The games will be played in Victoria Park. The umpires have not yet been decided upon.

Lawn Bowling at Queen's.

SPORTING NOTES.

At San Francisco, Gattler Orendorf, of the Los Angeles team, of the Pacific Coast League, was struck on the head by a pitched ball during a game with Oakland, and was injured so severely that he may die.

Corbett revolutionized fighting by introducing footwork. Instead of standing still and parrying, he moved about, stepping in to land a blow and setting away before his opponent could return. Fast, shifty and game, he made men marvel.

"Paddy" Ryan was the first pugilist recognized as the champion of the world. He lost to John L. Sullivan. Sullivan maintained his position as a standup and knockdown fighter until he went down to defeat before that grayhound of the new fighting game, James J. Corbett.

"Jack" Gills, of Vancouver, Canada's all-around champion, underwent a test the other day in the ten events on the all-round programme. He scored 6,972 points. Sheridan's mark last year was 7,130. Gills can do better than he did in the test. The Canuck will leave for New York this week to meet Sheridan.

Governor Hughes was asked by Joseph F. Auerbach, counsel for the New York Jockey Club, to veto the Agnew-Perkins bill prohibiting book-making and making directors of racing associations liable for gambling at race tracks as unworkable. They did not ask for an interpretation of the law, as it was stated was the intention.

Corbett was supreme until he met that master of fighting craft, "Bob" Fitzsimmons, in whom gameness was the ruling element. Fitzsimmons added his famous shift and solar plexus blow to the fighting game's repertoire, and only the massive bulk and terrible left of "Jim" Jeffries took him from his position.

At London, England, T. Payne won a twelve-hour walking race, covering seventy-two miles thirty yards, and breaking the world's amateur record by more than three miles. On Sept. 12th, 1908, T. J. Hammond, the English walker, covered 100 miles in 18 hours, 4 minutes, 15 seconds. He covered 68 miles 335 yards in the first twelve hours of that event, and this had stood as the record.

Jeffries retained the title until there was no one left to meet him, save Johnson, and against him he drew the color line. Jeffries retired, passing the title to Marvin Hart, or rather putting it up for battle and Hart won it. "Tommy" Burns won it from Hart to lose it in Australia to "Jack" Johnson, who will toss it into the ring July 4th, near San Francisco.

The city of Jackson, Mich., believes it has the only blind baseball manager in the world in Albert Taylor, who directs the playing of the City Stars of Jackson. Taylor lost his sight in an accident eight years ago. Two years later he took up the management of the Jackson semi-professional baseball club and has had marked success. Taylor is manager in every sense of the word. He sits on the bench with the players and is considered in every detail of the game.

WILL MEET IN KINGSTON.

Came to the Graduation.

Dr. Wilson Herald is spending the summer with his family at Godrich, Mrs. (Dr.) Herald enjoyed her visit very much at Kingston during the time of Queen's College graduating exercises and was proud of the good standing of her nephew, Mr. Ewart, who now holds a situation in Medicine Hat, Mrs. Herald accompanied her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ewart, and daughter, Miss Jacqueline, to Kingston.

Supper to Grand Officers.

Dr. J. H. Bell, grand medical examiner of the C.O.C.F., Hamilton, formerly of this city, recently gave a supper to the grand officers of the order at his residence, No. 7 Walder avenue. Mrs. F. McKelvey Bell, of Ottawa, was present to assist Mrs. J. H. Bell. The residence was beautifully decorated with smilax, ferns and carnations.
